

SOCIAL REALMS

day given for Miss Cora Little, one of the summer's brides, the decorations being in roses and four tables played.

Mrs. Edward Merrill entertained at luncheon on Tuesday, pink roses forming the centerpiece and covers being laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. W. E. Purviance entertained the Post Bridge club on Tuesday, the prizes going to Mrs. Rifenberck and Miss Williams.

Mr. Fred Smith entertained at a dinner at the University club on Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Brudle of Owensboro, Ky., who is a guest at the McMillan home.

Miss Alice Wells and Miss Mary Wells entertained at a dancing party on Monday night at her home in honor of Miss Grace Grant and Isaac B. Evans whose marriage took place this week. The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses, and the here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nevill and two children will leave soon for a visit in Newfoundland, and early in September they will go to Seattle, Wash., to make their home.

Miss Leone Watts and her sister, Mrs. Leonard Colburn, leave this week for Kemmerer, Wyo., where they will join a camping party.

Mrs. J. S. Markham and Miss Evelyn Markham are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dalzell.

Mrs. McFarland has returned to her home in Denver, Colo., after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Fittou.

Dr. and Mrs. Orson Howard left Thursday night for Los Angeles and Long Beach, to spend the summer.

Miss Norlme Thompson is home from the east, where she has been attending school.

Frank Waldlaw, a nephew of Mrs. Thomas Wolf, is here from the east to spend the summer.

Mrs. F. L. Oswald and her daughter, Hazel, will leave next Thursday for Los Angeles and the beaches, to spend the remainder of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Vincent, Mrs. C. G. Plummer and the Misses Amy and Isabel Osborne will leave this evening for Seattle, Wash., where they will spend three weeks.

sons in New York. Mr. McCormick will leave here today, and they will spend three months in Europe.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Miss Mamie Price and Thomas Hull took place in the Temple this morning, with President Joseph F. Smith performing the ceremony and a wedding breakfast following at the home of the bride's brother, Milton Price. The rooms were decorated throughout with roses and the table with pink and white sweet peas, only the immediate relatives being present. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Hull left for a trip to Seattle, expecting to be absent about a month.

Another July wedding to take place shortly is that of Miss Grace Bettles and Frances W. Roueche of Meadville, Pennsylvania.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Grace Grant and I. B. Evans on Wednesday, the marriage being solemnized in the Temple during the morning, and a wedding breakfast following at the home of Mrs. T. W. Sloan, an informal reception being held later at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. D. Boyle. Mr. and Mrs. Evans have gone to Ogden Canyon to spend the summer and will later make their home in Logan.

Miss Marie A. Luce and Walter Brown were married on Monday at noon at the bride's home in the presence of the families leaving almost immediately for a trip to the northwest. On their return they will be at home at 509 Fullerton avenue.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Viola Burrell and T. W. Jones, following the marriage in the Temple. Miss Grace Burrell, Gertrude Clayton and Emma Abbott were bridesmaids and Mr. Fred Crabbe was best man.

Miss Lila Farrell and Montgomery Elliott were married this week at the home of the bride's father, James Farrell, in the presence of the two families, the couple leaving afterward to make their home in Brigham where they will reside.

will spend their vacation in the city with their father, J. E. Davenport.

Rheinhart Gideon, the son of Judge Valentine Gideon, has returned home for the summer from Amherst college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stott have returned from an extensive eastern trip.

Mrs. D. C. Olmstead has returned from a visit through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birschall of London, England, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown for a few weeks.

Eddie Miller, train dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company, is spending his vacation in the east. Last week he was the guest of Ed Linnehan at Woodstock, Ohio. He will visit New York and Coney Island before he returns home.

Miss Margaret Hamill has gone to Salt Lake, where she will attend the summer school of the state university.

Miss Maud Busch of Salt Lake was the guest of Miss Vern Fulton during the past week.

Mrs. Grant Van Duzee and children of Jackson, Michigan are visiting Mrs. Van Duzee's sister, Mrs. Anna Christiansen.

Chief Clerk Robert Reynolds of Supt. Mansion's office accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds has returned from a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Mrs. Kitty Hines royally entertained pretty summer home on Provo bench. About 75 guests sat down to a strawberry feast which was spread on the lawn. The party returned to the city late that evening, all having had a most pleasant afternoon and evening.

