

Johnny Teague Certainly Was Better Than a Circus

There was a spectacular stoppage of a runaway team at high noon today at Second South and State streets, that beat the equestrian performances of any circus that ever came here. As Conductor John E. Teague was walking past the point mentioned on route to his work, he saw a double team tearing east from Main street on Second South. The street was full of people either running after the team from behind, or running away from it in front, and the windows of buildings along the line of march were filled with people taking in the show. Some body was making remarks suggestive of a disturbed frame of mind, or was, or ought to have been a veteran cowboy riding the range, and he was on to the situation instantly. Pulling his cap down over his ears, so it wouldn't blow off, he made a straight shot for the runaway team. Grabbing the bridle of the horse nearest to him, he gave a fly-

HIGH SCHOOL KNIGHTS VISIT ROWLAND HALL

Not Until Their Frolic Was Over Did Miss Colburne Know They Were Exceeded.

As the result of a "rough house" on the campus yesterday morning, 28 high school students were taken to the office and expelled by Prof. George A. Eaton after he had given them a severe lecture. They may have been cast down for a short time, but their spirits evidently recovered quickly, for a very humorous turn was given to events a little later when the troupe of boys decided to go to Rowland hall, and visit the young ladies. One of the band of expelled students telephoned to Miss Colburne, the principal of the school and asked permission to visit her school, which was granted, as she could not very well do otherwise. The 28 expelled students then went to the young ladies' school in a body, and it was not until they had finished their visit and were leaving, that Miss Colburne was informed that they had been expelled from the high school.

The trouble on the campus early yesterday morning was the result of the sophomores raising their class flag on the big pole. The juniors resented this action, and a free for all ensued. In the midst of the melee Prof. Eaton appeared, but not before some blows were given and received. The boys will now have to see Supt. D. H. Christensen and make matters right with him before they will be received back into the high school. They will probably do this early next week as their petition has been drawn and is ready for presentation.

JOSEPH HEATH KILLS HIMSELF

After Suffering from a Loathsome Disease He Takes Carbolic Acid.

(Special to the "News")

Ogden, April 22.—After suffering for years with a loathsome disease from which he seemed unable to obtain relief, Joseph Heath ended his life locked in his room at the home of his parents in Madison avenue yesterday. He took carbolic acid, and when found by his mother, was too far in the grasp of the poison to be aided by the physician who was called as soon as the young man was discovered writing on his bed in the agonizing moments before death relieved him. He had been using a wash largely composed of carbolic acid, and from the bottle which had been used by him in this manner for years he drained the poison after a period of dependency which seized him when he realized that his condition grew no better in spite of all his efforts.

Heath was 23 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath, of this city. He was unmarried and was employed in the railway yards for some time. His father is inspector in the Ogden city waterworks department. The funeral will be held in the Larkin & Sons' chapel Saturday afternoon.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken were guests of honor last evening at an informal dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver previous to the departure of the former for Europe, the decorations being in marguerites and geraniums and covers laid for a half dozen guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nibley entertained at a dinner last evening at the home of Mrs. Nibley, 28 South Main street. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Nibley's mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Dunlop, who has just returned from Europe. The decorations being in green, and covers laid for Mrs. H. P. Clark, Mrs. Fred Hornung, Mrs. E. C. Snyder, Mrs. A. Dumbuck, Mrs. J. P. Grant, Mrs. E. W. Whitney, Mrs. Frank Harris, Mrs. Will Browning, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. George Savage.

ing legs, and in less than a fraction of a second was astride of the flying animal. "No lighter doth the smooth lake's level swim," than did Teague skim through the air on to that horse. Then, as though merely out for a little enjoyable ride, he reached over and, without losing his equipoise at all, grabbed the bridle of the second horse and immediately brought both up standing. A great company of interested spectators now rushed on to the scene from the sidewalk, as long as the team was under his perfect control, and lent their valuable aid in holding perfectly fast the now entirely quieted horses, until the "Winged Mercury" from the curbarms could dismount and get a new cinch on its owner uninjured. Some one proposed to take up a collection as a testimonial to such an exhibition of bravery, whereupon the crowd vanished immediately. Conductor Teague has, however, the innate satisfaction of realizing the blessed truth, that "Virtue is its own reward."

The state chemist is analyzing quite a number of samples of candy of various kinds brought to him by the food inspector. The solutions in the beakers on the chemist's table were covered with a most reprehensible looking scum consisting of pure and unadulterated dirt, suggestive of most unclean surroundings in manufacturing. The chemist held up two or three sticks of translucent candy, the light, whereupon the sunlight showed specks of dirt and deleterious looking foreign matter scattered all through it. The food inspector, who has several complaints to be followed by arrests. The chemist has just analyzed 19 samples of city milk taken at random. With one exception, all are up to the standard.

RAILROAD NEWS

LOCOMOTIVE A GIANT.
Heaviest Engine Ever Built to Go in Service on Southern Pacific.

Chicago, April 22.—The heaviest locomotive ever built, weighing 420,000 pounds, without a tender, and 626,000 with a tender, and measuring 92 feet long over all, is on its way to Chicago from Philadelphia. It will be exhibited here for a day before being sent west for freight service on the Sierra Nevada mountain division of the Southern Pacific railroad.

