

SOCIAL REALMS

SOCIAL CHAT

THE week has been a notable one for its memorable celebrative events, beginning with the reopening of the old Social Hall in an elaborate supper followed by a program including addresses by the first presidency of the L. D. S. Church, and a number of other prominent pioneers recalling incidents of the early day theatricals and socials given in the hall. Dancing came after, and consisted of the old-fashioned cotillions and reels of the pioneer days, a thoroughly enjoyable time being spent. The affair was under the direction of a committee connected with the Genealogical society, including Bishop David Smith, Mrs. Edna L. Smith, Mrs. Susa Y. Gates and Mrs. Ann Groesbeck, and was most delightfully carried out.

The largest affair of the week was probably the Lincoln anniversary banquet at the Kenyon, which was enjoyed by about 300 people, and a program of toasts given by some of the most gifted orators of the state.

Another notable commemorative event was the special meeting held last night by the Daughters of the Revolution in honor of the Lincoln anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith, a supper being served at 7 p. m. and a patriotic program following.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bonemort has issued a large number of invitations for a reception in honor of Gov. and Mrs. William E. Smyth on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 18, from 8 to 11, at her home, 775 east South Temple street. The invitations have the seal of the state of Utah in gold at the top.

On Monday Mrs. T. G. Webber was hostess at a delightful bridge tea, the rooms being beautifully decorated in daffodils and ferns, and about seven tables played. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. Carl Scheid, Mrs. William H. Cunningham and Mrs. June Sadler Donnell.

Lieut. and Mrs. Clark R. Elliott entertained at bridge in honor of Miss Storm and Miss Storm and Miss Gary, who have been guests at the post, the decorations being in red carnations and six tables being played with prizes awarded at each.

One of Monday's delightful events was the luncheon given at the Alta club by Mrs. H. Vance Lane, in whose honor Mrs. J. M. Davis, the table being beautifully decorated in pink and green with a centerpiece of carnations, and candelabra with pink shades and festoons of smilax brought from the chandelier to the four corners. Present besides the guests of honor were Mr. Richard Stingley, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. F. E. McGurkin, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. George Alfrs, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. H. D. Niles, Mrs. H. M. Kriebel, Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mrs. S. H. Pinckert, Mrs. E. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. Louis E. Cates and Mrs. George Smith.

At the Valentine dancing party to be given by the Girls' Friendly society of St. Mark's cathedral parish, on the evening of Monday, Feb. 15, at the Ladies' Literary clubhouse, the patronesses of the affair will be the honorary associates of the society, Mrs. William C. Jennings, Mrs. J. Walton Thompson, Mrs. C. D. Moore, Mrs. Overpeid, Mrs. C. H. Van Arman, Mrs. Louis D. Gordon, Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. Archibald Reid and Miss Cayley.

Next Monday night one of the most elaborate affairs of the season will take place in the hall at the Kenyon to be given by the young women known as the Capitol Hill Building club, the purpose being to arouse an interest in securing the Capitol building, for which an appropriation was made long since.

The affair is to be a character ball, and details carried out in both the patriotic and valentine ideas. A small boy dressed as Uncle Sam will stand at the head of the stairs to receive the guests, assisted by Miss Chapman in appropriate dress. The decorations will be most elaborate, and in view of the patriotic purpose of the occasion it will be honored by the state's chief executive and members. If his staff in full dress uniform, while many others will appear in character costumes. A large number of invitations are issued and the club hold it a test occasion for the proof of patriotism in the way of a large attendance.

Wednesday night P. L. Williams, Jr. was host at a dinner at the Alta club, given in honor of Miss Goddess and Capt. Conrad. The other guests being the members of the bride party, the table was laid in the gold room, and decorated in American Beauty roses, and covers laid for Miss Goddess and Capt. Conrad, Capt. and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Hooper Dunbar, Miss Gertrude McGrath, Miss Annie McCormick, Miss Pearl Van Cott, Miss Kate Williams, Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, C. S. McDonald, J. T. Goodwin, Capt. McCaskey and Lieut. Waterman and three.

Miss Edith Shearman was hostess at a tea on Thursday, given in honor of Mrs. Lyon of Boise, the rooms being bright with daffodils and ferns, and about 40 present. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. Karl A. Scheid, the Misses Hempstead, Bertha Hempstead, Hanauer, Fannie Hanauer and Rookledge.

