EFFORTS TO SAVE MURDERER'S NECK

Attorney King Files Notice of Motion For New Trial for Nick Vacos.

(Special Correspondence.)
 OGDEN, March 11.—Nick Vacos, through his attorney, S. A. King of Salt Lake, has filed a notice of intention to move for a new trial on Saturday morning in the district court, on the grounds of errors in law arising at the former trial and also stating that newly discovered evidence, very material to his welfare, has been found which should be presented to the court. Accompanying the notice are three affidavits, one by Nick Vacos, one by Atty. King and one by G. L. Buttorff, a barber going business at 2461 Grant avenue. Mr. King states that on March 5, upon arriving at Ogden, preparatory to going to the court house in behalf of his client, Nick Vacos, he heard that Mr. Buttorff, the barber, had shaved John Cortos at 8 o'clock in the evening on the day he was shot by Vacos and that Buttorff, had since stated that he saw a wad of revolver in Cortos' pocket. He went to the barber shop and upon questioning Mr. Buttorff found that the wad was true. The affidavit of Mr. Buttorff substantiates the statements of Atty. King. He also states that he is willing to go in open court and testify to the facts in the case. He says that at the time he shaved Cortos, he called the attention of several parties in the shop to the large revolver in Cortos' pocket, referring to it as a "smoke stack."

NO NEW SCHOOL THIS YEAR.

OGDEN, March 11.—It was decided at a meeting of the board of education on Tuesday night that the construction of a school to be erected at the site on Twenty-third street and Indiana avenue, should not be started this season, owing to the fact that it would require practically all of the building fund for this year, and it is felt that this money should be spent in some badly needed improvement of some of the old school buildings. The new building would call for an expenditure of $25,000 and therefore the matter will be dropped for the present, at least.

NEW GAS PLANT.

OGDEN, March 11.—Gen. Manager Joseph S. Wells of the Utah Light & Railway Co., accompanied by Engineer L. L. Dragon, was in Ogden Thursday for the purpose of inspecting the new gas plant which will soon be producing gas for the use of the citizens of Ogden. Mr. Wells was well pleased with the work on the plant and believed that everything would be completed within the next few weeks.

DISPUTE OVER HORSE TRANSFER

OGDEN, March 11.—An amended answer has been filed by the defendant in the case of A. B. Corey against A. Russell, in which it is alleged that on a certain day last summer, Corey was riding a bay mare and ran into a wire fence, cutting her so badly that Corey decided to kill the animal. At that time the defendant alleges, he appeared on the scene and offered to take the horse for and care for it until it fully recovered, with the mutual understanding that ownership of the mare should go to his hands. This he did and after the mare had fully recovered, Corey served papers to retrieve the horse. Defendant states that he is damaged in the sum of $50 and that he valued the mare at $50. Judgment for the full amount is very favorable to the horse owner.

disappeared from the yard of one of the citizens of Layton some time during Wednesday night. This is the third horse reported stolen from Layton during the last few months and Sheriff Weir states that he believes "chobos" are responsible for most of the thefts. In the present case, the horse was a black mare, between 12 and 14 years of age, and although there were several valuable horses in the same stable, yet the old mare was taken, presumably because she was gentle. It is thought that the outfit came north and a careful outlook will be kept by the officers on all horse-trading outfits in this locality.

PLEASANT GROVE.

PLEASANT GROVE, Utah Co., March 10.—The officers here have had much difficulty in enforcing the prohibition ordinance owing to the default opposition of the former saloon keepers. These opened halls for the sale of "soft drinks" when prohibition was adopted, and on the sly sold hard drinks, but it was very hard to prove it on them. Recently, however, some boys were arrested for drunkenness and were sent up for 60 days. They confessed that D. A. Adamson sold them the liquor and a week ago he was arrested charged with selling intoxicating liquor to minors. When he found that he was surely caught he got off his high horse and, at the last minute, consent of the council begged permission to compromise on a settlement for $200, with a promise to "be good" hereafter. But despite the feeling of leniency expressed by some of the councilmen the matter is out of their jurisdiction and Adamson will have to stand trial on Monday next.

CACHE SCHOOL BOARD CALL BOND ELECTION

For $150,000 to Build New School Houses in County.

(Special Correspondence.)
 LOGAN, March 10.—The Cache county board of education at the meeting held in Hyrum, decided to hold an election on March 23, for the purpose of getting the consent of the people of the county to issue $150,000 worth of bonds, the proceeds of which will be used for erecting two schoolhouses in the county, which are very much needed.

PHYSICAL WELFARE.