With the possible exception of one locomotive used on the Erie railroad, this is also the most powerful locomotive in the world and is two and two-thirds times more powerful than the heaviest freight locomotive used by the Southern Pacific on its steepest grades. This will haul crude oil from California wells. The weight on the driving wheels is 200,000 pounds as compared with 187,000 for the heaviest used by the road at present. The tender loaded ready for service weighs 170,000 pounds, making a total weight of more than 600 tons. The boiler has a heating surface of 34,000 square feet. The wheel base is 56 feet, 10 inches.

SENATOR SMOOT THANKED

Commercial Club Traffic Bureau Wires to Him in Washington.

The Commercial club traffic bureau yesterday forwarded a telegram to Senator Reed Smoot at Washington, D. C., thanking him and his associates in Congress for presenting the petition of the bureau for an investigation of the freight rates of this section to President Taft. The telegram follows:

SENATOR RESIGNED

Senator Reed Smoot, United States Senate Chamber, Washington, D. C., for action yesterday in so forcibly presenting petition of our citizens to President Taft heavy acknowledgments are offered to you and Senator Howland and Representative Howell. The cause must triumph because of its justice, and Utah will finally receive the recognition and the western people will be righteously demands, but which has always been unrighteously denied.

In the Oregon Short Line service, died of heart disease last night. A messenger, who was sent to ascertain the cause of his death, found him lying dead in the yards near the signal service office. He was on his way to the caboose when he was stricken down. O'Neil visited Salt Lake yesterday in the service of the Short Line. At one time he was a locomotive engineer in the service. It is stated that he intended to quit after the trip he was on his way to take when overcome.

RUMOR OF THROUGH ROUTE

New York Dispatch Says Alliance is Being Planned by C. and O.

Dispatches from New York indicate that new influences are at work to effect by alliance another through route from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. It seems that the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, extending from New York to Cincinnati, Ohio, is planning to make the route by extensions through Toledo, Chicago, Kansas City and Denver, a route to Salt Lake and thence to the coast. Necessarily, the extension would have to be made either with the Harriman or Gould interests, and while no definite information is at hand on the alliance, it is presumed that the Gould lines are interested.

OFFICE IS MOVED

The office of the Union Pacific Coal department, heretofore occupying a portion of the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line up town ticket offices on the corner of Main and Second South streets, has been removed to the Judge building on Third South. This makes more room for the ticket and freight offices of the railroad in the Main street quarters, which was badly needed.

AUDITOR YOUNG HERE

General Auditor Erastus Young of the Union Pacific railroad, left for the east last night. Mr. Young is on his way to visit his family in California to Omaha. He was accompanied by C. J. McNitt, auditor of the Oregon Short Line, who goes to Cincinnati to attend the meetings of the American Railroad Accounting Officers' association. Mr. McNitt will be gone 10 days, and T. A. Martin will be in charge of the auditing department of the Short Line during his absence.

PENN OFFICIALS HERE

Passenger Department May be Established Here Following Visit.

A party of Pennsylvania railroad officials visited Salt Lake yesterday for the purpose of looking the situation over with the view of establishing a passenger department agency of the lines in this city. The party consisted of Samuel Moody, general passenger agent, Pittsburg; C. L. Kimball, assistant passenger agent, Chicago; J. M. Chesbrough, general passenger agent of the Vandalia; M. F. Hoy, passenger agent at Los Angeles and George T. Hill, passenger agent at Denver. The visiting gentlemen were the guests of D. E. Burley, general passenger agent of the Oregon Short Line, who took them around Salt Lake in his motor car.

COURT NEWS

CHANGE OF VENUE SECURED.
When the case of Mrs. C. A. Taylor, arrested in a recent raid, made by the sheriff upon the "stockade," was called in Justice of Peace Stanley A. Hank's court yesterday, a petition for a change of venue was presented and granted. The case will then be taken up in Justice Thompson's court, and will come up for trial Saturday.

THINKS AFFINITY LURED HER

Intrigued with another man, Mrs. Samuel Rockefeller deserted her husband, daughter and home, according to the testimony of Jesse Y. Rockefeller, the husband, who was given the custody of Ruby, 4 years old, and a decree of divorce is pending in Judge Morse's court. They were married in Ogden on May 14, 1903. In November, 1908, Mrs. Rockefeller abandoned her home and since that time her whereabouts has been unknown. Rockefeller says that he believes she was accompanied by J. Howard, who had written to her.

ALSO WANTS MAIDEN NAME

Charging her husband, John A. Warren with desertion, Mrs. Bernice B. Warren filed suit for divorce yesterday in the third district court. They were married in Pueblo, Colo., on July 16, 1894, for the last 18 months, it is alleged, Warren has deserted the plaintiff and has refused to provide for her in any way. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Bernice B. Vaughan.

MERGER CASE APRIL 27

W. M. McCrea, assistant United States district attorney, says that the suit against the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads for violating the anti-trust law, is expected to come up in the United States District court in this city on the 27 inst. The suit is the result of the investigation of E. M. Harriman by the interstate commerce commission, at the instigation of President Roosevelt, and it aims to dissolve the merger of the two roads as being contrary to law.

FREED FROM FEETTERS

Mrs. Lillian Bowles, the proprietress of a rooming house on State street, was granted a decree of divorce from Harry Bowles on the charge of desertion in Judge Morse's court this morning. Bowles accepted service in Cripple Creek, Colorado, where he has been living for several years since deserting his wife. He waived his appearance and time to answer to the charges. They were married in Hoboken, N. J., on July 7, 1896. They came here about four years ago and Bowles left her, going to Cripple Creek. There are no children as an issue of the marriage.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES
