Ben Brown and M. C. Foley, charged with mendacity, were each given $10 or 10 days. C. F. Scabery, charged with mendacity, was placed under a bond of $20, and his case continued. Alexander Watter, the negro who used a knife on his friend at the Assembly saloon in a drunken brawl a few nights ago, was placed under bonds in the sum of $50 to await his preliminary hearing. The man who was stabbed, Fred LaLuz, also colored, was placed under a bond of $20 to guarantee his presence as a witness when the case comes before the court. ### JAIL DELIVERY AVERTED.

OGDEN, Oct. 19.—Yesterday afternoon at the sheriff's office quite a sensation was created when Sheriff B. B.

Wilson announced the discovery of four small saws, such as are used by burglars and all professional criminals in attempting to escape from prison. It has been known by the officers that somebody has been working on three bars for the past several days, but they have been unable to get any evidence in the matter until this five was made by the sheriff yesterday.

The saws are about three inches in length and are made of very fine steel. The teeth show that all the saws have been used, and the officers are thoroughly convinced that Bassett and probably some of the other occupants are implicated in the matter. There are a number of hardened criminals at the jail and no doubt more than one of them have had a hand in smuggling these tools into their cells. Bassett refused to make any statement to the officers and all the other prisoners denied any knowledge of the saws. A complete change in cells has been made and there is no probability of any further attempt to escape for a time, at least.

The highest medical authority on foods, Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.—F.R.S. of London, gives the best reasons for eating more Quaker Scotch Oats

In an article published in the Youth's Companion of September 23rd, 1909 Dr. Browne, the great medical authority on foods, says, about brain and muscle building—

"There is one kind of food that seems to me of marked value as a food to the brain and to the whole body throughout childhood and adolescence (youth), and that is oatmeal.

"Oats are the most nutritious of all the cereals, being richer in fats, organic phosphorus and lecithins."

He says oatmeal is gaining ground with the well-to-do of Great Britain. He speaks of it as the mainstay of the Scottish laborer's diet and says it produces a big-boned, well-developed, mentally energetic race.

His experiments prove that good oatmeal such as Quaker Scotch Oats not only furnishes the best food for the human being, but eating it strengthens and enlarges the thyroid gland—this gland is intimately connected with the nourishing processes of the body.

In conclusion he says—

"It seems probable therefore that the bulk and brawniness of the Northerners (meaning the Scotch) has been in some measure due to the stimulation of the thyroid gland by oatmeal porridge in childhood."

The Scotch eat Quaker Scotch Oats because it is the best of all oatmeals.

(Special Correspondence.)
 LOGAN, Cache Co., Utah, Oct. 19.—The Booster club and citizens generally, in a rousing celebration this forenoon, gave enthusiastic expression of the appreciation of what David Eccles is doing for Logan in the building of street railway system. About 4,000 people participated in the celebration of breaking the first furrow in grading for the new road. The colleges and schools adjourned for the morning, that the students and faculties might join in the parade, which marched from Main street to the depot, where work began.

Stirring addresses were made by E. P. Bacon, president of the Boosters' club, Mayor William Edwards, Congressman Joseph Howell, President J. H. Linford of the Brigham Young college, President John A. Wittens of the U. A. college, and J. C. Allen, secretary of the Boosters' club. A happy response was made by David Eccles, who in the course of his short address said that the people of Logan could ride on the street cars in 30 days from date.

James Quayle, pioneer and former mayor of Logan, made the concluding address of felicitation, and then held the plow, drawn by a yoke of oxen owned by Sheriff N. W. Crookston.

All Who Would Enjoy

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT.

Deseret News Readers Have to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Endorsements Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this fellow-sufferer given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the patient in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases.

Read this:

Andrew Lindsay, city marshal, Third Ward, Heber Utah, says: "Kidney complaint annoyed me off and on for about 20 years. These spells would come given me shortly that I was rendered perfectly helpless. My back ached and the kidney secretions showed a very disordered condition. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box and took them as directed. They acted quickly in my case for after taking three or four doses I noticed that the pain in my back had diminished and before I had finished the contents of the box, I was practically cured." (From statement given Aug. 24, 1907.)

Mr. Lindsay was interviewed on Aug. 20, 1909 and added: "I am glad to again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills for I still think highly of them. They have always given me relief when I have appealed to their use and I am glad to tell other sufferers about their merits."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
