

REPUBLICANS NAME A COUNTY TICKET

Trio Who Brought About Suit Against Commissioners Defeated.

FIGHTS THROUGHOUT SESSION

Debate Was Sharp and Contests Spirited—Carlson and Burton for Commissioners—Wiley for Attorney.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

- Commissioner (long term)—O. W. Carlson. Commissioner (short term)—W. J. Burton. Clerk—Mrs. Margaret Zane Wittcher. Sheriff—Joseph C. Sharp. Recorder—Fred Jaques. Assessor—Amos J. Gabbott. Auditor—C. Roseve Vignus. Treasurer—Fred C. Bassett. Attorney—E. H. Wiley. Surveyor—H. Allen Gardner. State Senate—W. N. Williams and Benner N. Smith. Representatives—T. L. Holman, C. C. Crapo, W. H. Tobias, J. A. Ekman, Frank L. Hines, L. Dahlquist, Harry B. Cole, Daniel McRae, E. J. Hardley, Claude Y. Russell.

The Republican county ticket, the last in the field, was nominated Monday afternoon and evening in a convention at the Salt Lake theater which was filled with surprises, inclusive debates and fierce open struggles. The contests for nominations came at the evening session when County Treasurer J. A. Groesbeck, County Auditor Heginbotham and County Attorney Fred B. Porter were defeated for re-nomination. These three men were the officials who were instrumental in instituting suit against the county commissioners to annul a contract entered into for the publication of the delinquent tax lists at what was regarded as an excessive cost. While this resulted in opposition to the candidates of Groesbeck and Heginbotham, the suit was also opposed because they had already had two terms. The floor was also opposed on the floor because he had served as a deputy and had one term as county attorney. Groesbeck waged the closest fight for nomination, the final vote being 286 1/2 for Fred C. Bassett, deputy county clerk, and 232 for Groesbeck, the chair. The nomination of Bassett questioned the nomination of Groesbeck on the ballot because he did not have a majority of votes cast, and an exception to the ruling was taken. The nomination of Groesbeck was declared the nominee. It was not until the ballots were being cast from the county delegates that Bassett jumped into the lead which he maintained by a narrow margin. In the first precinct, Bassett led and in the second the candidates were about even. Groesbeck forged ahead in the third and fourth precincts. Bassett captured the fifth precinct delegation by a narrow margin and then the county landed him on the ticket.

VIGUS IS VICTOR.

Roscoe C. Vignus, who was a deputy under County Auditor Frank Heginbotham, defeated his chief by a large majority, the vote being 397 to 150. Heginbotham was recently read out of his party for failing to pay his assessment of $100 for county expenses. The nomination for county attorney brought out four candidates. They were E. H. Wiley, who was nominated, Fred B. Porter, who was defeated, Robert B. Porter, in the beginning of the struggle, Mose C. Davis, who was a candidate, withdrew and threw his support to Wiley on the promise of a deputyship in the office of county attorney. The vote stood as follows: Wiley 256, Lyon 254, Kinney 5, Porter 5.

MRS. KARTH DOES NOT WANT TO TESTIFY

Mrs. Eva Karth, wife of Melvin Karth, the man who tried to commit suicide in the county jail several days ago, where he was in duress for trying to shoot Mrs. Karth last June, came here from Nebraska to testify against her husband; then decided not to, and Judge Whitaker today ordered her to appear in court to testify. She refused to present at the trial of Karth. She was held in a $250 bond. Later the judge ruled when Mrs. Karth with her sister, Mrs. Hiland Karth, went into his chambers and indulged in a tearful session with his honor. Mrs. Karth's weeping could be heard through the door and out in the courtroom. Judge Whitaker could not withstand the tears and released the bond to a cash one of $75. Even this did not stop the flow of tears, and Mrs. Karth was still weeping when her bond was furnished and she left the custody of the officers.

ALBANI AT THE MISSION.