Dist. Atty. H. E. Booth of Salt Lake was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Calder to dinner Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Smith has returned home after a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake and Bingham.

Gov. Spry and E. H. Callister, international revenue collector of Salt Lake City were the guests of Col. C. E. Loose at a trout dinner at the Upper Falls, Sunday.

Misses Vera and Maud Davis are visiting their sister, Mrs. William Ferrer, in Payson for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Durkin entertained at a yachting party in honor of eastern friends.

Mrs. Gertrude of Salt Lake was the guest of Mrs. Reed Spoot this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Belding of New Orleans stopped off in Provo for a few days on their way to the coast to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Suttle.

The Sorosis Juniors were entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Malva Chazler. The first part of the evening was given to the arranging of a program for the summer work, after which a social time was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served.

Frank Graham of Salt Lake City spent strawberry day in Provo visiting with relatives and many friends.

Asst. Postmaster Dusenberry was a Salt Lake visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tenney of San Francisco are in Provo visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sillas Alfred, parents of Mrs. Tenney.

Mrs. Edith Decker of Salt Lake was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Graham.

Frank Ramsey and family went to Salt Lake in their automobile Thursday and returned accompanied by his brother, Lewis Ramsey, the artist, which will spend the Fourth in Provo.

Mr. Lee of Salt Lake spent Tuesday in Provo with his wife who is in this city visiting her brother and family, J. R. Hodson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bower and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rae have returned from a trip to Provo canyon where they enjoyed several days of trout fishing and enjoying the cool canyon breeze.

Dr. Pinkerton with a party of seven came down from Salt Lake Sunday in an auto and enjoyed a trout and fish dinner at the Hotel Roberts. Returning to Salt Lake in the cool of the evening.

Mrs. Hyrum Cluff entertained at a family dinner at her home Wednesday. Covers were laid for 14.

Mr. Holmes of the Knutsford, Salt Lake, with an automobile party of four took dinner Wednesday at the Hotel Roberts Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Murdock of Heber spent strawberry day in Provo.

Alex. Hedquist entertained a few friends on a yachting party the fore part of the week.

Mrs. A. C. Pearson of Nampa, Idaho is visiting Lehi relatives and friends.

Mr. G. U. Child left today for a short trip to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Southwick of Idaho Falls have been visiting friends here.

Mrs. Joseph Scorey of Murray is visiting Mrs. Samuel Br...

Joel, Jim and Joseph Nibley came up from Salt Lake Tuesday, and with Horace Nebeker and George Thompson, spent the remainder of the week in Logan canyon.

Charles Hanson, Preston Thatcher, O. H. Budge and Dr. Emory returned to Cache Junction Thursday afternoon to meet the state dentists, who were on their way to Logan to hold their state convention on Friday and Saturday. After the Saturday session, they were banqueted in Logan canyon, and a dancing party was given in their honor in the evening.

LEHI.

Mrs. Kittie Hines of Provo was in Eureka this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kryger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wallace were visiting in Salt Lake early part of the week.

W. W. Freetleton returned Sunday evening from Salt Lake where he spent a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and children returned Monday evening from a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

John Leysion, who was in business several years ago at Silver City, but who is now located in Nevada, was in this week renewing the acquaintances of old-time friends.

William Embleton and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Embleton at Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. George M. Hays and children were in Provo on a visit this week.

Mrs. D. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Marcella, returned Tuesday evening from Salt Lake where they spent a month with friends.

Among those from Eureka who were in Salt Lake this week are the following: George M. Hayes, F. B. Sullivan, J. A. Griffiths, Dr. Lay, R. A. Brown and C. B. Marshall.

Mrs. Belle MacAdams of Provo spent a visit here this week, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Laprelle Dunn has returned to her home in Provo after a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Baker returned Tuesday evening after a visit at Payson and Springlake.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson of Salt Lake was in Eureka on a visit this week.

Theodore L. Genter of Salt Lake was here during the week on mining business.

Mrs. William Ellis and children returned Monday evening from an extended visit at Coalville.

Mrs. Walter W. Fitch and two daughters arrived in Eureka Tuesday from the east. They recently returned from a tour of Europe and were met at New York by Cecil Fitch who accompanied them upon their trip to this city. The family will spend the summer in Eureka.

Prof. B. M. Lehman came out from Salt Lake Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell and daughters, Rev. and Vera, are spending the week at Provo.

