

FIGHT ON WITH TURF GAMBLERS

Gauntlet Thrown Down by Pool Room Operations to be Picked Up.

DININNY DONS WAR PAINT

Council May Take Action Tonight—Injunction Hearing Goes Over Until Monday Morning at 10 O'clock.

Hearing of the order of Chief of Police S. M. Barlow to show cause why the injunction issued by Judge Morse...

Continued this morning in Judge Morse's court until Monday next at 10 o'clock.

For several days the chief of police has threatened to close the turf exchange at 18 West Second South, where hundreds of men gather every day to bet on the horse races all over the bet on the horse races.

But when George Sheets, chief of Detectives, and Detectives Chase and Janney went to the pool room Monday afternoon they were confronted at the door by an injunction which rebuffed them.

At the time the injunction was procured a complaint was filed by Charles B. Crow, W. C. Applegate and W. E. Applegate, partners operating the Samuel M. Barlow, chief of police, all alleging that the plaintiffs were co-partners doing business at 18 West Second South, that they were engaged in selling pool tickets on horse races in a lawful and peaceful manner not contrary to, nor in violation of any ordinance of the city of Salt Lake or any statute of the state of Utah.

The complaint then alleges that on or about the 23rd of July, Chief Barlow pretending to act under the color of official authority, unlawfully and with intent to injure their business, threatened to arrest and impound the plaintiffs, their agents and employees, that the chief of police now threatens to interfere again with the plaintiffs in the conduct of their business, to arrest them and to confiscate their property.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

SPRINKLING OF THEIR POSTERITY

After the invocation by Dr. Allen and a song by the crowd, C. H. Peil delivered an interesting address on the coming of the pioneers, their struggles and their triumphs.

O. F. Whitney's beautiful poem, "The Pioneers," was read by W. T. Atkin and was well enjoyed and heartily applauded.

A recitation by Lowry Allen, which caused much merriment was followed by a song by Prof. Beesley as leader.

Mrs. Allen's recitation was exceptionally good, as was the duet by the little West girls.

There was an exhibition of "Black Art" by Mr. and Mrs. Atkin and an Indian war dance by the "Wild West brothers," in which "Doc" was helped by Mayor Harrison, chief magistrate of the camp.

The Salt Lakers who made up a world's tour party which sailed several months ago from San Francisco, are gathering home, among the recent arrivals in America being Mrs. James Hogle and her son, Mr. James Hogle, who expect to be in Salt Lake this week.

Invitations are issued for the wedding of Miss Alice Holman and Warren A. Baker of Idaho Falls, the ceremony to be performed next Thursday night at the home of the bride by Rev. McNeel, and a large reception to follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Thompson are at their summer home in Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Chambers and children, N. G. Chambers and Miss Hattie Waples make up a party who are camping at Forest Reserve, Big Cottonwood canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fife have gone to San Francisco.

Mrs. Morton French and daughter Frances of San Francisco are visiting friends in the city.

Miss Ruth Armstrong has returned from a visit with her father, Leroy Armstrong, at Hood River, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGurrin will give a dancing party shortly at the Country club in honor of Miss Margaret Bache.

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith entertained at a dinner at the Country club in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret McClure, the table being prettily decorated in gold and white, and covers laid for about 20 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornung have returned from their outing at Snake river.

Mrs. P. W. Madison and children have returned from Michigan, where they have spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitley were among those who entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night, and also Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. T. W. Boyer.

Miss Mamie Woodmansee and Miss Maud Paul at the Balsam Hill cottage at Brighton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Caswell have gone for an eastern trip.

PIONEER DAY AT BRIGHTON RESORT

Grand Concert at the Hotel With Emma Lucy Gates and Others—Unique Celebration.

Brighton is famous in history for the manner in which it has observed Pioneer day in the past; notably July 24, 1857 when the celebration of Pioneer day was interrupted by the approach of Johnson's army.

Few celebrations, however, have been more interesting than that of yesterday the 25th. People arrived from various camps and ranches and Salt Lake, and many came over from Park City and Alta.

In the afternoon there was a program of horse races, base ball etc. in the evening was the grand concert arranged by the Brighton hotel, with Emma Lucy Gates and others; the affair was absolutely unique, in many respects.

The performers and audience all appeared in mountain costume. The dining room was seated with chairs, benches and planks, and windows were open and many sat in them.

Quite a number of automobiles were stationed out among the pines. Every inch of seating and standing room was occupied.

Miss Gates was accorded an ovation, and the enthusiasm with which the songs were greeted was greater than when she sang in Salt Lake. She gave "Ava Maria" by Mascagni with violin accompaniment by Miss Romania Hyde; for an encore she sang "Sheila of the Ocean," she also sang a beautiful "Soprano" and "Chadwick." The biggest number of the evening was the great soprano aria from the opera "Die Sledernaus," and other beautiful and difficult selections. She was called back from this number and rendered her old favorite "Sings Sweet Birds," she received tremendous applause, being called back again she sang "Swanee River," which was also immensely applauded. She also sang the soprano part of the "male quartet." The audience was strong in its applause, and they had to come back again. Those who assisted Miss Gates were Miss Romania Hyde, who also received enthusiastic recalls, and Miss Edith Grant, who sang charmingly, and was highly applauded for her rendition.

H. Ensign sang songs and had to render a third. The Pyper, Whitney, Spencer and Ensign quartet gave several numbers and assisted in the sextet. Miss Gates accompanied Mr. Ensign, Miss Grant, and Miss Hyde. Coel Gates and Mary Grant assisted in accompanying Miss Gates.