This evening, Albini, the "Master Magician," opens an engagement of three nights, with matinees on Wednesday and Thursday. He comes heralded by the most glowing press notices and he promises an exceedingly interesting entertainment. During his engagement here he will expose the mysteries of so called mediums, and will also explain how the leading magicians have performed their tricks. He will give a new performance each evening and if what he claims is true there will be something doing all the time. He is a leading feature of the Sullivan and Conklin show, which has gained such popularity at the Mission last winter.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Twenty-eighth Ward—A farewell entertainment will be given in the Twenty-eighth ward chapel, Third North, between Sixth and Seventh West, in honor of Elder Henry R. Cowburn, prior to his departure to the Netherlands as a missionary. The following will participate in the program of the evening: Twenty-eighth ward choir, Miss Inez E. Bull, G. E. Beck, Fredrick Rees, R. Cowburn, D. Olson, A. R. Poulton, A. F. Poulton, Mrs. Perkins, John Robinson, Miss Inez Bull, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Inez E. Bull, Miss Inez E. Bull, Accompanist, Miss Inez E. Bull.

MAJOR FINDS HE LACKED SUPPORT

Move to Oust Dalton Fails to Materialize After Count of Noses.

DININNY READY FOR FIGHT

Had a Reply Framed to Judge Whitaker's Charges, but It Was Not Read to the Council.

It was not the fault of Mayor John S. Bransford, Chief of Police S. M. Barlow and several sympathetic members of the city council that Mayor Dalton, second assistant city prosecutor, was not made the scapegoat of a compromise between City Attorney Dininny and the police department by having his official neck cut off at the meeting of the council last night. When the mayor and members of the council favoring the creation of the office of special police court prosecutor counted noses they found that they were not strong enough to go into the fight with even a good chance of winning.

Most of the business of the council at the session last night was transacted with only a majority of the members present in their chairs at one time. Others were engaged in the work of "caucusing" on the proposed change in the duties of the city attorney's office. The feyerish anxiety of those who would offer up W. E. Dalton as the sacrifice came to naught, for it was soon apparent that the advocates of the special prosecutor idea were in the minority. It is said that the mayor can count on only a few council members to support him in the segregation plan. From indications it seems that Belle London and her party, which have received a job from which it will take about a week to recover. The next meeting of the council will be held Thursday night, but there is little chance that the mayor and the anti-Dalton party will succeed by that time in "persuading" enough "American" party councilmen to assure the passage of an ordinance creating the office of special prosecutor. If the matter again comes up it will not be before Monday night.

PUBLIC UTILITIES PLANK

Later in the afternoon when the plank was presented, George M. Price, chairman of the public utility plank which met with decided opposition because it was turned down by the state Republican convention. After some heated argument it was adopted by a vote of 209 yeas to 251 nays. A. W. Woodruff, Willard Hanson and S. H. Love, spoke in favor of the adoption of the plank. D. O. Rideout, H. S. Joseph, Jake Greenwood, E. J. Cole, made speeches in opposition to it. P. P. Christensen proposed a direct primary plank, which he also introduced at the state convention at Ogden, and was again defeated. He made an impassioned plea for the adoption of the plank and pledging the delegates to the legislature to enact such a bill. A. B. Irvine also spoke in favor of the direct primary plank. W. H. McKenna and Jake Greenwood opposed it. When the vote was taken the amendment was rejected by a vote of 214 yeas to 201 nays.

FOREST RANGER EXAMS.

There will be civil service examinations in this city Oct. 24-25 for candidates for admission to the forest service. The examination is for 400 men during the field season of 1911, assistant forest rangers being paid an entrance salary of $1,100. Examinations will be held in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming. No examinations will be held in Arkansas, Missouri, New York and Utah, the headquarters of the Kalbath national forest.

MRS. KARTH DOES NOT WANT TO TESTIFY

Mrs. Eva Karth, wife of Melvin Karth, the man who tried to commit suicide in the county jail several days ago, where he was in duress for trying to shoot Mrs. Karth last June, came here from Nebraska to testify against her husband; then decided not to, and Judge Whitaker today ordered her to appear in court to testify. She refused to present at the trial of Karth. She was held in a $250 bond. Later the judge ruled when Mrs. Karth with her sister, Mrs. Hiland Karth, went into his chambers and indulged in a tearful session with his honor. Mrs. Karth's weeping could be heard through the door and out in the courtroom. Judge Whitaker could not withstand the tears and released the bond to a cash one of $75. Even this did not stop the flow of tears, and Mrs. Karth was still weeping when her bond was furnished and she left the custody of the officers.

