ROBBER SUSPECTS RELEASED—CLUES LOST

More Rewards Offered—Pinkertons Hope Soon to Capture Bandits.

OGDEN, June 30.—With the announcement Wednesday evening in a local paper that the three railroad men being held for investigation in connection with the train robbery of Monday morning were W. J. Garvin, 35 Poplar avenue, A. E. Knowl and K. Dale, the fact that discrimination is being shown to the press is doubly emphasized. The men were released after baggage man J. M. Reed failed to identify them and apparently no officers are at their wrists end to now what step to take. The police are very reticent as to any further use they may have picked up in connection with the get-away of the bandits and in view of the fact that much contradictory information has been given regarding the number of the holdups and the direction taken after the robbery, the whole affair now appears to be a problem too deep for a large number of railroad detectives and local officers who have been working incessantly on the case. It is also understood that Pinkerton detectives are at work on certain clues known only to themselves, though no information for publication can be learned. The officers are very much concerned over the strange buggy tracks which were followed all day Monday in the direction of Little Mountain and are wondering why nothing is heard from parties who know of the tracks, presuming such parties are innocent. Up to a late hour on Wednesday no further light had been shed on the matter. With William I. Willis, superintendent of the Pinkerton agency at Salt Lake, directing the search for the train robbers who held up an Oregon port line train here early Monday morning, it is believed that there will be some developments soon.

In addition to the $750 reward offered by the governor yesterday and the $1,500 offered by the Union Pacific, the American Express company announced that a reward of $500 will be paid for their capture.

NEARING THE DEAD BODIES.

OGDEN, June 30.—Judging from the snuff arising from the scene of the awful explosion which occurred at the mill site about a month ago, the workmen will soon recover the dead bodies of the victims. Since the explosion at the Union Portland Cement works a force of men have been constantly at work with a steam shovel clearing away the great mass of earth that piled in the tunnel at the quarry, covering 17 men. It has been a heroic struggle to exhume the bodies buried under thousands of tons of earth, but up to this time only four bodies have been unearthed. The tunnel at the time of the explosion extended into the mountain 50 feet and the face of the mountain was composed of solid limestone about 150 feet high. This mass of rock was broken over the tunnel so that the work of removing it sufficiently to enable the workmen to find the bodies of the men entombed has been of mammoth proportions. The work of the steam shovel has been confined to the tunnel proper, but as the nearby rock and earth have been cleared away, more have been able to place and necessitated the removal of many more tons of earth.

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, June 30.—Charles T. Burps pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness before Judge J. E. Bagley on Wednesday in the police court and was sentenced to a fine of $10 for five days or pay a fine of $10. State Jones and Jesse Warwick were each sentenced to pay fines of $15 or remain in jail for 15 days on the charge of vagrancy. Both of the "ladies" are charged and held on the charge of vagrancy much trouble of late by their petty stealings and other depredations. The Warwick woman accused Detective Vender on Tuesday night as he was on his way home and was promptly arrested for her trouble.

Mrs. Frankie Winter denied the charge of vagrancy and was placed under $15 bond to await her trial this morning. Kid Carter, colored, who was released late Tuesday afternoon on the charge of vagrancy, was again before the court, this time on a drunk charge. Carter was given five days or $5, necessarily causing him to take the former. Peter Fisher forfeited $5 bail for violating the bicycle ordinance. John Ritzson was fined an equal amount on a similar charge. Frank Checketts was charged with assault although testimony showed that he was also guilty of petit larceny, by having stolen some cabbage from the garden of G. Berkweg. The latter bore a black eye as mute testimony of the treatment he had received at the hands of Checketts after ordering him from his cabbage patch. The court imposed a sentence of $10.

Tom Lyon was again charged with drunkenness and forfeited his usual $5 fine.

RETAIL CLERK'S UNION.

OGDEN, June 30.—The retail clerks of the city are being organized into a union, after which the State Federation of Labor will assist them to maintain their first victory, early closing on Saturday nights. Several of the local unions, particularly among the railroad men in the Ogden shops, refused to recognize the retail clerks in the movement for early closing because they were not organized into a real union. In some of the communications which were openly published by the shop men, they threatened to send east for their merchandise unless the merchants kept their stores open till 9 o'clock on Saturday night. It is thought that the new movement on the part of the clerks will change this feeling and therefore a number of merchants are lending their aid in having the clerks organized. It is reported that over 100 clerks have already applied for membership in the union and the officers expect a membership of over 300 within the near future.

