

SUNDAY SCHOOL TOPICS DISCUSSED

Big Tabernacle Auditorium Well Filled at Conference Sunday Night.

PRESIDENT SMITH'S ADDRESS

Trigs Incultation in Minds of Young Love, Loyalty and Veneration For Sacred Things.

The big tabernacle auditorium was well filled when the conference of the Deseret Sunday school union was called to order. President Joseph F. Smith presided, and expressed his pleasure at seeing so many in attendance.

Elder Henry Peterson gave an eight-minute address on the organization of the general board of the Sunday schools, outlining its functions and duties.

Elder David O. McKay then delivered an address on the qualifications, selections of members, duties and functions of the local board. "When it is considered that there are 895 local Sunday school boards in the Church," said Elder McKay, "the importance of this particular branch of the Sunday school work becomes apparent. Boards or organizations are not ends in themselves, they are not created just for the sake of being. Earth was not created to sail aimlessly through space, nor men to walk like statues upon its surface.

"It would be proper to say that one duty of the teacher is to bring out the best there is in the child. The teacher should keep in mind the following suggestions by Charles Wagner: 'That the children must not be brought up for themselves, nor for their parents, for man is no more destined to be a great person than a simple. We must bring them up for life. Their education had for its aim to aid them to become active members of humanity, powerful brotherhoods and free servants to the city. It is to complicate life, to deform it, sow the germs of all disorders, to put in practice an education which is inspired by any other principle. They should be educated for life.'

"Truly the teacher in Sunday school must go out among the blind and, like the Great Teacher, give them sight; to go among the deaf and make them hear. A call to membership on a local board is not to satisfy a passing whim, or desire to honor the man or woman. It is a responsibility to serve, a calling to teach those who have eyes see not, having ears, hear not, having hearts, do not understand. And this is true not only of the truths of the gospel, the glories and goodness of God, but also of the beauty and harmony in the physical universe.

"A pedagogical training is not necessarily a qualification of the Sunday school teacher. It is helpful, but not indispensable. Choose the brother and the sister who desire to do right, who love the truth, who love children, and who will set worthy examples in daily life. Such will soon prove their fitness as members of the local boards. Much of what I have said about the qualifications of teachers will apply also to all officers.

Elder Horace S. Ensign sang by request, "Face to Face." A feature of the proceedings was the reading of a letter from the stake board of Liberty stake of the Twenty-third ward.

PRESIDENT JOSEPH F. SMITH.

President Joseph F. Smith was the next speaker. He commended those who are taking part in the great Sunday school work, and said that no greater work devolves upon the people than that of the education of their children. "This is our mission," said President Smith, "and great indeed will be the reward of whosoever saves the souls of the children. It is a good thing for our Sunday school workers to inculcate into the minds of the children love, loyalty and veneration for every sacred thing. They should be taught to respect old age, practice kindness to one another, be peace-makers and be kind to animals. I think it is a mark of bad breeding for a child to be disrespectful to unfortunate ones. If the child is properly reared and keeps the commandments, he will grow up to love God and truth, and will seek virtue. If he is disrespectful to old age, disobedient to parents, careless and indifferent to sacred ordinances and the house of God, he will surely go astray. One of the strongest safeguards which have proved the teaching in my youth to respect and be considerate of those less fortunate than myself. These children of ours are the hope of Israel. We expect of them to assume the responsibilities of the Church that weigh upon us today. I thank the Lord for the privilege of being present here tonight and witnessing what I have tonight."