ALBANI AT THE MISSION.

This evening, Albini, the "Master Magician," opens an engagement of three nights, with matinees on Wednesday and Thursday. He comes heralded by the most glowing press notices and he promises an exceedingly interesting entertainment. During his engagement here he will expose the mysteries of so called mediums, and will also explain how the leading magicians have performed their tricks. He will give a new performance each evening and if what he claims is true there will be something doing all the time. He is a leading feature of the Sullivan and Conklin show, which has gained such popularity at the Mission last winter.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Twenty-eighth Ward—A farewell entertainment will be given in the Twenty-eighth ward chapel, Third North, between Sixth and Seventh West, in honor of Elder Henry R. Cowburn, prior to his departure to the Netherlands as a missionary. The following will participate in the program of the evening: Twenty-eighth ward choir, Miss Inez E. Bull, G. E. Beck, Fredrick Rees, R. Cowburn, D. Olson, A. R. Poulton, A. F. Poulton, Mrs. Perkins, John Robinson, Miss Inez Bull, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Inez E. Bull, Miss Inez E. Bull, Accompanist, Miss Inez E. Bull.

RETAIL MERCHANTS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Sixth Yearly Convention Starts Tomorrow Morning With Excellent Program and Papers.

Move to Oust Dalton Fails to Materialize After Count of Noses.

It was not the fault of Mayor John S. Bransford, Chief of Police S. M. Barlow and several sympathetic members of the city council that Mayor Dalton, second assistant city prosecutor, was not made the scapegoat of a compromise between City Attorney Dininny and the police department by having his official neck cut off at the meeting of the council last night. When the mayor and members of the council favoring the creation of the office of special police court prosecutor counted noses they found that they were not strong enough to go into the fight with even a good chance of winning.

Most of the business of the council at the session last night was transacted with only a majority of the members present in their chairs at one time. Others were engaged in the work of "caucusing" on the proposed change in the duties of the city attorney's office. The feyerish anxiety of those who would offer up W. E. Dalton as the sacrifice came to naught, for it was soon apparent that the advocates of the special prosecutor idea were in the minority. It is said that the mayor can count on only a few council members to support him in the segregation plan. From indications it seems that Belle London and her party, which have received a job from which it will take about a week to recover. The next meeting of the council will be held Thursday night, but there is little chance that the mayor and the anti-Dalton party will succeed by that time in "persuading" enough "American" party councilmen to assure the passage of an ordinance creating the office of special prosecutor. If the matter again comes up it will not be before Monday night.

Later in the afternoon when the plank was presented, George M. Price, chairman of the public utility plank which met with decided opposition because it was turned down by the state Republican convention. After some heated argument it was adopted by a vote of 209 yeas to 251 nays. A. W. Woodruff, Willard Hanson and S. H. Love, spoke in favor of the adoption of the plank. D. O. Rideout, H. S. Joseph, Jake Greenwood, E. J. Cole, made speeches in opposition to it. P. P. Christensen proposed a direct primary plank, which he also introduced at the state convention at Ogden, and was again defeated. He made an impassioned plea for the adoption of the plank and pledging the delegates to the legislature to enact such a bill. A. B. Irvine also spoke in favor of the direct primary plank. W. H. McKenna and Jake Greenwood opposed it. When the vote was taken the amendment was rejected by a vote of 214 yeas to 201 nays.

FOREST RANGER EXAMS.

There will be civil service examinations in this city Oct. 24-25 for candidates for admission to the forest service. The examination is for 400 men during the field season of 1911, assistant forest rangers being paid an entrance salary of $1,100. Examinations will be held in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming. No examinations will be held in Arkansas, Missouri, New York and Utah, the headquarters of the Kalbath national forest.

MRS. KARTH DOES NOT WANT TO TESTIFY

Mrs. Eva Karth, wife of Melvin Karth, the man who tried to commit suicide in the county jail several days ago, where he was in duress for trying to shoot Mrs. Karth last June, came here from Nebraska to testify against her husband; then decided not to, and Judge Whitaker today ordered her to appear in court to testify. She refused to present at the trial of Karth. She was held in a $250 bond. Later the judge ruled when Mrs. Karth with her sister, Mrs. Hiland Karth, went into his chambers and indulged in a tearful session with his honor. Mrs. Karth's weeping could be heard through the door and out in the courtroom. Judge Whitaker could not withstand the tears and released the bond to a cash one of $75. Even this did not stop the flow of tears, and Mrs. Karth was still weeping when her bond was furnished and she left the custody of the officers.

