

LOCAL CHRONOLOGY AND BIOGRAPHY

January

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

February

1-Many serious outbreaks occurred on the U. P. Pacific grades in Weber canyon. 2-A. T. Day, colored, was placed on trial for the murder of H. H. Voss, also colored. 3-James Ingle, a Salt Lake motorist, was electrocuted on his car. 4-William F. Rigby of Richmond was killed by a switch engine at Cache Junction. 5-Water was turned into the Cottonwood conduit for the first time. 6-A rigid court-martial was commenced at Fort Douglas. 7-Allen Forshu, a Salt Lake veteran of 75 years, ended his life by taking morphine. 8-Salt Lake Elks went in large numbers to attend a convention in Los Angeles. 11-An injunction was filed against the city of Salt Lake, for using Cottonwood water in new conduit. 14-Maxon Egan Thompson was fined $200 for contempt of court in the Cottonwood conduit matter. 15-Lumbermen of the western states met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-An agreement of settlement was reached between the smelters and the farmers of Salt Lake county. 17-Mrs. Annie M. Bradley was indicted at Washington for the murder of Arthur Brown. 18-W. H. Parrent was arrested in Denver, for complicity in the McWhirter robbery. 19-George J. Arnold, of Arnold-Dickson, spiritualistic fakes, was fined $150 for striking an aged woman during a seance. 20-Engineer Krauss was killed in an O. S. L. wreck at Morgan. 21-Hon. Seth Taft, of the Utah legislature, and Clinton B. Leigh, a newspaper man, were killed in a railroad wreck at Bingham. 22-Al Richards, of Morgan, an O. S. L. conductor, was run over and killed. 23-Mrs. Annie M. Bradley pleaded not guilty to murdering Arthur Brown, at Washington. 24-Joint memorial services were held by the Utah legislature in honor of Hon. Seth Taft. 25-John, Frank and Fred Beckwith, of Evanston, Wyo., were indicted for receiving bank deposits while insolvent. 26-Samuel Mulliner, of Fairfield, shot himself because he forgot the mail.

March

1-The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of President Woodruff was celebrated. 2-William Parrent, implicated in the McWhirter robbery, made sweeping charges against Chief of Police Sheets. 4-The National Humane Alliance society offered to donate a granite waisting fountain to the city of Salt Lake. 5-Alan Lovey, the cartoonist, was reported to be dangerously ill at Goldfield, Nev. 6-Engineer J. C. Lynch and Eberman E. O. Wyatt were killed in a wreck on the Copper Belt railroad at Bingham. 7-The last remaining log house erected by the Mormon near Haun's Mill, Mo., was burned down. 7-The house of the Utah legislature killed the Galveston bills by a vote of 21 to 27. 8-D. C. Plummer was elected colonel of the First Infantry, N. G. U. 12-Chief of Police George Sheets was held to the district court for conspiracy. 13-A senate committee of the Utah legislature made a report finding Harry Anderson of the land board guilty of giving out office information for private profit. 14-A gang of thieves made several bold robberies on the streets of Salt Lake. 15-Henry De Huff was run down and killed by a train at Park City. 16-The union plumbers of Salt Lake went out on a strike. 17-A steel bridge on the S. P. at Reno went out, shutting off travel between Utah and California. 21-Salt Lake was isolated owing to high winds and fog during a snow storm. 22-The Utah legislature began an investigation of the coal shortage. 23-The senate refused to confirm Harry Jones as a member of the reform school board. 24-Philip S. Maycock was buried from the Assembly hall. 25-E. W. Tatlock was appointed U. S. District Judge at Utah, vice William Nelson, removed. 26-Michael Marione was run over by an R. G. W. train and killed. 27-Six inches of snow fell in Salt Lake. 28-A tentative decree adjusting claims in the case of M. J. creek, was rendered by Judge Morris. 29-James H. Bruce of Summit, Wyo., died from eating his bedstead to have been purposely poisoned by his wife. 30-President W. J. Kerr of the A. C. resigned and Prof. John A. Whitson was appointed in his stead.