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Elder Heber J. Grant presented to the meeting a set of resolutions by the general board of the Deseret Sunday school union, on the death of President John R. Winder. The resolutions which were unanimously adopted, were as follows: "In the demise of President John R. Winder, which occurred at Salt Lake, March 27, 1910, the general board of the Deseret Sunday School union has been bereft beyond our power to adequately describe or express our graded positions from that of pupil to that of a prominent presiding officer, our departed brother has been actively engaged in Sunday school work for over four score years. "Ever gentle in deportment, devoted and loyal to his associates, earnest in effort, efficient in service, wise in counsel, and in administration just, he has been a living source of inspiration to his fellow laborers. "With the family of President Winder we mourn over the bereavement which has fallen upon them and ourselves, yet with them we rejoice in the inestimable blessing of noble and pure, and in the sacred assurance of a reunion that shall prove eternal. "With our fellow members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, we are saddened over the departure of a brother so beloved and a leader so esteemed. "As ward officer, as stake official, as one of the presiding bishops and later as a counselor in the first presidency of the Church, President Winder has proved himself a veritable leader in Israel. In his demise we reverently bow to the Divine will, and turn for consolation to the word of God, with its promise of a glorious resurrection and eternal life. "The Deseret Sunday School union, through its officers, teachers and pupils, in general conference assembled, this third day of April, 1910, hereby adopts this expression of love and respect to the memory of President John R. Winder, who departed this life March 27: "As a member of the general board of our Sunday school organization and as a counselor in the first presidency of the Church, President Winder has been to us a worthy leader, whom to have known is to respect, to honor and to love. "The Sunday School union, in common with all other organizations within the Church, as well as the Church as a whole, has been strengthened and established by his wise counsel and earnest labors. "While we mourn over the present loss of his inspiring presence and sustaining effort, we rejoice in the remembrance of past association and in the assurance of a reunion yet to come. "As we devoutly give thanks and such a man has been one of us, so do we humbly submit to the Divine mandate that has called him hence, great as is our deprivation and deep as is our sorrow. "After the adoption of the resolution, Elder Grant delivered a fervent and heartfelt eulogy upon the life and works of the late President Winder. The services were brought to a close by the congregation singing a hymn, followed by benediction.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the late John R. Winder appreciates the ministrations of sympathizing friends in their hour of affliction. Especially are they thankful to those who in the days of President Winder's illness assisted in loving solicitude at the sick bed. To those who arranged and had charge of the funeral ceremonies and the services at the grave; to the singers who rendered the sweet music; to those who had charge of the flowers; to the ushers, and to all who joined in the beautiful tribute to the life and works of President Winder we are most grateful. Salt Lake City, Utah, April 1, 1910.

LOSES ARM UNDER WHEELS.

Frank Schreuder Falls Beneath Cars While Attempting to Board Train. While attempting to board Short Line train No. 1, as it started to leave the Salt Lake depot Saturday night at 11:45 o'clock, Frank Schreuder, aged 34 years and employed by the O. S. L. at Pocatello, missed his footing on the car steps and was thrown under the moving cars, receiving such injuries to his left arm that will necessitate its amputation. The accident was not witnessed by any one, and it was not until Schreuder, almost fainting under the pain and nervous shock, had managed to make his way back to the depot that his condition was known. The police were notified and the injured man removed to the emergency hospital, from where, after being given temporary relief by Dr. F. R. Steele, he was taken to the hospital, D. S. Hospital. Schreuder stated his home is in Kensington, Cook county, Ill., but that he had been employed at Pocatello by the Short Line, and was on his way to work when he met with the accident.

ANTI-SALOON CRUSADE BEGINS IN CHEYENNE

(Special Correspondence.) Cheyenne, Wyo., April 4.—The anti-saloon crusaders held forth in nearly every church in Cheyenne yesterday. Speakers from Denver and elsewhere spoke of the evils of the saloon. Cheyenne recently became a closed town on Sunday and the saloonmen fear that inside of a year or two they outside they may be compelled to close altogether. Citizens are wondering what the old-timers would say if they could return here and witness the new order of things, for in the early days Cheyenne was regarded as the "tented city," or commonly referred to as the "Hell on wheels." More than a quarter of a century ago, however, Cheyenne became as peaceful and law-abiding city as any other in the land, and today her schools, churches, city government and police and fire departments are the best to be found anywhere in the world in a city of its size. Cheyenne, while a saloon town on week days, is one of the most orderly, but the reformers will go on to even greater and better things.

A buying opportunity seldom afforded awaits you at my Business Opportunity Shoe Sale New styles, all sizes and surprisingly low prices. I have an elegant stock of the new Oxford styles—an array of dainty shapes that will please any woman's fancy. In the $4.00 grade and some of the especially attractive things are we offer them all at $3.50. Patent and kid oxfords for ladies in the $3.50 grades are more attractive this year than ever before. Some of the new styles are extremely "chic" and will appeal to the "lady who cares." The $2.85 $3.50 grades sell now at $2.85. The regular $3.00 patent and kid oxfords offer actual values that compare with higher grades at some other stores. This grade carries the same new and attractive styles as the higher grades. The only difference is in the quality of leather and the finishing. $3.00 values, now $2.45. I don't believe that other stores have any $2.50 values in women's kid oxfords that offer any such actual value as these now on sale here. If you see them I think you'll agree with me. $2.50 grades $1.95 now. On the bargain tables are an immense variety of "misses" and children's shoes. These comprise almost every style and nearly all sizes. They are not old goods—far from it. The only reason they are on the bargain table is that there are not full runs of styles and sizes in any one line. So to clean them all up, shoes ranging in price up to $3.00 are offered $1.15, $1.35, and $1.65. Such bargains right at the height of the Spring season are evidences of the determination behind this big sale. Every day now means dollars to us both. Come in while the bargains are best. CHRISTENSON 120 S. Main Street For down-right value and up-right quality this sale is the greatest of them all.
