Cut Glass at Half Prices is a strong argument in favor of saving money. It is high grade—or we would tell you so. The reason for the astonishing reduction right here at Christmas times is simply because it is too difficult to sell in the Basement. For the holiday season we have removed the line to the center of the store on the first floor, where opportunity is given to display it to the best advantage.

For the same reasons quadruple silverware is cut one-half.

SKATES—In the Basement.

THE INTENT OF THE STORE IS THAT WHAT YOU BUY SHALL FIT THE NEEDS OF THE RECIPIENT OF THE GIFT—NOT MERELY THAT HE—THAT SHE—SHALL BE SATISFIED WITH THE PURCHASE BUT THAT IT SHALL SATISFACTORILY SERVE THE REAL PURPOSE, UTILE AND ARTISTIC, IN THE HOUSE OR FOR PERSONAL USE.

THIS INSTITUTION will hang up its stocking Christmas Eve. It will be filled—indeed it is being filled now but it shall be hung up just as though it were empty. We know quite well what is being put into the stocking. The public is filling it and we are simply looking on and offering encouragement. The contents are composed of an overwhelming trade; the fullest confidence of the people and an appreciation of our prices and merchandise. That's the present that is now being prepared for us.

This will be a great week—a week of tremendous shopping. The store is beautiful—bedecked in evergreen, holly and massive snowballs from which smaller ones suspend. Over the magnificent stairway to the Basement hangs a majestic evergreen bell almost red with immortelles. Others grace the entrance to the store. The spacious aisles, the daylight effect, and the high ceilings make one feel that, though the store is crowded, there is no jostling—just an animated, surging throng of Christmas shoppers, each one enjoying leisurely buying.