Mrs. W. P. Kiser was hostess at a large bridge party on Thursday, the decorations being in yellow daffodils and ferns, and yellow ribbons and the following friends assisting: Mrs. Louis S. Cates and Miss Gertrude McGrath poured tea and coffee, assisted by Mrs. Charles Read, Miss Aileen Maclean and Miss Louise Sullivan. Prizes were won by Mrs. Willis Ulme, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Miss Pearl Van Cott, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Louise Stubbfield, Miss Ward, Miss Olive Barzel, Miss Mildred McMillan and Miss Minnette Jarr.

Among the large events of the week was the card-party given at the Ladies' Literary club by the St. Mark's Hospital association for the benefit of the hospital, the hall and basement being bright with flowers and a large number of tables being taken. Members of the association assisted, and prizes were awarded at each table.

Mrs. J. W. Christy entertained at a Valentine luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Smallwood, Mrs. Dayton and Miss Dayton, the details being all carried out in the Valentine idea.

A NEW WAY TO USE RIBBON TRIMMING.

THE PANEL ALWAYS GIVES HEIGHT.

The stout woman and the short woman will do well to make the most of the stole, or tablier, style while it is at high tide of fashion. The long lines of these embroidered panels lend added height, grace and dignity to the figure, and the panels are easy to apply, being simply straight lengths of fabric attached to the finished frock. This costume of corduroy blue satin has a panel embroidered in shades of blue in a Greek housesuckle pattern, and the end of the panel is weighted by a heavy fall of rich fringe.

Mrs. F. W. Jennings is one of this afternoon's hostesses, her affair being in the way of a large tea.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the dinner given by Mrs. Susa Y. Gates at the Social hall on Wednesday, the table being laid in the lower hall and beautifully decorated in daffodils, hyacinths and carnations, and about 40 guests being present, including chiefly members of the hostess' family and her Bible class. A social time followed with reminiscence and chat a thoroughly enjoyable time being spent.

Mrs. W. C. Jennings entertained a party of young people at her home on Thursday night, in honor of her guest, Miss Katherine Richards, the amusement being 500, and the scores and titles in the shape of valentines. The rooms were decorated in marguerites and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. George M. Bacon.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace will entertain at a tea at her home in Popperston, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. June Sadler Donnell will entertain at a fancy dress Mother Goose party at the Ladies' Literary club house this afternoon, for her dancing school pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Culmer entertained six at a box party at the Colonial Tuesday evening, followed by a supper at the College Inn.

The post bridge club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Walthall, when prizes were won by Mrs. Willis Ulme and Mrs. Clark R. Elliott.

Mrs. D. L. Wertheimer entertained at an informal bridge tea, at her home, Wednesday afternoon in honor of three out-of-town guests, Mrs. Letz and Miss Edna May, of Portland, Or., and Miss Josephine, of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo entertained at a prettily appointed dinner at their home Tuesday evening, followed by a box party at the Colonial, in honor of their guest, Mrs. Hickey, of Nampa, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jennings entertained informally at a musicale on Wednesday night, the decorations being in spring flowers and about 25 guests being present. Mrs. A. H. Peabody assisted the hostess, and a program was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peabody, Mrs. J. T. Treasurer and the Misses Edna and Ivy Evans. About 30 friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McMillan entertained at a box-party at the Colonial on Tuesday night, followed by a supper at the College Inn, the guests numbering a half dozen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Culmer entertained at a dinner on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. De Wolfe of Milford.

Mrs. H. Vance Lane has issued invitations for a bridge tea to be given next Tuesday.

Mrs. William M. McCrea entertained her Sewing club Thursday afternoon.

The Regimental Bridge club met this week with Mrs. Hugh Walthall at Fort Douglas, and prizes were won by Mrs. C. R. Elliott and Mrs. Willis Ulme.

The L. I. D. club has sent out several hundred handsomely engraved invitations to a Washington's birthday ball in Whitney hall. The members of the club are Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Derr, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Castleton, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. John Stringham, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ensign.

One of the important events of next week will be the ball to be given at Social Hall by the members of the Genealogical society, this to be the formal opening of the historic building to the public. About 200 invitations will be issued, and preparations are being made for a most delightful affair. Dancing will take place in the newly renovated upper hall and supper will be served downstairs. The many applications made for invitations insure its success.
