LIVELY SCENE AT MURRAY TODAY

Strikers Line the Road and Prevent Men From Going To Work.

DEPUTIES GUARDING BRIDGE.

American Smelter Forced to Shut Down Operations on Account Of the Trouble.

Several Unruly Incidents Mark the Second Day of Strike Among the 1,000 Allen Laborers.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

Beginning among the Austrians the strike has spread until it includes all foreign labor, organized with a native of Honolulu as leader. The Austrians and Greeks this morning gathered at the entrance of the Murray plant and prevented all white labor from going in. Violence was resorted to with such as attempted to pass the strike pickets. One man was hit with a lump of slag, another was thrown into the ditch, and several were forced back towards Murray. The white mechanics finally withdrew for self protection. The strike forced a shut down of the plant, a few foremen continuing to operate one of the eight furnaces, the other seven being abandoned. This afternoon the employees are being paid off at the company office, a force of eight deputy sheriffs being on hand to prevent disorder or injury to company property. Superintendent Norton declares that the men went on strike without giving him any chance to secure a hearing of their grievance, and that he has not been approached today with any attempt to adjust matters. He is confining his efforts to maintaining peace and protecting property.

(Bulletin.)

Murray, 2:30 p. m.—The payment of strikers at the company offices is progressing in an orderly manner, but a guard of 300 strikers is maintained near the gates to the company grounds, and members of this guard declare that they will not let any persons go to work until the officials come out and tell them that their raise is granted. They deny that there is any organization among them, and that they are waiting collectively for this notice, and are ready to stay on strike for five months, unless the demand is granted, and notice sent them.

The first serious strike to occur at the Murray and Bingham Junction smelters is in full progress today. The county is represented in the case by eight deputy sheriffs in charge of Chief Deputy Sharp. They have taken their station at the bridge leading to the American smelting company's enclosure on the west side of the Murray creek. In the road on the hill to the east over 1,000 strikers have taken their position. This hill overlooks State street, and gives a clear view of the plant, and all approaches to it. Whenever any attempt was made to enter the grounds this morning, this mob of strikers swooped down upon the approaching parties, surrounded them and either forced them into the creek or back towards Murray. The strikers, who are white labor employed at the smelters, was prevented from going to work. The principal trouble occurred between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning, when Special Deputies Furster and John Larsen, with Marshal Mauss of Murray were alone at the plant. A group of strikers, however, that had been called by the sheriff's office, and who arrived at Murray at 9:45. They were Deputies Shaw, Ike Emery, Steele, Corless, Sleater, Butler and Booth, and this force, with their official badges pinned on the outside of their coats, marched at once to the bridge gates, which the strikers were congregated. No further violence was attempted after their arrival, and Special Deputies Furster and Larsen were they had been on duty all night.

PAYING THEM OFF.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the company began to pay off its labor of all kinds, the white mechanics being the first to line up at the office. Most of the strikers had left the hill at this time for lunch, but congregated again here in the afternoon, without attempting to interfere with the line of men going in to get their pay. Mayor Brown Murray was out among the strikers all morning, trying to find some leader with whom he could discuss the situation and reach some understanding. He found, however, that they were either totally unorganized or refused to give out the names of their leaders. He finally learned, however, that a large man dressed in brown with a sign on his head was giving the signals to enter the grounds, and he tried to have a talk with him.

REFUSED TO TALK.

The tall man refused like all the others to understand a word of English. When a reporter who had reached the company offices volunteered the information, however, that no committee had called on the superintendent, and that no effort had been made to state their grievance, a Greek standing nearby suddenly discovered that he knew enough English to call the superintendent names, and declared that a committee of strikers had been formed yesterday morning, and told him on what terms the men would continue at work. At noon Mayor Brown said: "I regard the situation as somewhat serious, as the strikers are these people of so uncommunicative and hard to approach makes it difficult to reach an understanding. They take heavily to heart criticism, and are very difficult to close the saloons after pay day this afternoon. The strike is harmful both to the town and the company, and it is to be hoped it will be settled at an early date. The only previous strike was settled in a day, but these people, it seems are prepared to stay out a month."

BROKE THROUGH LINES.

