POSTMASTER OF OGDEN CITY

Congressman Howell Recommends the Appointment of Prest. L. W. Shurtliff.

BANQUET TO G. A. R. OFFICIALS

Gas Plant for Ogden—Precaution Against Smallpox Contagion—Weddings and Other Notes.

Ogden, Dec. 18.—A dispatch was received from Washington last evening announcing that Congressman Howell had recommended the appointment of President L. W. Shurtliff, of the Weber stake as postmaster of Ogden, vice William Glasmann resigned. When interviewed upon this matter last evening President Shurtliff stated taking necessary precaution in the schools to prevent the spread of the smallpox. It is thought that by this means the present standard of good health which the city is enjoying will be maintained.

Wedding Permits—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to William J. Phalen of Grand Junction and Augusta Burmann of Ertington, Ill. also to Jeffrey Dinsdale, Jr. of Ogden, and Ada Stone of Ogden. Arrested for Fighting—Lewis King and Claude Holloway were arrested about midnight last night by patrolman Ruckman and booked on the charge of disturbing the peace. Holloway, suffering with a broken nose was given in the custody of the city physician. The two men having a grievance to settle over some unknown cause secured a room in the Bismark rooming house on lower Twenty-fifth street and after locking the door went to bed. For each other "hammer and tongs." After fighting for several minutes the patrolman arrived at the house and breaking down the door arrested both of the applicants for battle honors. Both the men were fined $5 this morning by Judge Murphy. A Jap named J. R. Fugi was given 40 days for stealing an overcoat.

Fined as a Vag—E. E. Myers charged with vagrancy was sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or serve the same number of days in the city jail by Judge Murphy in the police court yesterday morning.

RICHFIELD. STAKE CONFERENCE.

Irrigating Water for 1009 Already Assured—Close of Prosperous Season. Special Correspondence. Richfield, Sevier Co., Dec. 17.—It began snowing in this valley on the 15th and has been snowing almost continuously ever since, with promise of continuance. It is now eight to 10 inches deep. This storm, together with one received earlier in the fall, assures a bountiful water supply for this valley the coming year.

PROSPEROUS SEASON.

All things considered the farmers have had one of the most prosperous years in the history of the county and winter finds them well prepared for it. The Third ward choir is preparing a splendid musical to be given during the holidays. Walter W. Morrison of this city is preparing to remove to Ogden and engage in business there. The family take with them the best wishes of the community. The Sevier stake quarterly conference convenes in this city Dec. 19. A large attendance is looked for, based on the expectation that President Joseph F. Smith will be in attendance. Elder Simon Christensen, who is on a mission in Denmark, is released to return home next month.

WALEs. FUNERAL OF A PIONEER.

Richard Price Laid to Rest—Dedication of New Schoolhouse. Special Correspondence. Wales, Sanpete Co., Dec. 15.—Funeral services were held today at 1 p. m. in the Wales meetinghouse over the remains of Richard Price, Bishop Davis, presiding. The choir sang fitting selections. The speakers were Elders John Davis, J. K. Midgley, Thomas W. Dykes, Nathaniel Edman, T. D. Rees, H. R. Thomas and Bishop Davis, all of whom spoke of the honesty, forbearance, faith and integrity of the deceased and exhorted his posterity to emulate his good qualities. Many and a few others were the pioneer settlers of this town, enduring the many trying vicissitudes incident to early days. He leaves a wife, three children, and several grandchildren to mourn his departure. The long spell of dry weather was broken today with a fall of six to eight inches of snow.

Wales is blessed with a new commodious schoolhouse which was completed two weeks ago and will be dedicated next Friday. A fine program is being prepared for the occasion.

THEODORE. CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Busy Times on the Reservation—Amusements Galore. Special Correspondence. Theodore, Wasatch Co., Dec. 12.—There are several government bridges under construction and several are already finished. Carpenters are busy building new homes, so the town has a lively appearance. The surrounding country is very dry and dusty, with little snow on the north side of hills. The new forest office is a fine structure, situated on Main street adjoining the store of A. M. Murdock, the postmaster. Mrs. C. W. Anderson presented her husband with a pair of twin girls. The committee for the Christmas festivities have $55 for the Christmas tree. A program committee is making preparations for a fine entertainment under the direction of the L. D. S. Sunday school. A leap year party will be held next Friday evening. At Bonita the nine-months-old babe of Mr. J. Tidwell was burned to death in its carriage this week, the small children setting the clothing afire while the mother was out doing chores. The thrasher is still in full blast at Bonita. It will probably finish its run next week.