April

1-Gomer Thomas resigned as state coal mine inspector. 2-The U. P. company proffered to surrender to the government large tracts of coal lands in Wyoming. 3-The seventy-eighth annual conference of the Church convened, the feature of which was the adoption of a lengthy address to the world. 7-Mrs. Cornelia Vanderbill, 87, and party, visited Salt Lake. 8-The Church in conference assembled voted to send 20 tons of flour to the Chinese famine sufferers. 9-John E. Peit of Coalville was appointed state coal mine inspector, by Gov. Carter. 10-The arid farmers of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada and Montana met in convention at Salt Lake. 11-The portal of the Aspen tunnel was filled with ice. 12-Mrs. Alfreda Hooley of Waterloo, Ind., and her husband, during a fit of insanity. 13-Capt. Brooks of Fort Douglas was reprimanded by the war department for flourishing a revolver before Mrs. Samuel Newhouse and party in automobiles. 14-A music festival in the tabernacle closed a two days' session. 15-Judge Armstrong quashed the information against Chief of Police George Sheets. 16-The centenary celebration of Parley P. Pratt was observed by a family gathering in Forest Dale. 17-Miss Rose of Park City miners went out on a strike. 18-Miss Rose Phillips of Ogden was drowned in the Ogden river. 19-Mrs. Maggie Stanley was killed in a runaway at Fillmore. 20-Dr. E. S. Payne was fittingly observed throughout the state. 21-The P. W. Macdon Furniture company suffered a $10,000 loss by fire. 22-Miss Maggie O. Reagan of Eureka, stepped dead on the street. 23-Salt Lake voted school bonds in the sum of $250,000. 24-Burglars looted the jewelry store of John Daynes & Sons, securing $15,000 in cash and jewelry. 25-Charles Hansen was indicted by the federal grand jury for improper use of the mails. 26-Mayor Thompson arranged for arbitration in the street car troubles. 27-Debaters from the University of Oregon defeated students of the U. of U. in Salt Lake. 28-The street car men of Salt Lake went out on a strike, and by 10 o'clock not a wheel was turning. 29-No cars were running on the streets of Salt Lake on the strike. Much rowdiness was indulged in by sympathizers with the strikers. 30-The street car strike was brought to a close on a compromise.

