HEAVY DAMAGE SUIT IN DISTRICT COURT

Anna Stewart Asks for $6,000 for Injuries Sustained in Railway Accident.

Ogden, Sept. 21.—The damage suit of Anna Stewart against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company is now being heard before Judge J. A. Howell and a jury in the district court. Mrs. Stewart claims to have been injured in a collision in the Ogden yards on Feb. 5, last, while riding as a passenger in the Malad motor car. The plaintiff is unable to speak the English language and much time is consumed by reason of having to take testimony through an interpreter. Mrs. Stewart acknowledged the witness stand that she did not complain of her injuries at the hospital, where she went with Miss Mary C. Jepperson, who was a fellow passenger, and who was a fellow judgment in the sum of $3,000 last week on a similar complaint. Mrs. Stewart signed a paper soon after the accident releasing the railroad company from all obligation, receiving therefor a draft for $20. She is now suing to recover $6,000 damages.

OGDEN GREAT CENTER. SHEEP AND CATTLE

Ogden, Sept. 21.—In an interview given out yesterday, Assistant Forester Homer Fenn of the grazing department of the forest service, states that Ogden is the natural center of the greatest cattle and sheep raising district in the United States and that some day this city would be the equal of Omaha, Kansas and other central state points as a packing center. Mr. Fenn stated that there are 7,000,000 head of sheep and 450,000 head of cattle grazing in the national forest reserves of Ogden. Ogden is bound to control and lead the immense industry, in addition to the thousands of cattle and sheep raised on private ranges.

PREPARATIONS FOR FAIR.

Ogden, Sept. 21.—Lavish preparations are being made for the opening of the Inter-Mountain Four State fair Friday morning, and both at the fair grounds and in the business section of the city all is bustle and activity. Exhibits are rapidly being placed in position and with few exceptions everything will be in readiness by Friday. Hundreds of blooded sheep from all parts of the United States and Canada are being shipped into the city and Chairman Herrington of the international sheep show declares that it will be the greatest display of blooded sheep ever seen on the American continent. An urgent request is being sent out by the committee having charge of the entertainment of visitors in Ogden during the week of the fair, the international sheep show and the good roads convention, for all visitors who have a spare room to rent to communicate with Ian Ensign, chairman of the committee, so that no guest of the city will be compelled to walk the streets at night. The city will be well filled and hotel accommodations will be taxed to the utmost during the greater part of the week, from Sept. 23 to 29.

DIED AT ELY.

Ogden, Sept. 21.—Harry F. Poyer, age 32 years, died at Ely, Nev., Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, following an illness of four weeks with typhoid fever. Solos were rendered by J. Van Sweden, Dora Dean, Leona Brown, Pauline Maddock and Myrtle Leavitt.

OGDEN BRIEFS.

Hudson avenue is destined to be a real business thoroughfare within 90 days, with cement sidewalks and curbs and a large drainage system. Under the direction of J. A. Bigger, foreman of the P. J. Moran Contracting company, the work on sewer laying has been started and every available man will be put to work on digging ditches.

By Sept. 27, complete plans and specifications for the Coldwater canyon conduit will be ready for the contractor and the city will advertise for bids. Several tunnels will be built through the cliffs for the big pipe, this being considered more satisfactory than attempting to construct trestle work around the great rocky projections.

Chas. E. Lovling and Mrs. Bertha Josephine Smith, both of Pocatello, Idaho, have been granted a marriage license by County Clerk Dye.

An examination of elevator operators will be held before the United States civil service commission here on Oct. 1. An operator is desired for the federal building here.

FARMINGTON.

RELIGION CLASS CONVENTION HELD IN DAVIS STAKE

(Special Correspondence.)
Farmington, Sept. 20.—The convention of Religion classes of the Davis stake of Zion, which was held yesterday in beautiful, was very successful in every respect. Three sessions were held, and each was largely attended. The presidency of the stake was present, also members of the high council, and several bishops and counselors. At the morning session, Supt. Wilcox read the statistical report, which showed that there are over 1,200 children enrolled in the Religion classes in the stake. The president of the stake was very gratifying and the outlook for the present is exceedingly encouraging. Elder William A. Morton and James King of the general board were present. The former explained very clearly the nature and use of the new outlines, and at the afternoon meeting Elder King delivered an excellent address to parents and spoke of the solemnly cards which have been gotten out for Maeser day exercises. In the evening the meetinghouse was filled with an interested audience. Elder King told of the great benefit the Religion classes have been to the youth of Zion, and what it was expected they would accomplish in the future. President Grant said the organization has the united support of the stake presidency and of the bishops and counselors. He had seen good results of the Religion classes in the different wards in Davis stake. Exhibits were shown to get their children to attend the classes the coming season. Elder Morton spoke of the gospel of doing, and showed parents the great responsibility which rests upon them of having their children taught in the faith of their fathers. The singing by the children and also by the choir added greatly to the interest and enjoyment of the convention.

We Must Move OUR PIANOS

Can We Send One to YOUR Home?
$10 IS ALL THAT IS REQUIRED— YOU CAN PAY THE BALANCE AT $5, $6, $7 to $10 Monthly

On October 3, the workmen will take charge of our building and begin at once the complete overhauling and remodeling of same, details of which have been published heretofore. It is needless to state that we must dispose of every instrument before that time. We are going to place these pianos in the homes of the people, preferring to do this even at the sacrifice of every dollar of profit and more, (many of the pianos being marked down to even less than actual cost) rather than take chances on damage while work is going on.

Store Is Open Evenings Until 8:15

Come and select a piano. Just bring a $10 bill with you. That is all that is required. It will send the piano home. And you can pay for it on any reasonable terms you name.