ITALIAN THREATENED BY "BLACK HAND" HOLDUP

OGDEN, June 30.—Virgilio Lobello, an Italian living at 159 Twenty-fifth street, reported to the police that he had received a "black hand" letter in which $500 is demanded by the writer at once. The writer threatens to kill the Italian and his children if his demands are not complied with. The letter was left at the police station. The police are inclined to believe that it was written by some one as a joke or by some time novel-reading boy.

WORKMAN BADLY HURT.

OGDEN, June 30.—Charles Holmes, a railroad laborer at Lake Side, was badly injured this morning while unloading a car of ties. When the car was about half emptied the car was bunted into unexpectedly and Holmes was buried under a lot of ties. One of his legs was broken and perhaps some of his ribs, but the worst injury is in his head, concussion of the brain being feared. He was rushed on a special to Ogden and taken to the general hospital where his injuries were dressed.

GARLAND.

SANE AND SAFE FOURTH— SPLENDID CROP CONDITIONS

(Special Correspondence.)
GARLAND, Boxelder Co., June 28.—The citizens of Garland are preparing to hold a fitting celebration of the Fourth. Z. C. Whelan is chairman of the committee on arrangements. It will be an up-to-date affair, minus fire-crackers and fireworks. The first crop of lucern was good and is about all in the stack. The dry farm grain is very fair, and looks as if it would yield an average of 25 bushels to the acre. The beets are also looking well regardless of the dry weather which has prevailed since February last. The recent conference of the Relief societies of Bear River stake, held at Edgewood, was a very successful and enjoyable one, and was well attended. The Edgewood Relief society served dinner to the 200 present.

PIONEER EMIGRANT TREK TO EDGEWOOD

Two Hundred People Take Part in Unique Festival at Judge Booth's Country Home.

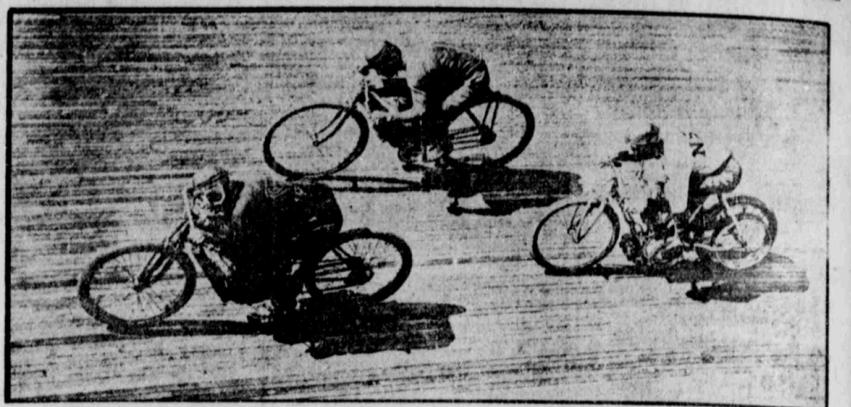

(Special Correspondence.)
PROVO, June 30.—About 200 people men, women and children took part in the emigrant outing to Judge Booth's country home, Edgewood, in Pleasant View ward yesterday and today. The participants gathered at Judge Booth's home in the city at 3 o'clock, yesterday afternoon and soon after the procession was formed and the march taken up for Edgewood, some four miles distant. The immigrants were dressed, as far as possible, in costumes to represent emigrants crossing the plains and the wagons made to conform in appearance to the vehicles of early days. The oxen were not in evidence, but cows were led behind some of the wagons. The company was organized with Judge Booth as captain of the company, and captains of tens were appointed. On arriving at Edgewood, camp was formed and supper prepared on camp fires, from provisions brought by the "immigrants." An interesting program of songs and speeches, reminiscent in character was rendered followed with a dance and at a late hour the fires were banked and the travelers retired for the night sleeping in the wagons and under the trees. This morning the immigrants were called for breakfast which was preceded by the devotional exercises usual to Mormon immigrant companies crossing the plains, after which camp was broken and the company returned to Provo well pleased with their mimic immigration trip.
