

HIGH SCHOOL IS FIRST ON FIELD

Red and Black Warriors Don Their Pads of Start Season's Work.

NO COACH YET OBTAINED

Working Under New Rules Without Assistance Is a Handicap, but They Are After Championship.

Football at the high school will be pushed to the limit this season, as the school is expected to set a precedent under the new rules. The season will not open for some time but work will commence as soon as possible, in fact, has commenced to an extent, the boys doing the best they can until a coach is secured.

The school has won the state championship the past two years and the object in view is the championship this year. The past two years the team has been practically the same and the prospects are that this season's eleven will be composed mostly of old players, which makes the outlook for a successful season more bright.

This year the team will without a doubt be much heavier than the past few years, which will be an advantage as the individual players this year will be the gainers, as mass plays are eliminated. The heavy fast man will be in demand and there are several at the high school, who should make good.

The position of coach is open and just who will land the job is not known. The players were positive that "Dad" Conville would again be on hand even though he did complete the university last year. Callahan had counted on Conville, and so had Principal Eaton, but now a new man must be found in a hurry.

Friday at the high school, the boys who will enter into football were given suits as long as they lasted, but it was a certainty that the supply would fall short, as the squad this season will be the largest in the history of the school.

There has been a rule which states that all boys out for athletic teams must hold an athletic association membership, but it has been loosely enforced. The rule will be applied and Friday afternoon every candidate for the team had joined.

The question of eligibility is one which has caused untold trouble at the school, as only strictly eligible students are allowed to play. This year it is very evident that Principal Eaton will live up to his old method of enforcing the rule, as he has been notified that Capt. Yates that several candidates are behind in last year's school work. The boys who must get busy are Frank Wheeling, LeRoy Warthman, Mat Gallagher, George Bardwell, Spencer Brown, and Keeler. All these boys are out training, but unless they make good within a certain time, they will have to turn in their suits.

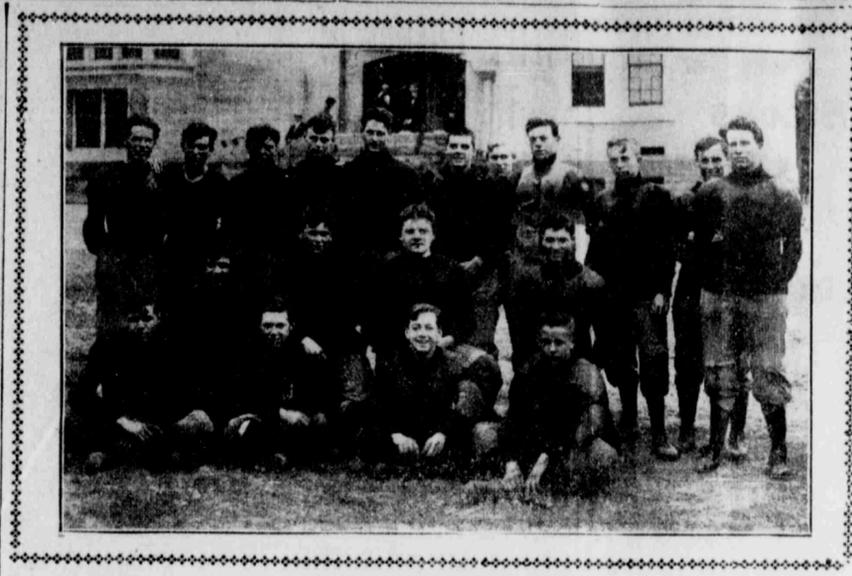

AGGIES' COACH BUSY WITH FOOTBALL TEAM

Coach Teetzel of the A. C. is already at work on his football team for this year, and he is of the opinion that he will have enough of the old men back to constitute a very good nucleus for a strong team. The ration chart in the files of the game will put a good deal of a burden on the coach's shoulders this fall but he is preparing to begin work just as soon as school opens. He has just this season, the first one in Logan Valley in October and the other in Salt Lake, Thanksgiving day. He has a pretty good schedule otherwise.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SQUAD.

Above is a picture of the Red and Black warriors, tried and true, who were furnished suits yesterday and for the first time got out on the field for some early season's work.

