

picture (1894) of a boy whittling. This water color and splendid criticism from artists in Paris. Three boys in oils is another fine composition by the same artist. His new picture comes in the form of "The Young Pioneer," a study of a little boy, holding a arrow, with a dead bird by his side. The picture is not so strong when it comes to drawing as the others shown by him.

John Hafen shows excellent taste and dignified work in his lake scene and his landscape. Evening Among the Wasatch Mountains is considered by many competent to judge one of the gems of the exhibit.

H. L. A. Culmer has five landscapes entered. Two of the best being one of a desert scene painted on the occasion of his recent trip into southeastern Utah, and a small picture adjacent showing the mountains bathed in a sunset glow.

For a young man showing promise Donald Beaudreau bids fair to be heard from in art circles later. His study of a flock of sheep grazing on the mountain side is receiving a number of favorable comments.

Dan Weggeland, the pioneer artist, has a new picture, The Pioneers, which is in line with his previous efforts. He also shows a study of Munchareez's Christ Before Pilate.

CHINA PAINTING. Adjacent to the picture gallery is a very interesting and artistic exhibition of china painting, several show pieces being devoted to the work of Miss Adah F. Bett, Mrs. Josephine McClellan and Mrs. E. Cummings. The latter has several pieces of original quaint design that are attracting considerable favorable comment. L. Desroff also has a very fine display of pyrography and painted work on wood.

BLIND SEE; DEAF HEAR. Not the least interesting feature of the exhibition is the work of the pupils of the state school for the deaf and the blind under the direction of Prof. Frank M. Leigler. This exhibit the fair visitor sees the deaf child speak and the blind child see. The exhibit is somewhat unfortunate in its location, being situated on northwest end of the big building which contains the main part of the exhibit. The deaf children on one side and a lens-grinding studio on the other. However, handicapped as it is the crowds that have gathered around the exhibit during the past two days are augmented in numbers every five minutes.

The exhibit consists of samples of work of various departments of the institution—hand made shoes from the shop, furniture from the cabinet shop, tools made by the blacksmith's shop, a gown from the dress-making class, bottled fruit put up by the domestic science classes, dollies and center pieces, hatmaking work, crayon, charcoal and ink drawings, work in knit and crochet work by the blind girls, samples of printing from the type department and a map of South America modeled in putty by one of the blind pupils.

Not the least interesting exhibits are two gold medals won by the pupils at the St. Louis world's fair and at the State fair here four years ago.

But essentially the most interesting part of the exhibit to the layman is the daily demonstration which is held during the life of the fair at 11 a. m., 2 p. m., 4 and 8 p. m. Here may be seen a class of seven year old deaf children speaking plainly enough to be understood by everybody and understanding by reading the lips what the teacher has to say. These little boys read and write as readily as any pupils of their age. One of the boys in the institution one year and his progress during this time has been marvellous. They greatly pleased President McDonald today by speaking very clearly his name when it was written upon the blackboard.

BRAINS IN FINGER TIPS. The class of four blind pupils also give a most interesting exhibition of two beginners and two from a slightly grade. These children seem to have grey matter in their finger tips from the manner in which they "see" the raised dots upon the printed page with their fingers. They use the system of writing and reading is the American Braille. With this system books of all kinds including mathematics, music and classics are printed by United States government which has established all institutions for the blind gratis. One of the most wonderful exhibitions given this morning was by Jamie McCallan of Denyoga, Ida. This young lady could read and write as well as any Remington typewriter, and wrote a sentence as neatly as the best typist could and in practically the same time.

Another feature of the exhibition will be a duet on the violin and piano between Thomas Bidduph of Hooper, Utah, and Jamie McCallan, as soon as the piano arrives this evening.

In addition there was a demonstration on the piano by pupils of the sixth and eighth grades on oral and manual work.

From first to last the demonstration impresses the spectator with the idea that the state school for the deaf and blind is in every sense of the word a school and not an asylum, as the headless often refer to it.

On Thursday morning the "babies" will come down from the mountain and what they can do in the way of reading and writing. The classes are stopping at the Southern hotel here while in the city and are enjoying their stay hugely.

