

MANY AMERICANS IN SORE STRAITS

Provisions in Madera, Chihuahua, Mexico, Are Becoming Very Scarce.

SUPPLIES HAVE BEEN CUT OFF

They May Be Recalled From Europe—Outbreak Said to Have Been Anticipated.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 29.—Telegrams from Madera, in Chihuahua, Mexico, where many Americans and Canadians in the employ of the Pearson Lumber interests are living, declare that they are getting in sore straits for provisions. The railroad into that city has been cut since a week ago yesterday and the last effort of the federal government on Sunday to drive away insurgents still are in possession of the country and trains cannot take supplies to the beleaguered city.

Telegrams say all is quiet at Madera but no news from the outside world has been received except such messages as come over federal telegraph lines, working only part of the time, and provisions are very low.

A telegram this morning from W. J. Newsam, manager of the telephone exchange at Madera, Tex., to the El Paso Herald, declares that firing was heard yesterday afternoon and last night south of there in Mexico in the "big bend" country and that citizens generally believe it was revolutionists and Mexican troops, as the revolutionists have been reported for many days as gathering there. The region is sparsely settled and unpoliced.

Passengers from Madera in this morning said the train from Madera got through to Chihuahua last night and that a train would leave Chihuahua today with freight for Madera. This was the first news from Madera since the insurgents having declared they would not molest trains not carrying troops.

GEN. BERNARDO REYES MAY BE RECALLED FROM EUROPE

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 29.—The special correspondent of the El Paso Herald in Mexico City writes that it is rumored here that Gen. Bernardo Reyes is to be recalled from Europe and made vice president of Mexico and allowed by President Diaz to assume the reins of government in a few months, as it is believed such a course would satisfy the country. Vice President Corral is very sick and is expected to soon go to Europe. Reyes is expected to resign on his return from Europe as he and Reyes are enemies.

REPORTED REVOLUTION WAS NOT EXPECTED

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 29.—That the authorities expected a wide-spread rebellion has been the result of the activity of the Maderistas in northern Mexico is the report brought to San Diego by Capt. J. S. Green, commander of the American Hawaiian frigate V. Anjan, which arrived here today. Arriving at Capt. Green, when the Virginian left Salina Cruz on Nov. 23, he stated that the city was under strict guard. All guns and ammunition had been bought by the government officials; the circulation of American newspapers was forbidden, and the soldiers were locked at 10 o'clock at night. Extra guards were established for several miles up and down the coast from Salina Cruz to prevent the smuggling of firearms and explosives into the country.

HATTIE LE BLANC'S TRIAL

Alleged Dying Statement of Clarence E. Glover Ruled Out.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 29.—The alleged "dying statement" of Clarence E. Glover of Waltham, for whose murder Hattie Le Blanc of West Archib, N. S., is on trial for her trial at which she is said to have named the girl as firing the fatal shot, was ruled out by Judge Bond at the opening of the case here today. The chief attorney maintained yesterday that the statement was essential to the government's case, but said today that the trial would proceed.

Judge Bond allowed the prosecution an hour to produce additional proof that the "dying statement" was competent and then said he had reviewed the evidence carefully, had studied numerous authorities, but could not bring himself to believe that the allegation by Glover that Hattie Le Blanc shot him was made "under the solemnity of approaching death."

JEM MACE, FAMOUS ENGLISH PUGILIST, DEAD

London, Nov. 29.—"Jem" Mace, the hero of many prize fights, died at Harrow-on-Tyne, of old age today. He was in his 74th year. Mace was at one time worth more than $1,000,000 but of recent years he had been dependent on friends. He was last seen at a public appearance in music hall exhibition. "Jem" Mace was born at Beeston, in Norfolk, and in his day was one of the greatest boxers. His first great fight was with Bill Terry, whom he beat in 18 rounds. When Tom Sayers retired from the championship in 1860 Mace was regarded as his legitimate successor, but his supremacy was soon challenged by Tom King. They met in January, 1862, when after 43 rounds Mace was given the verdict. For the next ten years he was practically invincible.

THREE OF CREW OF TUG GENERAL DROWNED

Fault Ste Marie, Mich., Nov. 29.—Three of the crew of the tug General were drowned early today when the tug was struck by a heavy sea. The Canadian Pacific steamer Athabasca off Lime Island in St. Mary's passage.

TROOPS REVOLT IN ISLAND OF MACAO

Portuguese Soldiers and Sailors From Gunboat Take Possession of City.

ENFORCE CERTAIN CHANGES

Demand Expulsion of Religious Orders, to Which the Governor Acceded.

