

UTAH LIGHT IS STILL IN FIGHT

Pioneer Company Offers City Council a Counter Proposition on Gas.

MATTER GOES OVER A WEEK.

City Attorney Ogden Hiles Holds That There is No Existing Contract For City Lighting.

By offering a counter proposition to the city council last night for installing gas street lights, the Utah Light & Railway company succeeded in having the report of the committee on streets and improvements laid over for a brief time so that the matter of entering into a contract with the Welshbach Street Lighting company of America for installing its gas lights in the place of electric arc lights now in use was not acted upon at all.

The Utah company also offered to install for a test of two or three weeks 50 candle-power incandescent electric lights on two blocks. The last block will cost $20 per year each for the first three years and $28 per year each for the next three years.

Mulvey and Black urged that the Welshbach proposition be adopted without waiting any longer to consider the Utah Light & Railway company's proposition, but this was opposed by the committee and the report of the committee recommending the acceptance of the Welshbach system was finally laid over for a week.

CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION.

In connection with the lighting matter, the committee had asked City Attorney Ogden Hiles for an opinion as to whether or not the old contract with the Utah Light & Railway company for arc lights which was not renewed at the expiration of the last three-year period was still in effect as claimed by the company.

Sal Lake City, Utah, Aug. 26, 1907. To the Honorable President and Members of the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah: Gentlemen—The question has been propounded to me whether the contract of Salt Lake City with the Utah Light & Power company of the date of March 5, 1901, for lighting the streets of Salt Lake City, is still in force; having regard to the terms of that contract and the terms of the ordinance entitled "An ordinance ratifying and confirming the transfer of franchises to Utah Light & Railway company, a corporation, extending the life of said franchises, and amending the same, including the franchise of the Utah Power company," passed Aug. 3, 1905, and approved Aug. 19, 1905, in which the paragraph 2 of section 5 of said ordinance, considered in itself a contract of the city with the grantee that the grantee will furnish and pay for the lighting of the streets of Salt Lake City for a three-year period from the time of the passage and approval of such ordinance, according to the prices hereof provided in the contract of March 5, 1901.

SOME PROVISIONS.

On the first consideration I observe that section 2 of the ordinance of March 5, 1901, provides as follows: "This contract shall be operative in all its parts and conditions beginning March 1, 1901, and continuing until March 1, 1904, provided, that in the option of the city council of said city said contract may be extended in all its parts and conditions for a period of two years after said March 1, 1904, by said city council giving not less than 90 days notice in writing, previous to March 1, 1904, provided, that in the option of the city council of said city to so extend and renew this contract."

By the foregoing term, said contract would, by its words, have expired on March 1, 1904, had not the city exercised its option to continue the same for two years, which it did by the following communication in writing to the Utah Light & Power Company: Dec. 3, 1903. Utah Light & Power Company: Gentlemen—Your attorney notified that Salt Lake City exercises its option to extend, in all its parts and conditions, for a period of two years after March 1, 1904, and that the city council has entered into between Salt Lake City and the Utah Light & Power company on the 5th of March, 1901, providing for the lighting of the streets of Salt Lake City by the said Utah Light & Power company.

OVER SIXTY PROTESTS.

At the meeting late yesterday afternoon of the board of equalization of water rates, more than 60 protests of one kind and another were heard and considered. The chairman of the committee entrusted with the regulation of water is Councilman M. E. Mulvey. His fellow members are Messrs. Fudendahl, Martin, Davis and O'Connell, all but the last two being present at the meeting. A few charity abatement petitions were made by the board, but the majority of protests were overruled as being without merit. The complaints were as varied as they were numerous.

WHAT IT IS.

Composition of the Famous Food.

A wide spread interest has been created among good lovers, as to the composition of Grape-Nuts, the food that has become popular and famous the world over. It has long been known to physicians, chemists and food experts that the starchy portion of entire wheat and barley flours is transformed into a true and very choice sugar, by the action of intestinal digestion in the human body. This sugar is identical with, and is known as grape-sugar, and it is in condition for immediate transformation into blood and the necessary structure from which the delicate nerve centers are built up.

A food expert followed a line of experiments until he produced the food called Grape-Nuts, of which grape-sugar forms the principal part, and it is produced by following Nature's processes, in a mechanical way. That is, heat, moisture, and time are the methods employed and directed by scientific facts gained in research.

Without undue reiteration it may be stated that "In The Bishop's Carriage" with all its excitement and improbabilities was the vehicle chosen to open the dramatic season at the historic old play house last night. The not well taken, "The Bishop's Carriage" was here last December in the same play apparently did not diminish the interest in the production. The excellent company and followed the play with pronounced interest.

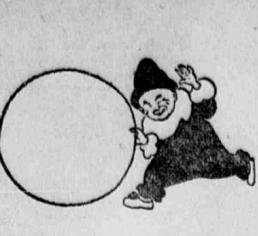

Comparisons are not always odious—Jessie Busley's present support embraces but one member of the old company outside of herself, and it holds its own. Mrs. Busley has rounded off her interpretation of the girl of the slums and added little bits of "business" that make it a finished portrayal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashton have announced their engagement to be married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashton, who are to be married Friday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Daynes will leave Salt Lake on Sept. 1 to make their home in Ocean Park, where it is expected Mr. Daynes' health will improve in the lower altitude.