Superintendent Norton was found on the company grounds, alone with the exception of Chief Bookkeeper A. C. Smith and Assistant Bookkeeper A. C. Cope. These two men had broken through the picket lines, and stated that they heard the strike leaders talking to the men to meet them, after starting to surround them, as they had the brick masons and mechanics. Mr. Norton is a thin, wiry man, and was very much alert to the situation. "You will have to go to the company offices up town for most of your information. We are in constant touch with them, and you ought to be able to get the situation. There is to give out. I will say, however, that these men went on strike without giving me any chance to adjust their grievances. They are not prepared to give out the names of any of their leaders, and the leader himself, when finally located through his efforts to give signals when to swoop on people approaching the bridge, and he did not know his own name. From a Greek storekeeper in Murray it was learned that he is a native of Honolulu, and that both the Greek and the Austrians have placed their case in his hands.

FIFTY EMPTY BEER KEGS.

On the hill where they congregated were nearly 50 empty beer kegs, which are the net result of the recent Greek holidays, and which may have something to do with the strike. The strikers live in the western portion of Murray, and it is declared that they send out of the country over $300 out of each $400 earned. From a number of the mechanical force who were prevented from entering the grounds, it was learned that the "charge wheels" among the foreign laborers is in two grades, and that the best receive $1.75. The demands are for $2.25 per day for charge wheels, and $2 per day for all other employees, who are at work in the brick mill, the cyanide mill, the flat roasters, and the iron mill.

THREE MEN HURT.

In the rioting this morning the injured were two white mechanics, and L. E. Lauritzen, Murray manager of the Deseret News. Mr. Lauritzen rode up to the strikers on a wheel, and turned back when he saw the mob. He was interviewed by Special Deputy Furster, who was stationed there. He was surrounded and pushed over an embankment, his head being struck by a brick which injured him from the fall. A mechanic was jostled into a barbed wire fence, and was cut across the face, while another was struck by a brick which landed in a lump of slag. Two people were pushed into the creek but were not hurt beyond receiving a gratuitous bath.

GREEKS ARE ARMED.

Purchase Automatic Guns and Ammunition at Salt Lake Stores. Inquiry at a number of the gun and ammunition houses in the city elicits the information that no special sale of revolvers, knives or ammunition have been made in the city recently, although sales of all these articles to these men are of daily occurrence. At one establishment four Greeks yesterday purchased a 38 Colt's automatic gun, and 700 rounds of cartridges for $2 and 38 caliber revolvers of the Colt's and Smith Wesson type. A razor was among the articles purchased by this mob, but the transaction was not reported, as it was no uncommon occurrence. Greeks and Italians, according to the manager of one of the houses, when first landing in the city, always repair to the nearest gun store and provide themselves with a "first-class $16 or $18 revolver, usually of the kind mentioned. They will not have a cheap gun, and the regular $5 bull dog pattern has no charm for a Greek. It must be of the very best grade obtainable, and they are always willing to pay the price for the best make of gun.

LIMOGES CHINA.

Appraisers' Decision Puts Valuation Back on Old Basis. New York, May 8.—By a decision of Judge Byrnes Waite of the United States general appraisers just handed down, $100 worth of Limoges china was admitted at a valuation which will sustain the present prices on French china all through this country. The decision is an important one. Claims have been made that Limoges china was undervalued at the custom house and the appraisers, increased the valuation 75 per cent. The result was that importations immediately ceased, as this country was the chief customer for the product, the factories at Limoges, France, had to close down. Delegations of the owners appealed to the French government for relief, and M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, took up the question with this government. The decision now rendered puts the valuation back practically on the old basis, so that importations will continue and work at Limoges can be resumed.

LOWELL EXPEDITION.

Special Camera Made to Photograph Canals on Mars.

