

Salt Lake County And Utah Republican Column.

CALAMITY GROWD IS PUT TO ROUT

Decisive and Crushing Defeat for The "American" Party in Salt Lake County.

SLANDER CAMPAIGN IN VAIN.

Republicans Elect Congressman, Supreme Court Judge, Legislature and Other Candidates.

Only Crumb of Satisfaction for "Americans" is a Justice of the Peace and a Lone Constable.

Coming after one of the most spirited campaign seasons, the quietest election in Utah's history returned a Republican congressman from Utah, and elected Republican county tickets generally throughout the state yesterday.

The surprise of the day was the stagnation shown in "American" party totals. The increase over the last election was only a trifle, and showed that the party has not gained strength in proportion as it did in adversity. In office its record has been its own condemnation, and this result was expressed in its voting power yesterday.

HOWELL'S BIG LEAD.

Howell goes back to Congress by a majority that is estimated this afternoon to be in the vicinity of 10,000. This was a Republican year in Utah, as it was in almost every other state. The power of Roosevelt was sufficient to call for a Republican Congress to uphold his hands, in New York, as in Utah.

REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

The next state legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican. It will be more so than any legislature that has ever met before. Last session a few Democrats in the house, and three in the senate, who were bolders. The outlook now is that Teton of Beaver county may be the lone representative of the Democracy.

LEGISLATIVE PERSONNEL.

Full county returns are not yet in, but Col. Squires at Republican headquarters makes the following claims for his party, in the legislature. They include everything for the senate, and all but one or two representatives:

For the lower house: Boxelder, 1; Coche, 2; Carbon, 1; Davis, 1; Emery, 1; Grant, 1; Irap, 1; Junb, 1; Kane, 1; Morgan, 1; Garfield, 1; Piute, 1; San Juan, 1; Salt Lake, 10; Sam; 1; Sanpete, 2; Sevier, 1; Summit, 1; Tooele, 1; Utah, 4; Uintah, 1; Wasatch, 1; and 1.

GENERAL LANDSLIDE.

The general Republican landslide through the state, was entirely duplicated in Salt Lake county. With a sweep in the city, the Republicans gained heavily, while the Democrats polled a smaller vote than in the last election. In Salt Lake county the "Americans" lost heavily on their vote of last year, and made it up in numbers from the city's binned and the disreputable element generally. In the county, and in all other counties, the new propaganda fell with a dull thud. It is showing up in Western attempts to obtain a hearing in that direction, while the memory of 1904 is in this county for some time.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, Nov. 6.—The seven Democratic nominees for Congress were elected in Louisiana.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—The election in Mississippi passed off without interest, the vote being light in each of the congressional districts. The Democratic candidates were without opposition.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Late returns show that Saries, Republican, is elected governor by a safe majority, and Fiske, Democrat, is elected judge of the supreme court. The legislature will be safely Republican.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Gov. Warner and the entire Republican state ticket have been elected by 60,000 majority. The Republican congressional candidates in all of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected and the Republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of entire membership.

up until midnight. Students from the university formed a flying wedge that made its way through the crowd to an accompaniment of tin horns and tin pans.

LOVE "AMERICAN" LEADERS.

The small "American" party vote was a surprise to the leaders. If it had gone up to the 20,000, which they counted on in the state, they would have made a tremendous cry against the sources from which they would have alleged the opposition came. As it is they are aware of the fact that their propaganda hasn't caught on as it was hoped it would, and today radical changes in the party's future policy are being talked over. One suggestion is to unload some of the surplus baggage in the shape of grafters and reviling politicians. In the hope of having a fighting strength left among those who are more filled with religious prejudice than a desire for graft as a primary consideration. Chairman Darnier went on deck this morning. Neither was Secretary Armstrong, but a good sized crowd of party workers was at headquarters waiting to be paid off.

PAYING THE FIDDLER.

Another big crowd of party workers assembled at Republican headquarters, Secretary Horace H. Smith went to the bank with a big check, came back with a big bag of coin, and Chairman Eldredge then proceeded to pay up all claims that were presented for services of rigs and workers on election day. Chairman Cunningham was at his headquarters a short time this morning, and Secy. Rollin W. Dole remained at his desk all day, answering queries and receiving returns. State Republican Secy. Squires is in charge at state headquarters, and received many messages of congratulation from county, state and national sources.

