

ILLEGAL VOTER PROFITS DAIL.

John Krup Preferred Freedom to Somebody's Five Thousand Dollars.

ATTY-GEN. MAYER INDIGNANT.

Will Try and Find Out Who Put up The Money—Jerome Wants A Canvass.

New York, Nov. 15.—A sensation was created in Justice Davy's branch of the supreme court this afternoon when John Krup, indicted for illegal voting in the recent municipal election, failed to appear for pleading and his attorneys expressed ignorance as to his whereabouts.

State Atty.-Gen. Mayer, who was in court, was indignant at the turn of affairs. Tonight the attorney-general made public this statement:

"Every effort will be made to ascertain who put up the $5,000 bail and who employed counsel to defend Krup. The failure of Krup to appear in court as a defendant is a defiance of law as I ever heard of."

The disappearance of Krup is the best confirmation of the statement made by me in court, urging that his bail be increased.

"If this defendant has left town," declared the attorney-general, "I know with whom he has last seen, and will know how to proceed. I thought somebody must have been greatly interested in Krup to put up $5,000 bail for him just to secure his liberty for a few hours."

The original tally sheets in New York's recent mayoralty election were opened today by the board of county canvassers.

W. E. Hearst's lawyers present eight of the first 12 sheets from the envelopes because they were found to differ from the returns of the count on which the election of Mr. McClellan was based.

In one election district Mr. Hearst was found to have seven more votes than were counted for him, and in another the tally sheets showed that 29 votes were missing from the published count.

Comparisons were confined to the votes cast for mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen.

One election district, the Twelfth of the Second Assembly district, in which William T. Jerome was not counted with a single vote, was discovered during the investigation today.

According to the tally sheet of this district, Mr. Jerome received 17 votes, but he was credited with none.

The board had decided not to include the Jerome votes in the canvass, but his attorney requested that the office of district attorney be included, and secured an order from the supreme court to show cause tomorrow why this should not be done.

CIVIC REGENERATION GOING ON, SAYS GOV. FOLK

Kansas City, Nov. 15.—Edward Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, and Gov. Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, were the guests of honor at the monthly dinner here tonight of the Knite and Fork club.

Gov. Folk, in the course of his speech, said:

"The next few years will be distinguished as the time in which industrial problems are settled, the reign of special privileges being brought to an end, the doctrine of equal rights fixed in national policies and in the conscience of mankind."

We are in the midst of the most drastic period of American history, the period in which the people's rights are to be defined and observed as they have never been before.

The men who share in these activities, in a capacity no matter how humble, are taking part in the tremendous moral upheaval now going on.

There have been great reform movements in the days gone by, but they were local, the vampires of graft were driven away and remained but a season and then returned after the waves of public indignation had spent their fury.

The present presents a situation of brighter promise in our vision. Reform shows signs of becoming universal instead of local and transitory.

The revolt from political oppression is rearing its head in city after city and state after state. A civic regeneration is going on all over the land.

Will it last? Is the question. Will not the people soon forget and allow things to continue in the same old way? I answer no. Revolutions never come backwards, and this is a revolution that has been brought in the conscience of men.

We are at the beginning of the movement for higher ideals in our world which will gather strength as the years go by. The elections of last week were but the taking of the first breathworks of the opposition. The fight will go on with increasing vigor and the time will come when the people can rest on their arms in Missouri.

The moral idea in politics has come to stay. This wave of the patriotism of peace will go on with increasing force.

HIGH TIDES AT VENICE.

New York, Nov. 17.—A cable dispatch to the Herald from Venice says: "Abnormally high tides are prevailing here. During the last two days they have raised the water level to such a degree that the Piazza San Marco is partially inundated, cutting off access to the church."

The water is so high that steamboats cannot pass under the bridges. Traffic has been suspended in the low lying parts of the city, which are now under water.

High wind with rain, has contributed to the existing conditions."

UPRISING AT MANZANILLO. New York, Nov. 17.—A cable to the Herald from Havana says: "A dispatch received here at a late hour says that an uprising has occurred at Manzanillo and that troops, supposedly destined for Santiago are ready for the latter place."

