PROPOSED SALE OF WATER WORKS

Negotiations Now On for Transfer of the System to Ogden City.

WEBER STAKE CONFERENCE.

Question of Division—City Prisoners On Strike for Better Food—Suit for Divorce—News Briefs.

Ogden, July 15.—Since the meeting of the city council Monday night when a special session of more than an hour was held and during which time it was learned the proposition of buying the Ogden water works system was discussed, a great deal of interest has manifested in the proposed deal by the citizens in general.

While nothing definite has been announced it is very likely that the question of making the purchase will be considered at the session of the council next Monday night. It has been given out by members of the water works company that the system has been offered to the city but at what price could not be ascertained.

The present city administration is strongly in favor of purchasing the system. The mayor and members of the council are in favor of it. Municipal ownership has been found so successful in other cities, in governing public utilities that there now remains no doubt but what it will be tried in Ogden.

For several years the city has agitated the question of buying the system or building a like one, but nothing was ever done on the matter until recently when preliminary steps were taken by the city by looking to the construction of its own light and water systems. The work has progressed so far as to the sending to the South Fork canyon a surveying party to locate a site for a reservoir and power house. It was subsequently learned that the waterworks company was willing to sell the system to the city at a reasonable figure and then preliminary negotiations were immediately started.

City Atty. Devine and Judge W. L. Maginias prepared briefs upon the question of the city being allowed to raise money by bonding for the purchase of the system. No impediment to the procuring for the system was found and when the final steps are taken for the purchase of the system it will be done by bonding. All matters pertaining to the purchase of the system by the city has been a preliminary nature, but it is stated that at next Monday evening's session, the proposition will assume definite form.

CITY PRISONERS ON STRIKE.

The prisoners at the city jail went out on strike yesterday afternoon and refused to work with the gang up in the gravel pit until they had been given better food. It was shortly after 1 o'clock that the prisoners, a dozen in number, were ordered out, they refused to go and were placed in the dungeon which is dark, musty and hot as blazes. Only a few minutes in the sweat box brought the men to time and they went to work in the gravel pit.

It is stated that the men sent a petition to Chief of Police Browning on Monday and made a demand for better food. They decided to wait a day before ordering the strike and yesterday noon when the same kind of a dinner was passed to them they ate it but refused to go back to work.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

At the quarterly conference to be held in the Weber stake tabernacle next Sunday, it is anticipated that the long expected division of the stake will take place. The Weber stake is the largest in the Latter-day Saints Church, and the division will be brought before the conference next Sunday afternoon. If it is the wish of the conference that the definite action ordering the same will be made by the first presidency.

While nothing official has been given out on the proposed division, it is asserted that the preliminary steps for the division will be brought before the conference next Sunday afternoon. If it is the wish of the conference that the definite action ordering the same will be made by the first presidency.

It was announced last evening from the European hotel, where Dr. W. A. Gleason is staying, that his condition is much better and that he is on the road to complete recovery. Yesterday the announcement was made by Dr. Gleason to Dr. Roche, who was attending him, that on the previous night he (Dr. Gleason) was taking refreshments with a friend and drank some blackberry wine. It seemed that the friend had been in the habit of taking morphine, which he did not disclose to Dr. Gleason, who took three drinks of the wine from the same glass the friend used to take the drug. The effects of the drug did not

LEHI.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Outing for Alpine Stake Old Folks—Pioneer Day Will be Honored.

Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., July 14.—Last night an election in the Central school house for a school trustee to succeed Andrew Field, Morgan Evans won by the close majority of 37, his opponent being H. E. Osterloah. A vote of 59 was cast, which is by far the largest that has been cast at a school election. At a meeting of the citizens July 6, instead of putting one man's name on the ticket it was decided to place the names of the above two on the ticket as each had so many supporters at the nominating convention.

Tomorrow the old folks of Alpine stake will have their annual outing in the Lehi city park. At 10:30 a. m. a well arranged program will be given. At noon a sumptuous banquet will be partaken of. The afternoon will be devoted to a general handshake and amusements. A ball game and other sports will be given on the ball grounds for the pleasure of the old folks who would care to see them. At 5 o'clock refreshments will be served. The outing will close with a grand ball in the Pavilion at night.

Gardner announced that the presidency of the Church had donated $1,000 for the fixing up of the new Tabernacle grounds, building a fence, putting in cement sidewalks and planting in lawn and shrubbery. VITAL STATISTICS.

For the half year ending July 14, the city has had 10 births and 46 deaths in Lehi, as against 10 births and 27 deaths last year for the same period.

LOST IN THE HILLS.

Last Tuesday E. Kopp, an old employe of the Higgle ranch at the point of the mountain, came to Lehi to see a doctor and before returning purchased several bottles of whisky. After crossing the Jordan bridge he took the wrong road and wandered into the Black Hills. There he broke his buggy. He finally turned his horse loose and commenced wandering about trying to locate himself. Sunday he came down to Snelder's ranch on Utah lake after being out five days, and he was so weak he dropped exhausted before reaching the house, as he had not had anything to eat or drink during that time. He was brought to Lehi Sunday by Felix Long and Melvin Beck who were at the ranch and turned over to him back to the ranch. East, who sent for at first. While he was out, searching parties from Cedar Fort, Fairfield and Lehi had been scouring the hills for him. It is safe to say he will not try to find his employers' ranch in the future when loaded with bad whisky.

Mr. Phelix Long has commenced the erection of a new residence in the northern part of town.

Quite a number of Lehi citizens accompanied the Booster's excursion to Nephi, July 10.

July 10, Mrs. G. Littley presented her husband with a son.

AN IRATE FATHER.

Nathaniel Williams might have received enough treatment if it had not been for the timely interference of the sheriff.

Williams is the old man who is under bonds to appear at the district court to answer to the charge of misconduct towards a number of young girls ranging in years from 12 to 16. Hyrum Loveless, better known as "Bite," and whose home is at Huntington, Emery county, and who has been working in Idaho for some time past, came to Provo last Friday and then learned for the first time from his wife of the treatment his little daughter of 13 years had received at the hands of Williams while temporarily residing here last winter. Last Saturday night, Loveless not knowing Williams, went on a still hunt, approached a man who happened to be Williams but who denied that he was Williams. Loveless then started up the street. Meeting Sheriff Harman he inquired if that was Williams and upon receiving the affirmative started back towards the old man and took hold of Williams when the sheriff called him away. Williams swore to a complaint charging Loveless with assault and battery and who was arraigned before Judge Noon yesterday, pleading not guilty. His case was set for today.