Capt. Yates will undoubtedly develop a strong team for the coach, to be selected by Principal Eaton and "Father" Callahan, to start work on. The men in the picture are: Top row, left to right—Crandall,

GOOD SPEED CARD AT THE MOTORDROME

Labor Day Program Includes Some Time Wrecking Events—Samuelson and Whittier.

Motor races, motor record trials and automobiles record trials make up the program for the motordrome on Labor Day night and Monday. J. P. Gunn is out with the statement that the motor fans will see some of the fastest time of the year when the chub wagons get going full speed. F. E. Whittier, the Merkel star, is the man who is going after a few world's records before the Motordrome closes for the year. This track is conceded to be the fastest ever built for motor racing and Whittier will be able to get the record marks against until next season.

Whittier also marked up with T. M. Samuelson. The latter has received a new racing machine during the week and asked that he be given a chance to compete against the Motordrome champion. Manager Gunn put the two men in a five-mile race since Samuelson has the chance he has asked for.

Bert Smalley will have another try at the three mile automobile record. He has set his mark at Monday night but was unable to get up speed enough on account of the cold and three professional races make up a program which Gunn insists will give him enough for the biggest grouch in the city.

FIRST AMATEUR TO WIN OPEN TOURNEY

Charles Evans, Jr., Defeats George Simpson in 36 Hole Final for Western Championship.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Charles Evans, Jr., of the Edgewater Golf club of Chicago, today captured the honor of being the first amateur to win an open tournament in this country. Evans, who is a member of the Beverly Country club, defeated George Simpson, the professional of the La Grange Country club, in a 36-hole match. Evans won by a score of 142 to 145.

Three years ago Simpson won the amateur championship of Scotland, and the match today was a triumph for the young American golfer, who is conceded to be the best amateur in the world. Evans' victory netted him the championship and a $200 prize. He also won $25 in plate for low score in the qualifying round. Simpson received $100, and the semi-finalist Andrew Christie of Rochester, N. Y., and D. E. Sweeney of Chicago, each got $50.

Evans and Simpson played mediocre golf in the morning. Evans made a 74 and Simpson a 76, and the professional 52, the former having a lead of 2 up at the noon hole.

Followed by the biggest gallery that ever has witnessed a western open final, the men played in the afternoon. Evans missed a putt on the first green, and that was the only hole Simpson was able to win in the first nine.

On six successive greens, the professional took only one putt, but so fine was Evans' hole making that these putts only netted the La Grange player halves. Evans took the seventh hole in 18, Simpson in 20. Evans had two shots and an eight-foot putt. A 16-foot putt on the ninth green gave Evans that hole 2-4, and he was 4 up at the twenty-seventh hole. A two at the twelfth and a three at the thirteenth gave Evans a 2 up on Simpson at the end of the morning round. Cards: Evans, out—69; in, 25. Simpson, out, 44; in, 38.

AFTERNOON CARDS. Evans, out—63 5 4 3 5 4 3—35. Simpson, out—63 5 4 3 4 4 4—37. Evans, in—33 2 4 6 5 3—37-74. Simpson, in—33 2 4 4 5 5 2—37-74.

James Barnes defeated Jack Morton of Peoria, Ill., up in the 36-hole final of the consolation flight. Barnes was 1 up in the morning, but the Spokane one shot a 74 in the afternoon to 78 by his opponent.

BRILLIANT PLAYING IN WOMEN'S MATCHES

Miss Williams and Miss Thorne Defeat Mrs. Judge and Mrs. Glendinning In Exhibition Doubles.

Five matches in the women's tennis tournament at the Country club were completed Friday, bringing the lower end of the double chart down to the semi-finals and with it the close of the games scheduled for this afternoon. The single matches were ready for the finals of the doubles. The single matches should be ready for the finals on Monday.

The exhibition between Mrs. Judge and Mrs. Glendinning and Miss Williams and Miss Thorne was easily the feature match yesterday. The cross court smash of Miss Thorne in this series won her many a point for her team.

In the singles one of the matches went the full three sets, the match between Miss Houston and Miss King being one of the closest during the tournament. The games scheduled for today will bring both the doubles and singles down to the finals.

RESULTS. SINGLES. Miss Hutchinson defeated Miss Walker, 6-1, 6-1. Miss Houston defeated Miss King, 6-1, 6-1. Mrs. Keith defeated Miss Hutchinson, 6-1, 6-0.

