

IMPRESSIVE RITES OVER MRS. HULL

Services in Twenty-First Ward Attended by Host of Friends.

FLORAL OFFERINGS PROFUSE.

Many Organizations Join in Honoring Memory of Faithful Wife, Mother and Church Worker.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret C. S. Hull was held yesterday in the Twenty-first ward chapel at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Hull's death occurred Tuesday, heart trouble being the cause.

A profusion of flowers was in evidence as tender tributes to the memory of the woman held so dear in the hearts of so many people.

MRS. MARGARET C. O. HULL.

Relief society, state Sunday school board, temple workers, general board of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association, the general Primary board, the federal officers, the surveyor-general's office and other prominent people.

The temple workers and the Relief society were present as organizations, as was also the general board of the Y. L. M. I. A. Music was rendered by a choir of 20 voices selected by Prof. Evan Stephens.

Among the speakers were Benjamin Goddard, who paid a high tribute to the departed, former Bishop Joseph Morgan of the Fifteenth ward, who spoke of Mrs. Hull when she was a young girl, spoke feelingly of her earlier life, her integrity and faithfulness.

Prof. Evan Stephens spoke with evident emotion. He said that Mrs. Hull would always be remembered by him as one of the sweet singers of the state. He was inspired by hearing her sing many years ago.

President John R. Winder spoke on behalf of the temple workers, among whom Mrs. Hull was always active. In a feeling manner he extended his sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family.

President Joseph E. Smith spoke at some length. He said that for a great many years he had been intimately acquainted with Mrs. Hull and with Thomas Hull, her husband, who survived her. He labored with Mr. Hull in the London conference over 30 years ago and in the late '90s he knew Mrs. Hull's father.

In those years he had learned to regard them both with deepest feelings of love and affection. In 1877 President Smith formed the marriage ceremony which linked the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Hull for all time to come.

President Smith and Thomas Hull have been intimately associated. President Smith concluded his address with a strong testimony of the eternity of the marriage covenant and the duties of husband and wife. He invoked his deepest sympathy for the bereaved family.

At the grave, the last resting place of the mortal remains of the departed was dedicated by Patriarch John Smith.

MUSICAL NUMBERS. The musical numbers given during the services were as follows: "Great God attend while Zion sings," which was the last song Mrs. Hull sang a few days before her death; "Thou dost not weep to weep alone"; "Rest, rest on the hillside, rest"; "Horace S. Knapp sang 'Love Divine'"; Mrs. Emma Ramsey.

Wonder if that shower yesterday was the beginning of winter?

It surely was a sign that we must look after raincoats, anyway.

Mr. J. W. Jones writes: "Who are these arrayed in white?" A poem, inscribed to the memory of Mrs. Hull by Ruth M. Cox, and set to fitting music, was sung during the services by Prof. Charles S. Kent.

Lovely singer, gently sleep Where the birds and ambrosian meet, Singing softly over the dead, Do not weep, she is not dead, She is singing, sweetly singing, Gladly singing over there.

Zion's songstress, calmly rest Where the flowers blow on thy breast, Whispering on the balm air, Now she's singing with the fair; Singing, singing, sweetly singing, Gladly singing over there.

Rest thou where the breezes sigh, Where the angels hover nigh, "Nath the grand old mountains shade, Mark a sweet rest here in his grave, Singing, singing, sweetly singing, Gladly singing over there.

PAYETTE, IDAHO.

BIG CANTALOUPE CONTRACT.

Melon Growing the Coming Agricultural Industry of Payette Valley. Special Correspondence.

Payette, Ida., Nov. 11.—Fifty cartons of more than three times the amount shipped by the Payette Bench Melon Growers' association this year, have been contracted for by the association, with Denny & Company of Chicago, for the season of 1908.

A letter from the Chicago firm to the association states that the Payette melons are very attractive to the trade in this section, which they are handling gives them a ready sale in the eastern market. Mr. Denny said that he had made for goods put out in first class shape. The pack put out by the Bench association met with approval in every city where the melons were placed on sale.

Contract was made this evening because Denny & Company wished to contract for the Rocky Ford melons. But the Payette melons were first choice. Chicago will be practically a new market for the association's product. Two cars were shipped to Kansas City last night, and the dealers handling them said that the quality was better than the Rocky Fords and that no other melons had come to the market in such quantities as these. Most of the melons were sold in the western markets.