May

1-President Roosevelt added 75,200 acres to the Fish Lake forest reserve. 2-The Ogden bank saloon was visited by the highest number of white throats, who conferred with Secretary Garfield over the dissatisfaction as to selection of state lands. 3-The Ogden bank saloon was visited by the highest number of white throats, who conferred with Secretary Garfield over the dissatisfaction as to selection of state lands. 4-Dr. James E. Talmage resigned from the University of Utah. 5-An oil strike near Virgin City, Washington county, caused much excitement. 6-Linus W. Timley, an insurance man, jumped from the third story window of St. Mark's hospital and was killed. He was suffering from typhoid. 7-R. E. Donough, a Salt Lake, was fatally scalded by an overturned engine at Komert. 8-Mrs. Jane Williams of Wanship, Summit county, was killed by lightning. Her husband was stunned by the same bolt. 9-Raids were made on persons practicing palmistry in Salt Lake. 10-The steamer Columbia sank in the Pacific. Among the passengers were James Blair of Salt Lake and Winona White of Beaver. The latter was lost. 11-Edward Lawrence White, aged 16, was smothered under brick dust at a brickyard. 12-The society of Sons and Daughters of Pioneers was organized at the Assembly hall, with Senator Reed Smoot as president. 13-David Keith sold his interests in the Keith-O'Brien tract. 14-Gen. J. Franklin Bell visited Salt Lake. 15-The Twenty-ninth infantry, 500 strong, left Fort Douglas, bound for the Philippines. 16-The body of Fireman Eugene Dunlap was found in the Weber river two months before, was found. 17-John McLeod, an aged resident of Park City, was dangerously wounded by careless hunters. 18-The grand jury of Utah decided that mileage for judges was illegal. 19-William D. Hayward and family visited Salt Lake. 20-Joseph E. Murray, lost a 14-month-old child by drowning. 21-Henry John Barnes of Farmington was drowned in the Lagoon. 22-W. J. Goda, an aeronaut, was fatally burned by falling from his balloon upon electric wires. 23-Three men were hurt, two fatally, at the Daily West mine in Park City. 24-The Robinson mill at American Fork, owned by the Garston company of Salt Lake was burned. 25-"Dr." Jim Donaldson told a startling story of the fleeing of tourists by police from the canyon country. 26-Mayor Ezra Thompson tendered his resignation, which was promptly accepted. 27-The 3-year-old son of John Young of Bingham was drowned in an irrigation ditch. 28-Fred Vey and James Breen purchased the Beck's Hot Springs property. 29-William May Powell, aged 5, was burned to death. 30-Justice of the Peace Durand of Murray was sued for $15,000 for false imprisonment by Walker Beat. 31-William J. Goda, the aeronaut killed at Ogden, was buried. Detective George Raleigh tendered his resignation. 1-Charles Rowbottom, of Ogden was killed near Wells, Nev., while saving the lives of ladies from an approaching train. 2-The Western Union telegraph operators went out on a strike. 3-The Boston Consolidated Mining company dropped 300 men from its pay rolls. 4-The Royal Cafe was partly destroyed by fire. 5-Joseph H. Maek confessed at Ogden that he had been a burglar for 50 years. 6-A jail break was narrowly averted at the Weber county jail. 7-Alma Thomas, son of J. M. Thomas, aged 5 years, was killed while riding in a cart. 8-Calvin Smith, aged 17, was drowned while swimming at Logan. 9-The body of James W. Mackay of Granger was brought home from Nevada, but the manner of his death was a mystery. 10-Charles Hocking was drowned in a pond near Vernal. 11-The Postal Union Telegraphers joined the strike. 12-Charles Rowbottom, a quarryman was terribly injured by a premature explosion. 13-Lawrence Koehl, aged 6, of Storerville had his foot severed by a motor. 14-Carolina, lectured in Ogden. 15-The Utah Independent Telephone company was reorganized. 16-The big copper companies of Butte decided to curtail their output 40 per cent. 17-Clayde C. Rogers killed Lewis Jones at Ogden. Both were colored. 18-Safe burglars operated at the State Bank at Marysville, Idaho. 19-The R. W. Beck Co. was sued in the district court on a mortgage executed in 1879. 20-Frank Capone, a Provo electrician, was electrocuted by a live wire. 21-William Duns of Hoytsville, Summit county, was killed by a runaway train. 22-Albert T. Day was sentenced by Judge Armstrong to be shot Dec. 13, for the murder of H. H. Voss.

June

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

who killed Obrodovitch surrendered to the Salt Lake officers. 14-The one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of the birth of the American flag was celebrated in the schools of Utah. 15-The one hundred and sixth anniversary of the birth of Pres. Heber C. Kimball was celebrated by a family gathering at Ogden. 16-It was announced that the Utah Sugar company, the Idaho Sugar company and the Western Idaho Sugar company, would consolidate. 17-A large party of Omaha business men visited Salt Lake. 18-Joseph H. Peit was buried from the Eleven-hundred meetinghouse. 19-Stewart Jenkins of the firm of Jenkins & Sons, was killed by a Wadsworth car while out driving. 20-Say, of the Interior James R. Garfield visited Salt Lake. 21-Jim Donaldson was placed on trial for complicity in the McWhirter robbery. 22-In a row among colored people in Franklin avenue, Press Jackson received three bullets in the leg. 23-Hon. John Johnson, of Ogden, became chairman of the state board of equalization. 24-Schofield Kershaw, his wife and two daughters of Layton, were killed by a runaway car, which they were crossing the track in a buggy. 25-President Joseph F. Smith and party returned from a trip to Oregon and California. 26-Charles Hansen, a Preston saloon man, attempted suicide by shooting. Dr. J. P. Tilson, a dentist, was found dead in the street at Kanosh. 27-There was a hill climbing auto contest in Salt Lake. 28-Supt. Orem of the Red Wing Utah Development company of Bingham, tore up 2,000 feet of municipal water pipe at that place.

