

TICKET NAMED BY CONVENTION.

The Republicans, at Yesterday's Gathering, Express Their Preference for County Officers.

SOME INTERESTING CONTESTS.

Mackey and Miller for Commissioners, Emery for Sheriff and Eldredge for Clerk.

- COUNTY NOMINEES. Commissioners—Long term, John C. Mackey; short term, E. D. Miller. Clerk—J. U. Eldredge, Jr. Treasurer—W. O. Carbis. Sheriff—C. Frank Emery. Attorney—Farley P. Christensen. Assessor—C. M. Brown. Auditor—J. M. Fisher. Recorder—F. O. Perkins. Surveyor—J. B. Swenson. CITY NOMINEES. City Judges—Christopher B. Diehl and Joseph J. Whitaker. Justice of the Peace—Dana T. Smith. Constable—W. F. Hills.

Above is the result of the Republican county convention held yesterday. As expected, the convention developed some interesting contests, but all were waged in good-natured fashion and few were even though defeated, that there were, even though philosophical. Contrary to reports, there were no soreheads as a result of the nominations, and it is safe to say that the elected candidates will work just as vigorously for the success of the ticket as they would have done had they been successful in the convention. When the "News" report closed yesterday afternoon the convention was in the midst of nominations. The order of business being changed to comply with that printed in the official call, the first to receive attention were the nominations for county commissioners. J. B. White named Henry M. Standish, R. G. Schulder named J. N. Stearns, Jr.; H. E. Booth named E. D. Miller; George B. Squires, speaking for that termed "the hayseeds," named C. Mackey; and H. A. Smith nominated John H. McAllister.

MACKAY AND MILLER. The first ballot gave Mackey 232, Standish 174, Miller 189, Pickering 85, Sharp 47 and McAllister 28. Mr. Mackey being the only one who received a majority of the votes cast, and declared the nominee of the convention for the long term, and a second ballot was ordered to determine the choice of the convention for the short term. Before the vote was taken, Standish and McAllister withdrew, leaving but Standish, Miller and Pickering in the field. The vote was: Miller, 212; Standish 114; and Pickering 85. Mr. Miller was declared nominated.

ELDRIDGE FOR CLERK. The text in order was the nomination for county clerk. H. C. Edwards presented the name of J. U. Eldredge, Jr., and as no others were placed in nomination the rules were suspended and Mr. Eldredge was ordered placed on the ticket by acclamation.

CARBIIS FOR TREASURER. For county treasurer, George B. Squires presented the name of W. O. Carbis, the present incumbent, while E. D. Miller named John A. Groesbeck, and the name nominated was W. H. Farnsworth. Carbis won on the first ballot, the vote being, Carbis 223; Groesbeck 101; and Farnsworth 71.

EMERY BY ACCLAMATION. The contest for sheriff was not so heated as was expected. When nominations were called for H. E. Booth took the floor and presented the name of C. Frank Emery. This caused some discussion in the nature of a stampede and the convention, almost to a man, shouted for Emery. For a moment the name of Emery and it was plain to be seen that Mr. Emery was the choice of the delegates. At this juncture a motion was made to suspend the rules and nominate him by acclamation, but this was already objected to. Another attempt to suspend the rules and nominate Mr. Emery by acclamation proved successful, and in this way the gentleman was declared the unanimous choice of the convention. The other candidates for the place, W. S. Taylor and George Buckle, were not mentioned.

CHRISTENSEN BEATS IRVINE. For county attorney, Farley P. Christensen was named by H. A. Smith and Alton R. Irvine by H. C. Edwards. The fight was one of the hottest of the convention and resulted in the nomination of Mr. Christensen. The vote was: Christensen, 291; Irvine, 192. At 4:19 the convention took a recess until 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION. Assessor, Auditor, Recorder and Surveyor by Acclamation. The business of continuing the nominations was proceeded with at once upon the opening of the evening session. C. M. Brown, the present assessor, was nominated for assessor, receiving 224 votes against 13 cast for William Groesbeck, his only competitor. Judge Frick surrendered the chair to make a nominating speech in favor of J. M. Fisher for auditor. He succeeded in having his candidate nominated by acclamation. The office of county recorder, A. W. Harkness was nominated by W. R. Williams and Percy O. Perkins by the other delegates. Smith withdrew before the ballot, and Perkins received the nomination by acclamation. In the case of nominations for county surveyor, Samuel J. Paul was named against Joseph H. Swenson, the present incumbent. When the ballot had been counted as far as the Forty-seventh district, the strength of Swenson

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?) James G. Blaine arrived at Philadelphia on a stumping tour, and was given an immense demonstration. The Salt Lake City council listened to petitions protesting against the granting of a franchise to the Salt Lake & Port Douglas railway. E. J. Hawes killed an elk weighing 600 pounds in Logan canyon.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY. H. A. Wadsworth arrived in San Francisco from Honolulu for the purpose of filing a damage suit against the United States government, in favor of Queen Liloukalanui, on account of the part played by the cruiser Boston in securing the queen's overthrow.