RUIT AWARDS. Salt Lake and Weber Counties Divide Honors So Far.

The judges in the fruit and vegetable departments started in earnest this morning and made good progress owing to enforcing the rule that none of the exhibitors should hang around while the decisions were being made. LYNCH WILL LEAD THE REPUBLICANS by Chairman Willard Hanson, was adopted unanimously. It is as follows: "The Republican party of Salt Lake in convention assembled congratulates the people upon their unprecedented victory in state and national affairs and commends and endorses with heartfelt approval the successful and pre-eminent administration of Theodore Roosevelt. We emphasize the principle that municipal government is most successful when in accord with national politics, and believe that our own advancement is greatest under the party that stands for peace, progress and prosperity, and we pledge the people of Salt Lake that we shall pursue in local affairs the same honest and fearless administration of accomplishment which characterizes the Republican party in the nation. The Republican party has fearlessly met and successfully settled every question with which it has been confronted, and can and will successfully secure all desirable citizens, willing to work for the best interests of Salt Lake at the present time. We believe that the water question is of prime importance to the citizens of Salt Lake, and should not be clouded by obscure, irrelevant and immaterial issues, which live only in the shadow of the past. In the next decade the population of Salt Lake should be doubled, and the Republican party, well-meaning and patriotic citizens, willing to aid in the advancement of Salt Lake City, insists in installing a water system which will supply every want of the city, present and future."

ECONOMY PLEDGED. The Republican party has always safeguarded the people's interests and in all municipal improvements will see to it that not one dollar of the people's money shall be diverted from the purpose for which it was voted, and that wise judgment be exercised in the expenditure of the same, and maintain further, that the labor on all municipal work shall be performed by local working people, and that such labor be paid at the prevailing market rate. We denounce as unjust and outrageous the present wasteful and extravagant administration, which, in spite of the increased valuation in property, has increased the city taxes from nine to 11 mills, and yet has virtually nothing to show for the expenditure of the money. Sidewalks and streets have been paved on paper, and other imaginary improvements made during the interval of the term in the street department, while the people are being taxed to maintain its incompetency.

We commend the efficiency of the police department, which, under Republican guidance, has attained a standard of excellence before unknown in the history of the city.

FAVOR A "SQUARE DEAL." The Republican party has always stood for fairness and justice to all men, honesty and integrity in all things municipal and national, and a "square deal" to every man.

Believing that the Republican party of Lincoln, McKinley and Roosevelt is great enough to solve every question of local or national importance, we deplore every effort and are unalterably opposed to every measure which has for its purpose the severing of party ties and the alignment of citizens along other than political lines.

THERE WERE TWO SLATES. There were two slates before the convention, at the head of both, however, is the name of Chief of Police William J. Lynch as the nominee for mayor. One slate is a mixture of both "Mormons" and Gentiles.

The non-"Mormon" ticket presents the following candidates: Recorder, T. C. Ortel; attorney, W. H. Hutchinson; treasurer, W. E. Bassett; auditor, W. E. Vigus.

The other ticket substitutes C. S. Buckwalter for recorder, W. J. Beatie for treasurer, Charles Cottrell for auditor and it names James W. R. Hutchinson for attorney.

CRAZY TITHING RESOLUTION. On the reading of the resolutions, Wiley L. Brown submitted an amendment, which the chairman of the committee on resolutions refused to read, as it was not germane to the matter under consideration. A motion to refer all such amendments to the committee was carried. The amendment was permitted to read his own amendment, which he did, after several attempts to rule the gentleman out of order.

On the reading of the amendment, Wiley Joseph moved that it be referred to the "best session of the Legislature." This was ruled out of order, and on motion the amendment was tabled.

Mr. Brown's amendment is as follows: Be it resolved by the Republicans of Salt Lake City, That we are unalterably opposed to the payment of tithing out of any fund or money raised out by said city for services rendered to the public or supplies furnished for the public whilst such fund or funds remain in the possession of or are subject to control by the district; and we pledge the nominees of this convention, if elected, and all officers and employees of this city elected or appointed in future by the Republican party to abstain from paying tithing or tithing out of any fund or money whilst in their possession or under their control; and we further pledge the Republican party if elected and given the power to do so to reduce the salaries of all officers and employees of said city 10 per cent in all instances where not inhibited from doing so by law.