Chicago, May 8.—Work on a camera especially to be used by members of the Lowell expedition to photograph the canals and polar caps of the planet Mars was completed yesterday and will establish itself at a point in the Andes, where the planet will appear in the zenith. The apparatus will be shipped today to Prof. Percival Lowell of the Massachusetts institute of technology, who is sending the camera to the expedition which will be under the direction of Prof. David Todd of Amherst college. Will sail for South America on Saturday and will establish itself at a point in the Andes, where the planet will appear in the zenith. Mars will be nearer the earth this summer than it has been in 15 years, and for this reason astronomers are making elaborate preparations for a study of the planet. Mr. Gaertner's camera is in the general form of a brass tube, one end fitted to be clamped to the end of an 18-inch telescope and the other containing a shutter and plateholder. The main tube is 18 inches long, and is telescoped into the other and adjusted with a device for slow focusing. The unusual features of the apparatus are a peculiar arrangement of the plateholder by which a large number of exposures may be taken on one plate, and a concave lens, which enlarges the image on the plate instead of diminishing it, as do the lens of an ordinary camera. By pressing on a pneumatic bulb the operator can move the plate so that as many as 50 exposures may be taken, each exposure showing a different phase of the planet.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Beaumont, Tex., May 8.—As the result of two attempts at assassination from ambush at Orange last night, one man was killed and two seriously wounded. The dead man is Maj. Boykin, a negro officer, who was fired on by unknown persons, as he was leaving a negro saloon in Orange. He was struck all the bullets entering his body and producing instant death. It is thought the shooting was done by negroes, and several arrests have been made. William Hudson of Orange and O. F. Woodfin of Center, Tex., were on the seat of a cab that was loaded with people riding in the outskirts of the town when the shooting occurred. The shot coming from a rifle, the bullet passed through the fleshy part of Woodfin's back and entered the arm of Hudson, and it is thought the shooting was prompted by a spirit of revenge against Hudson, who killed a negro in Orange about a year ago.

Mr. Mollen leased a piece of ground just north of the Wasatch boulevard near the corner of Eleventh avenue and B street and today started to construct traps right on the boulevard for the purpose of leading the gravel. CHIEF DINAN APPEARS.

Chief of Police Dinan made his first appearance on the strike scene this morning. He drove in an automobile to Turk and Fillmore streets, where Capt. Monday made a speech to the men. The men had instructions to use their clubs today in the event an attempt should be made to repeat yesterday's riot.

PERSONS IN THE CROWD TRYING TO OBSTRUCT THE MOVEMENT OF THE STREET CARS, AND NOT BY THE MEN WHO WERE OPERATING THEM.

Asked why his men during the fatal rioting of yesterday afternoon did not draw their clubs and make a real effort to drive the mob back, Dinan replied: "Well, I think the men did pretty well. I think they did all right. We did not want to break any heads if we could avoid it. We wanted to use peaceful measures. I was a lot of stone throwing, but I understand it was not done by union men."

INFORMED THAT A GREAT DEAL OF THE STONING OF THE CAR GUARDS HAD BEEN DONE BY UNION MEN, THAT UNION PICKETS WERE KEPT AND MADE THE TARGET OF MISSILES BY UNION MEN, AND THAT SOME OF THE PICKETS THEMSELVES TOOK TO HURLING BRICKS, THE CHIEF SAID.

"WHY DON'T YOU PITY HIS UNFORTUNATE?"

Asked to affirm or deny the report that he had threatened to arm the police with rifles and order them to shoot the strike-breakers if the latter opened fire from the cars today, Dinan said: "I did not say exactly that. I told the attorneys of the company that if he strike-breakers were going to shoot down my men, we have a few rifles at headquarters ourselves and we would use them."

"I WAS AFTER I HEARD OF THE SHOOTING OF DETECTIVE SERGEANT BELL AND OFFICER SALTERS. MY MEN WILL NOT CARRY RIFLES TODAY, HOWEVER."

Chief Dinan added the chief of police has not proposed to start any cars from the Turk and Fillmore streets today but that cars were started from the barn at Oak and Broderick streets about 1 o'clock this afternoon, manned by strike-breakers.

A PEACE MOVEMENT.

