HOW TO GET BACK PLAYER MAJORS DON'T WANT Chicago, May 30.—Trouble is said to be brewing between Owner McCrede of the Portland club and Manager Chance of the Chicago Nationals, as the result of the latter's recent action in sending pitcher Ed Carson to Vernon, Cal. McCrede charges Chance with having drafted Carson with the intention of turning him over to Boston manager John Vernon club and a personal friend of the Cubs' leader.

"McCrede is mistaken," said Chance last night. "If he knew the rules governing organized baseball, he would never have made such a statement. I drafted Ed Carson with the intention of working on the coast because I thought he would be a valuable addition to the Cubs' pitching staff. There is a rule stating that a player drafted by the majors may be returned to the club from which he was taken, provided the latter club desires his services. This service must be filled within five days after the major league club decides to drop the player. McCrede was notified according to the rule, but he has since remained silent. We never heard a word from him either today or yesterday. This service must be coming out with a statement."

Authorities Will Not Interfere With Prize Fights Pulled Off at Auditorium. The Salt Lake Athletic club has announced its opening card for Thursday night at the Auditorium. Pete Sullivan and Kid Row will meet in the feature event, and although the number of rounds has not been announced, it is understood the fighters will go to rounds. Manager Lyon is arranging for some 20-round games as soon as a few "round" fighters are pulled off. County Attorney Job P. JEFFRIES KEEPS COTTAGE SOAKED WITH WATER

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 29.—It's getting hot at Ben Lomond, but Jim Jeffries has found a way to keep his cottage cool. With a fire hose he drenches the interior of his abode and the surrounding lawns, trees and shrubbery as far as the possible stream will carry. "The big fellow seems to enjoy this cometary" pastime, particularly when he gets an opportunity to turn the hose upon an unwary companion.

Jeffries is happy over the new automobile which Sam Berger brought up from San Francisco yesterday. "Now that I have a car," he said, "I am going to make frequent trips to Santa Cruz. We may be able to go down there every day, and I know I'd like to mighty well. We'd do some surf bathing and take hot salt baths. Some day we'll take a lunch along and have a picnic." Tex Rickard was a visitor here yesterday and announced that he intended to "Sunday" at Ben Lomond, awaiting the shot that would end his torture. But the bullets sped about him, ripping his clothing and tearing his flesh. When markers found him his head had been shot nearly off. Hetheron was married.