ALBANI AT THE MISSION.

This evening, Albini, the "Master Magician," opens an engagement of three nights, with matinees on Wednesday and Thursday. He comes heralded by the most glowing press notices and he promises an exceedingly interesting entertainment. During his engagement here he will expose the mysteries of so called mediums, and will also explain how the leading magicians have performed their tricks. He will give a new performance each evening and if what he claims is true there will be something doing all the time. He is a leading feature of the Sullivan and Conklin show, which has gained such popularity at the Mission last winter.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Twenty-eighth Ward—A farewell entertainment will be given in the Twenty-eighth ward chapel, Third North, between Sixth and Seventh West, in honor of Elder Henry R. Cowburn, prior to his departure to the Netherlands as a missionary. The following will participate in the program of the evening: Twenty-eighth ward choir, Miss Inez E. Bull, G. E. Beck, Fredrick Rees, R. Cowburn, D. Olson, A. R. Poulton, A. F. Poulton, Mrs. Perkins, John Robinson, Miss Inez Bull, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Inez E. Bull, Miss Inez E. Bull, Accompanist, Miss Inez E. Bull.

RETAIL MERCHANTS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Sixth Yearly Convention Starts Tomorrow Morning With Excellent Program and Papers.

Move to Oust Dalton Fails to Materialize After Count of Noses.

It was not the fault of Mayor John S. Bransford, Chief of Police S. M. Barlow and several sympathetic members of the city council that Mayor Dalton, second assistant city prosecutor, was not made the scapegoat of a compromise between City Attorney Dininny and the police department by having his official neck cut off at the meeting of the council last night. When the mayor and members of the council favoring the creation of the office of special police court prosecutor counted noses they found that they were not strong enough to go into the fight with even a good chance of winning.

Most of the business of the council at the session last night was transacted with only a majority of the members present in their chairs at one time. Others were engaged in the work of "caucusing" on the proposed change in the duties of the city attorney's office. The feyerish anxiety of those who would offer up W. E. Dalton as the sacrifice came to naught, for it was soon apparent that the advocates of the special prosecutor idea were in the minority. It is said that the mayor can count on only a few council members to support him in the segregation plan. From indications it seems that Belle London and her party, which have received a job from which it will take about a week to recover. The next meeting of the council will be held Thursday night, but there is little chance that the mayor and the anti-Dalton party will succeed by that time in "persuading" enough "American" party councilmen to assure the passage of an ordinance creating the office of special prosecutor. If the matter again comes up it will not be before Monday night.

Later in the afternoon when the plank was presented, George M. Price, chairman of the public utility plank which met with decided opposition because it was turned down by the state Republican convention. After some heated argument it was adopted by a vote of 209 yeas to 251 nays. A. W. Woodruff, Willard Hanson and S. H. Love, spoke in favor of the adoption of the plank. D. O. Rideout, H. S. Joseph, Jake Greenwood, E. J. Cole, made speeches in opposition to it. P. P. Christensen proposed a direct primary plank, which he also introduced at the state convention at Ogden, and was again defeated. He made an impassioned plea for the adoption of the plank and pledging the delegates to the legislature to enact such a bill. A. B. Irvine also spoke in favor of the direct primary plank. W. H. McKenna and Jake Greenwood opposed it. When the vote was taken the amendment was rejected by a vote of 214 yeas to 201 nays.

FOREST RANGER EXAMS.

There will be civil service examinations in this city Oct. 24-25 for candidates for admission to the forest service. The examination is for 400 men during the field season of 1911, assistant forest rangers being paid an entrance salary of $1,100. Examinations will be held in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming. No examinations will be held in Arkansas, Missouri, New York and Utah, the headquarters of the Kalbath national forest.

