

COL. ROOSEVELT AND THE VATICAN

Colonel Roosevelt and the Pope and the Interior of St. Peter's Church in Rome.

Methodists Generally Commend His Course, Some Showing Animus Towards Rome.

CATHOLIC VIEW OF THE CASE

Attach No Great Importance to It, Saying Both Acted Within Their Rights.

Rome, April 4.—The Rev. B. M. Tippet, pastor of the American Methodist church in Rome, after being received by Mr. Roosevelt, issued a statement, expressing the greatest satisfaction that the ex-president did not have an audience with the pope.

"While the work of Methodism in Rome," says the statement, "started the rumour, it is no longer a question of Methodism or any other 'ism,' but of toleration. Mr. Roosevelt has struck a blow for twentieth century Christianity.

"The representatives of two great republics have been the ones to put the vatican where it belongs. President Loubet refused to accede to vatican conditions, and now Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Roosevelt come to maintain the dignity and independence of American manhood in the face of vatican tyranny.

"The vatican is incompatible with republican principles. This is a bitter dose for patriotic Catholics in America to swallow. I wonder how many doses of this sort they will take before they revolt? Is Catholicism in America to be American or Roman? If Romanism, then every patriotic American should rise to crush it, for Roman Catholicism is the uncompromising foe of freedom.

"The Fairbanks episode the Methodists never dreamed the vatican would commit a similar blunder with Mr. Roosevelt. That it has done so has added proof that the policy prevailing there is the same yesterday, today and forever. The vatican is the vatican. The world advances, but the vatican never.

"Americans can now better understand how it is the Roman church has lost France and is losing Spain and Austria."

COMMENTS OF ROMAN PRESS ON THE INCIDENT

Rome, April 4.—Commenting on Mr. Roosevelt's canceled audience with the pope, the Giornale d'Italia, the organ of ex-premier Sonnino, says the incident between the Spanish papal secretary of state and the ex-colonel of the rough riders, who became so popular in the war against Spain, demonstrates Cardinal Merry del Val's permanence in the foreign department will not augment the cordiality between the vatican and the United States.

"The republican paper, Ragnone, says that what occurred shows the narrowness of mind of the papal secretary of state, while Mr. Roosevelt admirably maintained a decorous dignity. The rudeness of vatican diplomacy," says the paper, "will argue his popularity among the American people."

"The whole vatican press takes as a basis for comment the statement which appeared last evening in the Osservatore Romano, the official organ of the vatican, which explained the vatican could not risk a repetition of the Fairbanks incident, 'it being notorious to all Romans and foreigners,' continues the paper, 'that the Methodist church is the center of all hostility against the spiritual power of the supreme pontiff in his own seat, a center from which radiates all encouragement, material and moral support of propaganda in Rome, favoring apostasy and incitement in every way and by every means to open rebellion and war against the church.'

"There was not, therefore, any offense against Mr. Roosevelt's freedom of action and conscience, as he could have acted elsewhere to the duties of his religion (Mr. Roosevelt is not a Methodist). What was asked was only that Mr. Roosevelt abstain from placing the authority and prestige of his name at the service of the very institution which directs by calumny and open rebellion a diabolical war against the Catholic church in its own metropolis.

"Thus there was no imposition and no minimizing of anybody's liberty, but simply the accomplishment and the defense of the part of the supreme pontiff of the duties and rights strictly connected with his own spiritual power."

The Tribuna says that the ex-president and the king discussed several interesting questions and the king secured from Mr. Roosevelt his opinion on the organization of Italian Somaliland, where he stopped on his way to Morocco and on the question of emigration to America.

CASE CREATED GREAT INTEREST IN FRANCE

Paris, April 24.—Nowhere in Europe has the failure of the pope to grant an audience to Mr. Roosevelt created greater interest than in France, and it is expected to prove a strong card for the government in the coming elections as supporting the contention of M. Briand, the premier, that the recent agitation of the French episcopate was inspired by the present intransigent and intolerant attitude of the vatican. The Temps, foreign editor of the incident recalls a conversation which a representative of that paper had with Mr. Roosevelt a day or two ago, in which, evidently thinking of the affair, Mr. Roosevelt extolled religious toleration, pointing out, in America, his friends included ministers of all denominations.

"I have a particular sympathy," said Mr. Roosevelt, "for those who esteem religious faith mystic. It even gives a man a dynamic value, which becomes a benevolent force for him and others." Mr. Roosevelt also recalled, during the course of the interview, the visit of M. Tardieu, foreign editor of the Temps, in the United States when he dined at the White House with high representatives of all churches, Catholic bishops on that occasion fraternizing with Protestants and those of Jewish faith.

"Tardieu must have noticed," said Mr. Roosevelt, "that I was a friend of ministers of all cults. I have myself mounted a pulpit and delivered a sermon to the faithful of your religion, who listened with greatest sympathy." "That would be rather difficult in Europe," remarked the correspondent.

"Yes, I think so," responded Mr. Roosevelt, with a vigorous gesture of his head.

BISHOP O'DEA DECLARES BOTH WERE JUSTIFIED

Seattle, Wash., April 5.—Bishop Edward J. O'Dea of the Catholic diocese of Seattle, in commenting on ex-President Roosevelt's decision not to accept an audience with the pope under the conditions outlined by the vatican authorities, declared yesterday that both the ex-president and the vatican were justified in the position taken.

Both the pope and Mr. Roosevelt were within their rights under the circumstances, said Bishop O'Dea. "The pope was entitled to some guarantee that his position would be respected. On the other hand, as far as Mr. Roosevelt is concerned, he exercised his privilege as an American citizen in refraining from visiting the pope."

"Intelligent and well-meaning citizens of the United States who gave the matter the consideration that is due it, will certainly not blame the pope and will give Mr. Roosevelt credit for his decision under the circumstances. Mr. Roosevelt was in a dilemma and found a proper solution."

AN AFFAIR BETWEEN GENTLEMEN, SAYS B. F. FOLEY

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—Bishop John Foley of the Roman Catholic diocese of Detroit, in speaking of Theodore Roosevelt's failure to have an audience with the pope, said: "It is an affair between gentlemen and to make a religious issue of it is absurd. There are certain conditions surrounding an audience with the pope, and since Mr. Roosevelt decided he would not comply with the conditions, it was impossible for him to be granted an interview."

MR. MATZ OF COLORADO VERY CONSERVATIVE

Denver, April 4.—Commenting on the Roosevelt incident in Rome today, Bishop N. C. Matz of the Catholic diocese of Colorado said: "We should respect the feelings of both parties to the incident." Bishop Matz declared he understood the cause of friction between the churches in Rome lies in the fact that the "Methodists lend themselves to the insulting of the pope on every occasion. I don't see why they don't stay at home and attend to their own business."

Habit W. S. Friedman tonight said: "I am neither a Methodist nor a Catholic and neither is Col. Roosevelt, but I should say that he is right. Again, it is generally accepted that a guest should respect the wishes of his host and, therefore, I should say that the pope is right."

WOULD NOT LIFT A FINGER TO CONVERT DEVOUT CATHOLIC

Pittsburg, April 4.—The Rev. Frederick H. Wright, who was pastor of the American Methodist church in Rome from 1900 to 1906 as superintendent of mission work in southern Italy for several years, said tonight that the attitude of Methodist missions in Italy had never been complacent to Catholicism.

"We would not," he asked leave to say through the press, "lift a finger to convert a devout Catholic to Protestantism."

"The statement credited to Archbishop Ireland today that the Methodist propaganda in Rome is vile, calumnious in its assaults on the Catholic faith and dishonest in its methods to win proselytes, is too general," said Mr. Wright. "To warrant a defense, I must there be a specific instance of such practices."

The basis for the bill is in the fact that the Methodist church is doing things in Italy—is progressing. The Presbyterians, too, are doing as great a work as we, through the Waldensian church. But we have no quarrel with the good man on the other side. It is God's speed in all that is for the uplifting of the Italian, and we shall try to help him in the great work, even though it may not be approved by us.

"Mr. Roosevelt has done just what was to be expected of an American citizen." Mr. Wright is now superintendent of Italian missions in the western district of the North American continent.

