RAWHIDE DEVELOPMENT.

Camp Paying Less Attention to Finding Than to Opening Properties.

Special Correspondence.

Rawhide, May 5.—This camp is steadily increasing in the proportion of taking out the ore and shipping it as fast as possible. Strikes continue to be made in various parts of the camp, but little heed is given to them, the chief interest being centered in the development.

PARK CITY SHIPMENTS.

Camp Sends Out Over Million Pounds of Ore During April.

Park City, May 8.—The following shipments came out of Park City during the month of April: Daily Judge, 2,574,840 pounds; American Flag, 287,350; Daily West, 256,440; New York Bonanza, 104,300; Charles Moore, 29,300; Silver King, 2,845,160. Total amount, 6,107,220 pounds of ore.

PLAN WAGON ROAD.

Citizens of Bluff Are Elated Over the Showings in New Oil Field.

Bluff, Utah, May 8.—The citizens of Bluff are elated over the showings in the new oil field near here. A $2,500 subscription is being taken up for the purpose of building a wagon road to the oil locality, which is located 2 1/2 miles to the west, down the San Juan river.

CONCENTRATES.

Rawhide has one friend in P. C. Thompson who says the little camp is worthy of confidence. Mr. Thompson has just come from camp where he says the Boyard strike is the talk of Nevada. This was the reported uncovering of 12 feet of $1,400 ore.

Samuel Newhouse here for California in a few days and on the return trip will visit Pioche and inspect his properties there. He will also visit the Cactus mine where he says interesting developments are to be expected. He says there are twice as many persons in the district as it can accommodate. This leaves 50 per cent without means. Cocroft blames too much booming for the suffering.

Manager Tony Jacobson, just back from the Columbus Con., says that property is shipping from ten to twenty tons of high grade ore a day, now that the wagon road from the loading station to railway station is opened. One shift is being worked, but by the first of June there may be given employment. It is expected the South Columbus will be shipping June 1.

President Cutler and others of the Sioux Con. family feel that something is due to improve quickly at this property. Crystallized quartz has been encountered in the mine and this is what has created great expectations. The mine was sunk from the west drift and experts acquainted with the geology of the country around the Sioux Con., say ore bodies are usually topped by just such quartz formations.

J. G. Huntington, president of the Seven Troughs Royal is in this city. Mr. Huntington says there are so many good things in the Seven Troughs district that a mining party of that country must tell half the truth, only or he will be branded as a propagator. Mr. Huntington brings glowing reports of various leases and propositions in the hands of numerous Salt Lake and Utah's.

With President Cutler's statement regarding the Sioux Con., the stock is thought to be a mining party held day after suffering heavily at the hands of the bears the day before. Sioux Con. skidded from 27 to 23 1/2 cents a share Thursday, but picked up yesterday selling at 26 cents. While the Thursday's toboggan slide was swiftest rumors of ore being found got out. President Cutler's statement appears in this column.

IMLAY MEETING TODAY.

Alex. Parsons and Frank Smith, both of Rockefeller, Ill., and directors of the Imlay company are in this city to attend directors meeting to be held this afternoon. Considerable business of importance is to be transacted.

LOWER MAMMOTH MAY RESUME WORK

Meeting on in This City Today To Go Over Situation.

MORE DEPTH IS NECESSARY.

Knight Smelter Being Ready for Business is One Reason for Activity of Rumor.

While nothing official is out great rumors are expected from the Lower Mammoth meeting which started at 2 o'clock today. This is being held in the company's offices, and is a regular once-a-month affair, but it is confidently believed more than ordinary good will come out of it. The first and greatest of the expected decisions to resume operation at the property. When the order closing the United States smelter came it was followed by an announcement that the Lower Mammoth would shut down for an indefinite period as the Lower Mammoth's output was contracted to the U. S. In fact the smelter notified the officials of the Lower Mammoth that it could take no more ore after Nov. 15. This would have caused no end of inconvenience to the property, so concessions were obtained and several shipments were made after November 15. These gradually ceased, and in December the property was forced to shut down with everything at the property ending and a demanding development on a large scale. Now that certain conditions have come about to shut down with everything at the property ending and a demanding development on a large scale. Now that certain conditions have come about to shut down with everything at the property ending and a demanding development on a large scale.

NEW SMELTER READY.