Macao, Island of Macao, China, Nov. 30.—The Portuguese troops of the local garrison and the crew of the gunboat Patria revolted last night and taking possession of the city proceeded to enforce certain changes in the administration of the affairs of this dependency of Portugal. The rebels continued in control today, the governor and military officers being powerless.

The uprising began with the sailors of the Patria, who marched to the public square, fired three volleys as a signal to the troops, who once formed an entrance to the army and arming themselves, joined the seamen. Several hundred strong, the rebels proceeded to Santa Clara convent, from which they drove out the nuns, ordering them to leave the island. The nuns fled to Hongkong. From the convent the rebels marched toward the governor's house, before which they mounted a cannon. An interview with the governor was requested and when the officers at the government house intervened they were silenced at the point of bayonet.

The governor was compelled to hear the demands, which were the expulsion of the religious orders, increased pay for the army and the suppression of the newspaper Vida Nova and the righting of alleged wrongs suffered by the soldiers and sailors. Under threat the governor granted every demand.

No casualties are reported but the military officers say they have lost all control of the troops. The security of life and property is not guaranteed. The rebels are reported to be in the governor's palace the governor's aide protested against their entrance, a bayonet was placed at his throat and he was threatened with instant death if he gave an alarm.

INTENSE ANXIETY IN HONGKONG OVER AFFAIR

Hongkong, Nov. 30.—The Portuguese garrison and naval force at Macao have revolted, demanding the expulsion of the nuns and an increase of pay. The government house was threatened, a gun being aimed upon it. There is intense anxiety here and foreign consuls are making urgent inquiries regarding the security of the citizens of their countries and their property in Macao. The Chinese viceroy has been warned to have troops in readiness for action. The British authorities had sent a gunboat to the scene today. British citizens of Macao are arriving here.

Later authorities expected a wide-spread rebellion has been the result of the activity of the Maderistas in northern Mexico is the report brought to San Diego by Capt. J. S. Green, commander of the American Hawaiian frigate V. Anjan, which arrived here today. Arriving at Capt. Green, when the Virginian left Salina Cruz on Nov. 23, he stated that the city was under strict guard. All guns and ammunition had been bought by the government officials; the circulation of American newspapers was forbidden, and the soldiers were locked at 10 o'clock at night. Extra guards were established for several miles up and down the coast from Salina Cruz to prevent the smuggling of firearms and explosives into the country.

Macao was settled by Portuguese merchants in the latter part of the sixteenth century and long was a flourishing port. After the cession of Hongkong to the British, the trade of Macao gradually rapidly declined and was subsequently closed to Portugal by China. Gradually the Portuguese extended their rule over the whole island of Macao. China objected to this extension of territory, and, insisting that the only territory which made to Portugal was limited to the city of Macao, has frequently clashed with the Lisbon government over their respective territorial rights. The Chinese government has failed definitely to adjust the matter. The city is now divided into two wards, one inhabited by Chinese and the other mostly by Portuguese, each having its own administration. When the Portuguese monarchy was overthrown the provincial government of Lisbon was established and the city was to remain undisturbed on the island.

FIRST BRIQUETTE MADE OF IRON ORE DUST

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—The Carnegie Steel company mills on the U. S. steel corporation last evening saw the first briquette made from ore dust in their special plant. The briquette will be converted into pig iron, and thus is solved the conservation of iron dust, which has been scattered by the winds over the many square miles of the Pittsburg district. The discovery of the briquetting plant and its operation here means saving of millions of dollars annually. Fifty-eight men are employed in this conservation scheme, and new plants will be added to meet the requirements.

WILL NOT OFFICIATE AT SUNDAY FUNERALS

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 29.—The Ministerial Association has taken up the stick of reforming funerals in this city. The members will decline to officiate at Sunday funerals except in cases required by the board of health, and they urge upon all bereaved persons that they have carriages only for the pallbearers, and those closely related to the deceased. Lavish floral displays are discouraged and the general tendency of the ministerial appeal to the public is to make funerals as private as possible instead of a demonstration. A committee of ministers has been appointed to assist in aid of undertakers and cemetery associations in the reform.

GOLD FOUND IN MICHIGAN

Dovey City, Mich., Nov. 30.—Gold in what is said to be paying quantities, has been discovered on the farm of John Frost in this county. Samples have been submitted to the college of mines and there is a movement among men of the county to develop the property.

