WELCOME HOME!
The Deseret News takes great pleasure in extending the glad hand of welcome home to Elder C. W. Penrose...

WOMEN'S CLOTHING.
Westminster Gazette.
Dr. Haig Ferguson in a lecture at the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary the other day had some severe things to say about the clothing of the adult woman...

FOOD PRICES IN 1823.
Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.
That the prices of food in Cincinnati were not always as high as they are now is the testimony of a little musty volume of poems and facts compiled by Moses Gausman...

THE WEATHER.
According to all calculations, spring comes officially on the 21st of June, to give way for summer, but here in our valleys we have had summer this year, most of the time since the 21st of March...

CONSPIRACIES TO FIX PRICES.
If the proceedings against the various meat packing companies for violation of the anti-trust law are effective, they will bring about some reduction in the cost of living...

THE COLONEL DRAWS THE LINE AT M. D.
It's a long worm that has no turning.
The way to a bank is the road to wealth.

SALT LAKE COUNTY IS AFTER THE PUGILISTS WITH A SHARP STICK.
At the customs house Colonel Roosevelt seen his "duty" and paid it.

TO MORTGAGE THE HOME IS TO DEPART.
There can be no safe and sane Fourth of July if Congress is in session.

A MANLY APOLOGY.
The apology made at Preston, Idaho, during the Onedia Stake conference, by a Tribune correspondent, for having written slanderous and untrue letters to that paper for the purpose of injuring President George C. Parkinson...

FAREWELL TO EUROPEAN MISSION.
[Millennial Star.]
With this issue of the Millennial Star I will have to say goodbye to the Elders and Saints and many friends counted among its readers in the European Mission...

TOO MUCH FOR ONE.
Boston Transcript.
Many a clergyman will sympathize with the Presbyterian divine who, though he has long successfully ministered to one of the oldest churches in Chicago, recently resigned because he felt that his true function, that of preacher and pastor, was obscured by the executive duties that fall, almost inevitably, upon the head of a metropolitan church...

JUST FOR FUN.
Clerk—Ah! You're the gent we sold a bottle of hair restorer to last week. I remember you. Back for another bottle?
Sent—No. I come to see if you could direct me to the wig department.—Cleveland Leader.