NOMINATION FOR MAYOR. Nominations for mayor being declared in order, Willard Hanson took the floor and in a neat speech, placed in nomination "that fearless, honest, straightforward Republican, William J. Lynch." The nomination was received with cheers.

Jake Greenwald in seconding the nomination of Chief Lynch, made some pointed reference to Thomas Weir, the chairman of the American convention, who was present, and much laughter, and applause by the delegates. He said in part: "I take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Wm. J. Lynch for mayor. I have known him ever since he was a boy and I wanted him nominated two years ago. If he had been we would not have had the present administration."

"A short time ago we were treated to the humiliating spectacle of the chairman of a convention saying that he was ashamed to say that he was from Salt Lake City. Weir not ashamed to say that we are from Salt Lake City. Weir not ashamed that we are from Utah. W. J. Lynch is the strongest man we could nominate. It is our duty to victory. He is the only man who has ever brought harmony into the police department of this city. When he is elected he will still be at the head of the police department and will be at the head of the city administration."

LYNCH BY ACCLAMATION. On motion of John A. Houghston the vote was suspended and Mr. Lynch was nominated by acclamation. Fred Price moved that a committee of two be appointed to escort Mr.

Lynch to the platform. Messrs. Price and Joseph were appointed as such committee.

After selection by the band J. J. Meyers moved that nominating speeches be limited to three minutes and seconding speeches to a minute and a half. This was carried.

MR. LYNCH SPEAKS. Mr. Lynch was next brought to the stage, and amid great enthusiasm thanked the convention for the honor conferred, and predicted a glorious victory on Nov. 7.

NOMINATIONS FOR AUDITOR. Col. M. M. Kaighn presented the name of W. E. Vigus for city auditor, and H. S. Tanner nominated Charles Cottrell.

VIGUS WINS. W. E. Vigus was nominated for auditor on the first ballot by a vote of 253 1/2 to 233 1/2 for Cottrell.

FOR CITY ATTORNEY. For city attorney Wm. McRae nominated W. R. Hutchinson, while Brigham Clegg named P. W. L. Stevens. Before the Thirtieth district Wm. Clegg withdrew the name of Mr. Wm. Stevens and moved that the nomination of Mr. Hutchinson be made unanimous. The motion carried when the counting ceased, Hutchinson had 306 votes to 49 for Stevens.

FOR CITY RECORDER. C. S. Buckwalter and J. C. Barthel were named, the former by E. Leaning and the latter by Judge Diehl. On the first ballot Calvin S. Buckwalter secured the nomination, the vote being 354 to 154.

THE NOMINEES. Up to the hour of going to press the following candidates have been nominated: For Mayor—W. J. Lynch. For Auditor—W. E. Vigus. For Attorney—W. R. Hutchinson. For Recorder—C. S. Buckwalter.

FUNERAL TODAY. The funeral of the late Benjamin Carleton of the Sugar House ward, was held at 1 p. m. today, from the parlors of Joseph E. Taylor, with interment in the city cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of the bishop of the ward of the deceased, and the speakers were Elder J. M. Whitaker, James McGhee and William McEwan. Fine solo singing was furnished by Mrs. Beatrice Crismon Thomas, who sang "The Savior, pilot me" and "Not There."

INFORMATION WANTED. Information is wanted by Mrs. Josephine Larson, living in Skaredall, Dalheim, Sweden, of the whereabouts of her sister, Mrs. Emma Larson, who emigrated from Sweden to Smithfield, Utah, about 12 years ago. She had joined the "Mormon" church when in Sweden, was a widow and had two daughters, namely, Amanda and Christine. It is thought they followed the profession of school teaching.

COURT NOTES. A verdict in favor of defendant was rendered by a jury in Judge Lewis' court yesterday afternoon in the case of Charles Strimling against the Consolidated Wagon and Machine company. The action was brought to recover $20,230 as damages for injuries received by plaintiff on June 21, 1904 by falling down an elevator shaft in defendant's store.