July

1-The Church Grass Greek coal properties passed to a company headed by Col. C. D. Moore, H. P. Mason and J. R. Leitch. 2-The plant of the mill company at Murray was destroyed by fire, loss $20,000. 3-A runaway tram at Bingham Junction killed two men and injured two. 4-Three cars of powder exploded near Beck's Hot Springs. No one was hurt. 5-"Dr." Jim Donaldson was on the witness stand in his own behalf. 6-Independence day was celebrated in Utah, with but few accidents. 7-Nels Anderson of Heber City committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. 8-7th jury in the case of "Dr." Jim Donaldson rendered a verdict of guilty. Louis Lynn was deposed as president of the Electrical Workers. 9-Dr. James E. Talmage resigned from the University of Utah. 10-An oil strike near Virgin City, Washington county, caused much excitement. 11-Linus W. Timley, an insurance man, jumped from the third story window of St. Mark's hospital and was killed. He was suffering from typhoid. 12-R. E. Donough, a Salt Lake, was fatally scalded by an overturned engine at Komert. 13-Mrs. Jane Williams of Wanship, Summit county, was killed by lightning. Her husband was stunned by the same bolt. 14-Raids were made on persons practicing palmistry in Salt Lake. 15-The steamer Columbia sank in the Pacific. Among the passengers were James Blair of Salt Lake and Winona White of Beaver. The latter was lost. 16-Edward Lawrence White, aged 16, was smothered under brick dust at a brickyard. 17-The society of Sons and Daughters of Pioneers was organized at the Assembly hall, with Senator Reed Smoot as president. 18-David Keith sold his interests in the Keith-O'Brien tract. 19-William D. Hayward and family visited Salt Lake. 20-Joseph E. Murray, lost a 14-month-old child by drowning. 21-Henry John Barnes of Farmington was drowned in the Lagoon. 22-W. J. Goda, an aeronaut, was fatally burned by falling from his balloon upon electric wires. 23-Three men were hurt, two fatally, at the Daily West mine in Park City. 24-The Robinson mill at American Fork, owned by the Garston company of Salt Lake was burned. 25-"Dr." Jim Donaldson told a startling story of the fleeing of tourists by police from the canyon country. 26-Mayor Ezra Thompson tendered his resignation, which was promptly accepted. 27-The 3-year-old son of John Young of Bingham was drowned in an irrigation ditch. 28-Fred Vey and James Breen purchased the Beck's Hot Springs property. 29-William May Powell, aged 5, was burned to death. 30-Justice of the Peace Durand of Murray was sued for $15,000 for false imprisonment by Walker Beat. 31-William J. Goda, the aeronaut killed at Ogden, was buried. Detective George Raleigh tendered his resignation. 1-Charles Rowbottom, of Ogden was killed near Wells, Nev., while saving the lives of ladies from an approaching train. 2-The Western Union telegraph operators went out on a strike. 3-The Boston Consolidated Mining company dropped 300 men from its pay rolls. 4-The Royal Cafe was partly destroyed by fire. 5-Joseph H. Maek confessed at Ogden that he had been a burglar for 50 years. 6-A jail break was narrowly averted at the Weber county jail. 7-Alma Thomas, son of J. M. Thomas, aged 5 years, was killed while riding in a cart. 8-Calvin Smith, aged 17, was drowned while swimming at Logan. 9-The body of James W. Mackay of Granger was brought home from Nevada, but the manner of his death was a mystery. 10-Charles Hocking was drowned in a pond near Vernal. 11-The Postal Union Telegraphers joined the strike. 12-Charles Rowbottom, a quarryman was terribly injured by a premature explosion. 13-Lawrence Koehl, aged 6, of Storerville had his foot severed by a motor. 14-Carolina, lectured in Ogden. 15-The Utah Independent Telephone company was reorganized. 16-The big copper companies of Butte decided to curtail their output 40 per cent. 17-Clayde C. Rogers killed Lewis Jones at Ogden. Both were colored. 18-Safe burglars operated at the State Bank at Marysville, Idaho. 19-The R. W. Beck Co. was sued in the district court on a mortgage executed in 1879. 20-Frank Capone, a Provo electrician, was electrocuted by a live wire. 21-William Duns of Hoytsville, Summit county, was killed by a runaway train. 22-Albert T. Day was sentenced by Judge Armstrong to be shot Dec. 13, for the murder of H. H. Voss.

