Just Before the Battle on the University Campus. Intercollegiate Track Meet Tomorrow Promises Some Fast Entries From University, B. Y. U. and Logan A. C.—Rooters Coming in Special Trains From the North and South.

In a triangular meet for the state championship, the University of Utah, the Brigham Young university and the Agricultural College of Utah will measure their strength on the track and field Saturday at the university campus.

Johnston of the A. C. U. is the hardest man in the pole vault to beat and he probably will take first place, and Erickson of the U. second. In the high hurdles, Belknap, who broke the record at Ogden, will be the man to watch.

AS IT LOOKS TODAY. From the records made by the University of Utah in its meet with the B. Y. U., the State university ought to win handily.

THE ENTRIES. One hundred and twenty yard hurdles—Roskelly, B. Y. U.; (first heat) Belknap, U. of U.; Peterson, B. Y. U.; Hancock, A. C. U.

Two hundred and twenty yard hurdles—Belknap, U. of U.; Erickson, U. of U.; Whitehead, A. C. U.; Baird, B. Y. U.; (first heat) Belknap, U. of U.; Peterson, B. Y. U.; Hancock, A. C. U.

THOMAS WANKED IT BY BILLY PAPKE

Prize Fighters Hissed by Crowd in Seventh Round With Cries of "Fake."

San Francisco, May 19.—Joe Thomas' attempt to re-establish himself as a middleweight champion received a rude setback in his fight tonight at Dreamland rink with Billy Papke, the Illinois Thunderbolt. It took Papke 10 rounds to relegate the Californian to the list of losers that were a right outside him on the body over Thomas to the mat, and after this several rights delivered with crushing force floored Thomas for keeps.

A match with Ketchel for the championship next month is assured the victor. The consensus of opinion on his showing tonight, will have to improve considerably to stand a chance with the Thunderbolt.

FANS DISPLEASED. At the end of the fourth round Papke enjoyed a good look. After two lame rounds Papke, in the third, drove in several appetizing to the jaw and forced the fighting, buffeting Thomas about the head.

In the sixth round the men fought at close quarters, Papke doing the greater part of the hitting. Thomas, however, landed a few punches, but did not from the nose at the end of the round.

In the seventh Papke swung a powerful right to the jaw and the fighter clinched and wrestled the round out. The crowd, however, expressed the displeasure of the spectators, who yelled "fake," "fake in union," in a staccato manner.

Papke had a lead at the ninth round, although the fighting was of a very amateurish nature.

Thomas improved considerably as the battle progressed, and appeared to gain confidence. He landed several wicked body and head punches in the tenth round.

Papke rebuffed him with a terrific right jolt to the jaw. After two rights to the stomach, the Californian jolted his right hand to the jaw, forcing Thomas to his knees.

In the twelfth Papke forced his opponent against the ropes and landed four rights in quick succession without a return. Papke continually used his head, which he rammed against the Californian's face and chest.

A mid-ring rally in the thirteenth round found Thomas landing repeatedly on the face with short arms lefts and rights, which were received with a heavy exchange of rights to the chest.

Thomas had a big lead in this round. The fourteenth round was featured by Papke's wildness and Thomas's clever footwork. The Thunderbolt swung a hard right to the jaw just before the round ended.

In the next round Thomas drove his man against the ropes with a fierce rush and then landed a series of rights with a vicious right foot to the jaw. Prior to this Papke sent the blood flowing from his nose, and he was bleeding to the face.

Papke sent his man to the floor in the sixteenth with a right cross to the forehead. Thomas came up and answered off with a right cross to the jaw. Papke went after his victim like a tiger, landing right and left to the jaw. Finally Thomas was floored for the third time, and he went crashing to the floor, where he lay until counted out.

"PEANUTS" LAYS HEFFERN OUT COLD IN FIFTH. (Special to The News.) Today, May 19.—Peanuts Sinclair knocked out Young Heffern last night at the Tonsie Athletic club in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round prize fight.

The sheriff ordered the fighters to use the boxing gloves, but he believed that the boys could do no damage to each other.

In the third round, Heffern took the count three times, going down with hard swings to the jaw. He was saved by the referee in the fourth round. Sinclair put him down and out Heffern lay on the floor cold until he was counted out. Kid Heffern, who fought a four-round preliminary to a draw.

Ben Leonard, Cal., May 19.—The fact that Jim Jeffries took another day off from training yesterday leads the camp to believe that he may follow intention to rest on his own until Jim Corbett arrives here from the east. At least, it is believed that he will exercise sparingly until tomorrow.

Jeffries has accomplished the hardest part of his conditioning process already; he is considered by himself and trainers to be in splendid form and his setup on grueling work is generally regarded as a wise move.

No boxing has been done by Jeffries since last Sunday, but from this time on he will probably will concentrate on his daily regimen. Speed and cleverness will be the aim of his work henceforth, and so the gloves must come in for constant usage.

"All O. K." is the camp's summary of the Jeffries situation.