A damage suit has been filed in the district court by Mrs. Edith Elton against Salt Lake City, the Clayton Investment company and J. T. Raleigh to recover $5,000 for personal injuries received by plaintiff on the night of May 20, 1905, when she fell into an excavation on Commercial avenue and broke her right leg and received other severe injuries. She presented her claim for damages to the city council in June, but it was rejected.

The jury in the case of George L. Stewart against the Rio Grande Western Railway company, which has been on trial in Judge Lewis' court for several days past, has returned a verdict in favor of defendant by finding that there was no cause of action. The suit was brought to recover $410. The damages for injuries received by plaintiff on March 15, 1905, while employed as a boiler-maker's helper at defendant's shops.

RAMSEY OF THE WABASH FILES SUIT FOR INJUNCTION. St. Louis, Oct. 3.—Suit for injunction was filed in St. Louis circuit court by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash against the Iron Mountain and Wabash railway companies, the Mercantile Trust company of New York, Walter S. Wilson, H. M. Walker, and George J. Gould.

In his petition Mr. Ramsey asks the court to grant him an injunction preventing the proposed annual meeting of George Gould and his associates at Toledo, Ohio, where it is proposed to elect a board of directors and a president to control the Wabash road for the next year.

As a reason he alleges that one result of this meeting would be to stifle competition in traffic between the Wabash and the Iron Mountain between St. Louis and Kansas City. Ramsey sets out in his petition that he is a resident of Missouri while the defendants are non-residents. He owns $50,000 par value of the authorized amount of the Wabash class B and 100 shares of the capital stock. He brings the suit, he says, for himself and others similarly situated. The Missouri Pacific railway, he says, holds 20,000 shares of Wabash stock. The Iron Mountain holds 25,000 shares of preferred stock and $4,435,000 par value of debentures, these shares being held in trust by the Mercantile Trust company of New York. Wilson, Walker and Gould, he says, own and control a majority of stock of the Missouri Pacific, and control the majority of stock of the Iron Mountain railway.

W. Lehman, attorney for Mr. Ramsey, said: "The importance of this suit to the public is in that it is a suit to enforce the rights of the Wabash from voting its stock and debentures."

"The stock and debentures of the Wabash are a general custom and I cannot see how it can be classed as a combination in restraint of trade."

Mr. Pror said: "The stock transfer books are now closed until after the election Oct. 30. On the 11th the new list of stock and debenture bondholders will be given out. The debenture bonds of the Wabash having voting power, the same as stock, but who are listed among the holders, I do not know."

Alex. G. Cochran, vice president and general solicitor of the Missouri Pacific, said: "We had no knowledge that the suit would be filed until a few minutes before court convened, when an inkling reached us. We were on hand in court when the petition was filed."

"It is not probable that Mr. Ramsey should suddenly become aware of the fact that competition in traffic between the Wabash and the Missouri Pacific might be stifled as a result of the fact that the stock and debenture bonds have been voted for the last ten years and there has been no suggestion on his part that competition might be stifled."

"Regarding the Iron Mountain, there is no allegation in the petition that it is a competing line with either the Missouri Pacific or the Wabash and as the entire petition is founded upon stifling of competition, there is really no reason why the Iron Mountain should be a defendant. The only allegation regarding the Iron Mountain is that the Missouri Pacific controls a majority of its stock and it makes no difference whether this is true or not."

"There may be another question as to whether the real purpose of the suit is to prevent the stifling of competition or because Mr. Ramsey fears that if the stock was voted it might prevent him from retaining his position as president of the Wabash. Mr. Ramsey has never before made any complaint, and this question only arises when there is a fight on."

Ed. A. Gould, president of the Cotton Belt and brother of George J. Gould, who arrived last night to attend the annual meeting of the Cotton Belt today declined to make any statement concerning the suit.