MRS. KARTH DOES NOT WANT TO TESTIFY

Mrs. Eva Karth, wife of Melvin Karth, the man who tried to commit suicide in the county jail several days ago, where he was in duress for trying to shoot Mrs. Karth last June, came here from Nebraska to testify against her husband; then decided not to, and Judge Whitaker today ordered her to appear in court to testify. She refused to present at the trial of Karth. She was held in a $250 bond. Later the judge ruled when Mrs. Karth with her sister, Mrs. Hiland Karth, went into his chambers and indulged in a tearful session with his honor. Mrs. Karth's weeping could be heard through the door and out in the courtroom. Judge Whitaker could not withstand the tears and released the bond to a cash one of $75. Even this did not stop the flow of tears, and Mrs. Karth was still weeping when her bond was furnished and she left the custody of the officers.

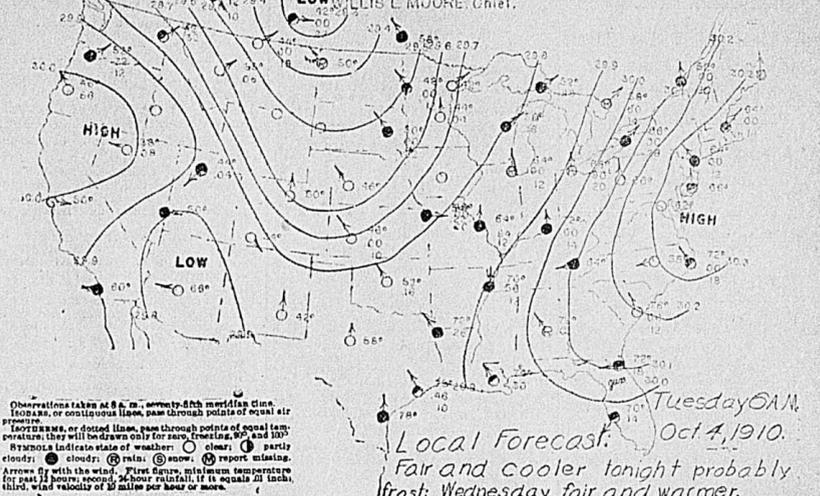

ALBANI AT THE MISSION.

This evening, Albini, the "Master Magician," opens an engagement of three nights, with matinees on Wednesday and Thursday. He comes heralded by the most glowing press notices and he promises an exceedingly interesting entertainment. During his engagement here he will expose the mysteries of so called mediums, and will also explain how the leading magicians have performed their tricks. He will give a new performance each evening and if what he claims is true there will be something doing all the time. He is a leading feature of the Sullivan and Conklin show, which has gained such popularity at the Mission last winter.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Twenty-eighth Ward—A farewell entertainment will be given in the Twenty-eighth ward chapel, Third North, between Sixth and Seventh West, in honor of Elder Henry R. Cowburn, prior to his departure to the Netherlands as a missionary. The following will participate in the program of the evening: Twenty-eighth ward choir, Miss Inez E. Bull, G. E. Beck, Fredrick Rees, R. Cowburn, D. Olson, A. R. Poulton, A. F. Poulton, Mrs. Perkins, John Robinson, Miss Inez Bull, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Inez E. Bull, Miss Inez E. Bull, Accompanist, Miss Inez E. Bull.

Today's Weather Chart for United States

For Salt Lake City and Utah: Fair and cooler tonight with probable frost; Wednesday, fair and warmer. The temperatures are above normal everywhere except in the Great Basin, where they are somewhat below normal. The high pressure area in the extreme east has moved farther out to sea, and with the falling pressure the temperatures have risen. The low in the northwest has moved to the south-east and spread rapidly over the Rocky Mountain region and Mississippi valley, attended by warmer weather generally, except in the Great Basin. The center of this low is now over northern Montana and the adjacent Canadian territory and the center of the Pacific coast high lies over Oregon. This condition represents the exact distribution to cause a chinook so famous in the west. During the past 24 hours rain fell in the northwest, and at some stations in the south and along the lakes. The pressure will rise attended by fair and cooler weather tonight with probably frost; Wednesday will be fair and warmer.