One cause for confidence in this is the fact that the Tintic smelter (the Knight plant) will be ready for business May 15. The Lower Mammoth is but five miles away from the smelter, and on the same railroad. The only thing needed now to get the ore from the mine to the smelter is an aerial tram which could be built if deemed a better mode of transportation. The cost of hauling by railroad, however, is about $1.40 per ton, and to be shipped is taken into consideration, the outlook as seen by officials is very rosy.

MORE DEPTH NEEDED.

There is plenty of good ore in the property, but one thing which will do more towards bringing the Lower Mammoth into its own will be the sinking of the main shaft from a depth of 1,200, the present depth, to 2,000 feet. The lowest workings of the mine are now at a depth of 1,800 feet but this depth is reached by an auxiliary shaft sunk about 500 feet from the main shaft. With an arrangement like this being used, double expense is incurred, and there is little doubt that the main shaft will be sunk as soon as practicable and possible. Beside the mine is at depth, say experts. All these things are being discussed at today's meeting. The news that operation is to be resumed will be received with delight in mining circles as the Lower Mammoth is regarded as one of Utah's most valuable. Within five months last year it distributed thousands of dollars in dividends among its stockholders, and with development under way in increased style, big things are expected of it.

PRICES WENT TO HIGHER LEVEL

New York, May 9.—Prices of securities have worked to a higher level during the week with occasional reactions. Evidence indicates that great banking and financial interests have continued to exercise a benevolent control of the market. Unimpaired abundance of money resources have furthered the plans of advocates of higher prices and the placing of new securities on more advantageous terms. The enormous over-subscription of the Pennsylvania bond issue and the floating interest basis on which New York city revenue bonds were sold was regarded as proof of the substantial increase in capital available for investment. The market for existing railroad bonds also improved. Crop news was a cheering factor.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 9.—A general rush to secure the bulk of the wheat crop yesterday caused a weak market in the wheat pit today. Cables were penny higher. Corn fact was apparently ignored. July wheat opened 1 1/2 @ 1 1/4 lower at 92 1/2 to 93 1/2 and sold at 92 1/2. The close was 92 1/2 and prices were weak. HOLIDAY CELEBRATION.

Dedication of City Hall May 14—Funeral of Elder LeRoy Tripp.

Murray, May 9.—The city fathers have declared Thursday, May 14, a city holiday. The celebration will commemorate the completion and dedication of the city hall. A committee has been appointed consisting of Mayor Brown, Arthur Townsend, president of city council, and Marshal Pruss, who have arranged for a great celebration with a diversity of amusements. They recommend that all business houses close and the people generally refrain from their labor on that day, turning out in such numbers that the affair will be made a complete success. A hearty invitation is extended to all. As arranged the program follows:

- 1—Music, city band. 2—Address, Mayor Chas. Brown. 3—Class chorus, members of Liberty school. 4—Dedictory prayer, Rev. Jesse Hyde.

5—A class chorus, members of Arlington school. 6—Speech, Attorney D. W. Moffat. 7—Music, city band. After this part of the program, the crowd will march to the baseball park, where a most interesting game between the city council and the other city officers will be played. All the officers have past records which assure something out of the ordinary in baseball playing.

FUNERAL OF LEROY TRIPP.

Funeral services over the remains of Elder LeRoy Tripp will be held tomorrow at 3 o'clock in the Murray First ward assembly hall. Elder Tripp died April 14 in Belgium, an internal abscess, after laboring there a little over two months as a missionary.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The famous William's Jubilee singers appear in Murray First ward amusement hall this evening. They have the fame of being among the foremost in America in their class of entertainment. Little Harry Frank was taken home from school Monday in a very critical condition, being unconscious. Some say he is subject to those spells, and some maintain he was struck on the head with a book, by his teacher. R. E. L. Wisom, teacher of the manual training class at the Arlington, has gone to California to attend the funeral of his mother, who went there some time ago for her health.

S.S.S. CURES S.S.S. BLOOD POISON

In no other disease is a thorough cleansing of the blood more necessary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of this insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no part of the body will be exempt from the ravages of this powerful disease. Usually the first symptom is a little sore or ulcer, insignificant in itself, but soon the blood becomes so contaminated that the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, hair and eye-brows come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently sores and ulcers break out on the flesh to humiliate the sufferer. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the circulation. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison, and making this fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S., and continues until every trace of the disease is removed from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. Not one particle of the poison is left for future out-breaks after S. S. S. has purged and purified the blood. Book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
