

DESERET EVENING NEWS

The Semi-Weekly News.

is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

School teachers and janitors will receive their October pay tomorrow. Miss Maud Hampton has returned home from a two-weeks' trip to the fair at St. Louis.

W. M. Bransford has ordered a $6,250 touring automobile which will be one of the finest machines of the kind in the west.

The University club will have a ladies' night tomorrow evening, when R. P. Hayward, the engineer, will talk on electricity.

Colorado apples are selling in the Salt Lake market at $1.25 per bushel. Utah apples are retailing at 25 and 40 cents per bushel. A carload of bananas arrived last evening.

The many friends of Edwin Dowden, who was killed in an accident several days ago, will be pleased to learn of his improvement, although his condition is still critical.

Justice of the Peace McMille of Murray has released Chris Johnson under $200 bonds. Johnson has been held on suspicion of being implicated in the recent burglary at Murray.

Secretary J. B. Miller of the Salt Lake Real Estate association will have an article on Utah's wealth in the November number of the Frontier Magazine of Colorado Springs.

A special wire will be run into the office of the University club on election day, so that the returns from all over the state and Union will be received there during the evening.

President Beatty of the Salt Lake Charities association has appointed Rev. W. H. Fish, Jr., John J. Daly, Jenner K. Smith, W. C. Lys and Louis Cohen to prepare articles of incorporation.

The appointments of F. L. Libby and Eldon L. Clowless as clerks in the Salt Lake postoffice have been confirmed by the department at Washington. Mr. Libby has been assigned to the distributing department, and Mr. Clowless to the mailing department.

Secy. J. Q. Cannon of the Utah-wool fair commission, in receipt of a letter from Director General Whitaker at St. Louis stating there is a likelihood of the model concentration plant in the Utah section having to shut down in a few days on account of the frosty weather.

A. W. Smith & Co. have filed articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office. The capital stock of the company is $10,000, divided into shares of the par value of $100 each. The incorporators are A. W. Smith, J. B. Smith, Walter Bryant, A. W. Beam and C. W. Olson.

County Attorney Whitaker has issued a complaint against C. H. Crockett charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. The complaint was sworn to by Patrick Daffaro, who claims that Crockett got $100 from him on May 9 by giving him a mortgage on some household goods he did not own.

Bishop Scanlan is back from Helper, where he has been in the interest of Catholic church work. He is pushing construction on the cathedral as fast as possible, but has been greatly delayed by inability of lumber dealers on the coast to fill the cathedral order promptly. Scarcity of cars is alleged to be the trouble.

The Bohemian club organized by H. S. Krouse some years ago, and which later fell into a state of innocuous desuetude, has been rejuvenated, and is now re-established in its own hall on the second floor of the old St. Mark's schoolhouse. Willard Weis is the president, and the membership at present consists of 25 prominent musicians and newspaper men.

The smoky haze that covers pretty much the entire valley early every morning, is now laid at the door or rather the stacks of the smelters in the southern part of the county. The haze extends as far as the eye can reach. It is claimed that the smelters consume all of their smoke and fumes, so that there is no trouble whatever from that source.

New articles of incorporation of the Salt Lake Dramatic association have been filed with the county clerk. The life of the corporation under the new articles has been extended from 25 to 75 years. It was first incorporated in 1874, and hence its charter had about expired. Its capital stock is $100,000, and it has nearly 200 stockholders. The company owns the Salt Lake Theater. Joseph P. Smith is president and Gov. Wells is secretary.

Lieut.-Colonel Frank West, Inspector-General of the department of the Colorado, came in last evening from headquarters at Denver. He has not been here since May 29 last, and wanted to know everything that had been done at the post and in the city offices ever since that date. He is at the fort this afternoon, making things lively and interesting for everybody from the commanding officer down, and is working his investigating stick vigorously.

The attention of the city transit officer has been called to the case of several children of school age, named Peterson, living on Second West street, between Tenth and Eleventh South. One of the little girls has been peddling notions about the streets and telling pathetic tales about a father ill with typhoid and a sick mother, etc. Investigation in their case shows that the father recovered from typhoid over a year ago, and the mother was not sick.

Three Greeks were separated from $43.80 yesterday by a Murray justice, for the offense of selling fish in the Jordan. They were caught fishing in the way their mother taught them, and claimed to be ignorant of the different laws in the United States regarding fishing fashions. The judge, however, read them the statute on the ignorance of the law which excuses no man, and fined two of them $10 and costs, while the third he assessed $15 and costs, the whole amount totaling $43.80.

The Mexican Land & Sugar company was organized yesterday afternoon with the following officers: President, W. W. Cluff; vice president, James Chipman; treasurer, Frank Knox. A secretary will be chosen this afternoon, and the amount of stock decided on. The company owns 37,000 acres of land in the state of Tamaulipas, which adjoins Central America, south of the Bay of Campeche, and it is proposed to colonize as much of the tract as possible and raise sugar, cotton, tobacco, and pine apples. Saw mills will be extensively used.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?)

Cleveland and Blaine both arrived in New York from extensive campaign tours in private trains, and each candidate received a great demonstration in the evening.

Governor Murray of Utah went on the stump for the Liberal party, then recently organized.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

Buenos Ayres was shaken up by an earthquake in which over 1,900 people were killed.

A Union Pacific train coming through Echo canyon was struck by a huge boulder which became loosened from an overhanging cliff and rolled down on to the track.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

The Populist campaign came to a climax in Utah with a rally in the Salt Lake Theater.