J. W. Evans of Denver, has succeeded Robert Davis as agent of the San Pedro and R. G. W. railroads at Robinson.

Mrs. S. J. Schmitt and children left the other day for their summer home at the Hot Potts near Heber, to spend several months.

Lieut. and Mrs. Kneeland L. Snow entertained at a dancing party at the post last night for Miss Gretta Storm, whose marriage to Lieut. N. Miller takes place in the early fall. The hall and veranda were draped with flags and bunting and oak leaves used with pretty effect. Music was furnished by the paragon formed cozy corners on the veranda and a buffet supper was served. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. J. M. Arrasmith, Mrs. R. P. Rifenberck and Mrs. Upham. About 100 people were present, including a number of guests from the city.

Miss Virginia Shannon entertained a party of 20 at the lake on Thursday night, bathing, dancing and supper being the features of the evening. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Shannon. Mr. and Mrs. R. Stetter and Mrs. Thomas Powell, President were. The Misses Gail Dix, Blanche Langton, Gladys Savage, Kate Adams, Rubie Lambourne, Florence Powell, Florence Veness, Harriet McCarrick, Emily McCallister, and the Messrs. Hugh Lewis, Albert J. Daly, Swanner, Laine, Edmunds, Phil Thompson, Jack McErdy, Lonzo Romney, Roger Powers and George Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard chaperoned a party of young people at the bicycle races at the Salt Palace on Tuesday evening. Mr. James Austin being the host.

Miss Gertrude Clayton was hostess at a pretty affair on Monday in the way of a linen shower given for Miss Viola Burrell, one of the week's brides. Red roses were the decorative and the guests were members of the high school class.

Mrs. C. I. Tuttle entertained at a bridge party at the country club on Tuesday, the decorations being in wild mustard and syringa, and six tables played, with a number of others coming in later to tea. The affair was in honor of the hostess' sister, Mrs. Downing of Los Angeles, and assisting were Miss Elsie Purson, Miss Edith Godbe and Miss Aileen McMillan. Prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Madam Swenson, Mrs. F. J. Egan, Mrs. W. H. Child and Mrs. Justice Jung.

HAT TRIMMED WITH SWEET PEAS.
Flower trimmings are put on this summer either in single cabochons in very set, stiff effect, or they are massed all over the crown in luxuriant profusion of bloom. This white chip hat is one of the mushroom shapes, with brim rolling upward at the left side. The facing of pale pink satin is repeated in the delicate pink of the sweet peas which cover the crown, some sprays of mauve and lilac blending artistically with the delicate pink color.

Lawn lit with Japanese lanterns, about 40 friends enjoying the pleasant affair. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. T. W. Sloan and Miss Mary Wells.

Mrs. Jack Keith entertained at a delightful bridge party on Monday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Blyth of Evanston, six tables being played and the decorations were in crimson rambler roses and pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Armstrong are at home to their friends in the Meredith apartments.

F. S. Perry is home from a short trip to California.

Miss Irene Blood has returned from a trip to Southern California.

Mrs. S. D. Evans, who has spent the past month in the east, is now visiting friends in Richmond, Ind., and will be home this evening.

Fred C. Nellen of Los Angeles, Cal., spent Wednesday here at the home of J. J. Stewart on his way to Tacoma and San Francisco, Cal.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul C. Potter left Thursday evening for a three months' stay in Santa Barbara and San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. George L. Nye is expected to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wurber.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Burke will leave early in the fall for Milan, Italy, where both expect to study vocal music for two years.

Miss Rea Nibley has returned from a short visit with friends in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connor, who are now visiting in Milwaukee, Wis., will be home the last of next week, from a month spent in the east.

Mrs. Adolph Anderson will leave this evening for Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash. Later she will join her daughter, Miss Elsie, in Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sallsbury returned Monday evening from their wedding trip, and are here with Mrs. Margaret Sallsbury.

Miss Dorothy Kinney has returned from Europe, and is a guest at the Judge home with Mrs. John E. Woodward.

Mrs. Schulwin and Miss McDowell of Deaver are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Dyke.

Mrs. R. V. Hunt will leave this month to visit her mother in Wisconsin for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Leo Trent has gone to East Auburn, Cal., where she will be the guest of her brother, L. C. Trent, until after the wedding of her niece, Miss Lella Trent, and James D. Meredith, which takes place today.

