grims," and I could well jump in ecstasy in "Destruction" (of Gaza).

We were all entirely mesmerized by the singing of this choir.

Pontycyrrid Nat. The Pontycyrrid men were as if over-trained, all robustness was missing.

Llanellay Nat. We were all surprised at the singing of the first choir.

Carnarvon Nat. It is with deep regret that we give the second prize to the best choir in the competition.

I was present at this contest the prize being awarded to the famous Penrhyn Donomic choir who came second.

There is a veritable feast of music in store for those who will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this superb body of vocalists.

High Prices Now Cause Theater Managers to Groan

WHILE the increased cost of the theater itself has largely influenced prices for admission, there are other elements that enter into the matter.

In fact, as has been stated already, every other source of theater supply shows remarkable increases in cost.

Mr. Richards was born in Maesteg, Glamorganshire, and like many other eminent actors of his time, was a self-made man.

His record as a choir leader is an enviable one and yet with all these honors showered on him, is as unassuming and as approachable as ever.