The Christmas News

Will Be Issued SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17th

It will contain in full and complete fashion The Record of the Year of 1910 in Salt Lake City, Utah and Idaho; Our Mines and Smelters, our Real Estate and Building Record, our Agricultural and Stock Interests, Dry Farming, Mercantile, Banking, Home Manufactures, and all other branches of business will be fully and authoritatively treated.

The Magazine and Art Section of the issue will be kept up to the high artistic standard of previous years. The cover will be printed in several colors, bearing a striking design on the front page. News dealers and agents are requested to place their orders early, as the size of the issue will prevent the printing of a second edition.

Price 15 cents. In Magazine form, 25 cents.

MILLIONAIRE PRISONERS WILL LIVE LIKE KINGS

Four Wealthy Gentlemen of Nebraska Will Spend a Year in the Adams County, Neb., Jail.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 30.—W. G. Comstock, Bartley Richards, Charles Jamison and Aquila Triplet, millionaire cattlemen of Nebraska, convicted in federal court of fencing government lands, and sentenced to one year in the county jail, after spending a month of visiting various county jails in the state, departed last night for Hastings. There they will become inmates of the Adams county jail.

The four men are not to be treated like ordinary prisoners. With them they took a Japanese chef, who will do their cooking. This week they ordered expensive furniture and carpets sent to the Hastings jail as furnishings for their rooms. In addition, they purchased and sent out a large and well-selected library. They have subscribed for a number of daily papers and many of the leading magazines. The windows of their cells have been hung with expensive lace curtains. The floors are carpeted, and in a general way, it is said, the cells have the appearance of well-appointed club-rooms.

NEW YORK WILL HAVE WORLD'S LARGEST DRY DOCK

New York, Nov. 30.—New York is to have the largest dry dock in the world. The big cradle will be constructed in the Erie basin, Brooklyn, and will be more than 1,000 feet in length, sufficient to accommodate the largest steamship ever planned by man. The dock will be used for the docking of transatlantic steamships in need of emergency repairs.

FINDS HER HUSBAND AFTER TEN YEARS' SEARCHING

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Robert Archibald, who was found yesterday near Tucson, Ariz., by his wife after an absence of 10 years from his home in Elgin, began his wanderings one day just after an election, with which he had no concern. He started out, driving through the woods, toward his farm near Dundee. That was the last of any of his Elgin friends saw of him. Mrs. Archibald, who was certain that he had not willfully departed, at once began a search for the missing man. That search continued during all of the 10 years. The wife became discouraged when she found that all her efforts seemed to be of no avail, but continued the quest.

POPULATION STATISTICS

Washington, Nov. 30.—The population of Minnesota is 2,075,078, according to statistics of the 13th census made public today. This is an increase of 164,173, or 8.1 per cent over 2,020,515 in 1900. The increase from 1890 to 1900 was 253,098 or 14.3 per cent. The population of the state of Tennessee is 2,814,789, according to statistics of the 13th census made public today. This is an increase of 164,173, or 8.1 per cent over 2,020,515 in 1900. The increase from 1890 to 1900 was 253,098 or 14.3 per cent.

COL. J. N. BELL DEAD

Washington, Nov. 30.—Lieut. Col. James N. Bell, inspector general of rifle practice for the national guard of the District of Columbia and at one time one of the best marksmen in the country, died at his home here last night. Exposure at the military rifle contests at Camp Perry, Ohio, three months ago, complicated by intestinal troubles, caused his death. He was 56 years old. Col. Bell had been connected with the local postoffice 34 years.

CUT OF FOURTEEN MILLION IN GOVERNMENT EXPENSES

Washington, Nov. 30.—A cut of $14,000,000 in the estimates for the coming year was reported to President Taft today as a result of his ultimatum to the various heads of departments at the cabinet conference yesterday.

DYNAMITE BOMB FOUND UNDER INSTITUTE OF COLON

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 30.—A special to The Herald from Guadalajara says: A dynamite bomb has been found beneath the Institute of Colon here. The Institute is a Methodist school conducted by American women but all the pupils are natives. Anti-American riots are being held in the city, and the bomb was found. The order recently promulgated here that all crowds must disperse, and that if they did not so do after two blasts of the bugle troops would fire is still in force, but all is quiet and the theaters have all reopened.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN ALLIANCE INCORPORATED

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The National Republican Alliance, with principal office in New York, has been incorporated here "to create, promote and maintain the principles of Republicanism as proclaimed by the national Republican party; to create a more widespread influence for the party by means of voting and to protect the ballot box."