In a fight between two sheep herders in Farley's canyon, Giuseppe Mirano was killed.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY. The Transvaal was given a delay until Oct. 5, to answer to the final demands of England, the delay being considered a playing for time on account of unpreparedness for war, by the British press.

President Snow took possession of the Beehive house, as President of the Church. In a wreck on the Rio Grande Western at Florence, Colo., six people were killed and five injured.

was so apparent that Paul withdrew, and left his opponent to be nominated by acclamation.

COUNTY COMMITTEE. For the new county committee the following were selected: Salt Lake City, Joseph P. McKnight, Howard King; Andrew precinct, J. DeG. Dixon, Andrew J. Cronin; Third precinct, J. H. Garrett, George A. Davis; Fourth precinct, Ralph Guthrie, Joseph C. Sharp; Fifth precinct, Joseph W. Cottle, H. H. Smith; county, W. H. Roberts, William B. Jones, Seth Pixton, Samuel Parry, Charles E. Nicholas. After authorizing the committee to fill any vacancies that might occur on the ticket, the convention adjourned until today.

CITY TICKET NAMED.

Diehl and Whitaker for Judges and Smith for Justice. The city delegates to the county convention remained in their seats last night after adjournment, and proceeded to nominate two city judges, one justice of the peace, and one constable. The meeting was called to order by Chairman C. F. Looftbour, who called on T. L. Irvine to read the call. Ralph Guthrie was appointed temporary chairman, and upon motion the temporary organization was made permanent. To assist Secy. Irvine in counting the ballot, J. M. Campbell, W. J. Moore, S. T. Timpon and W. H. Tobias were appointed. There were six candidates for the position of city clerk—John M. Bovey, Van Pelt, Whitaker, Henry V. Van Pelt, Christopher B. Diehl, D. H. "Tommy" and Theodosius Boldt. The first ballot resulted in Bowman receiving 110, Whitaker, 142, Van Pelt 83, Diehl 156, "Tommy," 42 and Boldt, 20. As Diehl and Whitaker had received the necessary majority of all votes cast, they were declared nominated.

Dana T. Smith received the nomination for justice of the peace by acclamation. For constable, W. F. Hills won the nomination with 142 votes against 122 received by Thomas Mulholland.

LETTER TO DUBOIS.

Some Past History in Political Life of Idaho Storm Starter.

The following open letter to Senator Fred T. Dubois, who is now directing the destinies of the Democratic party in Idaho and who has succeeded in shaping the Democratic platform and ticket to suit his own ends, appears in the Pocatello Tribune of Wednesday last. It says: Hon. Fred T. Dubois, United States Senator of Idaho:

Dear Sir—You are the son of that celebrated Doctor Jesse K. Dubois of Springfield, Illinois, the bosom friend of the immortal Abraham Lincoln and one of the founders of the Republican party. You were nurtured in an atmosphere of Republicanism and of party loyalty. You came to Idaho, then a young territory, and received your first office, that of United States marshal, at the hands of a Republican president, and through the influence of Republicans. A little later on you organized the old anti-Mormon party, which was elected in the southeast, and you were effective as delegate to Congress—a Republican in the North and an anti-Mormon in the South. This office you were twice honored with. Still later on when statehood was acquired, you were honored by a Republican legislature with the election to the United States senate, winning the six year term from George L. Shoup and W. J. McConnell.

