ball, or their surviving widows, should be at room No. 294 in the city and county building on Monday morning next, Aug. 23, to furnish evidence as to their service. One advantage of their being all there at the same time is that they can serve as witnesses for one another. Other companies will be notified later on.

WEEKLY HEALTH REPORT.

There were but 13 cases of contagious and infectious diseases reported to the city board of health during the past week. Four of these were smallpox; three, scarlet fever; one, chickenpox; four, typhoid fever and one diphtheria.

Deaths numbered 30 during the week, 18 being males and 12 females and three bodies were shipped here for burial. The girls led in the births reported with 21 to 19 boys or 40 in all.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

The state street club, organized "for the purpose of promoting good fellowship and social entertainment among the colored people residing in Salt Lake and those who stop here while passing through," filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk today.

IS UTAH PRODUCT.

Born in Salt Lake City, Judge McMaster has lived all his life in Utah. He was for many years connected with the Deseret News, first as compositor and later as reporter. He received his early education in the elementary schools of Salt Lake City and the University of Utah. He is 50 years of age.

Since the passage of the juvenile court act of last session which provided for certain jurisdiction over adults and juveniles there has been feeling that the juvenile court judge should be an attorney. All the candidates were thus qualified.

Judge McMaster says that he intends to give all his time to the work and that it will be his ambition to develop in Salt Lake one of the best juvenile court systems in the country.

UTAH AT DENVER.

BOARD ONCE MORE BEARDS MORAN

By Even Vote Bill of Contractor For Repairing Sewer Is Held Up.

MEANS FRICTION WITH MAYOR

Bids for Intersections of North Temple Street Aqueduct Rejected and Readvertisement Ordered.

The city board of works has refused to pay the bill of P. J. Moran of $25,458.67 for repairing the wood stave outlet pipe to the intercepting sewer. The refusal was not unanimous. W. J. Haloran and T. J. Armstrong voting for the bill and the chairman, H. G. McMillan, and C. D. Rookledge against it.

This refusal probably means another case of friction with the mayor who brought these two members of the board to their knees a few weeks ago when they allowed their hostility to Moran to lead them to the length of refusing to pay for the main street paving. At that time the present bill was one of the matters under discussion.

BIDS REJECTED.

The board also rejected bids of Zerbo & Walker and P. J. Moran for the intersections of the North Temple street aqueduct at West Temple and First and Second West streets, as too high and ordered that the work be re-advertised for the second time.

LEGAL BLANKS.

Of every character and description, arranged from the best legal forms, and brought strictly up to date. A full supply always on hand at the Deseret News Book Store.

Innes Unique Organization Arouses High Enthusiasm.

A unique and interesting musical organization began a three days' engagement at Salsair yesterday afternoon, in the appearance of Innes' Orchestral band, the first of its special kind ever to play here, and the first appearance of the noted bandmaster in this city for some years.

Eddie Santry, veteran featherweight fighter and former manager of Tony Capone, went under the knife at Grace hospital, Chicago, suffering from a sudden attack of appendicitis. His condition was reported as critical, but the doctors say that an excellent constitution will pull the old-timer through all right. Santry is best remembered by ring followers for his defeat of Ben Jordan, the English lightweight, years ago.

Ted Coy, the Yale football captain, is doing some tall thinking just at present and if the great football can gather around him a few hustling coaches who possess half his spirit, Harvard and Percy Houghton will realize that a football team is coming up from New Haven in November that will take a lot of beating. Ever since last fall Coy has had his mind set on defeating Harvard, and he has been in close communication with prominent graduates of the university. They will have to watch "Ted," for he is apt to drive his men too hard.

The noted Chicago teacher, Professor L. A. Torrens, accompanied by his wife, who was formerly Miss Maggie Liddell of this city, is again paying Salt Lake a visit. Both are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey.

Among Prof. Torrens' most famous pupils, are Corinne Rider Kelsey, soprano, who is singing in the big festivals of the east this year; and the contralto, Miss Severn, now a member of the Royal Opera House company in Berlin.

In company with Prof. and Mrs. Torrens, and also a guest of the Dinwoodeys, is Miss Kaestlin, a young singer also from Chicago, said to be the possessor of a beautiful contralto voice.

WRIT IS DENIED. Patten Must Go to Montana for Trial.

With five witnesses testifying that they had seen the prisoner daily for the last month, Judge Ritchie this afternoon refused to interfere with the governor's order for the extradition of John Patten, wanted in Butte for highway robbery committed Aug. 7. Under Sheriff Mike Murray in Butte came here with papers to secure Patten and the requisition was honored by Gov. Spry. As Murray was about to depart for the north on the train last night, Patten, however, which Judge Ritchie granted a writ of habeas corpus, which was made returnable at 12:15 today.

After hearing the evidence Judge Ritchie decided that if Patten could establish an alibi the Montana courts would deal justly with him, and that he had no authority to interfere with the action of the governor in the matter.

CITY WATER SUPPLY AND OTHER MURRAY PROBLEMS

(Special Correspondence.) MURRAY, Aug. 21.—At the session of the city council this evening, President Townsend, chairman of a special committee on waterworks, reported that the committee had made an investigation of the proposition offered by Mr. J. C. Williams for the purchase of a tract of land situated at the head of the flow belt, where he claims an ample supply of water can be obtained for city purposes. President Townsend stated that as the purchasing of a water site for the city of Murray is very important, he recommended that the council as a committee of the whole make a thorough investigation of the purchase of the most available water supply that can be secured for Murray city. There was no immediate action taken more than to extend the time.

Constant discussion ensued on the question of opening Second avenue, in which the right of way involves considerable outlay. The council accepted Mr. Whitley's offer of $5,000 as a part of the cost of opening Second avenue, after which a reception was given at Ayes, P. B. McMillan, Frank C. Howe, A. Townsend, James Godfrey, E. A. Parkinson, A. J. Wahlquist and Daniel Smith, now John Berger, Warren H. Lyon and D. B. Jones.
