

of Kansas City, the decorations in the parlor being red and yellow and the dining room in red. Covers were laid for about eight guests.

Mrs. William Cunningham entertained at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Haslam, the decorations being in pink and lavender, sweet peas and covers laid for about 24 guests.

Mrs. E. W. Reese was hostess at a Kensington on Wednesday given for Mrs. Robert Gray of Cheyenne, the decorations being in lavender, sweet peas and about 20 guests present. A musical program was given by Miss Rogers, Miss Rouse and Mrs. Beckstrom.

Mrs. Oliver McGahan and Mrs. Albert Merrill entertained on Wednesday at a luncheon for Miss Winnifred Candland, the decorations being in sweet peas and about a dozen guests being present.

Mrs. A. J. Langford, Jr., and Miss pink and white sweet peas and covers were laid for about a dozen guests.

Mrs. Thomas B. Shannon was hostess at a card party on Thursday afternoon, given in honor of Mrs. Marcus Frankie of Nebraska as guest at the hostess' home. The decorations were in sweet peas, and the prizes went to Mrs. Jasper Langton and Mrs. Raymond Shannon was assisted by Miss Florence Vennes, Miss Julia Frankie, Miss Tillie Frankie, Miss Nettie Burrows and Miss Virginia F. Shannon.

Miss Zora Shaw, who leaves for New York the first of the month, will be the guest of honor at a 500 party to be given by Miss Ethen Nettleton and Miss Pearl Durrell at the home of the latter next Thursday evening.

Miss Burnett Openheimer will be hostess at a 500 party to be given next Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pickering announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary to Thomas B. Brighton the marriage to take place in September.

Mrs. Lydia G. Christensen announces the engagement of her daughter, Florence to Joseph E. Johnson the wedding to take place in September.

Miss Ada Yard and Harry Brooks were married at the bride's home on Wednesday evening by Elder Nephi L. Morris, a reception following in the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burton and Mr. and Mrs. A. Moffat for the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKnight and children are visiting in the city with relatives, having come from Vernal to stay during the encampment.

Mrs. Mary Leone chambers and Miss Hattie Waples leave today for a short stay at Rupert, Idaho.

Mrs. J. J. Broughall and daughter, who have spent the summer in the east, will be home early in September.

Mrs. T. S. Natis of Berkeley, Cal., is the guest of Mrs. E. C. Putnam at 131 Eighth East street.

Miss Fitch, formerly of this city, but now of Eureka, Utah, is spending a few days with Miss G. E. Cosgriff.

Mrs. J. P. Quigley of Joliet, Ill., is a guest at the Quigley home for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Felt have returned from a few days in Brighton.

Mrs. E. Y. Taylor's entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Robert T. Gray of Cheyenne, Wyo.

The Misses Tessie and Gertrude McLaughlin have returned to their home in Park City after a 10 days' visit here with friends.

Judge and Mrs. Ferdinand Zimmerer of Lexington, Neb., who have spent the past two weeks here, will leave for their home Sunday.

Earl Anderson of Chicago, Ill., and graduate of Northwestern university, '04, is here, the guest of his cousin, C. E. Allen.

Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., and daughter, Rowena, will leave Saturday for Lake Tahoe, where they will spend 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Belfuss and son, who have spent several weeks in New York, will be home the first of September. They will spend a few days in Michigan with Mrs. Belfuss' parents, on their way home.

Mrs. E. O. Howard and daughter will leave today for the Chicago Beach hotel, where they will spend several weeks. Mr. Howard will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wells and their son and daughter of Los Angeles, Cal., spent Saturday here with old friends.

early in September from a business trip to New Mexico.

Miss Stella Fablan has returned from six weeks spent in Brighton.

Mrs. J. P. Edwards of the New York apartment has as her guests her mother, Mrs. Lydia Ferrier, and her sister, Mrs. Frank W. Socke, of Berkeley, Cal.

Mrs. P. O. Hannason has returned to her home in Pocatello, where she was guest of Miss Nora Gleason.

Mrs. G. G. Verbruck and son, Garrison, will be home Wednesday from spending the summer with Mrs. Verbruck's mother at Spearfish, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Behal and son, are spending the summer at Long Branch, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bransford are enjoying a camping trip in Yellowstone national park.

Miss Hazel Dorius left Monday evening for Ephraim to spend two weeks with friends.

Miss Margaret Kingman, who has spent the summer here, with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Delano, will leave the first of September for her home in New York. Mrs. Delano will leave early in the month for a trip to the fair at Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Amess of Dunbar, Neb., are here visiting Mrs. Amess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Helkes, at 77 C street.

Miss Beth Critchlow and her guest, Miss Winnifred Millsbaugh, of Los Angeles, Cal., are spending a few days in Brighton. After Sunday, Miss Millsbaugh will be guest of Miss Helen Boxrud for a few days.