MILDRED SCHRAEDER ARRESTED AND RELEASED

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—On request of the chief of police of Pittsburg, Pa., Miss Mildred Schraeder of that city was arrested here today on a charge of having stolen a valuable collection of old-time jewelry from a woman of that city. The name of the woman from whom the diamonds were stolen was not given to the local police but they were informed that Miss Schraeder would not be prosecuted if she returned the jewels.

PRACTICALLY PERFECT SKELETON OF A TRACHADON

New York, Nov. 30.—The American museum of natural history here announces that it has just come into possession of a practically perfect skeleton of a trachadon, a monster which lived on the earth not less than 300,000 years ago. It was found in Montana, where the head lands of the museum has been carrying on extensive excavations. The trachadon has been found by Barnum Brown, who probably has more important finds to his credit. The skeleton is a fine specimen and has resulted in some of the most valuable discoveries and accessions of prehistoric animals on record. The museum's announcement of this latest find says: "Leaves, fruits and wood found with the fossilized bones show that the climate of the United States as far north as the Canada country was from temperate to sub-tropical at the close of the cretaceous period. It is concluded that Montana was sub-tropical. The trachadons were aquatic dinosaurs and spent most of their time in fresh water lagoons, which were then numerous over the lowlands of the interior. Their remains have been found in sea deposits that were formed near shore. Some animals combined some of the characteristics of both birds and crocodiles, but have no living relatives or descendants. They were kangaroo-like with long strong legs, powerful forelegs, and a long, powerful swimming tail. The peculiar expanded hind limb, a duck-like bill was covered with a thorny, pectinate in form, which was probably used in gathering vegetable food."

QUARREL OVER TWO CENTS RESULTS IN DEATH

New York, Nov. 30.—Matthew Dolan, 18 years old, is dead and Thomas Canhours, a 19-year-old chum of Dolan's, remains in the hospital, charged with murder as the result of a quarrel over a 2-cent loan. The two were employed in a downtown restaurant. After their quarrel over the 2-cent loan, Dolan, carrying a knife and a small revolver, struck Canhours in the abdomen with it. He died in a few minutes. The police captured Dolan in a collar where he had hidden beneath the winter's supply of potatoes.

BRAZILIAN ARMY OFFICERS GROWING DISCONTENTED

New Orleans, Nov. 29.—A special to the Peninsular from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, says: The discontent among the officers, those in the army as well as the navy, is growing. They are forming a general organization. A lieutenant who blamed the president while discussing at a luncheon, was arrested and court-martialed. The sailors of the Sao Paulo and Minas Gerais called on Dr. Ruy Barbosa and thanked him for his intervention. Dr. Barbosa firmly but in a kindly manner, blamed them for their conduct and in some cases poisoning has occurred on board the destroyers. The officers of two of them found their drinking water contained poison.

STOPPED SERVICES AND REFUSED TO BE BURIED

Zacualpan, Mexico, Nov. 30.—Suddenly sitting up in his coffin as the priest was about to read the funeral ceremony, Regino Ocampo stopped his own funeral ceremony and refused to be buried. He had been injured in an accident in a mine and pronounced dead.

BACK TO THE FARM FOR N. Y. CENTRAL OFFICER

That Is What Prest, W. C. Brown Will Do When He Surrenders the Chiefship of the Road.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—When W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines, gives up the chiefship of that great railroad system, he is going to be a farmer, as he admits he was before he was lured away from the bucolic life years ago and went to work as a section hand on a branch railroad line in Carroll county, Ill.

VOTED FOR WOODROW LEWIS FOR GOVERNOR

Morrisstown, N. J., Nov. 30.—A Republican ballot on which was written "for governor—Woodrow Lewis"—a combination of the names of the two candidates, Woodrow Wilson and Vivian M. Lewis, is before the supreme court on a recount of votes in this city, and will probably decide a contest for alderman. Dr. Gustav A. Becker, Republican candidate, and John P. Lyons, Democrat, were tied for the office on the original count. On the recount, it was discovered that the ballot in question was counted by the election officers for Becker. Should the court declare it to be illegal it is probable it will decide the contest. Last year Becker and Lyons were also tied, receiving exactly the same number of votes they did at the election three weeks ago.

WILL DEMAND MINIMUM SALARY OF $1,500

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Under the name of the Bookkeepers and Accountants' association, city hall clerks and assistants of department heads have formed a union and will demand that the next budget provide a minimum salary of $1,500 per year be paid bookkeepers and clerks. The organization already has obtained a charter and has been admitted to the Chicago Federation of Labor. Officers have been selected and it is planned to take in the clerks and bookkeepers in the county building. "We intend," said one of the officers yesterday, "to get right after the finance committee and obtain an increase in salaries. It seems that the freemen and the policemen can organize and get more money, so why shouldn't the clerks and bookkeepers, who are the worst underpaid men in the city service."