A strong movement to secure peace was begun today when, after consultation among leading citizens it was resolved to call a meeting of the Labor temple at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when efforts will be made to settle all the existing troubles. TERRIBLE DOUBLE MURDER IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 8.—Mrs. Maria Vito and her mother, Mrs. Maria Brignoli, were literally slashed to pieces with razors in their east side home early today. Giovanni Vito, the husband of the younger woman, is under arrest, charged with the crime. It is alleged that he killed the women after QUARREL WHICH FOLLOWED HIS REFUSAL TO GIVE HIM MONEY. VITO DENIES THAT HE IS QUARRELING. HE MAINTAINS THAT HIS WIFE AND MOTHER-IN-LAW WERE KILLED BY TWO MEN WHO BROKE INTO THE HOUSE AND WITH WHOM HE HIMSELF HAD A FEW STRUGGLES DURING THE COURSE OF HIS LIFE. IN SUPPORT OF HIS STORY HE EXHIBITED TO THE POLICE A CUT ON ONE OF HIS HANDS WHICH HE DECARES WAS INFLECTED BY ONE OF THE MURDERERS. HIS STORY IS SUBSTANTIATED BY HIS 15-YEAR-OLD SON. THE POLICE GIVE THE STORY LITTLE CREDENCE, HOWEVER, AS VITO AND HIS CHILD WERE THE ONLY PERSONS IN THE APARTMENT WHEN THE MURDER WAS DONE. HE WAS INFORMED THAT MURDER WAS BEING DONE IN THE HOUSE, FORCED AN ENTRANCE. ALL THE DOORS OF THE APARTMENT HAD BEEN LOCKED.

INSIDE THE POLICE FOUND VITO FULLY DRESSED. BLOOD WAS EVERYWHERE, AND UPON THE FLOOR LAY THE LIFELESS BODY OF MRS. VITO. HE HAD NEARLY SEVEN FEET OF BLOOD ON HIS FACE AND NECK. THE BODY WAS FRIGHTFULLY SLASHED, AND A BROKEN RAZOR WAS FOUND STILL STICKING IN ONE OF THE WOUNDS. ON THE FLOOR ESCAPE JUST OUTSIDE THE WINDOW WAS FOUND THE BODY OF MRS. BRIGNOLI, PRACTICALLY COVERED WITH BLOOD.

It was Mrs. Brignoli who gave the alarm which called the police to the scene. Mrs. Casano, who occupied the apartment adjoining that of the Vitos, was aroused by some one tapping upon the window. He saw Mrs. Brignoli in the street, who had been running from wounds on her neck and throat. She tried to speak but could not, and as Casano threw up the window, she fell back and died. Her neighbor and his cries brought the police to the scene. Under a bed in the Vito apartment the police found a second broken razor, which was recognized as the razor which bore the imprints of four bloodstained fingers.

Vito is a barber. He has not worked since the murder. He has a wife and three children. His father-in-law declares that all that time he has lived from the earnings of his wife, who was employed in a shirtwaist factory.

NORTHERN PACIFIC HOLD-UPS STILL AT LARGE.

Butte, Mont., May 8.—With three suspects and a witness in the custody of the sheriff, the posses on the trail of the masked men who held up the North Coast Limited at Welch's Spur early yesterday morning and murdered Engineer Clow and wounded Fireman Sullivan, are still in the hills. Including deputies from the local police and the sheriff's force, more than 50 men, are patrolling the ridge of the divide directly east of Butte, where the dogs lost the trail yesterday morning.

Robert McDonald was arrested at Woodville last night. He says he meant to beat his way north on the Great Northern. He was taken from the top of a passenger coach upon the train that left here at 8 o'clock last night. He denies any connection with the Clow murder. He is a marine engineer and worked recently in Seattle.

A drunken man entered a restaurant at Basin early this morning and ordered breakfast at once. He threatened to "blow off" the waiter's head instanter if the eggs were not served at once. He was promptly arrested. His name cannot be learned. He is not considered as a likely suspect.

William Powers, arrested in Woodville yesterday, is still in custody, as is Edward Crawford, the man who says he met the robbers on top of the divide. He is still after the holdup men.

ST. PAUL, MAY 8.—Officials of the Northern Pacific railroad said today that they had no information from Butte, or elsewhere in that vicinity which would confirm the story from Helena in regard to the capture of the robbers had been captured. "Our men are all out of reach now so we are without any definite advice and we presume they are still after the holdup men," said one official.
