the Riddle, the appointments being extremely dainty and artistic.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained at an elaborate dinner on Thanksgiving day.

MAY WED GOELET.

It was expected that the engagement of Robert Goelet to the Philadelphia beauty would have been made at the time of the Roxburgh wedding, but for various reasons it has been postponed. Miss Elsie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whelen. It is probable that the formal announcement will be made later.

WEDDING BELLS

The wedding of Miss Mathilde Dern and James C. Dick on Wednesday night ranks among the notable social events of the season. The affair took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dern, the rooms being most beautiful in their decorations of cut flowers, vines and palms. The drawing room was in white and green with the exception of a cluster of American Beauty roses which stood on the mantel, giving the needed touch of warm color to the effect. A canopy of plumosa with plants and palms formed a bower for the bridal party, and white chrysanthemums and carnations were about the room. The library was brilliant in its red carnations, shades, and clusters of American Beauty roses, and the dining room was done in white and green, the arrangement being most artistic. An orchestra was stationed in the rear hall and during the service played the "Bridal Chorus," Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and Schubert's "Serenade." The matron of honor, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham came first, followed by Miss June McIntyre, as bridesmaid, and after her the bride, on the arm of her father. They were met inside the drawing room by the groom and his best man, Mr. Walter

Another pretty bridal event of Wednesday was the wedding of Miss Katherine De Groot and Francis A. Anderson, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. T. De Groot, Rev. W. H. Fish Jr. of the First Unitarian church officiating. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlor in which the ceremony was performed being transformed into a pretty bower with its profusion of flowers and greens. The bride wore an exquisite costume of white crepe de chine, with lace trimmings and a tulle veil with shower bouquet of roses, completed the toilet. The bridesmaid Miss Ella Schulte, was prettily gowned in pink crepe de chine. Mr. George De Groot was best man. An elaborate supper was served after the ceremony, the table being beautifully decorated. The bridal party was assisted in receiving by Mrs. De Groot, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Helen Fritsch-Penner of Chicago, and the Misses Paula Schulte and Hulda Fritsch. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home after Dec. 1, at 530 east First South street.

A MILITARY COAT.

This coat shows a new cape effect, with the long point over the arm and the fronts held back with cord loops and brass buttons. The collar shows cording of black, white and gold, the same effect being repeated on the cuffs. The sleeves are of novel cut, set into a very deep double cuff. The back fastens invisibly in front, the cord and tassels being ornamental.

meeting tonight at the Exponent office. Fox: Thanksgiving story, written by Mrs. Annie Schiller; paper, by Dr. B. B. Pratt, on the Cuban question before Congress, and discussion by the members.

MEHESY, The Furrier.

Get Your Furs!

The Weather Man Says.

YOU DON'T need a weather man to tell you that it is high time to be ready for a cold wave. The date line of this paper is enough warning for that. Maybe you know the best place to get your Furs, and maybe you don't. If you haven't seen the Mehesy stock, you're going it blind against your own interest—not only in the matter of price, but in good making. The mere item of having been made at Mehesy's makes all the difference between a fur that will keep its stylish shape and freshness, and the kind of fur that you will soon be sorry to own at any price. It is this continued goodness, through long wear, that distinguishes Mehesy Furs.