INCIDENT EMPHASIZES FAIRBANKS EPISODE

Cincinnati, O., April 4.—Bishop Earl Cranston and John Aiden of the Methodist church commented today sharply on the vatican's position regarding Col. Roosevelt's visit. Bishop Cranston said: "The incident serves well to emphasize all I have said or written on the real significance of the Fairbanks episode. Mr. Roosevelt is not a Methodist, but his spirit of toleration is not greater than that of Mr. Fairbanks, the Methodist. In his administration as president, many of his friends thought Mr. Roosevelt went beyond the limit of political prudence in trusting and honoring Roman Catholics, but even he had to be put under bonds in Rome. It seems the vatican accepts nothing short of absolute submission, including the yielding up of one's special privileges and religious and patriotic fellowships."

The introduction of the Methodist church in Rome as a feature in this last episode is gratuitous. Much as they may honor Mr. Roosevelt, our people there had no desire or purpose to embarrass him by any invitation interfering with his wish to call on the pope. We are sure he would not insult us in return for such consideration by submitting to the dictation of our leaders, and he has not disappointed us.

"Americanism is worth more to the world than a papal assumption, and it is the spirit of Americans that is now again being demonstrated by the fact. No honest avowal for the public can change that fact. The Methodists are not in this case."

Bishop John Aiden, who expressed himself plainly when the Fairbanks incident occurred, said two monumental blunders had been committed by the present pope. He declared Pope Leo was far too wise to have been guilty of the errors of Pius.

"But," he added, "it is not, after all, the Methodist church who has its blemishes, but the Roman Catholic church. The Methodist church has not been injured in the least. We are used to the insults and attacks of Rome, perhaps more than any other denomination, owing to the fact we have been active in many countries which are peculiarly Roman, among them Mexico, Brazil, and Italy, including Rome."

"It is our success that has aroused Rome and made her lift her blemishes. If we had not been successful, if Methodism were not a vital, powerful force where we have planted it, we would have nothing from Rome."

CONFERENCE REFUSED TO ADOPT RESOLUTION

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman with Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Which She Used with Most Remarkable Results.

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed. Many of them made my hair greasy, so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious, and from my own experience I can not too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they bite the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures I finally found a simple prescription which I used with most remarkable results, and I can unhesitatingly state that it is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it and obtained wonderful results therefrom. It not only is a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair, and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair much easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months, and during that time it not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all his gray hair to its natural color. You can buy the roots of the hair, making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows: Menthol crystals one-half drachm; Lavone de Compose, 2 oz.; To-Kalon perfume, 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls. Apply nightly and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp. Go to your druggist and ask for an eight-ounce bottle containing six ounces of bay rum; also one-half drachm of Menthol crystals, and for a two-ounce bottle of Lavone de Compose. Mix the ingredients yourself in your own home. Add the Menthol crystals to the bay rum and then pour Lavone de Compose, and add the To-Kalon Perfume. Let it stand for one-half hour and it is ready for use.

Red debate followed the introduction today in the New York east conference of the Methodist Episcopal church of a resolution commending ex-President Roosevelt's action in declining to seek an audience with the pope because of the conditions the vatican imposed. The resolution was later withdrawn.

The resolution was strongly opposed, not on the ground that the conference did not approve the action of the ex-president, but on the ground that this approval ought to be taken for granted and that to pass such resolutions would only add fuel to the flames of the controversy.

Bishop David M. Moore, at the New York East Methodist conference today, said: "In my opinion, Mr. Roosevelt has acted simply as becomes any high minded citizen of a country pledged to civil and religious liberty. His conduct reveals no animus either toward the pope or Roman Catholicism. True, Roman Catholicism never can be in conflict with true Methodist Episcopalianism and vice versa. If repeated devotion to the service of God in society our fellow men, all such ill advised agitation should be rebuked."

COMMEND ROOSEVELT'S STURDY AMERICANISM

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 4.—The New York Methodist Episcopal conference today adopted resolutions which, after reading the incidents of the Roosevelt-vatican affair, declared: "That we deny the Methodist church in Rome is carrying on a campaign of calumny and detraction against the pope."

The resolutions say further: "That we commend the sturdy Americanism of ex-President Roosevelt, and we affirm our approval of his recognition of conditions debasing alike to American manhood and American freedom of speech."

COLONEL COMMENDED.

Spokane, Wash., April 4.—At the meeting of the General Ministerial association of Protestant ministers of the city this afternoon the following resolution of commendation was passed by them: "Resolved, That we, the Ministerial association of Spokane, do most heartily commend Mr. Roosevelt for his refusal of an audience with the pope under the humiliating conditions imposed by the vatican."