DOUBLES. Mrs. Keith and Miss Hutchinson defeated Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Roberts, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Thorne and Miss Williams defeated Mrs. Judge and Mrs. Glendinning, 6-3, 6-2.

TODAY'S SCHEDULE. 4 p.m. singles—Mrs. Judge vs. Mrs. Roberts; Mrs. Glendinning vs. Mrs. Stone. 5 p.m.—Miss Thorne vs. Mrs. Callahan. 4 p.m. doubles—Miss King and partner vs. Miss Houston and partner; Mrs. Keith and Miss Hutchinson vs. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Walker.

AIRSHIP FLIGHTS AT THE STATE FAIR

One of Many Free Features of the Great Exposition of Utah's Resources.

A real airship and a flight daily during the exhibition is the promise of the management of the state fair, if the negotiations now under way are successful. President McDonald of the association and the other members of the executive committee decided on the airship some days ago and Seely Knigson has since been endeavoring to land a satisfactory and suitably seasoned airship. He is negotiating with several and expects to be able to secure one of them. It is the intention to make this one of the free features of the fair. In fact, the plan this year is to give practically everything free after the state has been passed. In five years the grandstand has been a great source of revenue but the fair board, with the backing of the state administration, has decided that as the fair is the people's exhibition, it should be made as free as possible in every respect as possible. In consequence a large number of features have been decided which will be given to the open afternoon and evening without charge. There have been few features in past years but in none have so many such things been shown as will be shown this year.

Another act that will please is Uncle Hiram and his educated pig, Uncle Hiram and the pig are probably the best remembered, as they were the most amusing features of the last fair. They are being brought back to the fair and the pig and the pig are probably the best remembered, as they were the most amusing features of the last fair. They are being brought back to the fair and the pig and the pig are probably the best remembered, as they were the most amusing features of the last fair.

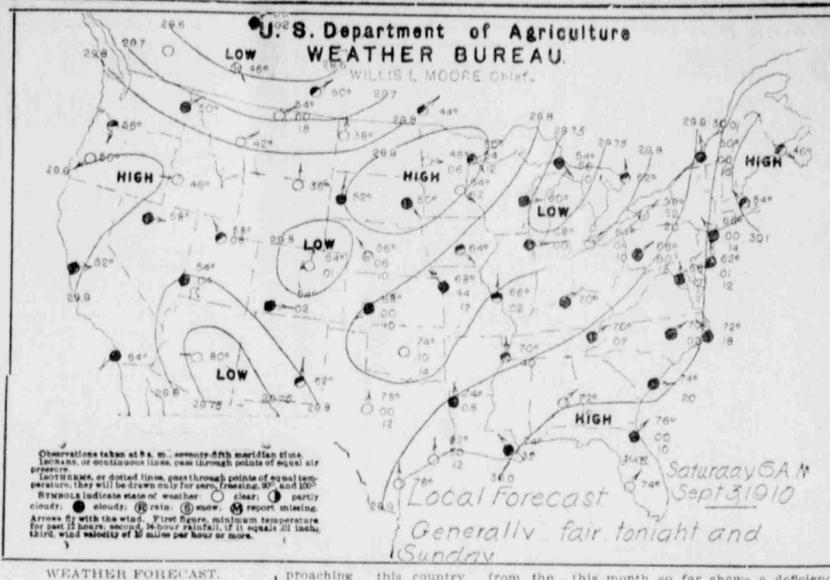

Goods manufactured in Utah, and goods sold in Utah, but manufactured elsewhere, will not be shown in the same building at the state fair this year. President McDonald and the other members of the state fair board decided that the Utah manufacturer was entitled to first consideration at their hands and when they reached the conclusion to limit this building to the makers of Utah products and to provide another building for other manufactured products. This has been done by the utilization of the building formerly used for the kennel exhibits.

Both buildings will be filled with exhibits attractively arranged. In the manufacture building there have been many applications for sections and the probability is every inch will be assigned long before the fair opens. In the "charitable" demonstrating building, which is 74 by 42 feet, half the space has been applied for, so that no doubt remains that this structure also will be filled with creditable exhibits.