For Salt Lake City and Utah: Fair and cooler tonight with probable frost; Wednesday, fair and warmer. The temperatures are above normal everywhere except in the Great Basin, where they are somewhat below normal. The high pressure area in the extreme east has moved farther out to sea, and with the falling pressure the temperatures have risen. The low in the northwest has moved to the south-east and spread rapidly over the Rocky Mountain region and Mississippi valley, attended by warmer weather generally, except in the Great Basin. The center of this low is now over northern Montana and the adjacent Canadian territory and the center of the Pacific coast high lies over Oregon. This condition represents the exact distribution to cause a chinook so famous in the west. During the past 24 hours rain fell in the northwest, and at some stations in the south and along the lakes. The pressure will rise attended by fair and cooler weather tonight with probably frost; Wednesday will be fair and warmer.

For Salt Lake City and Utah: Fair and cooler tonight with probable frost; Wednesday, fair and warmer. The temperatures are above normal everywhere except in the Great Basin, where they are somewhat below normal. The high pressure area in the extreme east has moved farther out to sea, and with the falling pressure the temperatures have risen. The low in the northwest has moved to the south-east and spread rapidly over the Rocky Mountain region and Mississippi valley, attended by warmer weather generally, except in the Great Basin. The center of this low is now over northern Montana and the adjacent Canadian territory and the center of the Pacific coast high lies over Oregon. This condition represents the exact distribution to cause a chinook so famous in the west. During the past 24 hours rain fell in the northwest, and at some stations in the south and along the lakes. The pressure will rise attended by fair and cooler weather tonight with probably frost; Wednesday will be fair and warmer.

H. J. DININNY SEEKS WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Duty of District Court to Review All Proceedings in the Famous Contempt Case.

Embittered at the action of Police Judge Whitaker in forbidding him or his assistant to prosecute cases in the criminal division of the city court and in appointing others to do the work instead, City Attorney H. J. Dininny, through his assistant, E. J. Daly, has applied to Judge Armstrong of the district court and had a writ of certiorari granted. By this writ it will be the duty of the district court to review all of the proceedings in the contempt case against Mr. Dininny and to investigate by what authority Judge Whitaker forbids the city attorney to fulfill his duty of public prosecutor in police cases. Application for the writ was made first to the supreme court, but after some time that tribunal decided that under the circumstances it should not assume jurisdiction because Mr. Dininny's application was a writ of certiorari to restrain Judge Whitaker from proceeding in the contempt matter is now under advisement. In Judge Morse's court, Judge Morse being absent, an appeal can, however, be taken to the supreme court.

DESERVED, SHE SUES.

Left penniless with her little child, Ida M. Bigler has filed suit for divorce against Henry R. Bigler on the ground of non-support. She asks for the custody of the child and $30 a month. They were married at Washington Court house, Oct. 3, 1908, and Bigler deserted her on the eve of 1909, Mrs. Bigler says.

TWO SUITS FOR DAMAGES.

Street car accidents resulted in two suits for damages to the amount of $1,000. The first suit was filed Monday. Mrs. Ida Culp alleges that on Aug. 18 she alighted from a car at the corner of Main and North Temple street and received injuries to the extent of $1,000, and to investigate says that on Sept. 17, when leaving a Sugar House car on State street she was injured to a like amount. The Utah Light & Railway company is defendant in both cases.

COURT SESSIONS CHANGED.

Monday the police court will go into winter-quarters. That is, the usual winter custom of hearing the state cases in the morning session of the court, Judge Whitaker has announced this morning in court.

CITY WILL APPEAL.

Notice in East Jordan Irrigation Litigation Is Filed. Salt Lake City has filed notice of appeal in the case against the East Jordan Irrigation company, in which the defendant was awarded some time ago $75,000 damages. The city corporation brought suit in the district court to condemn the canal of the East Jordan Irrigation company, in order that this canal might be used to carry to the city water which had been acquired by trade with another irrigation company. The city claimed 184 second feet of the water of Utah lake, flowing through the Jordan river, and by agreement a big Cottonwood company consented to give mountain water in equal amount for the lake water. The city thought that the damages awarded in the case were excessive and the appeal is the result.

SCAFFOLD WAS DEFECTIVE.