"TWIN" SULLIVAN, PUG. SAYS HE'S CONTRACTOR. New York, May 19.—Jack "Twin" Sullivan, pugilist, has been reported to be in New York and is held under $500 bail for trial on charges of aiding and abetting a prize fight on May 15. On the charge he won from Al Benedict in five rounds before the Marathon Athletic club.

Jack's real name is John W. Sullivan of Cambridge, Mass. and described himself as a public contractor. His arrest is part of a crusade against prize fighting.

DRISCOLL AFTER WOLFGAST. New York, May 19.—Tom Driscoll, English featherweight champion, today challenged Wolfgang for the light-weight championship. Driscoll is expected to post a $5,000 forfeit to go as a side bet in his fight with Wolfgang. Driscoll is expected to post a $5,000 forfeit to go as a side bet in his fight with Wolfgang.

HUNDRED THOUSAND FOR PICTURE RIGHTS. New York, May 19.—A New York syndicate has offered $100,000 for the moving picture rights of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. This announcement, made today, is the first definite sign of action in the much-discussed question as to who will get the moving picture privilege. The New York men gave out today a copy of the program which they forwarded to the night managers, making their offer.

It is signed by J. Austin Fynes, who is acting for the New York syndicate, and is as follows: "New York, May 19.—Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason, San Francisco, are authorized to offer $100,000 for exclusive privilege to make moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson contest. I take all chances as to weather conditions, patent rights, terms, bonus down on your picture, and agreement to this balance day before fight. Answer." (Signed) "J. AUSTIN FYNES."

ANOTHER BLACK EYE FOR FIGHTING GAME

Papke-Thomas Mill Declared "Fake" and "Frame-Up"—Big Event Still Doubtful.

San Francisco, May 19.—The Papke-Thomas mill last night and the general disappointment it brought the fight fans is the main topic of pugilistic discussion here today, distracting for the moment attention from the Jeffries-Johnson battle.

After comment from the sporting fraternity and caustic criticism from the newspaper experts has been aroused by the middleweight's contest, the proceedings of which was punctuated with cries of "fake fight," "frame-up" and with "cheers from all sides."

In view of the storm of censure, Papke's is regarded as a hollow victory, and the "Illinois Thunderbolt" has made several statements to account for its showing.

"I wouldn't get warmed up," he says, "I wanted to knock Thomas out and I had my money bet that I would beat him roundly. What the matter was I don't know, and I am as much disappointed as anyone else."

Today was expected to bring developments in the big fight situation. District Attorney Flicker having told a committee representing the local church federation that he would be prepared to give a decisive opinion on the city law covering prize fighting.

The wilful belief of the fans that Flicker considered the law favorable to the holding of the fight here, was given a rude shock by a rumor in circulation that Flicker had decided to that report. The district attorney was quoted as saying he did not think there was much probability of the law being changed.

Jeffries and Johnson getting together in San Francisco. Attempts to confirm the rumor proved futile. Aside from his usual workout, Jack Johnson's training operations are not expected to develop any interesting features until Saturday and Sunday, when he is scheduled to box.

EFFORT MADE TO STOP JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHT. San Francisco, May 19.—That a determined effort will be made to prevent the holding of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in this city was made apparent today when, within a few hours after the definite announcement of the promoters, to be held here, the effort was made to bring this side of the bay, a delegation of the local church federation, accompanied by their attorney, called upon District Attorney Flicker and demanded that he take action to stop the proposed bout. Flicker, after declaring that he had not had time to investigate the law governing boxing contests in this city, told the delegation that tomorrow morning the board would make a definite decision as to the legality of the proposed championship battle.

Tex Rickard today set at rest all rumors that his selection as referee of the big fight was a temporary one until the principals could agree on another man.

"I am going to referee that fight," said Rickard to the Associated Press. "Both Jeffries and Johnson have said they want me, my selection seems to have met with public approval, and I have big money at stake."

"The other business is settled, and I am the man."

CORBETT LEAVES FOR CAMP. Ben Leonard, Cal., May 19.—A wire from Jim Corbett, who received here tonight in which Corbett informed Jeffries he would leave New York for the training camp Saturday afternoon, and expected to reach Ben Leonard the following Saturday. Jeffries immediately replied, expressing his pleasure at the prospect of Corbett's coming.

ZBYNSKO THROWS DE ROUEN. Montreal, May 19.—Zbynsko, the Pole, last night easily defeated De Rouen, the Frenchman, in a straight falls. The first fall was secured in 36 minutes, with a reverse body hold. De Rouen hit the mat so hard that he was unconscious for two minutes. A front body kick set the second fall and match in 15 minutes.

PHILIPPI. When looking over the records of the veteran baseball pitchers and their consistently good work in the box one must give great credit to Sam Laveer and "Deacon" Phillippi of the Pittsburgh Nationals. During their careers with the Pirates the pair have won 340 out of 623 games and no doubt will add to the already long list before the 1910 season ends.

LEEVEE. "Labe" Adams or Howard Cammita, his star pitchers, for the season, so he asked for volunteers to pitch the game. Laveer and Phillippi were the ones to answer the call. Laveer was chosen, and he went in and won. The pair are in grand shape at present and will try hard to aid the Pirates win another banner.