Toward the end of your term you became a so-called Silver Republican, leading the bolting delegation from the St. Louis National convention and carrying two-thirds of the Republican party of Idaho with you. I was a delegate to the Pocatello state convention which sent you and your associates to St. Louis, and I supported you because I believed your position on the money question to be a correct one. The present Senator Heyburn was the only man in that whole convention who had the courage to rise and plead that the Republicans of Idaho remain loyal to the national party, and he was supported by a mere half dozen. He was jeered at and Senator Shoup, our national committee man, was refused the empty honor of an election as delegate from Idaho. After the bolt at St. Louis you immediately began negotiations with William J. Bryan, presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket. By this time, however, the Populist party had become a formidable faction and one to be reckoned with. In fact, it was the dominant party of Idaho and one contended more vigorously against this tenet and practise of the Mormon Church than myself. It was a fierce fight for years, and in my feeble way I did all I could to suppress it, and this helped us to do it. "It is folly and waste of time for senators to undertake to demonstrate here now that polygamy is a live issue. It is dead." And one more referring to your memorable speech in the United States senate: "I am not anxious for the amendment and do not want it, because it is not necessary. Polygamy is dead and cannot be made more dead." Now, my dear senator, since when this wonderful change of heart, and for what purpose? There has been no state election in Idaho to indicate that conditions have changed since that time. Why have you deserted those whom, only a few months ago, you so gallantly championed? Is your present attitude at all consistent? Either you were grievously in error then, or you are now. It seems hardly possible that with all the thought given the matter by you for many years you should be led into the error of misstatement before the United States senate. So what are we to believe? Sincerely yours, EX-SILVER REPUBLICAN.

BOLD HOLDUP IN WYOMING.

J. H. Farley Relieved of Valuables On the State Reserve.

(Special to the "News.") Thermopolis, Wyo., Sept. 23.—J. H. Farley, a business man, was held up by a bold masked highwayman on the state reserve near town last night and relieved of his valuables. The robbery was the most daring piece of outlawry ever perpetrated here. There is no clue to the highwayman.

A BIG SHEEP SALE.

Mr. Austin of Heber City Ships 9,000 By Rail to Kansas City.

John E. Austin of Heber City, a brother of the "sugar business," has just returned from a business trip to Kansas City, bringing with him the proceeds of one of the regular big shipments of sheep made by his firm. Mr. Austin loaded 9,000 head of sheep in 29 cars at Heber City recently, making two full train loads. In charge of nine men, the trains were sent to Kansas City, where a good market was immediately secured. Mr. Austin says it is better than he has known it for years. He obtained $5.65 a hundred for May lambs, and having been given a favorable freight rate by the roads, he was well satisfied with his net bargain. The sheep owned by Mr. Austin and his brothers are wintered on the Utah reservation, but he says they will have to seek new pastures after next spring, when the reservation is to be thrown open to settlers.

RAILROAD NEWS.

News comes from Omaha that trains on the Salt Lake Route between Salt Lake and Los Angeles will be making through trips within the next 60 days. This information is probably a little premature in view of the fact that only very recently the announcement was made that an order had been given the Pullman company for the construction of several special trains for this particular service, and it would be a physical impossibility for the Pullman company to turn out this equipment within this time even if the shops were running to their fullest capacity, which they are not, several thousand employees having been laid off a few weeks ago and which have not yet been reinstated.

The officials of the road have set Jan. 1 as the date when the line will be practically completed, but it may be some time after that before a regular through train service will be installed. In connection with the work going on along the Salt Lake Route may be mentioned the fact that within a few days 1,000 electric lights will be installed at Stockton in order to permit of working being done by night as well as by day. A dynamo and plant for generating light have been received from the Southern Pacific and as soon as they are installed the steam shovel which is at work at that point will be in operation by night. from Belgium for the Salt Lake Route was received at San Francisco a few days ago and loaded on cars for shipment to this city. They will replace the light rails now in use below Lynn Junction. Assistant general freight agent J. A. Reeves of the Oregon Short Line is expected to return from St. Louis tomorrow. Traffic Manager T. M. Schumacher of the Oregon Short Line left this morning for Chicago and other eastern points to be gone several weeks. During his absence he will attend a meeting of Harriman traffic officials in Chicago.

A special from Chicago says that as rapidly as the change can be brought about, the management of the Burlington system has determined to substitute the telephone for the telegraph in dispatching and operating both passenger and freight trains. The announcement was made after the conclusion of comprehensive tests that have been in progress for several years on various parts of the system. The Denver, Northwestern & Pacific has definitely located the route of its proposed road through Routt county, Colo. From Hot Sulphur Springs in Grand county the line will run west to Kremmling, then northwest to Steamboat Springs, following the Bear River westward, passing through Hayden and Craig, through Yampa canyon into Utah at the junction of the Yampa and Green rivers, 176 miles. Profiles have been made and bids for grading will soon be asked.
