

C. COMISKEY AND JOHNSON IN ROW

Opposed to One Another—Strife In the American League.

Charles Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox, is again in arms against President Ban Johnson, of the American League.

Comiskey worked for the American league in 1906, but was not elected to the position of president.

Comiskey is a man of high ability and has made many valuable contributions to the league.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nerve.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what it was until I had a good physician but not a doctor.

A man of prominence in big league baseball is authorized to announce that he has no objection to the big league president's declaration of the illegitimate attitude of the American association.

The belief that the American association will revolt this winter and repudiate the national agreement is very strong among men who are familiar with baseball affairs.