FIGHT ALL OVER.

When asked for a statement of conditions Col. Squires said: "The fight is all over, and the victory has been most complete. We carry the state by about 10,000 majority. While Powers was not high in Salt Lake county, we lost heavily outside, and this tends to equalize their vote. In almost every county the full ticket is elected, and the legislature will be elected unanimously Republican. Chairman Marincou said, "All you can say for me is that words fall me in which to express myself. I do not care to discuss the result. County Chairman Cunningham of the Democrats spoke in much the same manner, and in fact, he said, "as I told the other papers that I am out of politics from now on, and that's all I care to say."

IN THE COUNTY.

The election returns have not yet come in sufficiently to give a full and detailed account of the vote in the various county districts outside of the city, or rather during the day they have come in and seal to the office of the county clerk, and therefore in all cases were not available to make the political headquarters. So far as received, they however, show the following results on congressional tickets in Salt Lake and the Dubois ticket, in Idaho, and subsequent data has proved that there is no hope for either of them.

VOTE ON CONGRESSMAN INDICATES HOW OTHER CANDIDATES FARED.

The election returns have not yet come in sufficiently to give a full and detailed account of the vote in the various county districts outside of the city, or rather during the day they have come in and seal to the office of the county clerk, and therefore in all cases were not available to make the political headquarters. So far as received, they however, show the following results on congressional tickets in Salt Lake and the Dubois ticket, in Idaho, and subsequent data has proved that there is no hope for either of them.

VOTE FOR CONGRESSMAN.

Table with 4 columns: Name, Total, Republican, Democrat.

DISTRICTS.

Table with 4 columns: District, Name, Total, Republican, Democrat.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, Nov. 6.—The seven Democratic nominees for Congress were elected in Louisiana.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—The election in Mississippi passed off without interest, the vote being light in each of the congressional districts. The Democratic candidates were without opposition.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Late returns show that Saries, Republican, is elected governor by a safe majority, and Fiske, Democrat, is elected judge of the supreme court. The legislature will be safely Republican.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Gov. Warner and the entire Republican state ticket have been elected by 60,000 majority. The Republican congressional candidates in all of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected and the Republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of entire membership.

certain. The rest of the Republican state ticket seems certain of success, with both branches of the legislature safely Republican. Burke has carried all the Red River valley counties except Cass, even taking Saries' home county.

ARIZONA.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 7.—The vote for joint statehood in Arizona is estimated not to exceed 15 per cent of the total vote, and may be even less. This calculation is based on partial returns from 10 out of 15 counties. Maricopa county, with five country precincts missing, voted: For jointure, 390; against, 2,568. The legislature is strongly Democratic.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—At 2 o'clock this morning the indications are that Gov. John A. Johnson, Democrat, is re-elected by 50,000 plurality and that later returns will materially increase this plurality. A. L. Cole, Republican, ran far behind the rest of the ticket, the election of which is claimed by from 25,000 to 50,000 plurality. The Democrats, however, maintain that if Johnson's plurality goes over 50,000, he will pull through one or two of the candidates for other state offices.

The returns on the legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Nelson, are meager, but indicate that the Republican majority will be much reduced. Eight of the nine members of Congress from the state are Republicans. There is a close contest in the Second district, where Congressman James T. McClary is being opposed by W. S. Hammond, the issue being on tariff reduction. The Democrats claim Hammond's election, but 10 delegates to McClary telephoned that he expected to be re-elected by less than 1,000 plurality.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Curtis Guild, Jr., was re-elected governor of Massachusetts today by a plurality of about 34,000. The rest of the state ticket was also successful, and the congressional delegation will be elected, standing 11 Republicans and three Democrats. With three cities and towns missing, the vote stood: Guild, Republican, 219,000; Moran, Democrat, 188,548. The legislature is strongly Republican.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6.—Returns from 79 of the 89 voting districts in Wilmington give Marvel, Democrat, a victory of 5,784; Burton, Republican, 6,188.

