

EVA SWAN'S NURSE MAKES CONFESSION

Marie Messerschmidt Says Her Death Was Due to Operation Performed by Dr. Grant.

WAS ALONE WHEN SHE DIED

San Francisco, Sept. 25.—After two days and nights of silence, Marie Messerschmidt, the nurse held in detinue Friday night in connection with the death of Eva Swan, following the finding of the girl's body beneath the cement flooring of the basement of a vacant house, confessed to the police today that she had knowledge of the operation performed by Dr. James Grant upon Miss Swan and that she attended the girl after the operation.

GRANT FACES NURSE

Following the confession, Dr. Grant was led from his cell and brought into the desk sergeant's office, where Miss Messerschmidt was seated. At sight of his nurse, Dr. Grant broke away from the jailers and ran along the corridors. He was chased by policemen and forcibly returned to the office. He staggered and almost sank to the floor when he learned of the nurse's confession.

THE CONFESSION

My name is Marie Messerschmidt, and I live at 1235 Golden Gate avenue. On Saturday evening, April 16, 1910, Eva Swan of 2040 Scott street was operated on by Dr. Robert Thompson, known as Dr. Grant, and came back the next day, Sunday, the 17th, for further treatment. She then left and came back on April 20 and complained of pains and was put to bed by me and I waited on her as nurse. Miss Swan died about 10 days later and was put into Dr. Grant's trunk. (Dr. Grant) first saying the legs off at the ankles so that he might crush the body into the trunk.

CHILDREN IN THE HOME

The highest type of happiness is reached by having children in the home, but the coming of the little ones is often attended with apprehension and dread. Mother's Friend is prepared by the expectant mother in preparation of the ordeal, carries her through the crisis with safety.

TUMOR OF YEARS GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Holly Springs, Miss.—"Words are inadequate for me to express what your wonderful medicines have done for me. The doctors said I had a tumor, and I had an operation, but was soon as bad again as ever. I wrote you for advice, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you told me to do. I am glad to say that now I look and feel so well that my friends keep asking me what has helped me so much, and I gladly recommend your Vegetable Compound."