Paul Williams has returned from Cornell university.

The Misses Mary and Abbie Bishop, who have been spending a few days in Portland, Ore., are now in Seattle, Wash., where they will spend the summer with their sister, Miss Harriet Bishop.

Miss Sybil Anderson has gone to Oakland, after spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bogue have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at 425 Thirteenth East street.

Sam Palmer of Hot Springs, Ark., is

with them the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

Mrs. J. C. Graham and daughter, Miss Maud, left today for a trip through Idaho, where they will visit with relatives and friends for some time.

Mrs. Emma Radcliff was the guest of honor at a dinner party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ben Bean. Covers were laid for 10.

Mrs. Almira Holden and daughters, Nellie, Vera and Des all of Salt Lake are visiting in Provo with relatives and friends. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Alex. Mortensen, daughter of Mrs. Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gloyd, who were Ogden visitors for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Elko, Nevada.

Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin of the Congregational church left during the week for Boston, where he will visit for two weeks and then will visit other cities.

Mrs. C. M. Freed and son, Ellis Freed, of Salt Lake were Idlewild guests for the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen of Ely, Nevada were Ogden visitors during the past week.

Miss Laura Forbes, who has been visiting at the G. W. Tripp home for a week has returned to her home accompanied by Kenneth and Harold Tripp, who will visit there for a few days.

Mrs. Orson Hiser has returned home from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting friends for the past week. Her daughter Rita, will remain with relatives in Salt Lake for another week.

James Cassin accompanied by his wife and daughter have returned from a visit with relatives in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and children of Wells, Nevada, have arrived in the city for a visit with relatives and friends.

Alma Eldredge of Coalville was an Ogden visitor during the past week.

May Bouhanon and Eileen Reddy, who have been attending school in Ogden during the past year have returned to their home in Wells, Nevada.

Miss Zell Davenport accompanied by her brother Russell, have returned to Ogden from Amherst college and will spend their vacation in the city with their father, J. E. Davenport.

Rheinhart Gideon, the son of Judge Valentine Gideon, has returned home for the summer from Amherst college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stott have returned from an extensive eastern trip.

Mrs. D. C. Olmstead has returned from a visit through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birschall of London, England, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown for a few weeks.

Eddie Miller, train dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company, is spending his vacation in the east. Last week he was the guest of Ed Linnehan at Woodstock, Ohio. He will visit New York and Coney Island before he returns home.

Miss Margaret Hamill has gone to Salt Lake, where she will attend the summer school of the state university.

Miss Maud Busch of Salt Lake was the guest of Miss Vern Fulton during the past week.

Mrs. Grant Van Duzee and children of Jackson, Michigan are visiting Mrs. Van Duzee's sister, Mrs. Anna Christiansen.

Chief Clerk Robert Reynolds of Supt. Mansion's office accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds has returned from a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Joel, Jim and Joseph Nibley came up from Salt Lake Tuesday, and with Horace Nebeker and George Thompson, spent the remainder of the week in Logan canyon.

Charles Hanson, Preston Thatcher, O. H. Budge and Dr. Emory returned to Cache Junction Thursday afternoon to meet the state dentists, who were on their way to Logan to hold their state convention on Friday and Saturday. After the Saturday session, they were banqueted in Logan canyon, and a dancing party was given in their honor in the evening.

LEHI.

Mrs. Kittie Hines of Provo was in Eureka this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kryger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wallace were visiting in Salt Lake early part of the week.

W. W. Freetleton returned Sunday evening from Salt Lake where he spent a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and children returned Monday evening from a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

John Leysion, who was in business several years ago at Silver City, but who is now located in Nevada, was in this week renewing the acquaintances of old-time friends.

William Embleton and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Embleton at Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. George M. Hays and children were in Provo on a visit this week.

Mrs. D. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Marcella, returned Tuesday evening from Salt Lake where they spent a month with friends.

Among those from Eureka who were in Salt Lake this week are the following: George M. Hayes, F. B. Sullivan, J. A. Griffiths, Dr. Lay, R. A. Brown and C. B. Marshall.

Mrs. Belle MacAdams of Provo spent a visit here this week, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Laprelle Dunn has returned to her home in Provo after a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Baker returned Tuesday evening after a visit at Payson and Springlake.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson of Salt Lake was in Eureka on a visit this week.