A vote was taken today throughout Delaware on the initiative and referendum. It was not opposed to any extent, and will be adopted.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—An unofficial count of incomplete returns up to 10 o'clock this morning showed that Gov. Beckham was leading for United States senator by about 2,000 votes over Senator McCree. Mount Sterling, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns received at Republican headquarters here indicate the election of John W. Langley, Republican, to Congress from the Tenth district over Frank A. Hopkins, Democrat, by 700 majority.

OKLAHOMA.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—A statement from Republican headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning says the Republicans have elected 10 delegates in Oklahoma and from 10 to 15 in the Indian Territory, giving them from 20 to 25 out of the 112 delegates who will frame the constitution for the new state of Oklahoma.

GEORGIA.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 6.—The contest of Georgia was in the first district, where Edwards, Democrat, was elected by a plurality of about 1,000. The three candidates for judge of the newly created court of appeals were unanimously elected.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 6.—All the Democratic Congressmen of Florida are re-elected and the state ticket carried by a decided majority. The vote at midnight indicates the defeat of 22 congressional drainage constitutional amendment, 2 to 2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—Slow election returns showed no material changes in results today. Floyd, Republican, led Jameson, Democrat, for governor, by an estimated plurality of 2,220. A majority vote is required and the election will probably be thrown into the legislature, which it is believed will be Republican. Congressmen Currier and Stillway, Republicans, were easily returned.

IOWA.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—Three hundred and twenty-five precincts out of a total in Iowa of 2,197, give Cummins 39,490 and Porter, Democrat, 33,408. The same two years ago gave Cummins 43,422, and Sullivan 25,812, a loss to Cummins of 11,738.

Reports from 460 precincts of the state put Cummins 16,565 votes behind his vote of 1904. His plurality this year was 73,000, but if he loses in the rest of the precincts as he has already he may be defeated by a small margin.

Both party chairmen claim the election on the ground that favorable territory is yet to be heard from. Des Moines, Nov. 7.—Reports from about half the counties of the state received at political headquarters indicate that the Republicans carried the state for the entire ticket.

Chairman Woods says that all the late reports increase the plurality for the head of the Republican ticket and his latest estimate is that Cummins will have more than 25,000 plurality.

At Democratic headquarters it was said that Porter will have a plurality of less than 5,000. There is no doubt of the election of Hamilton, Democrat, to Congress in the Sixth district, but the First district is still in doubt.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Gov. Warner and the entire Republican state ticket have been elected by 60,000 majority. The Republican congressional candidates in all of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected and the Republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of entire membership.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL CONGRESS

With Incomplete Returns Result Shows 211 Republicans and 155 Democrats Elected.

20 DISTRICTS TO HEAR FROM.

As Matters Now Stand the Democrats Have Gained Twenty Seats.

In Kentucky the Republicans Carried Third District—Speaker Cannon Got His Usual 15,000 Majority.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt's appeal for a Republican Congress was not in vain. With the count still going on, the result so far shows the election of 211 Republican congressmen, 155 Democrats, with 20 districts to be heard from. There are 36 seats to be filled in the house and should the Democrats get the remaining 20 they would still not have the control.

The most sanguine prediction put out by Chairman Sherman previous to the election was that the republicans would retain the control of the house by 50. As the results now stand the Democrats have gained 20 districts held in the present Congress by Republicans as follows:

Illinois 2, Indiana 1, Iowa 1, Missouri 3, Nebraska 1, New Jersey 3, New York 1, North Carolina 1, Ohio 3, Pennsylvania 5 and Wisconsin 1.

In Illinois the defeated Republicans are Rives and Dickson of the Twenty-first and Twenty-third districts; in Indiana, Cromer of the Eighth; in Iowa, Lacey of the Sixth; in Missouri, Wolfson of the Fourth; in Nebraska, Kennedy of the Second; in New York, Wardsworth of the Thirtieth; in New Jersey, Pickett of the Ninth; in North Carolina, Blackburn of the Eighth; in Ohio, Douglas, who beat Governor for the Republican nomination. In Wisconsin, Babcock gives his seat to a Democrat. This is the only Democrat in the Tenth and Eleventh and Samuel of the Sixteenth.

