MILES ROMNEY DEAD.

Advices from Mexico tell of the death at Durban, Chihuahua, Feb. 24, of Elder Miles P. Romney, brother of Bishop George Romney and a well known and highly respected resident of that section. The demise of Elder Romney was very sudden. He was president of the High Priests' quorum of the Juarez Stake, and in this capacity had just returned from a ten days' trip among the settlements of Sonora, feeling very tired. At 9 o'clock in the evening he retired, quite unwell, and a few minutes later was seized with a pain in the region of the heart. Fearing he was going to die he asked his wife to send for the rest of the family, but before they arrived he had passed to the great beyond.

Miles P. Romney was born in Nauvoo, Ill., August 18, 1843, being, therefore, in his sixty-first year. He came to Utah in 1859, where he lived until about 25 years ago, when he moved to Arizona, and in 1885 he went to Mexico. He was an honest, consistent Latter-day Saint, and had filled two missions, one to England in 1862, and the other to the northwestern states in 1875. He leaves a large family, besides two brothers, Bishop George Romney of this city, and Thomas Romney, of Montana.

HOODOO AUTO.

Once More Famous Motor Car is Responsible for a Blaze.
The blacksmith shop owned by Oblad & Knight, at 145 east First South street, had a narrow escape from destruction by fire shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Only the timely discovery of the blaze and the prompt response of the firemen and their quick and effective work saved the building.

A hoodoo automobile was responsible for the fire. It was the same machine that exploded at the Miller hotel a few weeks ago and caused an alarm of fire. The auto was taken to the blacksmith shop a day or two ago for repairs. It was hoisted up stairs to the paint shop and yesterday a workman took the machine to pieces and piled up some oil and gasoline soaked waste in the corner of the shop. This stuff ignited. It is supposed, from spontaneous combustion, and in a few minutes the roof was ablaze. A street car man who happened to be passing, saw the flames and quickly notified the fire department across the street. Almost before the echo of the big gun had died away, the firemen were dashing across the street with the chemical, and extinguished the blaze without the use of the big hose. The heat was very intense, and besides practically destroying the automobile, did considerable damage to several newly painted vehicles.

A new wagon owned by the Franklin Candy company, had just been painted white with gold decorations. After the blaze the rig was a beautiful yellow. All this work will have to be done over. A hole was burned in the roof of the building, and the floor was somewhat damaged. Had the fire reached the paint and varnish stacked in one corner of the room, that entire building might have been destroyed.

Chief Devine estimates the loss on the building at about $150 and the loss on contents notified of the automobile at $300. Including the hoodoo machine the damage will reach close to $1,000. Mr. Oblad stated that the place was insured for $500 in the Baltimore Firemen's company.

VITAL STATISTICS.

Busy Stork Leaves Fifty-One Packages This Week.
The report of the board of health for the week ending March 12 shows a report of 51 births, 30 males and 21 females. The death report for the same period numbers 30, of which 17 were males and 13 females. Two cases of scarlet fever were reported during the week, making four cases in quarantine at close of this report. The cases of diphtheria were reported during the week. There were six cases of small-pox reported, one removed, leaving eight cases in the city present. Ten cases of whooping cough reported and one of typhoid fever.

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.

John Clayton, an Old-Time Resident of Salt Lake, Called Home.
John Clayton, who for 45 years has been a resident of Salt Lake, died this morning at his home, 483 F street, from senile debility, aged 83 years. The deceased was a native of Lancashire, England, and came to Utah in 1859, after having lived for some time in the states. He was baptized into the faith of the church of Latter-day Saints by President Angus M. Cannon and remained faithful to its doctrines to his dying day. He leaves three sons, his wife having passed away five years ago. The funeral will be held from the late residence on Monday, March 14, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited.

PAINTED IN COURT ROOM.

Mrs. Jaeschke Overcome by Son's Commitment to Reform School.
Overcome by grief because her boy was committed to the reform school by Judge Morse yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Martha Jaeschke collapsed in the court room at a late hour and was in a dead faint for over an hour before she was restored to consciousness. The woman had refused to leave the court room after her son, George Jaeschke, was committed and taken back to jail and she remained there crying and sobbing until she was finally overcome. Her condition was not discovered until about 4:45 when Deputy Sheriff Parley White was notified that the woman was still in the court room and lying there unconscious. Mr. White, assisted by one of the young ladies in the county clerk's office, worked with the unfortunate woman for over an hour before she was brought back to consciousness. She was then taken into the sheriff's office and her husband, August Jaeschke, accused her in the court room, after the commitment of the boy, of being responsible for his downfall. But she had fainted to properly look after him.

PROF. CLARK'S RECITALS.

Our readers will notice on another page the announcement of a series of 18 dramatic and interpretative readings to be given next week and the week following by Professor S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago. He comes here with the highest recommendations and is a dramatic reader. It will be remembered that he was here last year about this time, and those who heard him—especially in his lecture, "The Tragic Ideal"—will not forget the effect of his dramatic voice and presence. This, together with the fact that he is here under the auspices of the educational institutions of the city, student guarantee, if any were needed, that a program of very high literary excellence has been arranged. We commend these readings to the general public.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

HERE'S A DESCRIPTION WITH THE "IF'S" AND "DOUBTS" ELIMINATED.
I suppose in order to appease the curiosity of many persons who have followed my career as a real estate dealer and homebuilder with scrupulous care, I will now, in order to get into detail in describing the location of my new offices at 23-34 Main Street, which I expect to occupy about March 15th to 20th.

As descriptions to be worthy must be accurate, I will begin by stating that the most direct opposition my new location will be located in the Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution. This large concern, no doubt, is looking forward to my coming move with much secret pleasure, for they realize that there will be "something going" on that block, when we get located.
In this connection I will state without egotism that I expect, not only to make my efforts to prosper, but to make my locality useful to myself, but with an inborn spirit of unselfishness, I will never fail to think my neighbors' interests.

Now turn to a more careful description of my location than can be grasped from the mere street number, 23-34 Main Street. I like to be explicit and direct in making my business location, so to embellish the facts, I will begin by stating that McCormick's bank will be on one corner south of my offices, the Deseret National and Deseret Savings Bank on another, while the Utah State Bank will be directly south, about 500 feet from my front door.

On the corner to the north will be located, when got settled, the Deseret News Building, a great ornament to Salt Lake, and the home of a great newspaper. I understand that the location of this building is delighted to hear that I am about to occupy 23-34 Main Street, for they say that as all roads lead to McCormick's offices, the shorter the road the better.

A little further north, on the same side of the street as my location, McCormick's bank has its ample capped dome, and if you were to stand in the front door of my offices and look northwardly, you would observe the Zion's Savings Bank, occupying the lower floor of the Temple Building. Yes, from every point of view, my location is already great advantage this location has over the other business locations.
