

ANOTHER FLOP BY "AMERICANS"

Members of the City Council Again Reverse Former Action Taken.

NOW IT IS TAX ABATEMENT.

They Rally to the Support of Mayor Thompson in His Veto of Martin Resolution.

The "American" members of the city council again reversed themselves last night at the council meeting and rallied to the support of Mayor Thompson in his veto of the Martin resolution providing for abating a special tax against $300 on public school property on east Second South street. A week ago the council voted unanimously to abate the tax as the law does not give the city council power to levy a tax against any public school property. The resolution was submitted to Mayor Thompson and, after consulting the city attorney, he vetoed it on the ground that the property has been sold by the board of education to an individual and that the abatement would be in favor of the other party and not in favor of the board.

When the veto came moved that it be laid over for a week for further investigation as he was satisfied that the council had no right to collect the tax. His motion was lost by a vote of 6 to 5. The roll was then called on the veto and it was sustained by a vote of 6 to 4. In order to clear the title of the special tax against the property, it is necessary for the board of education to go into court and sue the legal title of the action of the council in levying the tax against school property.

POOL ROOM ORDINANCE.

Martin introduced an amendment to the pool room ordinance which prohibits minors from frequenting pool and billiard rooms. The amendment prohibits minors from frequenting pool and billiard rooms where public works advertise for bids for enlarging the watermain throughout the city as recommended by City Engineer Kelsey. The amendment provides that no person under the age of 18 years shall be admitted to any pool or billiard room. In support of his amendment Martin declared that boys in had recent and that they had been playing truant from school and spent their time in that place. The amendment was referred to the committee on license and municipal laws committees, and is as follows:

"Sec. 21. That section 21 of the ordinance of the Salt Lake City of 1905 be, and the same hereby is amended, and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 21. Minors, Indians, Insane or Metic Persons in Saloons or Billiard Halls Prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person to send or take, or for any owner, agent, bartender or employee, to permit or allow any person under the age of 21 years, or Indian or insane or idiotic person, to go to or remain at or be in any saloon, wine room or apartment whatsoever, where intoxicating liquors are sold or consumed, except in hotels or restaurants, or to permit any such minor to visit, frequent or remain in any billiard or pool room or hall."

EXTENDING CITY LIMITS.

The report of the committee recommending the granting of the petition of Earl Dunshee for the annexation to the city of about 40 acres of land between Eleventh and Twelfth South and Thirteenth and Fifteenth East streets, was adopted by the council, and the city attorney will draw up the necessary ordinance which will be submitted at the next council meeting. The new district has been plotted in city lots and is known as Westminster Heights.

SOME PROTESTS.

A protest was received from J. L. Sane against the action of the Rio Grande Railway company in allowing cars to stand on Fifth West street for

The report of the waterworks committee recommending that the board of public works advertise for bids for enlarging the watermain throughout the city as recommended by City Engineer Kelsey was adopted by the council. The improvement will place the system in first class condition for handling the increased supply of water to be obtained through the Big Cottonwood canal. The same committee also recommended that hereafter no water extensions be granted unless they will pay the city at least 4 per cent on the cost of the improvement. This report was also adopted by the council.

City Engineer Kelsey called the council's attention to the fact that the smelters at Bingham Junction are dumping slag and sand concentrates into the Jordan river and he recommended that the city take action to stop it. The matter was referred to the committee on Jordan canal and irrigation for consideration.

THE BEST TEACHER

Old Experience Still Holds the Palm.

For real practical reliability and something to swear by, experience—a big load yet without getting way-backed.

A So. Dak. woman found something about food from Old Experience a good, reliable teacher.

She writes: "I think I have used almost every breakfast food manufactured, but none equal Grape-Nuts in my estimation."

"I was greatly bothered with weak stomach and indigestion, with forming of gas after eating and tried many remedies for it but did not find relief. Then I decided I must diet and see if I could overcome the difficulty that way. My choice of food was Grape-Nuts because the doctor told me I must not digest starchy food."

"It has been a great benefit to me and I feel like a different person since I began to eat it. It is wonderful to me how strong my nerves have become. I advise everyone to try it for experience is the best teacher."

"If you have any stomach trouble—can't digest your food, use Grape-Nuts food for breakfast at least, and you will be able to praise it enough when you see how different you feel." The senate then adjourned 2 p. m. today.

STATE TO PROTECT LOGICAL SMELTERS

Bill Introduced in Senate Giving Them Right of Eminent Domain.

MAY CONDEMN NEARBY LAND.

Right Extends Even to Farms Needed Only as Places on Which Fumes And Smoke May Settle.

In the senate a bill has been introduced to make the smelting of ores in Utah a more pleasant occupation to the smelter managers, and to relieve the smelters from the operations of farmers in the vicinity of their smokestacks, who would constantly harass them with damage suits. Under the new bill, land on which it is necessary that smelter smoke fall, becomes eminent domain, and the good, old law originally enacted to let railroads have a clear right of way across country, comes to their rescue, giving them rights of the first class on smoke-infested land. If the owner objects to the smoke, all he can do after the law is passed, is to put a fair valuation on it, and deliver it for good money into the care and keeping of the smelter. If his value is too high, he must move away and his suit will settle the amount to be paid.

The bill, if applied to the smelters at Bingham, would require them to buy a certain amount of land, one or two miles wide on each side of the Jordan. Senator B. X. Smith, who introduced it, however, stated that it is not intended to be practically applied to the Murray situation, but to localities on which the smelters are settling, and where the farmers who stubbornly hold out against any opportunity to sell their farms.

"The smelters at Murray will probably move," said Senator Smith, "but we must not drive them clear out of the country. We need them, and, of course, the ideal condition is one in which they get along without their obnoxious gases and smoke. In their contemplated exodus it would be a misfortune if they should go so far that they would be out of this territory altogether."

Outside of this bill, the feature of yesterday's session was the introduction of the emule court measure, and a bill against gambling, by Rasband.

The text of Smith's bill is as follows: "Whereas the production and reduction of ores are of vital necessity to the people of the state, and pursuits in which all are interested, and the encouragement of said pursuits is a part of the public policy of this state, in the interest of the people, and for the purpose of promoting the welfare of the state and its inhabitants: Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Utah, That the mining, milling, smelting or other reduction of ores are hereby declared to be for the public use and benefit, and the right of eminent domain may be exercised therefor in the manner provided in chapter 55, Revised Statutes of Utah, 1898, in taking land for sites for mills, smelters or other works for the reduction of ores and therefor, including the right to take Labor, room, fuel, water, and county lands for the discharge of ash and dust distribution of buildings and other such works. Referred to the committee on mines and mining.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The fourth week of the session found the senate in session at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was 10 o'clock when President Love called the lawmakers together, and their calendar was reviewed. After a few preliminary efforts, for there was a long grind before a clear table was reported.