As the melons here are ready for market from 15 days to three weeks earlier than the Rocky Fords, if they are grown extensively they will be especially attractive to the buyers. About 15 cartons were shipped out this year.

H. E. Smith, secretary of the association, says the outlook is that next year will be an unusually good season for cantaloupes as from many places the melons come on the market earlier in the season and the prices received for them were very disappointing and he believes it will tend to curtail the acreage to be planted next year. He says that under ordinary conditions, with the early season and the reputation already established, the Payette valley offers good inducements for growing melons.

AFTER THE FLURRY.

"There's a Wall street man out in front," announced the shop boy. "You wait on him," said the jeweler. "I'm busy with this farmer gentleman. That Wall street feller doesn't want anything more than a collar button, I judge."—Washington Herald.

BIG SUIT FILED BY SEVEN HEIRS

Relatives of the Late Stewart J. Jenkins Want $25,000 Damages.

SAY COMPANY WAS CARELESS.

Appears Deceased Supplied Large Family on Monthly Earnings—Mer Death in Street Car Accident.

The Utah Light and Railway company was today made defendant in a $25,000 damage suit, filed in the district court by the heirs of the late Stewart J. Jenkins. The last named person was killed by a street car on the night of June 19 last at the intersection of Third South and Sixth East streets. He was driving northward in a single buggy, accompanied by a young lady friend, when the vehicle was run into by a Wandamere car, Mr. Jenkins was dragged under the car for some distance, and was dead when removed from under the same. The lady was not seriously hurt, except to be bruised and shaken up.

DECK TO CARELESSNESS.

It is set forth in the complaint that the accident was due to carelessness on the part of the street railway company, and inasmuch as the deceased was capable of earning $250 a month, which went to the support of his family, damages in the sum of $25,000 are asked. The heirs mentioned in the suit are J. W. Jenkins, A. Jenkins, C. H. Jenkins, Edwin S. Jenkins, Sarah E. Jenkins, Eliza D. Jenkins, Rosella J. Seelye, and the administrators of the estate are J. W. Jenkins, A. V. Jenkins and Sarah E. J. Howard.

WIRES CONGRATULATIONS.

Gov. John C. Cutler Says to Gov. C. N. Haskell, "Welcome."

A congratulatory telegram was sent today to the governor of Oklahoma, by Gov. John C. Cutler, on the occasion of the admission into the Union of the forty-sixth state. The dispatch was as follows:

To Gov. Charles N. Haskell, Guthrie, Oklahoma: "Welcome to the new state of Oklahoma, greeting and congratulation from the state of Utah, your 'younger sister,' and is proud of her. I wish your administration all success and your state all prosperity. JOHN C. CUTLER, Governor of Utah."

TWO COMPANIES INCORPORATE.

Oil and Realty Concerns Come Into Existence in Legal Procedure.

Articles of incorporation of the Eclectic Oil & Development company were filed today in the office of Secretary of State Tingey. The company owns property in Garfield county, Utah, and purposes to engage in all kinds of business pertaining to the production of oil. The shares number 100,000, of the par value of $1 each. The directors named are: Urph T. Jones, George W. Decker, E. J. Hastings, Gordon W. Matough, Ed Reynolds, D. C. Arthur, Elias M. Coar, J. H. Arthur, Elias M. Coar.

The Blinford Realty & Investment company filed articles of incorporation today in the office of the secretary of state. It is a Denver concern, seeking to do business in the state of Utah. The capital stock is $100,000, Sarah E. Binford, president; E. J. Binford, secretary, and William T. Binford, is resident agent.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Another burglary was committed last night when a thief entered the room of Harry Robinson and F. J. May, at Mrs. Spide's roominghouse, 716 north Second West street and stole therefrom a suit case, two suits of clothes and an overcoat. The theft was reported to the police this morning. The burglar gained entrance by prying open a window.

ALARM AT MIDNIGHT.

The big fire at the Redman Van & Storage company's buildings is not extinguished yet. Last night, shortly after 12 o'clock, another alarm was turned in and No. 2 responded. Flames had again burst forth in the warehouse ruins and two streams of water were turned on. The firemen were busy for more than half an hour and the balance of the night two men were kept on watch.