G. A. R. OFFICIALS BANQUETED. Old Time Camp Fire—Addresses from Comrades and Ladies.

Ogden, Dec. 18.—Gen. H. M. Nevius, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic accompanied by his staff and a large party were the guests of the local post of veterans and the citizens of Ogden, at a mammoth camp-fire at the city hall last evening which was attended by several hundred people, most of whom were the old soldiers, their families and friends. The commander-in-chief and party arrived in Ogden at 4:20 in the afternoon and were driven at once to the Weber club where they were dinied. After two hours was spent at the club the party repaired to the city hall where the old time camp-fire was held. A feature of the evening was the attendance of the Ladies' G. A. R. band of Salt Lake City, of 15 pieces under the leadership of Mrs. Nellie Ewing Rodriquez, the organizer and which furnished a number of enlivening selections during the evening. The program opened with an address of welcome by Rev. John E. Carver, upon behalf of the citizens. Capt. E. T. Hulaniski welcomed the visitors upon behalf of the G. A. R. Capt. H. W. Fritsch spoke upon the "Early Sixties," and of the origin of the Grand Army of the Republic. Gen. Nevius delivered a short address in which he paid a glowing tribute to the women. Mrs. Genevieve H. L. Lane, president of the Ladies of the Grand Army and Comrades Cole and Cheek of Gen. Nevius' staff delivered short addresses. During the program the Ladies' band rendered a number of patriotic selections. Through the efforts of the ladies of the local post of the Ladies' G. A. R. and the W. R. C. splendid refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee were served, while being enjoyed by the veterans. All the rooms at the city hall were decorated with the American flag for the occasion. A number of the business houses also displayed the flags above their buildings. The streets of the city were brilliantly illuminated throughout the evening.

GAS PLANT FOR OGDEN. Information has been received by Secy. L. L. Reynolds of the Weber club which indicates that a gas plant will soon be installed in this city to compete with the electric lighting system of the Utah Light & Railway company. Several weeks ago Henry I. Lee an expert engineer visited this city to investigate the needs of a gas lighting plant. His report submitted to a gas concern in the east was favorable to the enterprise and it is understood that the plant will be erected at an early date.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS. Precaution Against Contagion—Sanitary Inspector George Shocren has asked the corporation of the board of education in the matter of clerk, was held up and robbed on the street near her home last night on returning from her work. She was relieved of her purse which contained a small sum of money and her notes of the hearing of the Nielsen inquest. She was found in an unconscious condition and taken to her home. The hold-up was too much for her nerves and she evidently fainted away after its occurrence as she can give the officers no description of her assailant.

JEWELRY STORE ROBBED.

Later in the evening the front window of Wendelboer's jewelry store was crashed in by a robber and some articles of jewelry were removed. A student saw the man and gave chase for a couple of blocks, but lost the man in the darkness.

MURRAY. MOVE FOR A COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Missionary Welcome—M. I. A. and Other Social Events. Special Correspondence. Murray, Dec. 18.—A meeting was held Wednesday evening in the opera house by a number of representative business men who met for the purpose of furthering the organization of a commercial club. The committee at a previous meeting made a partial report of progress. Another meeting is called to convene Dec. 20, at which time it is thought an organization will be effected. No city council meeting was held Tuesday night owing to the prevailing storm.

MISSIONARILY WELCOME HOME.

A welcome home party was given in the Taylorville ward house Thursday evening to the honor of Joseph Lindsay who has been laboring as a missionary in Great Britain. The Improvement association of the Granite stake gives a ball this evening in the stake tabernacle. The Taylorville ward held two days this week was considered the most successful ever held in the ward. No raffling or games of chance of any kind were introduced.

THE CORRECT TIME. To stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Peppermint Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on some time the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by Z. C. M. T. Drug Store, 112 and 114 S. B. Main Street.