The Republicans gained the Third Kentucky district, where James Dickson and Richardson of the Twenty-first Republican gain so far reported. Speaker Cannon received his usual majority. The fight against Dabell of Pittsburgh, who is the Democrat in the Tenth district, was a narrow one. Dabell is re-elected with a reduced majority.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—With but one town missing, Woodruff, the Republican candidate for governor has a plurality of 23,700 votes over Thayer, Democrat.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The Republicans were victorious in the state election today. Gov. Guild being re-elected by a considerably increased plurality over last year, while his opponent, Dist. Atty. John B. Moran of Boston, the candidate of the Democratic and Prohibition parties and the Independence League, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the Democratic candidate a year ago.

With two-thirds of the state vote tabulated Mr. Guild's plurality was estimated last night at about 37,000. The Republicans re-elected the entire state ticket, although Leutger, Draper fell considerably behind Gov. Guild. The next legislature will be Republican in the usual large majority in both houses, but they will be between 4,000 and 7,000 for each. The statehood vote seems to be only one-half of the vote polled on local tickets, the apathy being even more pronounced than at first reported.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Illinois went Republican by over 100,000, the vote for Snukis, state treasurer, footing about 129,000, and five districts estimated. Complete returns for Chicago on state treasurer give Snukis, Republican, 122,788; Piotrowski, Democrat, 72,332.

The Republicans lost two congressional districts apparently in Chicago and two more down state, making a gain of four for the Democrats and giving them five instead of one in the Illinois congressional delegation. The successful Democrats were James T. McDermott who beat Charles Wharton in the Fourth district; A. J. Smith, who won against Anthony Michaelis, in the Fifth; B. F. Caldwell, who beat Zeno J. Rives in the Twenty-first; and M. D. Foster, who got two ballots from Frank I. Dickson in the Tenth and Eleventh districts. Henry T. Rainey, Democrat, was re-elected in the Twentieth district.

All the defeated Republicans are in the present Congress, having been re-nominated. The legislature is undoubtedly Republican by a good majority on joint ballot. This insures the return to the senate of Senator Charles Cullom, who received the majority of the votes at the Republican state primaries.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—The Republicans have elected their entire state ticket in Indiana by an estimated majority of between 40,000 and 50,000. The next legislature will be Republican. The Republicans have elected six congressmen, in the First, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth districts. The Democrats have elected two in the Third and fourth districts. The Republican State Chairman Goodrich claims the election of Fred Landis in the Eleventh. Democratic Chairman O'Brien claims the election of Morr in the Tenth and Adams in the Fifth.

Returns from the Second and Fifth districts are not sufficient to justify an accurate estimate as to the result. The results are "spotted" due to scratching. The Republican state ticket carried several Democratic strongholds, which elected Democratic county and legislative tickets, and in other places the opposite was true. The vote in the state was surprisingly light. In Indianapolis no more than two-thirds of the full vote was polled, and the shrinkage was largely in the Republican wards.

The Democrats have elected the pro-slavery ticket, but probably the auditor in Marion county. Republican majorities have been reduced from the figures of two years ago.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—The election for governor in Kansas is so close that it is impossible to give correct figures at this hour. Chairman Crumme of the Republican state committee claims the election of Gov. Hoch by 3,500, while Chairman Ryan of the Democratic state committee says Harris has carried the state by at least 15,000 majority. The Republican committee has complete returns from 43 of the 105 counties. Gov. Hoch is running far behind his ticket. No estimate is given on the rest of the state ticket, but the indications are that Republicans are re-elected. The entire Republican congressional delegation is elected. It is thought that the Republicans will control the legislature.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 7.—Returns are incomplete, but sufficient to show the election of the entire Republican state ticket, congressional and judicial tickets, and a Republican majority of 30 or more on joint ballot in the legislature, which will elect a senator to succeed Thomas M. Patterson. Simon Guggenheim is the only avowed Republican candidate for the senatorship, and he has had the support of the party leadership. Republicans claim pluralities above 20,000 for Rev. Henry A. Buchtel, candidate for governor, and their other nominees for state offices.

The Democrats conceded the election of the Republican ticket, but claim the pluralities will be under 10,000. The vote in Denver for governor was: Buchtel, Republican, 23,688; Adams, Democrat, 11,320; Lindsay, Independent, 4,750; Haywood, Socialist, 4,287.