Lee Elliott, a laborer, employed in August on the Lillard building, corner Main and Fourth South streets, has filed an action in the district court against Frank Doran, contractor, for $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained as a result of injuries caused by a fall from the defective scaffolding. Elliott says that while working on the Lillard building on Aug. 11, 1910, he fell through a defective scaffolding to a distance of six feet and so injured his ankle that he was confined to his bed for five weeks. In addition to the $5,000 damages, he asks for attorney's fees and costs of suit.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Today, the Salt Lake County Medical society entertained the ladies of membership in an afternoon session at the Commercial club, after which an auto trip about the city was enjoyed. At the Commercial club, covers were laid for about 35, and the decorations were chiefly in pink dahlias and ferns. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Fred Stauffer, Mrs. L. W. Snow, Mrs. J. S. Bransford, Mrs. Belle A. Gemmill, Dr. Elsie A. Faust, Mrs. J. T. Critchlow, Mrs. P. S. Keogh, Mrs. J. Heston, Mrs. A. A. Kerr and Mrs. H. N. Mayo.

A social as well as musical affair of interest tonight will be the concert to be given at the Salt Lake theater by the gifted pianist, Francis Woodman-see, assisted by Miss Florence Jepperson, vocalist. The boxes being engaged for a half dozen well known society people and other seats in the parquet and logs also being taken by parties of friends and admirers of the young musician.

Miss Merle Lynch, an autumn bride, is guest of honor this afternoon at an Organum party given by Miss Francis McChrystal.

Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes are welcomed back to the city after a long absence in California, spent partly at Pasadena, Venice, and other points on the coast.

Mrs. William A. Wetzel will give a parcel shower on Friday night at her apartment at 79 north State street, in honor of two brides, Miss Ethel Smith and Miss Gail Mills, and also members of the church choir which is under Mrs. Wetzel's direction.

Mrs. T. G. Webber and Miss Webber will entertain at a bridge tea on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Russell Chaplin.

Mrs. A. E. Kimball entertains the East Side Bridge club this afternoon.

Mrs. E. D. Herman entertains her Afternoon club today.

Mrs. A. H. Peabody was hostess at a reception yesterday afternoon given in honor of Mrs. Graham W. Putnam, newly decorated in autumn leaves, and musical numbers were given by Miss Alice Marth and young John Putnam, while the hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. G. Barron, Mrs. Horace Holly Smith and Miss Alice Martin. A large number were present.

The Wasatch Literary club holds its first meeting of the season today.

On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet in the auditorium at the Bishop's building, and an interesting program of reminiscence given by Patricia John Smith and Miss Miland Pratt, together with a musical program. All daughters, and all those interested in the perpetuation of pioneer memories are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Jennings are at home at the Kensington apartments.

Mrs. Warren Bogue has returned from Denver and is at home at the Fifth East hotel.

Mrs. H. Dorritt, son and daughter, have gone for an eastern trip, expecting to be absent a month.

Miss Merle Lynch will be guest of honor at a bridge tea on Thursday to be given by Miss Elsie Parsons and Miss Edith Godbe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Larson of Preston, Ida., announce the engagement of their daughter, Blanch, to Eugene C. Clark of Elv, Nev. The wedding will take place Oct. 12, in the Salt Lake temple. The bride-elect is well known in Provo musical circles where she has been under the instruction of Prof. Lund. Mr. Clark is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clark of Provo, and a well known young business man of that place.

The Misses Marie and Adelaide Bancroft entertain at a luncheon this afternoon in honor of Miss Palmer of Philadelphia, the decorations throughout being in pink, and covers laid for a dozen. The table has for its centerpiece a basket filled with pink roses, and candles with pink shades at each end, while the place-cards are dainty figure-pictures.

CLYDE SQUIRES PROSPERS. Young Utah Artist's Picture Makes Artistic and Financial Hit.

Clyde Squires, the young Utah illustrator, whose drawings are now to be found in the best publications of New York, last week received a check for $500 from the publishers of his picture "Her Gift" as royalties on sales for March to August. The picture, originally appeared in the Xmas number of Success which paid Mr. Squires $100. In a letter from the artist, enclosed some simple letters from publishers asking him to call at his convenience and let them know over his work, success also writes asking for a frontpiece for its special Thanksgiving number, all of which is somewhat different from Mr. Squires' first start in New York when he started at the bottom as an illustrator for fashion plates.

JEWISH NEW YEAR. Festivities Close This Evening With Reformed; Orthodox on Wednesday.