GYPSY QUEEN'S FUNERAL SERVICES POSTPONED

Santa Monica, Cal., Nov. 29.—Funeral services for Stella Cortez Downs, otherwise known as Dolores, queen of the Spanish gypsies, who died here last night, will be postponed until the arrival of Philadelphia of Joseph Paig, a millionaire soap manufacturer, who in a telegram yesterday said he would at once cross the continent to attend the ceremony. The Philadelphia's desire to pay homage to the dead woman is to result from the fact that the accumulation of his fortune had been due to his following her advice in business. Following the custom of her tribe, Mrs. Downs is said to have foregone the funeral services and has been buried after her marriage to Thomas J. Downs here 15 years ago she abandoned the nomadic life she had followed in her native country and relinquished claim to the leadership of her people. Her body will be taken to Spain for burial.

DR. COOK AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Confesses He Does Not Know Whether He Reached the North Pole or Not.

New York, Nov. 30.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Brooklyn explorer, in an article, which will be published in Hampton's Magazine, confesses that he does not know whether he reached the north pole or not. Dr. Cook, who has been in hiding for more than a year, has informed the editors of the magazine publishing his story that he will return to the United States with his wife and children Dec. 22 in order to spend Christmas here. Dr. Cook, in his story deals with the psychology of his adventure and says: "Did I get to the north pole? Perhaps I made a mistake in thinking that I did. Perhaps I did not make a mistake. After making the confession I confess that I do not know absolutely whether I reached the pole or not. This may come as an amazing statement but I am willing to startle the world, if, by so doing, I can get an opportunity to present my case. "By my case I mean not my case as a geographical discoverer but my case as a man. Much as the attainments of the north pole meant to me, the sympathy and confidence of my fellow men mean more."

PROMISES TO TELL ALL

"Fully, freely and frankly I shall tell you everything. Tell you everything—and leave the decision with you. If, after reading my story you say, 'Cook is sincere and honest, half crazy with months of isolation and hunger, he believed he reached the pole; he is not a fakir,' then I shall be satisfied. "Dr. Cook tells the story of his life and pictures what he calls the overpowering ambition for exploration that beset him until it finally culminated in his effort to reach the north pole. Dr. Cook declares that at the time he convinced himself he had discovered the pole he was half mad. He spent two years in his quest, during that time endured hunger and privation, and, he says, would unbalance any mind. The explorer states that it would be impossible for any man to demonstrate to the satisfaction of a civilized world, the fact that he had reached the north pole. He characterizes the region as a region of insanity, where one can not believe the evidence gathered by one's own eyes. HIS ONCE AMBITION. He said he had always looked on the discovery of the pole as an achievement for his own personal satisfaction, for the satisfaction of a craving and a desire that was greater than any other factor in his life. When he found how tremendous a sensation his statement that he had attained the pole created, he was overcome with bewilderment. Dr. Cook then tells the story of the days in Copenhagen and later in New York and of the crisis in his life that came when he was ordered to leave the country and his voluntary exile from the United States. The explorer says that notwithstanding the fact that he was followed by the shrewdest newspaper men in the world, he never even thought of sums ranging upwards of several thousands of dollars were offered for a clue as to his whereabouts he has never been a disgrace and has never taken any unusual precautions to conceal his identity. Part of the time, he says, his wife has been with him and part of the time his children. Dr. Cook and his wife are now in Europe and the children are in a convent in France. Most of the time during his exile Dr. Cook has been in London. He says he has gone about among the people, and with the utmost freedom and at times has registered under his own name and that only a few have guessed his identity. Those who did guess it, Dr. Cook says, were turned away with some remark. "Why, yes, I have been told that before."

ABANDONED WIFE MAY SUE HUSBAND FOR SUPPORT

New York, Nov. 30.—An abandoned wife has the right to sue her husband for money she spends to support herself and her children, according to a ruling of the state supreme court here in a suit brought against Louis de Brautwayer by his wife, Kallee. The court declares that the case is without precedent. Mrs. de Brautwayer sets forth that in September, 1907, her husband abandoned her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers, be ruined or starve or work herself to the bone, without hope of repayment from her husband whose legal and moral duty it is to support her and her children without cause and that she has since spent $3,840 for their support. Justice Whitney said: "Must a wife, abandoned among strangers,