In a late extra edition the News (Democratic) concedes the election of Buchtel, and all other candidates on the Republican ticket, with the possible exception of Chief Justice William H. Gabbert. He was largely scratched in every county, but some of the Republicans who cut him voted for William P. Seese, while others voted for George Hartenstein, and thus the opposition was divided. Had it been possible to concentrate all the anti-Gabbert scratches on one Democratic candidate, the chief justice would have been overwhelmed.

In the San Juan country, southwestern Colorado, the Socialists made inroads into the Democratic ranks. In northern Colorado the Democrats made important gains, but Las Animas and Huerfano counties, in which are located the large southern coal mining camps, gave the customary Republican majorities of 1,000 and 1,500 respectively.

The Cripple Creek district, Republican two years ago, was carried by them this year.

Pueblo, Colo., Nov. 7.—With six county precincts missing, the figures indicate that Alva Adams, Democrat, for governor, carried Pueblo county, with 19,000 votes, by about 1,000.

Alva Adams has practically given up hope for his election. He was at his desk in his bank this morning as usual and appeared in fairly good spirits.

In reply to a question he said: "I have not had anything like complete returns from different counties, but from what is available, I am practically ready to concede my defeat."

Replying to another question as to what cause he attributed his defeat, he said: "I do not wish to make any statement on that point. It is evidently the will of the people."

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—With but one town missing, Woodruff, the Republican candidate for governor has a plurality of 23,700 votes over Thayer, Democrat.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The Republicans were victorious in the state election today. Gov. Guild being re-elected by a considerably increased plurality over last year, while his opponent, Dist. Atty. John B. Moran of Boston, the candidate of the Democratic and Prohibition parties and the Independence League, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the Democratic candidate a year ago.

With two-thirds of the state vote tabulated Mr. Guild's plurality was estimated last night at about 37,000. The Republicans re-elected the entire state ticket, although Leutger, Draper fell considerably behind Gov. Guild. The next legislature will be Republican in the usual large majority in both houses, but they will be between 4,000 and 7,000 for each. The statehood vote seems to be only one-half of the vote polled on local tickets, the apathy being even more pronounced than at first reported.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Illinois went Republican by over 100,000, the vote for Snukis, state treasurer, footing about 129,000, and five districts estimated. Complete returns for Chicago on state treasurer give Snukis, Republican, 122,788; Piotrowski, Democrat, 72,332.

The Republicans lost two congressional districts apparently in Chicago and two more down state, making a gain of four for the Democrats and giving them five instead of one in the Illinois congressional delegation. The successful Democrats were James T. McDermott who beat Charles Wharton in the Fourth district; A. J. Smith, who won against Anthony Michaelis, in the Fifth; B. F. Caldwell, who beat Zeno J. Rives in the Twenty-first; and M. D. Foster, who got two ballots from Frank I. Dickson in the Tenth and Eleventh districts. Henry T. Rainey, Democrat, was re-elected in the Twentieth district.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—The Republicans have elected their entire state ticket in Indiana by an estimated majority of between 40,000 and 50,000. The next legislature will be Republican. The Republicans have elected six congressmen, in the First, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth districts. The Democrats have elected two in the Third and fourth districts. The Republican State Chairman Goodrich claims the election of Fred Landis in the Eleventh. Democratic Chairman O'Brien claims the election of Morr in the Tenth and Adams in the Fifth.

Returns from the Second and Fifth districts are not sufficient to justify an accurate estimate as to the result. The results are "spotted" due to scratching. The Republican state ticket carried several Democratic strongholds, which elected Democratic county and legislative tickets, and in other places the opposite was true. The vote in the state was surprisingly light. In Indianapolis no more than two-thirds of the full vote was polled, and the shrinkage was largely in the Republican wards.

The Democrats have elected the pro-slavery ticket, but probably the auditor in Marion county. Republican majorities have been reduced from the figures of two years ago.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—The election for governor in Kansas is so close that it is impossible to give correct figures at this hour. Chairman Crumme of the Republican state committee claims the election of Gov. Hoch by 3,500, while Chairman Ryan of the Democratic state committee says Harris has carried the state by at least 15,000 majority. The Republican committee has complete returns from 43 of the 105 counties. Gov. Hoch is running far behind his ticket. No estimate is given on the rest of the state ticket, but the indications are that Republicans are re-elected. The entire Republican congressional delegation is elected. It is thought that the Republicans will control the legislature.