During the evening an enthusiastic miner threw several silver dollars through the window at Miss Gates' feet. After the concert the floor was cleared and a grand ball was given under the management of Mr. Davis, proprietor of the hotel, Emma Lucy Gates played for the dancing.

When she was dancing Miss Hyde or Coel Gates furnished the music. Quite a number of people came from Salt Lake, but returned again as they were unable to obtain accommodations at the hotel.

THE MORMONS AND THE THEATER. An interesting compilation forming the history of theatricals in Salt Lake, by the late John S. Lindsay, for sale at the Deseret News Book Store. Price 50c.

The popular place to spend Saturday evening, Saltair.

Have you tried floating at Saltair?

PROGRAMS. Special prices to all church organizations on programs, tickets, doggers, etc. All orders promptly and carefully filled.

Communications From Correspondents

THE GENUINE AND THE COUNTERFEIT

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—The contest between the producers of butter, who are demanding only honest competition between the product of oleomargarine, and the manufacturers of oleomargarine, who are striving for the elimination of protective legislation, is not based upon equality in the two products as the promoters of the latter would have the public believe. At the recent hearings in Washington every oleomargarine witness laid particular emphasis upon the claim that oleomargarine is just as "pure, wholesome and nutritious" as butter. Some of them claimed even more than this, arguing that it is produced under more sanitary conditions.

No sane person can be misled by such claims, providing he gives thought to the question. It is the same old story of the producer of the substitute claiming the superiority of his article over the genuine.

For several years the writer was compelled to listen for hours at a time to the claims of manufacturers of artificial food products that in using their particular articles the consumer was not only getting better quality but was also saving money. They were always protesting against the protective legislation of the state, and were intended to prevent fraud in the sale of those products. They termed such regulations "outrageous and autocratic," and accused the legislative body of the state of "legislating against pure, wholesome and nutritious" food products.

In spite of all such protests, our state law-making bodies and our law-enforcing bodies have continued to strengthen such regulations and to make the line of demarcation between the genuine and the imitation as complete as possible.

We should not lose sight of the fact that butter and oleomargarine have never been, are not and never can be equally "pure, wholesome and nutritious." They are not identical in any particular, except as the manufacturer of oleomargarine in producing his article imitates butter, and this fact alone proves that they are not similar. Leave out those ingredients natural to butter and oleomargarine would neither taste, smell nor look like butter.

Congressman J. M. Nelson of Wisconsin clearly emphasized the foolishness of the claim of the oleomargarine people when he said:

"It is well to remember that Congress cannot repeal or set aside the fundamental facts of nature, of the human nature. Can Congress by law make an artificially painted flower equal to nature's blushing rose? Can Congress by law make water equal to the sea? Can Congress by law turn hungry wolves loose in sheep folds and reasonably expect that they will not destroy the sheep? Can Congress by law make extracts of prey by their natural instincts in daylight rather than darkness? If Congress can do these unreasonable things, if it can defy natural law and common sense, doubtless then it has also the power to make good by law the assertion that oleomargarine, a heterogeneous compound mechanically mixed in a machine, the child of greed and of gain, is the peer of butter as a food, the product of nature prepared in the living organism of the cow—man's best friend from the beginning of earthly privileges, a race of God to man—our mother."—E. K. Slater

BENCH WARRANT FOR POLICE OFFICER

Judge J. J. Whitaker Proposes to Bring Patrolmen Who Make Arrests Promptly on Deck.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

The police department was given a jolt this morning when Judge J. J. Whitaker ordered that bench warrant be issued for the arrest of one of its members, Patrolman James Eckstout, because it appeared that an arrest made in the case of a woman, Eckstout, was the result of a bribe.

Today's Weather Chart for United States

WEATHER FORECAST. For Utah and Salt Lake City: Tonight and Wednesday, generally fair. WEATHER SUMMARY. The temperatures this morning average above normal everywhere except in the extreme northwest. Only a few important showers fell in the Mississippi valley and along the Gulf coast. There has been no decided eastward movement of barometric conditions throughout the country. The northeast storm is now central over Nova Scotia and bathes often. Mr. Hill said it took about three months to perfect his cure. Mr. Hill fixed the medicine for me. He insisted upon the making. I got better right away and it entirely cured me. In 1875 I was a member of the Ladies' Centennial committee. We were desirous of having the lace makers of Utah make specimens of lace for the Centennial. I went to Morgan City, Morgan county, where I found Mrs. Lizette Compton, one of the best and finest lace makers in Utah. She was supposed to be near death. I went to her home and found her had suffered four hemorrhages that day. I went to the president of the Relief Society, Mrs. Janet Hogg, obtained from her some whisky and beef, prepared the medicine and told Mrs. Compton to take it until I returned, as I had to go through Summit county and would be gone several days. Five days after I returned and found her up and making lace. She said there had been no more hemorrhages after she began taking the medicine; neither did she have any after. She was able to attend to her household duties and her lace work. She made some beautiful specimens which we sent to Philadelphia. She died about 10 years ago. I have given the same medicine to three other persons, and in every instance it will be beneficial, and I believe it will be far gone with the disease. Salt Lake. E. J. D. ROUNDY.

Surveys of city lots, mining claims, agricultural lands, irrigation systems, city subdivisions, power plants, etc. Irrigation and Electrical Power a specialty. Place orders now. F. M. Lyman, Jr., 311 Hooper Bldg., City.

THE PIONEERS BOOK

Publishers of the "Pioneers" Book containing the photographs, history and genealogy of the men or their progeny who came to Utah between July 24, 1847, and January 1, 1869, traveling overland the entire distance from Florence to Salt Lake