

JAMES H. MOYLE IS CHAIRMAN Salt Lake Attorney Will Direct State Democratic Campaign.

COMMITTEE HOLDS SESSION Speakers Enthusiastic for Democratic Victory—May Have Daily—Candidates Not Wanting.

James H. Moyle will direct the campaign of the Democratic party in the state during the present campaign. He was chosen chairman of the state Democratic committee at a meeting of the committee held in Mr. Moyle's office last evening.

It was decided to begin an active campaign at once. Mr. Moyle was authorized to select his secretary and committee. The fight will, it is said, center in Salt Lake county, as the committee believes this county to be the pivot on which the state election will turn.

The matter of converting the weekly Times into a daily paper, with telegraph service and a news plant all its own, was discussed at some length by the committee.

Officers for the county convention, which is to be held at Sandy next Friday, will be temporary chairman, Stephen L. Richards, J. M. Hamilton, city assessor, Mahonri Spencer, Taylorsville.

For County Commissioners—Francis McDonald, Cottonwood; J. R. Allen, Draper; George E. Burbidge and L. E. Howell, city.

For the Republican state convention, to be held at Ogden, Monday, Sept. 25, three special trains will be run over the Short Line, Denver & Rio Grande and Salt Lake & Ogden.

LEAVES ONE CELL TO ENTER ANOTHER Prison Gates Yawn for W. E. Daubenspeck, Giving Him Short Liberty.

Sheriff Williams of Delta Greets Him At Penitentiary Gates This Morning.

W. E. Daubenspeck, who was released from the state prison this morning after having served a sentence of one year, enjoyed only one minute of actual liberty.

A little more than a year ago, Daubenspeck was arrested at Delta on a charge of grand larceny. He is said to have stolen a number of steers and horses in that section of the country.

The sheriff of San Juan county, not wanting to take any further chances with his slippery prisoner, brought him into Salt Lake, where he was kept in the county jail until the district court in San Juan county met.

Sheriff Williams carried a requisition from Gov. Shaffroth, which Gov. Spry honored, to a committee, which will return to Colorado tomorrow.

Uniform bounty laws for the western states will be discussed at the annual convention of National Wool Growers' association to be held at Portland, Or., Jan. 4 to 7, and a committee is now taking up the matter and preparing a report to be submitted at the convention.

Reports of serious washouts on the Salt Lake Route come from Minto, Beryl and Milford today. Rain has been falling almost steadily for several days and it is said the road this side of Calliente was put out of service for three hours yesterday.

The event of the day will be the concert to be given this evening at the First Congregational church for the benefit of the reading room for the blind at the public library.

The marriage of Miss Afton Pace and John E. Pace takes place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pace, with Father Ryan performing the ceremony at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel, to W. J. McNaughton, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grant announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Roy L. Northrup of Kansas. The wedding will take place in the near future.

DINNY GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE But the Judge Relents After Explanations Are Duly Made.

He Made This Plain This Morning and Backed Up His Action With The Statutes.

Judge H. J. Dinny, city attorney, walked into a sentence of one day in jail for contempt of court this morning, and as quickly walked out of the sentence of the court by receding from the manner in which he had attempted to block the wheels of justice.

It all happened in the police court, and grew out of the now celebrated case of the City of Salt Lake vs. Patrolman C. W. Pitts. Judge Whitaker again made it plain that he alone, and not the police or the city attorney's office, is presiding over the court.

There was a stir in the courtroom when it was seen that Asst. City Atty. W. S. Dalton was not present when court was convened this morning. Instead Judge Dinny sat in his place.

Then Judge Dinny arose and the air of gloom and portentous happening was broken. In his best voice he prepared himself and delivered the following opinion: "The city attorney's office is not required to furnish a prosecuting officer to try a case from time immemorial, complaints have been issued by the city attorney."

"I made a complaint with and handed it to the clerk of the court who issued the warrant. The city attorney or his assistant has always examined witnesses and then if after the complaint has been filed there is any error it can be corrected on appeal. I deny the right of the court to issue complaints and I have to say that if the court takes the stand it did yesterday the city attorney will withdraw from this court. So far as the arrest of this police officer (meaning Pitts) I take that on myself, for I ordered it on the facts submitted by Mr. Dalton. So far as I am concerned, the police officer is the same as any other citizen. What we want to know now is whether the assistant city attorney is an officer or an office boy of this court. We will not move until such time as this matter is threshed out."

Judge Dinny sat down. Judge Whitaker fingered his pen nervously and looked around. "You are sentenced to one day in the city jail for contempt of this court," quietly said Judge Whitaker. Dinny whitened. The wind was all out of his sails. The spectators gasped. Judge Dinny arose and it was evident from his manner that the bubble had been burst. The court was triumphant.

A long argument followed. Judge Dinny wanted to know by what authority the court had sentenced him. Judge Whitaker referred to chapter 49, section 1825, paragraph 8 of the revised statutes. It reads, under the general heading of contempt: "Misbehavior in office or other wilful neglect or violation of duty by an attorney, counsellor, clerk, sheriff, or other person elected or appointed to perform a judicial or ministerial service," may be in contempt.

The city attorney asked that the sentence be put on the minutes. Judge Whitaker dictated the following to Clerk Canning: "When the case of the city against Virgil McMann was due and regularly called for trial, the city attorney, being present, refused to examine witnesses in said case, said witnesses being called, and refused to prosecute such action. The court admonished said city attorney to proceed with such action and thereupon it got no further. Judge Dinny was done. He had enough, and proceeded to say to the court it was a matter because the city attorney knew nothing about the case in question that the action he had taken earlier had happened. Then the case was continued until tomorrow. The next case of Oscar Richardson, to be held under the same heading and was also laid over until tomorrow. Judge Dinny was contrite and after the Richardson case quietly left the court."