At 11 o'clock the returns received from the state indicate that the election of governor is in doubt. Complete returns from 71 out of 105 counties received at Republican headquarters show a plurality of 5,000 for Hoch for governor.

It is conceded that the Republican members of the supreme court and the rest of the state ticket are elected. Gov. Hoch said today: "Of course I am surprised at the closeness of the vote, but I realized when I went into the campaign that there were certain things which would injure my chances. The negro question, the railroad question, and the prohibition question, but both ways and reduced my vote. In my own county of Marion the heavy vote against me was due to the courthouse difficulty and part of the county went almost solid on that issue."

"I believe now that I will be re-elected, but if I had been defeated I would have been found standing by the Republican party just the same."

Kansas City, Nov. 7.—The Star says: With complete returns, unofficial, from 69 out of 105 counties, W. A. Harris, Democrat, has plurality for governor of 1,307 over Hoch, Republican.

The returns from the remaining 36 counties can hardly change the final result.

Revised returns from southeastern Kansas have greatly reduced Harris' plurality since last night.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—The returns from the interior of the state are yet incomplete. Owing to the length of the ticket and the great amount of scratching in almost every county, the count progressed very slowly. The most reliable estimates of pluralities obtainable indicate that Gillet, Republican, has been elected governor by about 10,000 over Bell, Democrat, his nearest competitor. His plurality in this city is 1,210. It is believed that a solid Republican delegation has been elected to Congress. The Republicans will have a majority in both branches of the legislature, and have elected their candidates for supreme court justices.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—At noon today, Gen. Geo. B. Stone, chairman of the state central Republican committee, said: "The latest reports we have received indicate that California has elected eight Republican congressmen. There is no longer reason to doubt that McKinley is elected in the Second district."

"I am inclined to reduce the majority last evening claimed for Gillette for governor. The latest returns we have received convey an assurance that Gillet is elected by a plurality of from 1,000 to 15,000."

NEVADA.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 7.—Almost complete returns from the larger precincts of the state show a sweeping Democratic victory. Bannock, Democrat, for Congress, will defeat Smith Republican by 1,000 and Sparks Democrat, incumbent governor will defeat Mitchell by about the same. The legislature will be close, but the majorities of the Democratic and Prohibition parties and the Independence League, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the Democratic candidate a year ago.

With two-thirds of the state vote tabulated Mr. Guild's plurality was estimated last night at about 37,000. The Republicans re-elected the entire state ticket, although Leutger, Draper fell considerably behind Gov. Guild. The next legislature will be Republican in the usual large majority in both houses, but they will be between 4,000 and 7,000 for each. The statehood vote seems to be only one-half of the vote polled on local tickets, the apathy being even more pronounced than at first reported.

NEVADA.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 7.—Almost complete returns from the larger precincts of the state show a sweeping Democratic victory. Bannock, Democrat, for Congress, will defeat Smith Republican by 1,000 and Sparks Democrat, incumbent governor will defeat Mitchell by about the same. The legislature will be close, but the majorities of the Democratic and Prohibition parties and the Independence League, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the Democratic candidate a year ago.

NEW MEXICO.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 7.—Returns are still too few and too scattered to give any estimate of the majority for joint statehood, and Delegate W. H. Andrews, but they will be between 4,000 and 7,000 for each. The statehood vote seems to be only one-half of the vote polled on local tickets, the apathy being even more pronounced than at first reported.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—Practically complete returns from 79 precincts out of a total of 925 precincts outside of Pierce, Spokane, and King counties, for congressmen give Cushman, Republican, 5,558; Bannock, Democrat, 5,655; Humphrey, Republican, 3,647; Byrne, Democrat, 2,816; Eshelman, Democrat, 2,820.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—Although the reports from the returns are slow in coming in, returns from Pierce, Spokane and King counties, with those that have been received from outside counties, are sufficient on which to base an assertion that Humphrey, Jones and Cushman, the Republican congressmen, have all been re-elected by heavy majorities over their Democratic opponents, Blackman, Byrne and Eshelman.

The vote shows a considerable falling off in Republican majorities from two years ago, but this may be explained by the fact that in measure the congressmen were then carried along on the tidal wave that swept the state in favor of President Roosevelt. Returns from 190 precincts of King