Mrs. J. D. Wood and daughter will be home the last of the month from Spencer, Ida., where they have spent most of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Snyder will leave the last of the month for a trip to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graft of Bedford, Ia., are spending the summer here, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. U. G. Moser.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blood will be home the last of the month, from spending the summer in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth re-

VERA SJODAHL, LEILAH SJODAHL, ALINE CARTER, MRS. SJODAHL.

A group of Utah visitors at the industrial exposition at Aarhus, Denmark, where the Fourth of July was celebrated, this year, by hundreds of Americans of Scandinavian descent, and others. The fair is described as one of great educational value, though of course not on a scale approaching any of the American expositions. Some of the palace furniture exhibited is said to be magnificent. The departments containing china, ware, jewelry, furs and machinery are also attracting the attention of visitors and are very much admired. The affair is said to be highly creditable to the Danish nation. Among prominent Utah visitors are President and Mrs. Anthon H. Lund, and President and Mrs. C. W. Penrose.

D. C. was the guest of honor at a delightful party given by a number of friends at the Hermitage during the past week.

Paul Paulson gave a box party at the Orpheum Monday night to a number of his friends followed by supper at the Falstaff.

The following Ogdenites leave this evening with the Tabernacle excursion for the Seattle exposition: Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wardlaw, Mr. and Mrs. William James, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Miss Goodale, Miss E. C. Goodale, Mrs. W. L. Duswell, Mrs. Goodale, the Misses Todd and Mable Brown, Mrs. Emma Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams, Messrs. Claude Flowers, W. T. Nantker, H. Hardy, K. B. Friedland; the Misses Anna Carr, Belle Shirley, Flora Williams, Emma Wilson, Josie Browning, Charline Majors, Ida Shurtliff, Ellen Green, Monahan, Hilton; Mrs. John Wintle, Mrs. Stone, Miss Stone, Miss Lillie Moyes, Mr. and Mrs. George Shorten, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Browning and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Newman will occupy the state room.

Mr. and Mrs. James Unsworth of Hyrum were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Albert Ellis during the past week.

W. H. Wallace and daughter and Miss Agnes Mason of Burlington, Ia., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Frey this week.

Joseph Ballantyne, director of the Ogden Tabernacle choir, left during the week for Portland, Ore., where he will visit with his sister for a few days and then proceed to Seattle where he will join the Tabernacle choir excursion.

Mrs. F. M. Driggs and children have returned from a visit at Long Beach, California.

Emmet G. Fulkerson of Chicago, has arrived in the city and will visit with the mother of Mrs. Fulkerson, Mrs. D. H. Peery, for a few weeks before returning to Chicago with Mrs. Fulkerson and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Unsworth of

Orla F. Brown, formerly of Ogden

MISS MARJORIE IDE. Daughter and hostess of Henry Clay Ide, United States minister to Spain.

Stella Langford gave a delightful lake party on Wednesday for Miss Mabel Rumbel, one of the autumn brides, about 20 being present.

Miss Mignon Denhalter entertained at a heart party Thursday for Miss Viola Godbe, the rooms being prettily decorated in golden glow and strings of hearts. The hostess was assisted by the Misses Rae Campbell, Cecil Burns, Myrtle Jack and Cleo Craigh. A guessing game was a feature, the prizes going to the guest of honor and Miss Nita Davidson. The Misses Florence Locke and Irene Kelly gave musical selections.

Miss Frances Cowan gave a bridge party on Thursday, the decorations being in golden glow and pink and white asters in crystal baskets tied with pink tulle, assisting were Mrs. W. D. Foster, Misses Helen Hawkes and Aseantha Cowan. Prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Porter, Miss Ruby Lambourne, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss Theo Swan, Miss Mary Bogue and the Misses Gladys and Marguerite Richmond.

The bachelors at the post entertained at a delightful lawn party Thursday night at the commanding officers' quarters, the post band furnishing the music and about 125 guests being present including many from the city. The hosts were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Willie (Ellie) Mrs. W. T. May, Mrs. T. R. Harker and Mrs. J. M. Arransmith.

Mrs. Earl Shimmie entertained at a china shower party Thursday in honor of Miss Winnifred Candland, a September bride. The decorations were in golden glow and about a dozen guests were present. Miss Edna Edwards assisted the hostess.

Mrs. John L. Bowman gave a Wandamers party on Monday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Ruth, supper with a huge birthday cake, games, and dancing being the amusements.

Miss Cora Platt gave a party at Wandamers last evening in honor of Miss Chrissa Goss, one of the fall brides.

Mrs. W. H. Child entertained at a pleasant afternoon affair on Thursday for her guest, Miss Bessie Woodard of Raleigh, N. C., and Miss Rae Barthe, one of the autumn brides.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ward entertained at a beautiful appointed dinner on Thursday night in honor of Judge and Mrs. Hyland, the decorations being in pretty decorated rooms and a large number of friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will be at home after Sept. 1, at 755 south Sixth East street.

Miss Margaretta Johnson and Mr. Frank Wicks were married on Wednesday at the bride's home in Sandy, with Rev. P. A. Simpkin officiating and about 100 guests present. The bride had six attendants and the groom was attended by the bride's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Wicks will reside at Garfield.