Theodore L. Genter of Salt Lake was here during the week on mining business.

Mrs. William Ellis and children returned Monday evening from an extended visit at Coalville.

Mrs. Walter W. Fitch and two daughters arrived in Eureka Tuesday from the east. They recently returned from a tour of Europe and were met at New York by Cecil Fitch who accompanied them upon their trip to this city. The family will spend the summer in Eureka.

Prof. B. M. Lehman came out from Salt Lake Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell and daughters, Rev. and Vera, are spending the week at Provo.

J. W. Evans of Denver, has succeeded Robert Davis as agent of the San Pedro and R. G. W. railroads at Robinson.

Mrs. S. J. Schmitt and children left the other day for their summer home at the Hot Potts near Heber, to spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard chaperoned a party of young people at the bicycle races at the Salt Palace on Tuesday evening. Mr. James Austin being the host.

Miss Gertrude Clayton was hostess at a pretty affair on Monday in the way of a linen shower given for Miss Viola Burrell, one of the week's brides. Red roses were the decorative and the guests were members of the high school class.

Mrs. C. I. Tuttle entertained at a bridge party at the country club on Tuesday, the decorations being in wild mustard and syringa, and six tables played, with a number of others coming in later to tea. The affair was in honor of the hostess' sister, Mrs. Downing of Los Angeles, and assisting were Miss Elsie Purson, Miss Edith Godbe and Miss Aileen McMillan. Prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Madam Swenson, Mrs. F. J. Egan, Mrs. W. H. Child and Mrs. Justice Jung.

HAT TRIMMED WITH SWEET PEAS.
Flower trimmings are put on this summer either in single cabochons in very set, stiff effect, or they are massed all over the crown in luxuriant profusion of bloom. This white chip hat is one of the mushroom shapes, with brim rolling upward at the left side. The facing of pale pink satin is repeated in the delicate pink of the sweet peas which cover the crown, some sprays of mauve and lilac blending artistically with the delicate pink color.

Lawn lit with Japanese lanterns, about 40 friends enjoying the pleasant affair. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. T. W. Sloan and Miss Mary Wells.

Mrs. Jack Keith entertained at a delightful bridge party on Monday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Blyth of Evanston, six tables being played and the decorations were in crimson rambler roses and pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Armstrong are at home to their friends in the Meredith apartments.

F. S. Perry is home from a short trip to California.

Miss Irene Blood has returned from a trip to Southern California.

Mrs. S. D. Evans, who has spent the past month in the east, is now visiting friends in Richmond, Ind., and will be home this evening.

Fred C. Nellen of Los Angeles, Cal., spent Wednesday here at the home of J. J. Stewart on his way to Tacoma and San Francisco, Cal.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul C. Potter left Thursday evening for a three months' stay in Santa Barbara and San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. George L. Nye is expected to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wurber.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Burke will leave early in the fall for Milan, Italy, where both expect to study vocal music for two years.

Miss Rea Nibley has returned from a short visit with friends in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connor, who are now visiting in Milwaukee, Wis., will be home the last of next week, from a month spent in the east.

Mrs. Adolph Anderson will leave this evening for Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash. Later she will join her daughter, Miss Elsie, in Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sallsbury returned Monday evening from their wedding trip, and are here with Mrs. Margaret Sallsbury.

Miss Dorothy Kinney has returned from Europe, and is a guest at the Judge home with Mrs. John E. Woodward.

Mrs. Schulwin and Miss McDowell of Deaver are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Dyke.

Mrs. R. V. Hunt will leave this month to visit her mother in Wisconsin for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Leo Trent has gone to East Auburn, Cal., where she will be the guest of her brother, L. C. Trent, until after the wedding of her niece, Miss Lella Trent, and James D. Meredith, which takes place today.

Paul Williams has returned from Cornell university.

The Misses Mary and Abbie Bishop, who have been spending a few days in Portland, Ore., are now in Seattle, Wash., where they will spend the summer with their sister, Miss Harriet Bishop.

Miss Sybil Anderson has gone to Oakland, after spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bogue have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at 425 Thirteenth East street.

Sam Palmer of Hot Springs, Ark., is

with them the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

Mrs. J. C. Graham and daughter, Miss Maud, left today for a trip through Idaho, where they will visit with relatives and friends for some time.

