OCCIDENTALS WIN IN BATTING RALLY

Wyming Champions Fail to Take a Game in Series With Negroes.

The Occidentals batted out a victory against the Diamondville team at Walkerville yesterday afternoon in the seventh inning, winning the second and last game of the series. In the seventh inning, Tony Ouden, who was imported by the Diamondville nine to win the game, went up in the air. He was pounded for three hits which netted three runs with the assistance of four errors and the game ended 4 to 4. Money settled down and the Occidentals and resolved to support from their team than Toner, which won the game.

Robinson started things in the seventh inning by ripping out a two-bagger. Late followed shooting one high into the air in center field. Converse stumbled and fell as he put up his hands to nab it and Converse dropped Robinson. After the fifth inning Money settled down and the Occidentals never had a chance to score.

UTAH COUNTY LEAGUE MAKES FINE FINISH

Payson Wins Pennant and Lehi Jumps Up in Second Place.

Payson won the pennant and Lehi jumped up in second place by defeating Spanish Fork in a double-header. Lenden, the tall-ender in the league, assisted Lehi by defeating Provo. Spanish Fork took fourth place and Springville and Linden were left out of the league.

LINDEN TAKES FINAL GAME.

Provo, Sept. 1.—By a score of 11 to 3 Linden defeated Provo in the closing game of the county league. The game was well attended. Provo went up in the air and Copley was a puzzle to the Garden City players. The batteries were: Copley and Sebastian for Linden, and Hartson and Ellison for Provo.

AGRAZ SENT HOME BY BENEFIT COMMITTEE

Emil Agraz, who was injured by a fall at the Salt Palace saucer track a month ago, was given transportation and sent to his home in California yesterday afternoon by the cyclists' benefit association. Agraz got a puncture while following a motor and rolled to the bottom of the track. He was in the hospital several weeks but the physician advised him to go back home in order to get to a lower altitude and his wife, who is seriously ill at his home, is reported as hoping for his recovery is held out.

New York, Aug. 31.—After holding New York to three hits in eight innings, today Pitcher Farnwell of Cleveland weakened in the ninth and the locals made three more safeties and a run, winning, 3 to 1.

WHITTILER IS STAR AT MOTORDROME

Salt Laker Wins Both Feature Events At a Special Meet at Wandamere.

F. E. Whittiler won everything in sight at the special meet at the Motordrome at Wandamere last night, defeating a fast field in the open professional and running away from Kittle in straight heats of their match race. In the first heat of the match race, Whittiler took the lead but gave him a brush which sent a thrill through the crowd. They rode neck and neck for two laps and then Whittiler pulled away and won by lengths. Kittle looked like the winner of the second heat, being several lengths ahead when he entered the last mile. Whittiler showed his speed and nerve when he dropped down on his machine and started a terrific pace to catch him. In two laps he was hanging close behind Kittle, but when the second went around the outside and won by inches.

PRESIDENT LYNCH WILL SHAKE UP EMPIRES

Cincinnati, Sept. 1.—You may say that next winter I shall revise the list of empires in the National League and put out the dead wood which has been in the staff for the last year, said President Thomas J. Lynch of the National League here last night. He says that the staff was the best he could secure this year, but hopes to have it greatly improved before the next season begins. Members of the national commission are here to conduct the drafting session today.

MAY UNDERGO OPERATION

Pittsburgh, Sept. 1.—Pitcher Christy Mathewson of the New York Nationals may go to the hospital for an operation. His stomach has been out of order for a month and his experts to take a week off in New York to enter a sanitarium. He has been advised by physicians to have an operation performed for "mould breathing." The nasal passages are so constricted that he cannot breathe freely through his nose, making it necessary to breathe through the mouth.

SOX SHUT OUT BOSTON

Boston, Aug. 31.—Walsh shut out Boston, Sept. 1.—You may say that next winter I shall revise the list of empires in the National League and put out the dead wood which has been in the staff for the last year, said President Thomas J. Lynch of the National League here last night.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS ROUT PRIZE FIGHT FANS

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Deputy sheriffs disappointed 500 Chicago and Joliet sports last night by preventing a boxing contest at Leary Grove, 10 miles from Chicago. The principal beneficiary of the boxing fight was to have been Harry Forbes, former bantamweight champion, and a member of the Maybray gang of swindlers, recently convicted of participating in "take prize fight" swindles throughout the country. Forbes, through the aid of several friends who pledged security in the sum of $500, was recently released on bail and returned to this city. The same friends arranged the affair which was scheduled for last evening. The former champion was to have fought six rounds with Frankie Kelly, a West Side bantamweight. Two preliminaries between local lightweight also were scheduled. The fight was to be held at 10:30 p.m. but the crowd dispersed and the fight never took place.