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grant announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Roy L. Northrup of Kansas. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stewart announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Roy L. Northrup of Kansas. The wedding will take place in the near future.

HISTORY OF THE CASE. The entire matter arises over the fact that Judge Whitaker challenges the right of the city attorney to issue warrants until the case is passed upon by the judge. He holds that he has the right to examine witnesses in all cases and satisfy himself that there is good ground for a case before the party is arrested. The city attorney's office holds that this would have the effect of trying a man before the case is brought into court and where the judge examines the witnesses and issues a warrant he presupposes the persons contend they are unfair to the persons charged. It said that the matter would be taken up later by the county attorney. After Judge Dinny walked out of court today Mr. Dalton proposed to examine witnesses and prosecute the cases for the city about which he had personal knowledge.

The affair has tangled the police badly. They went to Mr. Dalton and asked for contents in several cases, this morning, and he said he had no authority as the judge had the matter in hand. Then the court instructed the clerk of the court to issue the writs which the court were the ones over which the fight has been made.

All parties are resting on their arms and wondering what the city attorney's office will do now. Mr. Dalton proposed to examine witnesses and prosecute the cases for the city about which he had personal knowledge.

Verne Elliott, charged with grand larceny, was apprehended in this city yesterday afternoon by Sheriff B. H. Florence of Grand County, and last night was taken to Colorado to stand trial.

Sheriff Joseph Sharp received a telegram several days ago giving a description of Elliott and saying that he was wanted in Colorado. Sheriff Sharp recalled that Elliott was in the city in an hour of Sheriff Florence's arrival yesterday afternoon. Elliott was picked up last night and taken to the county jail. Sheriff Florence did not take the trouble to secure requisition papers and Elliott was whisked away before he had time to think of that means of securing delay.

How would you like to have your marriage announced by a big banner telling of it carried by a man in uniform, followed by a big bass drum beating time, and a man with a megaphone? Well, that is the way that the marriage of Ensign William Lamont, of the Salvation Army located at Idaho Falls, and Capt. Minnie May Handy of the Denver post, was announced. It was a success, too, and they were married at the Salvation army hall by the Rev. A. Marburg, in view of hundreds attracted by the circus tactics.

After the marriage the couple were given a wedding supper by the local members of the Salvation Army. The couple will leave in a few days for Idaho Falls where they will for a time make their home.

Forty-nine years out of his 75 years, L. A. Billings, superintendent of the mailing department of the local post office, has been in the service of Uncle Sam, the last 44 of which have been with the postoffice department, the other five years in army service. Sunday he celebrated his seventh-fifth natal day in a dinner at home with all the members of his family. Just before the crowd sat down to dinner, the one absent member of the family, Mrs. Benjamin M. White of Denver, accompanied by her husband, stepped into the house unexpectedly and enjoyed the feast with the family.

This afternoon witnesses the last performance of the Frontier Days Wild West show at Wandamere. Weather conditions being favorable a large crowd is looked for at the last exhibition of frontier feats which will be shown in Salt Lake this year. All the stars of the cast appeared at the performance yesterday, including bucking feats by Old Steamboat and the riding of the outlaw horse Red Bird by Mrs. St. Clair. The cowboy dance at Wandamere pavilion last evening attracted much attention, the costumes of the cowboys and cowgirls adding color to the scene. The Indians providing a diversion in the dancing by performing war dances peculiar to their tribal customs.

RICHFIELD. SEEGMILLER RETIRES AFTER LONG SERVICE President of Sevier Stake Presents Resignation on Account of Ill Health, to Regret of All.

Richfield, Sept. 19.—After 30 years of efficient and honorable service as president of the Sevier stake, William H. Seegmiller yesterday presented his resignation. The action came at the quarterly conference of the stake, and while it is based on the ground of continued ill-health, and is therefore made necessary, it brought with it universal regret.

President Seegmiller met with an accident some weeks ago, when his team became unmanageable and threw him from his vehicle. He had been in ill health for some time previous, and this aggravated his afflictions. Under these circumstances he has decided to close up his business affairs here and spend the winter in St. George, where it is hoped the mildness of the climate will conduce to his recovery.

Robert D. Young was chosen as successor to President Seegmiller, and J. M. Peterson and John Christensen are his counselors. President Seegmiller has been an unusually faithful worker in stake affairs, and he carries with him the heartfelt good wishes of the people of the stake.

President John Henry Smith and Elder Heber J. Grant of the council of the twelve were present at the conference, and much good instruction was given.

Elders C. W. Penrose and J. W. McMurrin have returned from Parovau having attended the conference recently held there. They report heavy rains in the southern part of the state. They had planned to make the trip from Lund to Cedar City in an automobile, but there was so much rain and mud that it became necessary to dig the motor car out of the mud and haul it to town. They traveled to their destination in a spring wagon.

The funeral of Samuel H. Bennion, who was killed at the Garfield smelter Sunday afternoon, will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, from the Taylorville ward meetinghouse. Interment will take place in the city cemetery.

CLARK.—In this city, Sept. 19, 1910, Daisy Watson Clark, aged 23 years, 375 Eighth East. The deceased leaves a husband, W. J. Clark, and a son, 7 years of age. The funeral was held today at the general chapel of Eber W. Hall, 16 south West Temple street. Interment Mt. Olivet.