Mrs. Mayerhoffer and Mrs. Ned Price entertained, last evening, for Miss Mae Bean, who is to be married. The parlors were decorated in red hearts, the dining-room in pink and green, dainty refreshments being served. Guessing games were a feature of the evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Kirkman, Mrs. Mabel Tuckett, Mrs. Dan Davis, and the Misses Laura Lamman, Ethel Sampson and the guest of honor, Miss Bean. Twenty-five were present.

COUNCIL IN BUSY SESSION.

Chief McKenzie Sends in Communication Regarding Salt Palace Officer Now Under Arrest.

DAVIS SHOE CO.

Lighting under this paragraph in case said city desires such discontinuance. NO THREE-YEAR CONTRACT.

I am of the opinion that this paragraph is, in a fair construction of its terms, a contract for not more than a year from the time of the passage of the ordinance, and that it is in no sense a contract at all; but the ordinance, by its terms says that any street lighting furnished by the Utah Light & Railway company shall be done, made and had through contracts between the parties, of not less than three-year periods.

Therefore, I am of the opinion that no contract at present exists between the city and the Utah Light & Railway company for the furnishing of light for any definite or specific period of time, and that Salt Lake City is now at liberty to make contracts without any reference or regard to the matters and considerations aforesaid.

SALE NOT CONFIRMED.

Upon objections being raised by Preece and Fenstrom, the sale by Land and Water Commission of the lot of 10 acres in City Creek canyon addition and on the north bench for $9,600 was not confirmed by the council. The land was sold at auction for $10,000. The matter was submitted for approval by the council Preece raised the objection that he did not think the price was high enough. He offered $12,000 and declared that Ellis had offered that much for the land three or four years ago and as real estate had been advancing in price since that time, he thought the property should bring a better price now.

FINE FRUIT FROM NAMPA.

Idaho City Yields Large and Luscious Apples, Plums and Prunes.

George H. Horne, receiving teller of the State Bank of Utah, has just returned from a 10 days' visit with his brother, Thomas R. Horne, eastward of the Utah-Idaho factory at Nampa, Idaho. The Utah man saw things in the way of fruit raising that were little short of the marvelous. He brought back with him a variety of apples which were not yet matured, weighed 12 and 13 ounces each, and in the vast orchard of Charles Verheyen, where they grew, there were no signs of blight or diseased fruit. From the orchard he brought back a box containing 20 Rhone Beauty apples, evenly less than 12 inches long that contained 20 Rhone Beauty apples, every one large and perfectly sound.

LAGUERRIER REMOVED.

The initial communication from Chief of Police McKenzie was submitted to the council last night and was acted upon favorably. It removed Special Police Officer A. J. Laguerrier, who has been on duty at the Salt Palace since the council was notified of his arrest upon a criminal charge of immoral conduct. The chief recommended that Laguerrier be removed from duty and that he be placed in the city jail, where he is now under arrest upon a criminal charge of immoral conduct.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, by usually enlargement of the prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Royce Burnett, Rockwell, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 94 years old. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co., 'The never substitutes'."

FIGHT AT SALT PALACE.

"Gentlemen Clerks' Central Figures in a Roughhouse Fracas.

An exciting entertainment that was not on the regular program at the Salt Palace occurred last night when a general fight took place in which Burt Knudsen and his brother, clerks in stands, were central figures, against the crowd. To bystanders there seemed to be a general mill involving at least a dozen fighters, but Manager Halvorson declared there were but two men fighting.

Mr. Halvorson, the manager of the resort, was of the opinion that the Knudsens were to blame for picking the fight and says they should have remained in their places in their stands. For this infraction of the rules the clerks were discharged, and no arrests were made.

Dunlap Hats For Fall. On Sale Aug. 29th. Brown, Terry & Woodruff Co., 166 Main St.

Grand—the season at the Grand theater opened auspiciously, a good sized and thoroughly appreciative audience greeted the new production, the performance, "Joshua Simkins," a play entirely down-east in character was the offering, and it is of the sort to please all eyes. The interesting, in-to-king public, Archie Ward assumed the role of the New England farmer, sawmill owner and all around unique type of man from the green mountain state, and there was no end of fun from his sayings and doings during the evening. Mixed with the humorous were many clever and witty remarks, and there was some clever dancing, and something that passed for singing. The aggregation is a jolly band of merry-makers, and that effect was maintained throughout the evening. The orchestra that belongs to the company is composed of young men, but good music, is furnished, and there are many attractions in store for Grand patrons during the season. "Joshua Simkins" furnishes the week and the next engagements will be "Della Pringle" in the musical melodrama "The Chorus Girl."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lena Moore will entertain at "dinner on Friday" at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. T. Badger, 150 Seventh East street, in honor of three brides-to-be—Miss Hattie Whitney, Miss Ethel Rogers and Miss Ethel Armstrong.

The families of H. G. Whitney and John D. Spencer will return from Brighton tomorrow.
