

AGE COUPLE IN DWORGE COURT

After More Than Forty Years of Wedded Life Kemps Will Part.

WIFE CHARGES DRUNKENNESS.

Husband Threatened to Cut Her Throat Last Sunday, She Says—Wife Wounded Family.

After forty-one years of wedded life, Emma Kemp yesterday filed suit in the Third district court for divorce from her husband, William C. Kemp, alleging that he had become a habitual drunkard and that she could no longer tolerate him.

There are no children mentioned in the complaint, Mrs. Kemp says she has contributed the greater part of the family expenses during many years past, and asks that a piece of real property owned by the couple described as lot 7, block 19, plat B, which she claims she purchased with her own money, be awarded to her.

ARTHUR BROWN GUILTY.

Second Verdict in Case of Young Man Charged With Forgery.

Arthur Brown has for the second time been found guilty by a jury. His case occupied the greater portion of two days in Judge Armstrong's court, and was given to the jury at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The offense for which Brown was convicted was the forging of the name of W. C. Orem, manager of the Utah Apex mine, to a check for $6,150, which he cashed and secured the money.

WIFE DESERTED HIM.

Joseph Poole has filed suit in the Third district court asking annulment of the marriage bonds existing between himself and wife, Corrie B. Poole, alleging desertion. The Pooles were married in Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 1, 1904, and that on Nov. 30, 1904, about two months after their marriage, defendant willfully deserted him, against his will and without cause, and refuses to return to him.

MARRIED TWENTY YEARS.

Complaining that her husband has for more than a year past been guilty of habitual drunkenness, Mrs. Louise E. White today filed suit in the Third district court for divorce from her husband, William L. White. Mrs. White asserts they were married in Logan, Cache county, Dec. 23, 1885, and that there are six children, the oldest 20 years of age and the youngest 11 years of age.

MORR GETS ONE YEAR.

Paul Morr, charged with burglary in the second degree, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Armstrong and was sentenced to serve one year in the state penitentiary at hard labor. Morr was charged in an information filed by District Atty. Leontowich with entering a building at the corner of Twelfth East and Eleventh South streets on the 23rd of March, 1908, the building being occupied by the Granite Grain company.

STEWART COMMITTEE.

Elmer Stewart, charged with battery upon Special Officer White, committed on an incoming Saltair train, was arraigned before Justice Anton Lundberg yesterday afternoon and the time for pleading was set for Thursday. In default of $300 bail Stewart was placed in the county jail to await the hearing.