August

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

The Utah Fuel company raised the wages of all its employees. 16-The body of William B. Preston, Jr., was recovered from the Logan river. 17>About 400 foreigners went on a strike at Price. 18-Abraham Altenjohn, a Spanish-American veteran, fell dead at Fort Douglas. 19-Edward Clay, aged 15, was drowned at Garrison, Millard county. 20-C. S. McDermott was electrocuted in a burning building at Bingham Junction. 21-John W. Hall of Taber, Canada, was drowned in Belly river. 22-William B. Preston, Jr., and Solomon Barber were hanged at Logan. 23-W. P. Lynn was buried, under auspices of the Elks. 24-Ex-Chief of Police George Sheets was held to the district court on a charge of accepting a bribe. 25-Proctor was shot in the leg while chasing a burglar from his house. 26-R. H. Meunell was shot and killed at Goldfield. 27-Rodriguez McKenzie assumed the duties of chief of police of Salt Lake. 28-Hon. John Johnson, of Ogden, became chairman of the state board of equalization. 29-Schofield Kershaw, his wife and two daughters of Layton, were killed by a runaway car, which they were crossing the track in a buggy. 30-President Joseph F. Smith and party returned from a trip to Oregon and California. 31-Charles Hansen, a Preston saloon man, attempted suicide by shooting. Dr. J. P. Tilson, a dentist, was found dead in the street at Kanosh. 27-There was a hill climbing auto contest in Salt Lake. 28-Supt. Orem of the Red Wing Utah Development company of Bingham, tore up 2,000 feet of municipal water pipe at that place.