DAUGHTER WAS INFATUATED WITH A MARRIED MAN. San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The mystery of the disappearance of $11,050 a year ago from a clerk in which William Schmitt, an ex-painter, had buried the savings of a year in the cellar under his home at 741 O'Farrell street, has been cleared by the confession of his daughter, Miss Louisa Schmitt and Edward Cordoro to whom she betrayed the hiding place as the result of her infatuation and his threats. Miss Schmitt left her home some time ago when her parents objected to the attention of Cordoro upon discovering that she was married. She says that she disclosed to him the hiding place of her parents' gold under threats against her life. Cordoro, she says, finally began to abuse her and she has returned to her father's home and made a clean breast of the whole affair. Cordoro has been arrested and is now in jail here pending an investigation into his connection with the affair.

THE SAMOAN VOLCANO. Gov. of German Samoa Reports That it is Still in Eruption. San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Dr. W. H. Soll, governor of German Samoa, arrived here yesterday from Pago Pago on the steamer Sonoma en route to Germany. He says the Maatutu volcano, which burst into action about two months ago, is still in eruption. He was at the scene of the volcano about a month ago and the lava covered about one square mile and had formed a mountain 500 feet high.

On his former visit, two months ago, the hill was only about 200 feet in height and he is of the opinion that the topography of the island will be materially changed. There is an eruption at least once a day and at night the fountain of fire can be seen 70 miles away. The conditions in Samoa are satisfactory, he says. Gov. Soll, and an extra large crop of copra is expected during the coming season. The most friendly relations, he says, exist between the three governments, Germany, Samoa and England, controlling the affairs of the group.

FRIGHT CAUSES DEATH. Preparation for an Operation Resulted in Heart Failure. Chicago, Oct. 3.—Fright over an operation which he was about to undergo had believed to have caused the death of Andrew Peebles, 57 years old, in the Grace hospital yesterday. Peebles had been in the hospital receiving treatment for a disease of the throat.

Wholesale Druggist Convention. New York, Oct. 3.—The thirty-first annual convention of the National Wholesale Druggists' association was opened tonight by President M. Cary Peter at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York. Between two and three hundred members were present.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD FOR TRAIN BANDITS Offered by Great Northern Express Co. For Capture and Identification Of Train Hold-ups.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—The Great Northern Express company this morning authorized a reward of $5,000 for the capture and identification of the men implicated in the hold-up of No. 2 last night; a proportionate amount for the capture and conviction of one or more men in the party and $250 per man additional for the conviction of each robber.

The Pinkertons have been sent out on the case by the railroad and the entire strength of the road's secret service force on this division has been assigned to the robbery. Sheriff Smith has a posse in the field since the hold-up was reported and the police here and Everett are working on the meagre description of water for two men who were seen closely enough by the train crew to give any idea of their appearance. One of these was the man of slender build, medium height and about 35 years of age, who had a mustache and a goatee.

A fisherman living near the scene reported this morning that he had seen four or five men in a small launch speeding south from Ten Mile post. He believed at first that the escape was made by the train crew. The road at the point skirts a gravel beach on one side and a precipitous bank on the other. A heavy growth of timber shades the track.

Increased Importations. New York, Oct. 3.—The monthly report issued by Appraiser Whitehead last night is most unusually interesting in that it furnishes a striking instance of the current prosperity existing through the country. The total appraised value of importations during the month of September last totaled $55,000,350. This is an increase of about $5,000,000 in comparison with the same month in 1904. Important increases are shown in various lines of merchandise and especially in luxuries.

BURNED TO DEATH. Wife and Babe of Indian Tom of San Juan Island. Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 3.—Word has reached here that the wife and babe of "Indian Tom" were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home Sunday on San Juan Island and that the husband and father will die from his injuries. ANCIENT IRISH CROWN. Stolen in September but No Trace Of It Found. London, Oct. 3.—The robbery of the ancient Irish crown and other antiquities in connection with which the Chicago police are searching for suspects, occurred Sept. 4 at the residence of John Mulhail, vice chairman of the general prisoners' board, 14 Earlsfort terrace, Dublin. The commissioner of police of Dublin requested, his Chicago colleagues, to institute a search for the stolen articles, which it is suspected have been taken across the Atlantic. The Scotland Yard detectives searched London, but found no trace of the property. As only $250 reward is offered for its recovery, Scotland Yard derives the estimate of $1,000,000 as being the value of the booty.