BOULDER DOES NOT EXPECT TO BEAT UTAH

Boulder, Colo., Nov. 16.—With the Boulder quarterback, Street, out of the game, Morrison, right end, and Knowles, right half, with broken noses, Capt. Farnsworth, the center of the eleven, in bad shape, and the men generally crippled, it was not considered likely that the University of Colorado would prove to be any match for the Utah team in the football game today. The weather is ideal and there was a large attendance. Lineup:

"There's a Reason"

SLUMP IN AUTOS.

"Rich Man's Panic" Caused Canceling Of Orders for Machines.

More than 2,000 New Yorkers, some of them ranking millionaires, have sold their automobiles within the last few weeks. Almost as many more, it is estimated by the trade, have canceled orders for new machines. These automobiles represent a cost of over $15,000,000. They are now worth probably $7,000,000.

"The rich man's panic" in Wall street has made all the trouble, said an upper Broadway leader yesterday. He exhibited a telegram from a stock broker in Broad street which read: "Sorry, but sickness in family compels me to spend summer in mountains. Please cancel my order for that $7,500 machine."

"There's no sickness in his family," said the dealer. "He's been 'stung' in the market. He made a 1 per cent deposit, but can't better afford to lose his $750 than put up the balance. New Yorker has showed a letter from the wife of a 'rich man' living in one of the new hotels on Broadway. It read:

"I have to go to Europe this summer. He finds it will be impossible for him to take the touring car he ordered. Can he get his $1,050 deposit back?"

"That's just like a woman," said the dealer. Her hubby knows there was no string to his $1,050, but he has told her she can have it to get through the summer on. But she won't of course."

Every dealer in high-priced machines, American or imported, has started to tell of orders canceled by New Yorkers, who, until recently, were generally supposed to be rich enough to afford any luxury. Some of the New Yorker has an average rich stories are pathetic.

Some of the average rich stories are pathetic. Some of the average rich stories are pathetic. Some of the average rich stories are pathetic.

The procession down to the Jersey coast on Saturday and Sunday also faces look out of the big touring cars, and guests of the new owners of these expensive machines. Thirty-fourth street on the way to the Long Island ferry and through Central park has also undergone a change. The traffic equal policemen were the first to remark the difference.

"Where's that $15,000 red car that used to come along here every day at 4:30?" asked the patrolman on foot at Fifty-seventh street of the bluecoat on horseback.

"It has been sold to a pawnbroker who likes to Coney Island better than this," was the reply. For two years this red car, imported from France, had been conspicuous on Fifth avenue every afternoon. The young owner, a millionaire real estate owner, dropped $500,000 in the slump in the market and parted with the red car and also with an electric car. He is living in comparative seclusion at Far Rockaway.

There is this to be said for the rich who have given up their fine cars. Not one of them, so far as is known, has loaned his car to any one else. They have backed out of the game altogether on one excuse or another. Some of them are telling their friends their machines have been loaned to Europe by their sons or daughters.

Now is the time for a New Yorker to buy an automobile cheap. The second-hand dealers are doing a tremendous business. A $9,500 car sold the other day for $5,000. A $4,500 machine was disposed of for $1,500. $1,500 auto, right from the factory, ordered by a Wall street speculator who had to forfeit his deposit, was offered yesterday for $1,000. Machines can be bought for cash for almost any price. The young man, comparatively new cars can be purchased in the second-hand places for about one-third of their original price.

The Pope Manufacturing company, with over $22,000,000 capital, has put every maker and dealer on the anxious seat. It came out at the time of the Pope failure that out of an output of 400 machines at one plant over 300 had been turned back. This is said, in the trade, to be typical of the prevailing conditions in the business.—New York Times.

IT CAN'T BE OVERDONE.

We can't talk to you too much about getting a good home for you and yours. It is rather a stereotyped subject, but there is no occasion to talk about it that way. Everyone should have a home of his own, and most men want one. We have recently built over a hundred of our model cottages and we want to sell them on long time payments. We built them well, we built them modern in every respect, we built them on healthy locations and we want to sell them on long time payments so that you would expend in paying rent only what you would expend in buying a home. You can acquire one for the same effort you would expend in paying rent only with us. Call on us, inspect them thoroughly to your entire satisfaction and then let us explain to you how easy it is to be the possessor of one. There is no chance for any unhealthy condition. They are up where you can breathe, in one of the most desirable neighborhoods in the city, and the prices run from $3,500 up. Of course if you would prefer, you can buy them for cash as any reputable real estate dealer, but the long time payments are easier.