1-The Church Grass Greek coal properties passed to a company headed by Col. C. D. Moore, H. P. Mason and J. R. Leitch. 2-The plant of the mill company at Murray was destroyed by fire, loss $20,000. 3-A runaway tram at Bingham Junction killed two men and injured two. 4-Three cars of powder exploded near Beck's Hot Springs. No one was hurt. 5-"Dr." Jim Donaldson was on the witness stand in his own behalf. 6-Independence day was celebrated in Utah, with but few accidents. 7-Nels Anderson of Heber City committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. 8-7th jury in the case of "Dr." Jim Donaldson rendered a verdict of guilty. Louis Lynn was deposed as president of the Electrical Workers. 9-Dr. James E. Talmage resigned from the University of Utah. 10-An oil strike near Virgin City, Washington county, caused much excitement. 11-Linus W. Timley, an insurance man, jumped from the third story window of St. Mark's hospital and was killed. He was suffering from typhoid. 12-R. E. Donough, a Salt Lake, was fatally scalded by an overturned engine at Komert. 13-Mrs. Jane Williams of Wanship, Summit county, was killed by lightning. Her husband was stunned by the same bolt. 14-Raids were made on persons practicing palmistry in Salt Lake. 15-The steamer Columbia sank in the Pacific. Among the passengers were James Blair of Salt Lake and Winona White of Beaver. The latter was lost. 16-Edward Lawrence White, aged 16, was smothered under brick dust at a brickyard. 17-The society of Sons and Daughters of Pioneers was organized at the Assembly hall, with Senator Reed Smoot as president. 18-David Keith sold his interests in the Keith-O'Brien tract. 19-William D. Hayward and family visited Salt Lake. 20-Joseph E. Murray, lost a 14-month-old child by drowning. 21-Henry John Barnes of Farmington was drowned in the Lagoon. 22-W. J. Goda, an aeronaut, was fatally burned by falling from his balloon upon electric wires. 23-Three men were hurt, two fatally, at the Daily West mine in Park City. 24-The Robinson mill at American Fork, owned by the Garston company of Salt Lake was burned. 25-"Dr." Jim Donaldson told a startling story of the fleeing of tourists by police from the canyon country. 26-Mayor Ezra Thompson tendered his resignation, which was promptly accepted. 27-The 3-year-old son of John Young of Bingham was drowned in an irrigation ditch. 28-Fred Vey and James Breen purchased the Beck's Hot Springs property. 29-William May Powell, aged 5, was burned to death. 30-Justice of the Peace Durand of Murray was sued for $15,000 for false imprisonment by Walker Beat. 31-William J. Goda, the aeronaut killed at Ogden, was buried. Detective George Raleigh tendered his resignation. 1-Charles Rowbottom, of Ogden was killed near Wells, Nev., while saving the lives of ladies from an approaching train. 2-The Western Union telegraph operators went out on a strike. 3-The Boston Consolidated Mining company dropped 300 men from its pay rolls. 4-The Royal Cafe was partly destroyed by fire. 5-Joseph H. Maek confessed at Ogden that he had been a burglar for 50 years. 6-A jail break was narrowly averted at the Weber county jail. 7-Alma Thomas, son of J. M. Thomas, aged 5 years, was killed while riding in a cart. 8-Calvin Smith, aged 17, was drowned while swimming at Logan. 9-The body of James W. Mackay of Granger was brought home from Nevada, but the manner of his death was a mystery. 10-Charles Hocking was drowned in a pond near Vernal. 11-The Postal Union Telegraphers joined the strike. 12-Charles Rowbottom, a quarryman was terribly injured by a premature explosion. 13-Lawrence Koehl, aged 6, of Storerville had his foot severed by a motor. 14-Carolina, lectured in Ogden. 15-The Utah Independent Telephone company was reorganized. 16-The big copper companies of Butte decided to curtail their output 40 per cent. 17-Clayde C. Rogers killed Lewis Jones at Ogden. Both were colored. 18-Safe burglars operated at the State Bank at Marysville, Idaho. 19-The R. W. Beck Co. was sued in the district court on a mortgage executed in 1879. 20-Frank Capone, a Provo electrician, was electrocuted by a live wire. 21-William Duns of Hoytsville, Summit county, was killed by a runaway train. 22-Albert T. Day was sentenced by Judge Armstrong to be shot Dec. 13, for the murder of H. H. Voss.

September

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

Mrs. Lyman R. Martneau was buried at Logan. 1-A fatal wreck occurred on the S. P. 16 miles west of Ogden. 2-John R. Edwards, of Logan, was killed out of $3,000 in a bogus foot race. 3-Tens of thousands of people visited Brigham City on 2nd occasion of "Peach Day." 4-Mrs. Thomas E. McNeill, of Sandy, was seriously injured in a railroad wreck near St. Joseph, Mo. 5-Dr. Earl S. Deers was fatally beaten at Ogden, by C. F. Walker of Salt Lake. 6-James McNearney was found guilty of robbing the Onyx Bank saloon on May 2. 7-John S. Bransford was nominated for mayor of Salt Lake City by the "American" party. 8-Christie Nielson, aged 70, of Pleasant Grove, committed suicide by drowning. 9-George W. Rose, who was murdered in Mexico, was buried in Salt Lake. 10-Jesse W. Price of Lewiston, Cache Co., was killed by a train. 11-Hon. John Johnson, of Ogden, was killed accidentally shot to death by a companion. 12-Thi Salt Lake Boys' band returned from an extended trip east. 13-Dr. Beers, beaten by Fred C. Walker at Ogden, died from his injuries. 14-Olof Olson, of Sandy, bled to death in the Salt Lake hay market. 15-George Sakkis, a Greek, died at Murray from injuries in a trolley accident. 16-"Gunplay" Maxwell and L. C. Reddie, a fireman, engaged in a pistol duel at Helper, in which both were wounded. 17-A young Greek named Sthanalos Baras committed suicide at Ogden. 18-Senator W. E. Borah, of Idaho, was placed on trial for alleged conspiracy. 19-A jury was secured in the case of Senator W. E. Borah. 20-Republican primaries were held in Salt Lake. 21-At Park City, 250 Daly-West miners went out on strike. 22-Friend Stone, formerly of Ogden, died from an accidental gunshot wound. 23-William Trehan, a veteran Indian, was assigned to the Utah Credit Men's association. 24-Harry Ormstead of Montana, did considerable shooting at the Knutsford bar. 25-John P. Holland, a miner, was killed by a cave-in at the Silver King mine in Park City. 26-The body of Detective Matt Rhodes arrived in Salt Lake from Indianapolis. 27-Detective Matt Rhodes was buried from the Masonic temple. 28-Patriarch William Thorn was laid to rest, after services at Pioneer stake hall. 29-Dr. Charles G. Plummer was nominated for mayor of Salt Lake by the Republican party. 30-The big water suit of the Progress Co. vs. Salt Lake City was begun before Judge Morse.