KIDNEY TROUBLES Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Mrs. Emma Sawyer.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or sending urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A rearrangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am today a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case."

GOMPERS TOO CLOSE TO CAPITALISTS.

Resolution to that Effect Introduced in Federation of Labor Congress.

FRICK'S MONEY NOT WANTED.

Donation for Entertainment of Delegates Would be Rejected Because Tainted.

Pittsburg, Nov. 16.—The morning session of the American Federation of Labor was quite strenuous. P. H. Scullin, a labor organizer known to union men in all parts of the United States, was severely criticized by Frank Duffy of Indianapolis, who took exception to the action of the federation in adopting a resolution endorsing the Industrial Peace association.

Delegate Johannsen offered a motion refusing a donation of $100 made by H. C. Frick for the entertainment of the federation delegates. The speaker said the money was tainted with the blood of the Homestead steel strike and should not be accepted under any circumstances.

President Gompers announced that the matter would be given attention later. Delegate Johannsen offered a motion refusing a donation of $100 made by H. C. Frick for the entertainment of the federation delegates.

Letters were read from Gov. McDonald of Colorado, the Denver board of trade and business and labor organizations, inviting the federation to meet next year in Denver. The letters were referred.

W. Mosser, fraternal delegate from the British labor trades council, addressed the convention on the labor situation in England.

The motion presented at the morning session declining the $100 offered by H. C. Frick for the entertainment of the delegates while in this city was withdrawn this afternoon by Delegate Johannsen. He announced he had learned that the money had not yet been presented and that it would be rejected when it was offered, and for this reason withdrew the motion.

The convention adjourned at 3 o'clock until tomorrow morning in order to give the committee additional time in which to prepare their reports.

Victor L. Berger, delegate of the International Typographical union, in speaking tonight of the resolutions he had placed before the committee, said: "I did not introduce any resolution to endorse the Socialist party, and no resolution of that kind will be introduced. The Socialists of America have gotten through with childish business long ago. We do not intend to 'capture' the convention of the American Federation of Labor for the Socialist party. All the resolutions which I have introduced are purely trade union resolutions."

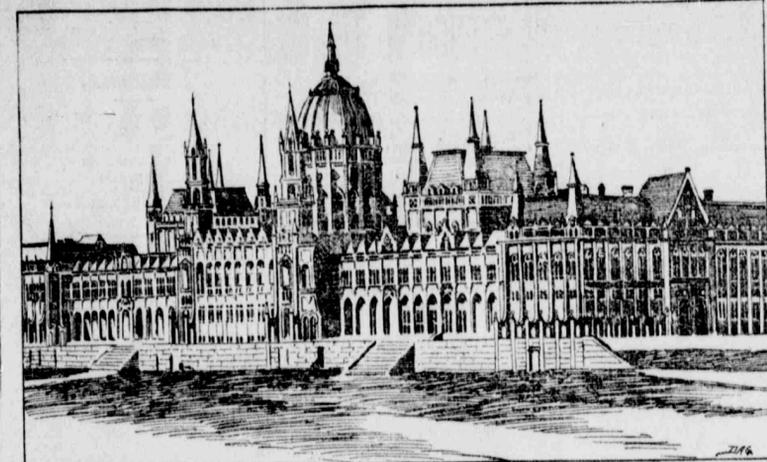

"We Socialists believe in a two-armed labor movement, a labor movement with a political arm and economy arm. The two arms must remain distinctly separate. We understand that the American Federation of Labor in its economic arm of the American labor movement, hence our purely trade union resolutions."

Among the eleven resolutions introduced by Mr. Berger are these: "That the Congress of the United States pass a bill which will secure to every wage-worker in the United States who has earned no more than $1,000 average wages per year, a pension of not less than $12 per month at the age of 60."

"That we point with sorrow to the close intimacy established between Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders with the great capitalist and industrial trusts, and that the people have an interest, as shown in the Belmont subway strike in New York and the futurity of the eight-hour campaign in Congress."

"That in view of the present notorious system of insurance, in which the workmen find little or no protection, a system of state insurance similar to that in operation in Germany, be established, in which the government, the