Mrs. Emma Radcliff was the guest of honor at a dinner party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ben Bean. Covers were laid for 10.

Mrs. Almira Holden and daughters, Nellie, Vera and Des all of Salt Lake are visiting in Provo with relatives and friends. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Alex. Mortensen, daughter of Mrs. Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gloyd, who were Ogden visitors for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Elko, Nevada.

Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin of the Congregational church left during the week for Boston, where he will visit for two weeks and then will visit other cities.

Mrs. C. M. Freed and son, Ellis Freed, of Salt Lake were Idlewild guests for the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen of Ely, Nevada were Ogden visitors during the past week.

Miss Laura Forbes, who has been visiting at the G. W. Tripp home for a week has returned to her home accompanied by Kenneth and Harold Tripp, who will visit there for a few days.

Mrs. Orson Hiser has returned home from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting friends for the past week. Her daughter Rita, will remain with relatives in Salt Lake for another week.

James Cassin accompanied by his wife and daughter have returned from a visit with relatives in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and children of Wells, Nevada, have arrived in the city for a visit with relatives and friends.

Alma Eldredge of Coalville was an Ogden visitor during the past week.

May Bouhanon and Eileen Reddy, who have been attending school in Ogden during the past year have returned to their home in Wells, Nevada.

Miss Zell Davenport accompanied by her brother Russell, have returned to Ogden from Amherst college and will spend their vacation in the city with their father, J. E. Davenport.

Rheinhart Gideon, the son of Judge Valentine Gideon, has returned home for the summer from Amherst college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stott have returned from an extensive eastern trip.

Mrs. D. C. Olmstead has returned from a visit through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birschall of London, England, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown for a few weeks.

Eddie Miller, train dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company, is spending his vacation in the east. Last week he was the guest of Ed Linnehan at Woodstock, Ohio. He will visit New York and Coney Island before he returns home.

Miss Margaret Hamill has gone to Salt Lake, where she will attend the summer school of the state university.

Miss Maud Busch of Salt Lake was the guest of Miss Vern Fulton during the past week.

Mrs. Grant Van Duzee and children of Jackson, Michigan are visiting Mrs. Van Duzee's sister, Mrs. Anna Christiansen.

Chief Clerk Robert Reynolds of Supt. Mansion's office accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds has returned from a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Joel, Jim and Joseph Nibley came up from Salt Lake Tuesday, and with Horace Nebeker and George Thompson, spent the remainder of the week in Logan canyon.

Charles Hanson, Preston Thatcher, O. H. Budge and Dr. Emory returned to Cache Junction Thursday afternoon to meet the state dentists, who were on their way to Logan to hold their state convention on Friday and Saturday. After the Saturday session, they were banqueted in Logan canyon, and a dancing party was given in their honor in the evening.

LEHI.

Mrs. Kittie Hines of Provo was in Eureka this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kryger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wallace were visiting in Salt Lake early part of the week.

W. W. Freetleton returned Sunday evening from Salt Lake where he spent a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and children returned Monday evening from a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

John Leysion, who was in business several years ago at Silver City, but who is now located in Nevada, was in this week renewing the acquaintances of old-time friends.

William Embleton and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Embleton at Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. George M. Hays and children were in Provo on a visit this week.

Mrs. D. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Marcella, returned Tuesday evening from Salt Lake where they spent a month with friends.

Among those from Eureka who were in Salt Lake this week are the following: George M. Hayes, F. B. Sullivan, J. A. Griffiths, Dr. Lay, R. A. Brown and C. B. Marshall.

Mrs. Belle MacAdams of Provo spent a visit here this week, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Laprelle Dunn has returned to her home in Provo after a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Baker returned Tuesday evening after a visit at Payson and Springlake.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson of Salt Lake was in Eureka on a visit this week.

Theodore L. Genter of Salt Lake was here during the week on mining business.

Mrs. William Ellis and children returned Monday evening from an extended visit at Coalville.

Mrs. Walter W. Fitch and two daughters arrived in Eureka Tuesday from the east. They recently returned from a tour of Europe and were met at New York by Cecil Fitch who accompanied them upon their trip to this city. The family will spend the summer in Eureka.

Prof. B. M. Lehman came out from Salt Lake Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell and daughters, Rev. and Vera, are spending the week at Provo.