The festivities of the Jewish New Year close this evening with the reformed denomination of the faith, but with the orthodox Hebrews the festa does not end until Wednesday evening. The blowing of "the shofar," or ram's horn, was observed today, with the regular horn at the orthodox synagogue, while at the Jewish temple a cornet was used. Rabbi Freund spoke this morning at the temple on "The New Year's Threefold Call." Rabbi Hevesch of the orthodox congregation speaking on "The New Year's Message." Rabbi Hevesch speaks Wednesday morning on "The Book of Life." A special feature is being made of music, and the Jewish stores are generally closed today, all over the civilized world. Salt Lake included. The Jewish fast day "Yom Kippur" comes next week.

circles where she has been under the instruction of Prof. Lund. Mr. Clark is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clark of Provo, and a well known young business man of that place.

The Misses Marie and Adelaide Bancroft entertain at a luncheon this afternoon in honor of Miss Palmer of Philadelphia, the decorations throughout being in pink, and covers laid for a dozen. The table has for its centerpiece a basket filled with pink roses, and candles with pink shades at each end, while the place-cards are dainty figure-pictures.

CLYDE SQUIRES PROSPERS. Young Utah Artist's Picture Makes Artistic and Financial Hit.

Clyde Squires, the young Utah illustrator, whose drawings are now to be found in the best publications of New York, last week received a check for $500 from the publishers of his picture "Her Gift" as royalties on sales for March to August. The picture, originally appeared in the Xmas number of Success which paid Mr. Squires $100. In a letter from the artist, enclosed some simple letters from publishers asking him to call at his convenience and let them know over his work, success also writes asking for a frontpiece for its special Thanksgiving number, all of which is somewhat different from Mr. Squires' first start in New York when he started at the bottom as an illustrator for fashion plates.

JEWISH NEW YEAR. Festivities Close This Evening With Reformed; Orthodox on Wednesday.

The festivities of the Jewish New Year close this evening with the reformed denomination of the faith, but with the orthodox Hebrews the festa does not end until Wednesday evening. The blowing of "the shofar," or ram's horn, was observed today, with the regular horn at the orthodox synagogue, while at the Jewish temple a cornet was used. Rabbi Freund spoke this morning at the temple on "The New Year's Threefold Call." Rabbi Hevesch of the orthodox congregation speaking on "The New Year's Message." Rabbi Hevesch speaks Wednesday morning on "The Book of Life." A special feature is being made of music, and the Jewish stores are generally closed today, all over the civilized world. Salt Lake included. The Jewish fast day "Yom Kippur" comes next week.

circles where she has been under the instruction of Prof. Lund. Mr. Clark is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clark of Provo, and a well known young business man of that place.

The Misses Marie and Adelaide Bancroft entertain at a luncheon this afternoon in honor of Miss Palmer of Philadelphia, the decorations throughout being in pink, and covers laid for a dozen. The table has for its centerpiece a basket filled with pink roses, and candles with pink shades at each end, while the place-cards are dainty figure-pictures.

CLYDE SQUIRES PROSPERS. Young Utah Artist's Picture Makes Artistic and Financial Hit.

Clyde Squires, the young Utah illustrator, whose drawings are now to be found in the best publications of New York, last week received a check for $500 from the publishers of his picture "Her Gift" as royalties on sales for March to August. The picture, originally appeared in the Xmas number of Success which paid Mr. Squires $100. In a letter from the artist, enclosed some simple letters from publishers asking him to call at his convenience and let them know over his work, success also writes asking for a frontpiece for its special Thanksgiving number, all of which is somewhat different from Mr. Squires' first start in New York when he started at the bottom as an illustrator for fashion plates.

JEWISH NEW YEAR. Festivities Close This Evening With Reformed; Orthodox on Wednesday.

The festivities of the Jewish New Year close this evening with the reformed denomination of the faith, but with the orthodox Hebrews the festa does not end until Wednesday evening. The blowing of "the shofar," or ram's horn, was observed today, with the regular horn at the orthodox synagogue, while at the Jewish temple a cornet was used. Rabbi Freund spoke this morning at the temple on "The New Year's Threefold Call." Rabbi Hevesch of the orthodox congregation speaking on "The New Year's Message." Rabbi Hevesch speaks Wednesday morning on "The Book of Life." A special feature is being made of music, and the Jewish stores