Miss Rose Teresa Radcliffe and L. L. Strong were among the week's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed at the bride's home with Rev. W. Buxton officiating and the bride being attended by her two sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Strong will be at home to their friends after Sept. 15, at 529 Lowell place.

An interesting announcement of the week was that of John B. Berkhoel of the engagement of his sister, Agatha Berkhoel, to Harold L. Siegel, the marriage to take place in September.

Miss Edna Hyde of Springville, Utah, and Emmett Dalton of this city were married on Thursday in the temple and in the evening a reception was held at the groom's home, a large number of friends and relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde have gone for a trip to Seattle and will afterward make their home at Sugar City, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Foreman of this city have announced the marriage of their daughter, Edna, to Dr. W. E. Prince of Los Angeles, which took place at the groom's home in that city on last Thursday.

Among the week's weddings was that of Miss Alice Webley and Robert S. Folland, the ceremony being performed in the temple on Thursday and a large reception held in the evening at the home of the bride, a number of friends and relatives assisting and about 100 guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Folland have gone to Seattle and will afterward return here to reside.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

The Misses Allison Moffat, Myrtle McKnight, Alice Archibald have gone to Arton, Wyo., where they will be the

WALKING HAT IN FELT

This smart little felt shape, with the narrow brim and the upward rolling on the left side, is trimmed with a soft shade of gray satin. Like the majority of the fall hats this model is trimmed on the left side. There is a design in braid shown on the ribbon trimming. This is an ideal hat for windy days, as a veil is easily adjusted over it, and when a strong wind blows one does not feel as if one's coiffure were going with it.

on their way to Canada for a few weeks.

Capt. and Mrs. C. T. Barnes of Chicago, Ill., and Judge T. N. Hensch of Fort Wayne, Ind., spent last week here with Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hornung, who left a few weeks ago for North Yakima, Wash., have gone to Chicago, Ill., where they will make their home.

Miss Beatrice Daly will leave the first of the week for Brighton, where she will visit Miss Jennie Darling.

Miss Dorothy Kinney returned to her home in Portland, Or., this week, after a visit of several weeks here as the guest of Mrs. John E. Woodward.

Mrs. Annie Spencer, daughter, Mabel, and son, Arthur, left this week for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. They expect to be gone six weeks and will visit Oregon and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McNeerney and Mrs. Joseph Modlin have returned to their home in Des Moines, Ia., after spending several days here with Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Moser.

Miss Carey Marshall, who is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, at Lake Tahoe, will be home early in September and will be accompanied by her aunt, Miss Kirkpatrick.

Miss Virginia Beatty and her guest, Miss Florence Reynolds of Boston, Mass., have returned from spending several weeks at the Chapman ranch in Wyoming.

Mrs. W. W. Riter and daughter will be home early in September from spending the summer on the beaches in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Critchlow and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bailey have returned from a trip to the Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCloud, of York, Neb., are here, the guests of Mr. McCloud's sister, Mrs. W. E. Losee.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lachmond and son and Mrs. Osbiston are now at home to their friends at 1076 First avenue.

Miss Lydia White has returned from spending several weeks in Park City, the guest of Miss Ruth Treweek.

Miss Jeannette Hackett of Kentucky will be here the last of the month to visit the Misses Godbe.

Judge G. W. Barch will be home

Advertisement for Sweet's Society Chocolates. Text: 'Hot weather makes no difference to Sweet's Society Chocolates. They "Stand up" and maintain an unvarying Goodness. Purple Boxes. First Class Dealers. MADE IN SALT LAKE.

Advertisement for UTAH DAY AUGUST 26. Text: 'ALASKA - YUKON - PACIFIC EXPOSITION - SEATTLE. $30.60. THE GREAT TABERNACLE CHOIR, 300 voices, under direction of Prof. Evan Stephens, will compete in Grand EISTEDDFOD August 27th and 28th for PRIZES against the best choirs of the world. SALT LAKE HIGH SCHOOL CADETS AND BAND, 300 Strong, will attend and give exhibition drills. CITY TICKET OFFICE 201 MAIN STREET. Selling dates August 21st and 22nd. But Tickets may be secured in advance.

Advertisement for WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS & LADIES OF THE G. A. R. EXCURSION Thursday, August 26th AT GREAT SALT LAKE. Text: 'Every purchaser of a 25c ticket, receives a copy of the beautiful official G. A. R. Souvenir book—the most perfect piece of work of its kind ever produced in the west—and a lasting remembrance of the great event. In addition to the souvenir books, some one who attends is going to receive a BEAUTIFUL $400.00 WINTER PIANO. Exhibited in the windows of the Daynes-Beebe Music store. Be patriotic, show your appreciation of the splendid work these ladies have accomplished in their organization. GO TO SALT LAKE THURSDAY. It will be the last chance to secure the Souvenir book, don't miss it.