

WILLY-NILLY BELLE MUST COME

Unless Stockade Madame Returns Today, Officer With Papers Will Follow Her.

CHIEF BARLOW IS CAUTIOUS

Of Course We'll Act on Every Complaint—Don't Know About Closing Up Place.

Chief of Police Barlow, who was absent from the city when the complaints against Belle London were issued, and who only returned to his office this morning, could not state today whether the filing of the complaints by the city attorney would lead to the complete closing of the stockade or not.

EMPIRE OF DRY LANDS OPENED TO ENTRY

Over Eighty Thousand Acres in Millard and Beaver Counties May Be Filed On.

Notice of designation of 84,820 acres of land, to be opened to entry under section 6 of the Smoot enlarged homestead act, was received at the local United States land office this morning.

The lands thrown open to entry under the latest designation are described by township and section as follows: Township 28 south, range 10 west—Part of section 6.

Postmasters Appointed. (Special to The News.) Washington, D. C., June 17—Ellery J. Wood has been appointed postmaster at Elk Muddy, Converse county, Wyo., vice J. A. Murray, resigned.

RAILROAD NEWS.

HANDSOME TRANSPARENCIES.

Some very handsome transparent photographs, done in colors, of the natural wonders in the Yellowstone park have been received by the passenger department of the Oregon Short Line.

SPRICE AND RAIL.

Summons to Chicago—Mrs. L. J. Kyes, wife of L. J. Kyes city ticket agent of the Oregon Short Line, yesterday received a wire from Chicago saying that her sister, Mrs. Charles Arkel, is lying at the point of death.

It's a Girl—A little daughter arrived at the home of R. D. Brown, depot ticket agent of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, the other evening.

Sixty Cars of Sheep—Two trainloads of sheep arrived in this city over the Salt Lake Route last night from Las Vegas, Nev.

Uptown Offices Busy—Since the reinstatement of through service on the Salt Lake Route, the uptown offices of that road present a busy appearance.

Back to Railroad—A. H. Powell, formerly master mechanic of the Salt Lake shops of the Denver & Rio Grande, who resigned last September, has taken a position as master mechanic for the Western Pacific at Elko, Nev.

Surveyors in Gentle Valley—A party of Oregon Short Line surveyors is reported busy in Gentle valley, preliminary to the building of a branch line through that fertile valley.

Head of Dining Service—Clyde O. Peit, formerly superintendent of the dining car service of the Colorado & Midland, has been appointed superintendent of the dining car service of the Western Pacific.

D. & R. G. Time Card—The new time card showing the changes on the Denver & Rio Grande through and local service, effective June 19, is out, and business men can obtain same at the uptown office of the Denver & Rio Grande.

Trains to Goldfield—Train service to Goldfield via Salt Lake Route and Las Vegas.

CHIEF BARLOW RETURNS.

Had Pleasant Time in Butte, Where He Was Decorated.

Chief of Police Barlow returned to Salt Lake last night from Helena, Mont., where he attended the convention of the United Commercial Travelers of the Montana, Utah and Idaho division.

SLEPT UNDER STARS.

While Diamond, Cash and Watch Disappear From His Pockets.

P. C. Williams, a telegraph operator in the employ of the Oregon Short Line, found a sleeping place behind a bill board on Second South street, between Second and Third East streets, to be expensive in its price.

FOR BLANKET THEFT.

The preliminary hearing set for today of H. W. Christensen, charged with having stolen five Navajo blankets from Z. C. M. I. on Sept. 15 of last year, was continued on motion of the prosecutor until July 14.

MISPLACED CHARITY.

The trial of A. C. Miller, charged by Probation Officer Guardelo Brown with having obtained money under false pretenses, will not be held until July 1, the continuance being granted today in Judge Bowman's court.

SATURDAY'S ENTRIES AT BUENA VISTA PARK

Following are the entries announced by the Utah Jockey club for the twelfth day of racing at Buena Vista park tomorrow: First race, five and one-half furlongs, 3-year-old and upward.

FREE SOAP FOR BRADY.

His Supply for 30 Days Assured Without Cost to Him.

Bill Brady's desire for soap will be gratified by Chief Barlow, who for the next 30 days will provide Brady with all the soap he wants.

VACATION TOURS

In California cannot be excelled anywhere. Hundreds of delightful and cool Ocean Resorts, Deep Sea Fishing, Surf Bathing, Automobiling and numerous other sports.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE!

Our Mammoth June SALE Is Now On!! Why Pay Regular Price for ordinary clothing, when you can buy High Class hand-tailored "Chesterfield" Suits at One-Fourth Off

Advertisement for Manhattan Shirts and Straw Hats. Features 'One-Fourth Off' pricing and lists various suit and hat prices.

Well Dressed Men Wear Our 50c Ties. Advertisement for Salt Lake Knitting Store, 70 Main St.

Why don't you INSIST on a clean Bakery? Yours must be clean---why not your baker's? We invite you to visit--anytime---our sanitary Kitchen, the home of "TABLE QUEEN"

Do Iron With Comfort. Our 1910 model Hot Point Electric Iron is a great improvement over all other makes and models.

Now Adays. In preparing for a journey the telephone performs a great variety of services.

Every Bell Telephone is the Center of the System. Advertisement for Bell Telephone System.

A Dollar is a DOLLAR. Advertisement for Mercantile Installment Co.

HIAWATHA COAL. The coal that does not slack. Long lasting and economical.

Consolidated Fuel Co. Jesse H. White, Gen'l Sales Agt., Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gray Bros. & Co. 258 South Main Street. Advertisement for various clothing items and services.