1-George Thorn, a G. A. R. veteran, was killed by a runaway horse near the R. G. W. depot. 2-William McWhirter secured a personal judgment against "Dr." Jim Donaldson for $1,250. 3-Levi Hunt suicided at Plain City. 4-Silas S. Jones of Butteville committed suicide. 5-The Chipman roller mills at American Fork burned down. 6-It was announced that the Yampa mine near Bingham, had closed down. 7-Hardcarr veterans met in reunion in Salt Lake. 8-The seventy-seventh semi-annual conference of the Church opened. 9-Republican missionaries were expelled from Saxony, Germany. 10-Louis Saresena, an Italian, was killed at Sunnyside, by John Tarkenton, after the former had fired three shots at the latter. 11-Elder Anthony W. Ivins of Mexico was chosen to fill the place in the apostleship made vacant by the death of Elder George Foskade. 12-The preliminary hearing of Fred Walker and Ed Lawrence for the killing of Dr. Beers commenced at Ogden. 13-James McNearney got 20 years for robbing the Onyx bank. 14-Alvin Monrad committed suicide at Ogden. 15-A special grand jury was impealed in Salt Lake. 16-Fred Asst. Postmaster General F. H. Hitchcock visited Salt Lake. 17-The Utah Presbyterian Synod met in convention in Salt Lake. 18-Fred Trehan, a veteran Indian, was killed and killed by an O. S. L. freight train. 19-Daniel Guggenheim visited Salt Lake and said there would be no shut down at Garfield. 20-The U. of U. football team defeated the boys from the Denver university at Salt Lake. 21-A dozen men were held up by a single highwayman at the Wilson bar. 22-Roy Sessions of Syracuse, Utah, was killed by O. S. L. No. 16. Leo Sandall, a butcher of Layton, was severely injured; both were 19 years of age. 23-Frank Pierce of Salt Lake was appointed first assistant secretary of the Interior. 24-Mrs. Victoria Radnall of Pleasant Grove committed suicide. 25-Escaped convict Allen J. Lawrence gave himself up. 26-Mikeel of Eureka died at St. Mark hospital from a beating. 27-Layton citizens asked for protection from O. S. L. trains. 28-Jesse Knight gave $100,000 to R. Y. Provo. 29-John Douglas, serving a life term for wife murder, was thwarted in suicide act. 30-Tom D. Pitt was daily installed as chief of police of Salt Lake, having been appointed the night before. 31-The Layton bank was dynamited by safe crackers. 32-A. J. Greenfield died as a result of being imprisoned at Ogden. 33-Anos P. Hunt of Eskola, Ind., had his skull crushed by the kick of a horse. 34-Lighting caused a serious fire at Wood's Cross. 35-Joseph Tuckedo, a Jeranese, was placed on trial for killing a fellow countryman at Garfield July 4. 36-Mrs. Amelia Dindler died of morphia poisoning at Ogden. 37-Mrs. Frank Cummings was chosen president of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs. 38-Frank Capone, a Provo electrician, was electrocuted by a live wire. 39-William Duns of Hoytsville, Summit county, was killed by a runaway train. 40-Albert T. Day was sentenced by Judge Armstrong to be shot Dec. 13, for the murder of H. H. Voss.