NEW INCORPORATIONS

The Utah Casket company, purchaser of the defunct Crescent Manufacturing company, filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk Friday, placing its capital stock at $50,000 in shares of $1 each, of which $10,000 worth is paid up. J. A. Brown is president, A. B. Irvine, vice president; A. N. Rosenbaum, secretary and treasurer; Parley Bills and J. E. Hogan, additional directors. Each holds 2,000 shares of stock.

Today's Weather Chart for United States

DEGREES GIVEN NEGLECTED WIVES

Two Mothers of Large Families Awarded Divorces by Judge Ritchie.

TWO MORE DESERTION SUITS. Anna Lettinger and Harriet W. Hanger Bring Action in the Third District Court.

After listening to 32 delightfully interesting probate cases and wondering if there really is a "divorce" judge, two neglected wives yesterday afternoon finally succeeded in having their cases heard by Judge Ritchie and walking away with interlocutory decrees. Such agonizing waits will soon be done away with, however, for Judge Morse will return to greet the Friday matinee ticket holders himself, and probate matters will be heard at another time.

Eliza F. Wright proved by her daughter's testimony that Luman Wright had not assisted in the support of the nine children for years; in fact, the daughter, Edith, 29 years old, said she could not remember when her father had last given her mother any money. It was so long ago. Mrs. Wright was given an interlocutory decree and $50 for her attorney. The couple were married in George, Utah, Nov. 22, 1881; and Wright is a carpenter earning $4 a day.

Caroline T. Oliver, who married Peter Oliver in Salt Lake City in July, 1900, proved by the testimony of Bishop C. A. Carlson of Poplar Grove that her husband had so failed to support her that she had been compelled to appeal to the ward for aid. She was given an interlocutory decree and $40 a month for the support of the four children.

Anna Lettinger commenced suit for divorce in the district court Friday against Louis Lettinger, charging that he deserted her Nov. 8, 1908. They were married at Sterling, Canada; and Mrs. Lettinger says she believes that her husband is in Lethbridge. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Anna Schuyler any money, if a week, to take the band anyhow for a week, on its prospective trip through to the coast. Ferullo was engaged and he "made good" to the extent that he was engaged for another week.

AT THE RESORTS

Salt Lake—Ferullo's band completes next Monday evening, a three weeks' successful engagement at Salt Lake. The visit of the band is remarkable, not only for the entirely unexpected length of its sojourn, but for the entirely unanticipated excellency of its performance. No one knew anything about the organization beyond the customary press notices in the Denver papers, notices that are generally accepted with alioptic doses of allowance. Manager Langford had heard from sources he had confidence in that Ferullo's band was a straight, "pure food" article, and as Salt Lake was not to be left behind by Lakoon in the matter of musical attractions, he decided to take the band anyhow for a week, on its prospective trip through to the coast. Ferullo was engaged and he "made good" to the extent that he was engaged for another week. The second week was more successful than the first, so much so that Manager Langford concluded to keep the band through the season. Manager Langford of the band was persuaded to cancel the Portland, Ore., and other coast engagements, and Salt Lake has been having a steady feast of military

GERMAN VIOLINIST HERE.

He May be Heard at a Tabernacle Organ Recital. After the regular rehearsal of the tabernacle choir Thursday evening last, Prof. Stephens, Prof. McClellan and others who remained had the pleasure of hearing several violin selections from Herr Anton F. Stechele, who has come to reside in Salt Lake. Herr Stechele's work shows that he is a performer of high merit. He comes highly recommended from Germany, where he was a pupil of his father, who was for years assistant in the Royal Academy of Music in Munich. It is possible that Herr Stechele will be invited to take part in the tabernacle organ recital Saturday next, when the public will have a chance to hear him.

FELLOWSHIP MEETING.

Addresses at Westminster Presbyterian Church by Other Pastors.

The Westminster (Second) Presbyterian church people held a largely attended fellowship meeting Friday night, many members of the other city churches participating. Rev. C. C. McIntyre presided, and made an address of welcome, followed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin of the Phillips church. Mr. Simpkin congratulated pastor and people on the completion of their new church edifice, and Rev. H. G. McNew then spoke on the unity of Christian denominations. Rev. Bishop F. S. Spalding also complimented the second church people on their new church home, located in as desirable a part of the city. He was followed by Rev. J. J. Talbot, of the Methodist mission; the Rev. Samuel H. Collier, of St. Mark's Episcopal church; and the Rev. J. S. Howesman, of the Immanuel Baptist church.
