LARGE SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

More Than 200 Students Over Last Year—More Efficient Teachers Employed.

STAKE CONVENTION OF M. I. A.

Thos. K. Lucas Gets Light Sentence—Trolley Line to Springs—Senator Tillman at Opera House.

Ogden, Sept. 12.—The public schools of Ogden have an enrollment of more than 200 over last year at the opening of schools, according to the report given last evening by Supt. Allison to the board of education.

Special attention is to be given this year to the domestic arts department. The board authorized the purchase of six new sewing machines to be used in this department.

The health report gives two cases of scarlet fever and one of diphtheria since the first of the month.

The following teachers were elected: Maggie Minty, Estella McCready and Eva Flemming.

DISTRICT COURT.

Thomas K. Lucas Gets Light Sentence For Attempted Burglary.

Ogden, Sept. 12.—When prisoners in the Weber county jail awaiting trial and sentence prove to be friends of the officers and sometimes their benefactors, they are justly rewarded, as was evidenced yesterday afternoon in the second district court before Judge Howell in the case of the state against Thomas K. Lucas, who appeared before the court for sentence, and the following dialogue took place:

The Court—Thomas K. Lucas, having been heretofore bound over to the district court by the committing magistrate on the charge of attempt to commit burglary in the second degree and having been heretofore duly arraigned upon said charge, and having plead guilty to the same, and the time having arrived for sentence, I ask you if there is any legal reason why sentence should not be passed upon you?

Mr. Lucas—I have none.

The Court—Does counsel desire to say anything upon this matter?

Sir, Mr. Lucas—No, your honor.

The Court—I will say in this case that it has been represented to me that the defendant is not a real criminal and that he committed this crime, probably the first offense of the kind he ever committed, and it has been further represented to me by the district attorney and the county sheriff that he has aided the officers since his arrest and incarceration in the county jail, from the fact that he informed the officers of the presence there of a gun in the possession of other prisoners, which might have resulted in the death of some of the officers, and for that reason I have been asked to impose a very light penalty upon the defendant. I have yielded to these representations, and the sentence of the court will be that the defendant be imprisoned in the state prison for the term of ten months.

Mr. Lucas—Thank you, your honor.

The Court—You are dismissed.

CUPS AT THE COMMERCIAL CLUB WON BY UTAH IRRIGATORS.

At the Commercial club there is at present an ocular demonstration of Utah's magnificent showing made at the recent National Irrigation congress held at Sacramento.

Utah won 16 out of the 21 prizes offered all of which redounds to the credit of the state and is cause for congratulations particularly to Thomas Judd, president of the state board of horticulture, whose indefatigable efforts were factors in making the congress the success it was.

Not all the cups captured by Utah are represented in the above display. The following is a list of the prizes: W. R. Hearst sweepstake cup, awarded for the best state exhibit of irrigation and finest products. This trophy stands two and one-half feet high, including the base.

For the best grapes raised under irrigation, cup two feet high, presented by Shreve & Co., of San Francisco.

Best collection exhibit of products of a single farm irrigated by pump, a two foot high cup presented by the Joshua Hendy Iron works.

For the best display of grapes, cup donated by the Los Angeles Times.

For the best single canner exhibit of canned vegetables, George W. Peiter presented a handsome silver cup standing 22 inches high.

Utah also captured the beautiful cup presented by the Anaheim-Husch Beekeeping association for the best state exhibit of barley.

Handsome cup for the best single farm products raised by electric power irrigation, presented by A. Fishbacker.

The Fred W. Keisel cup for the best exhibit of canned tomatoes raised by irrigation was also returned to Utah.

For general excellence of the exhibit, the cup presented by General Harrison Gray Ows of the Los Angeles Times is now at the Commercial club. It is two feet in height, resting on a beautiful saucer.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public by the management of the Commercial club to visit the club and inspect the trophies.