LOGAN, March 10.—County Physician Clark has taken up the matter, in connection with some of the local educators, of creating a fund to be used in helping school children whose parents are poor to get proper medical care. The physician of school children in all parts of the country by Dr. Clark has disclosed the fact that many of them are suffering from bad eyes, tonsils or teeth, and there is no one to provide the means necessary for attention being given them, so the matter of raising the funds referred to has been taken up by him. The commissioners will probably give half of the amount asked for and will ask the county board of education to give the same amount. Logan school officials have pledged $100 to the fund.

LOGAN BRIEFS.

The county commissioner awarded the contract for erecting a cottage on the county poor farm to Worly and Nelson, of this city today. The price is $2,747. A team for use on the farm was purchased today from Hyrum parties, the board paying $500 spot cash for it.

Mr. Thomas E. Ricks and his mother Mrs. Tabitha Ricks of Rexburg, who was one of the pioneers of this country, are visiting here, after an absence of many years. The lady was registered before the Indian war commission as a deserving pensioner. Mr. Pratt the commissioner who has been holding office for the last 10 days, got through with his work today and is ready to leave. He registered almost 200 on this last visit, and more than 100 on the previous trip.

A large vegetable, 24 by 15 feet, is being erected at the Logan temple, the work of putting a new roof on this structure was completed some time ago.

A well-known resident of the north end of the county was arrested and brought before Judge Bringham yesterday, for fishing out of season, but was discharged on his own recognizance. It was ascertained that the man could not read or write and had been told by the justice who issued his fish license that he had a right to catch suckers and mullets.

A warrant of arrest was issued today for F. W. Bur who is charged with selling intoxicants to minors. He will be dealt with under the city ordinance. Marshal Petersen made the arrest.

LEHI.

SALOONMEN WORKING TO NULLIFY PROHIBITION

(Special Correspondence.)

LEHI, Utah Co., March 10.—Work started today on the erection of a lumber building just outside the city limits on the county road running from Main street to American Fork, which rumor has it will be used as a pool hall and probably for the selling of liquor. It is being put up by a former saloonman of this place. A pool hall is running just outside of the city limits up at Lehi Junction now. It has not a county license and will probably be stopped by the county. However, the county attorney while here a short time ago notified the city that unless it allowed pool halls the county would probably have to grant licenses for the running of same outside of the city limits.

Since the first of the year prohibition has been enforced here in its strictest sense. If any liquor has been sold it has been on a very dark night. One or two who have gone outside of the city for liquor and came back in the city limits under its influence have found to their sorrow that prohibition is very active. Every indication points that those who would oppose the prohibition ordinance and the prohibiting of pool playing in the city are going to see what they can do outside the city limits under the direction of the county. However, the commencement of the erection of the new building referred to is causing a lot of talk and the people are waiting for further developments. The present administration is determined that as far as the city is concerned, the present prohibition ordinance will not be made a farce of. Should anything detrimental to the citizens' peace of mind develop even outside the city limits, of course it can be done away with on the ground that it is a nuisance.

BUILDING UP A NEW RESIDENCE DISTRICT

The Old Crismon property on Southeast Bench must give way to handsome homes and beautiful streets.

The raw material—where Kimball & Richards saw possibilities of beautiful Highland Park.

First step in making a miniature city—Highland Park leveled and ready for street paving.

Turning an uninhabited section into a handsome city residence district is no easy undertaking, and before the Crismon property becomes the beautiful addition it is planned to make of it, Kimball & Richards, land merchants and owners of the property, will have to spend much time, energy and money. They calculate that before June 1 they will have expended easily $100,000.

of the extent of the tract, reaching from the Drive (formerly known as the county road) to the hills, soon to be the site for many handsome homes. It also shows something of the nature of the ground as Kimball & Richards found it. The lower cut shows the same ground about three weeks later after it had been thoroughly plowed and harrowed in the process of leveling, and making ready for street grading.

Since then a large amount of work has been done, despite the winter season. Much more remains to be done, and the forces at work are being increased daily. A trip over the ground now will reveal the location of every street in the tract, and will also show immense piles of sand and gravel ready to be converted into the many miles of cement walks to be built in this addition.

But, though the work has been going on but a comparatively short time, intending home-builders and investors are already attracted by the site, and have proved this to be the case, by the many purchases they have already made. They are convinced that the "land merchant's" mean business, and that the benefits accruing to a person who invests in this section will be far more even than Kimball & Richards promise. As a result, though the tract was put on the market only last Monday, the large sales force of the "land merchant" met with a success that is little short of phenomenal.

Intending purchasers are accompanied over the tract in automobiles, and arrangements are being made for excursions to Highland Park. The Sugar House car line runs within a short distance of the place.

A complete plan of the tract and pictures showing its development since the work began may be seen at the offices of