October

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

"Dr." Jim Donaldson was sentenced to serve 10 years in the state prison for the part he took in the McWhirter robbery. 5-The entire "American" ticket was elected in Salt Lake, with an overwhelming majority. 7-The Independent Telephone stock was turned over to new owners, at Rochester, N. Y. 8-E. D. Crowther, a veteran Utah actor, was trampled to death at Milner, by Hon. W. W. Riser, at Berlin, Okla. 9-Bishop Robert T. Burton was buried from the Assembly hall. 10-A jury was secured in the Annie M. Bradley case at Washington. 11-George F. Wallace, resigned as president of the Bell Telephone company, and H. Vance Lane of Omaha took his place. 12-Salt Lake's first snow of the season, fell during the night. 13-Joe Smith, alias Dandy, killed by Chief J. M. Lyon, in self-defense. 14-John S. White, of Farmington, survivor of Mormon battalion. 15-Richard M. Bourne, a prominent business and club man, committed suicide by shooting. 16-John E. Hanson, city editor of the "News," from a stomach ailment, following appendicitis, aged 45. 17-Mrs. Amy L. Dieter of North, widow of Jacob Bieler. 18-James H. Wright of Ogden, at Park, Ida., aged 73. 19-Elder George Treadwell of the council of the apostles, aged 76. 20-Ann Smith, aged 76. 21-Heber C. Ayers, aged 69. 22-Sarah Hutchins, aged 84. 23-Mother of David Enoch, aged 88. 24-John M. Luce, aged 72. 25-Thomas Burt of Springville, aged 77. 26-Salt Lake, aged 73. 27-Judge Christopher Reed of the law firm of Reed & Hartley, for 20 years of the stomach. 28-Gen. William Byron Paces of Provo, aged 75. 29-Hon. Orange J. Sallsbury, in New York, aged 63. 30-George Bills of Vernal, killed by lightning. 31-James Young of East Mill Creek, a veteran settler. 32-Elizabeth Parry, a veteran of the Sixteenth ward.

November

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-Hon. W. E. Borah was elected United States senator from Idaho. 15-The National Wool Growers' association met in convention in Salt Lake. 16-The federal grand jury returned 11 indictments. 17-The National Wool Growers adjourned, after nearly a week's session in Salt Lake. 18-Judge John A. Marshall rendered a sweeping decision relative to coal lands. 19-Eight Main street business offices were burglarized during the night. 20-Samuel Newhouse invested in $1,000,000 of Salt Lake real estate. 21-Fisher Harris of Salt Lake was chosen president of the Transmissour Dry Farming congress. 22-Walter Cowley, aged 8 years, died from injuries received at play, the second case during the week.

December

1-Ray Swartzfager, aged 18, of Morgan, confessed to having caused a fatal wreck on the U. P. at that place. The anti-pass law went into effect. Nine prominent Utah carrying passes were cancelled for pay fares. 2-Salt Lake witnessed the coldest day of the winter to date. 3-Utah Teachers' association met in convention at Ogden. 4-Utah Indians received $25,000 from sale of timber lands. 5-Utah's oldest and most historic freight depot was razed in Salt Lake. 6-Prof. L. E. Eggerston of Provo was elected president of the Utah State Teachers' association. 7-The Annie Laurie mine went into the hands of the Ogden. 8-Fred Wood entered suit against Chief of Police George Sheets for the return of a diamond. 9-Rev. Eldrick of Ogden caused the arrest of Cyclone Thompson and Maurice Thompson for prize fighting. 10-R. F. Couch, principal of the Lewisville, Ida., schools, shot and killed Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake county and then committed suicide. 11-Antonio Pedro, an Italian, was killed in a brawl at Mirport. 12-The second Utah legislature convened at noon with S. H. Love president of the senate and Harry George speaker of the house. 13-Senator Smith secured congressional aid for the Pinto and Kalb Indians. 14-H