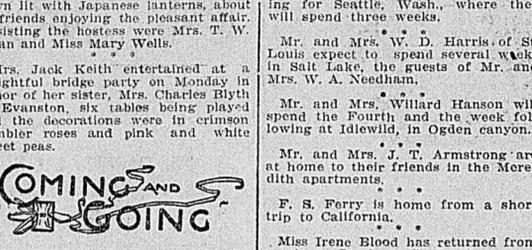

J. W. Evans of Denver, has succeeded Robert Davis as agent of the San Pedro and R. G. W. railroads at Robinson.

Mrs. S. J. Schmitt and children left the other day for their summer home at the Hot Potts near Heber, to spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard chaperoned a party of young people at the bicycle races at the Salt Palace on Tuesday evening. Mr. James Austin being the host.

Miss Gertrude Clayton was hostess at a pretty affair on Monday in the way of a linen shower given for Miss Viola Burrell, one of the week's brides. Red roses were the decorative and the guests were members of the high school class.

Mrs. C. I. Tuttle entertained at a bridge party at the country club on Tuesday, the decorations being in wild mustard and syringa, and six tables played, with a number of others coming in later to tea. The affair was in honor of the hostess' sister, Mrs. Downing of Los Angeles, and assisting were Miss Elsie Purson, Miss Edith Godbe and Miss Aileen McMillan. Prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Madam Swenson, Mrs. F. J. Egan, Mrs. W. H. Child and Mrs. Justice Jung.

HAT TRIMMED WITH SWEET PEAS.
Flower trimmings are put on this summer either in single cabochons in very set, stiff effect, or they are massed all over the crown in luxuriant profusion of bloom. This white chip hat is one of the mushroom shapes, with brim rolling upward at the left side. The facing of pale pink satin is repeated in the delicate pink of the sweet peas which cover the crown, some sprays of mauve and lilac blending artistically with the delicate pink color.

Lawn lit with Japanese lanterns, about 40 friends enjoying the pleasant affair. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. T. W. Sloan and Miss Mary Wells.

Mrs. Jack Keith entertained at a delightful bridge party on Monday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Blyth of Evanston, six tables being played and the decorations were in crimson rambler roses and pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Armstrong are at home to their friends in the Meredith apartments.

F. S. Perry is home from a short trip to California.

Miss Irene Blood has returned from a trip to Southern California.

Mrs. S. D. Evans, who has spent the past month in the east, is now visiting friends in Richmond, Ind., and will be home this evening.

Fred C. Nellen of Los Angeles, Cal., spent Wednesday here at the home of J. J. Stewart on his way to Tacoma and San Francisco, Cal.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul C. Potter left Thursday evening for a three months' stay in Santa Barbara and San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. George L. Nye is expected to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wurber.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Burke will leave early in the fall for Milan, Italy, where both expect to study vocal music for two years.

Miss Rea Nibley has returned from a short visit with friends in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connor, who are now visiting in Milwaukee, Wis., will be home the last of next week, from a month spent in the east.

Mrs. Adolph Anderson will leave this evening for Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash. Later she will join her daughter, Miss Elsie, in Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sallsbury returned Monday evening from their wedding trip, and are here with Mrs. Margaret Sallsbury.

Miss Dorothy Kinney has returned from Europe, and is a guest at the Judge home with Mrs. John E. Woodward.

Mrs. Schulwin and Miss McDowell of Deaver are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Dyke.

Mrs. R. V. Hunt will leave this month to visit her mother in Wisconsin for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Leo Trent has gone to East Auburn, Cal., where she will be the guest of her brother, L. C. Trent, until after the wedding of her niece, Miss Lella Trent, and James D. Meredith, which takes place today.

Paul Williams has returned from Cornell university.

The Misses Mary and Abbie Bishop, who have been spending a few days in Portland, Ore., are now in Seattle, Wash., where they will spend the summer with their sister, Miss Harriet Bishop.

Miss Sybil Anderson has gone to Oakland, after spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bogue have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at 425 Thirteenth East street.

Sam Palmer of Hot Springs, Ark., is

with them the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

Mrs. J. C. Graham and daughter, Miss Maud, left today for a trip through Idaho, where they will visit with relatives and friends for some time.

Mrs. Emma Radcliff was the guest of honor at a dinner party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ben Bean. Covers were laid for 10.

Mrs. Almira Holden and daughters, Nellie, Vera and Des all of Salt Lake are visiting in Provo with relatives and friends. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Alex. Mortensen, daughter of Mrs. Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gloyd, who were Ogden visitors for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Elko, Nevada.

Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin of the Congregational church left during the week for Boston, where he will visit for two weeks and then will visit other cities.

Mrs. C. M. Freed and son, Ellis Freed, of Salt Lake were Idlewild guests for the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen of Ely, Nevada were Ogden visitors during the past week.

Miss Laura Forbes, who has been visiting at the G. W. Tripp home for a week has returned to her home accompanied by Kenneth and Harold Tripp, who will visit there for a few days.

Mrs. Orson Hiser has returned home from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting friends for the past week. Her daughter Rita, will remain with relatives in Salt Lake for another week.

James Cassin accompanied by his wife and daughter have returned from a visit with relatives in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and children of Wells, Nevada, have arrived in the city for a visit with relatives and friends.

Alma Eldredge of Coalville was an Ogden visitor during the past week.

May Bouhanon and Eileen Reddy, who have been attending school in Ogden during the past year have returned to their home in Wells, Nevada.

Miss Zell Davenport accompanied by her brother Russell, have returned to Ogden from Amherst college and will spend their vacation in the city with their father, J. E. Davenport.

Rheinhart Gideon, the son of Judge Valentine Gideon, has returned home for the summer from Amherst college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stott have returned from an extensive eastern trip.

Mrs. D. C. Olmstead has returned from a visit through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birschall of London, England, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown for a few weeks.

Eddie Miller, train dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company, is spending his vacation in the east. Last week he was the guest of Ed Linnehan at Woodstock, Ohio. He will visit New York and Coney Island before he returns home.

Miss Margaret Hamill has gone to Salt Lake, where she will attend the summer school of the state university.

Miss Maud Busch of Salt Lake was the guest of Miss Vern Fulton during the past week.

Mrs. Grant Van Duzee and children of Jackson, Michigan are visiting Mrs. Van Duzee's sister, Mrs. Anna Christiansen.

Chief Clerk Robert Reynolds of Supt. Mansion's office accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds has returned from a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Joel, Jim and Joseph Nibley came up from Salt Lake Tuesday, and with Horace Nebeker and George Thompson, spent the remainder of the week in Logan canyon.

Charles Hanson, Preston Thatcher, O. H. Budge and Dr. Emory returned to Cache Junction Thursday afternoon to meet the state dentists, who were on their way to Logan to hold their state convention on Friday and Saturday. After the Saturday session, they were banqueted in Logan canyon, and a dancing party was given in their honor in the evening.

LEHI.

Mrs. Kittie Hines of Provo was in Eureka this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kryger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wallace were visiting in Salt Lake early part of the week.

W. W. Freetleton returned Sunday evening from Salt Lake where he spent a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and children returned Monday evening from a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

John Leysion, who was in business several years ago at Silver City, but who is now located in Nevada, was in this week renewing the acquaintances of old-time friends.

William Embleton and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Embleton at Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. George M. Hays and children were in Provo on a visit this week.

Mrs. D. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Marcella, returned Tuesday evening from Salt Lake where they spent a month with friends.

Among those from Eureka who were in Salt Lake this week are the following: George M. Hayes, F. B. Sullivan, J. A. Griffiths, Dr. Lay, R. A. Brown and C. B. Marshall.

Mrs. Belle MacAdams of Provo spent a visit here this week, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Laprelle Dunn has returned to her home in Provo after a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Baker returned Tuesday evening after a visit at Payson and Springlake.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson of Salt Lake was in Eureka on a visit this week.

Theodore L. Genter of Salt Lake was here during the week on mining business.

Mrs. William Ellis and children returned Monday evening from an extended visit at Coalville.

Mrs. Walter W. Fitch and two daughters arrived in Eureka Tuesday from the east. They recently returned from a tour of Europe and were met at New York by Cecil Fitch who accompanied them upon their trip to this city. The family will spend the summer in Eureka.

Prof. B. M. Lehman came out from Salt Lake Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell and daughters, Rev. and Vera, are spending the week at Provo.

J. W. Evans of Denver, has succeeded Robert Davis as agent of the San Pedro and R. G. W. railroads at Robinson.

Mrs. S. J. Schmitt and children left the other day for their summer home at the Hot Potts near Heber, to spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard chaperoned a party of