

W. P. BOYD & CO. 621 and 623 Front street. CLOAKS! Cloaks! ARRIVAL OF FIRST INVOICE OF New Fall Styles. The unparalleled success of this department during the past season warranted us in placing large orders early. Consequently we are in a position to offer this season the largest and choicest selection of the very latest styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's CLOAKS!

Also Offer the Following: 99 Acres of Hiawatha Park Addition, beautiful located; view of Sound and Olympic Range from all parts of it; 500 feet of water frontage; $150 per Acre. CASH. Reduced from 200 to 150.

40 Acres two miles from Kirkland, one mile from railroad station; half cash, balance one year at 9 per cent; $5000.

Home of Seattle Fire Insurance Co. House and four lots in Sarah B. Yesler's Addition, near Broadway, $2000. Half cash, balance one year, 10 per cent.

Lot corner Blanchard and Eighth streets, $1700. $1000 cash, balance one year, 9 per cent.

120 acres timber land three-quarters of a mile from West Coast Railroad track and above it; estimated to cut 8,000,000 feet; $1700.

Lot in Edes & Knight's addition, 60x120 feet, cleared, grubbed, fenced and in grass. One-fourth cash, balance 5 years at 10 per cent. $550.

WM. H. MOORE, Real Estate Broker, Cor. Second and James Sts. P. & B. PATENT TEREDO PROOF PILE COVERING. GULLINE & CAMERON, SEATTLE AGENTS FOR W.T. & B.C.

DRUMMERS' DAY. Commercial Travelers Call on Gen. Harrison. SEVERAL THOUSANDS THEM. An Attractive Parade and a Big Meeting—Frantic Greeting to the General—The Drummers Know the Business Needs of the Country—A Value of Flowers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 20.—This was drummer's day in Harrison's calendar of engagements. It was estimated that 2500 or 3000 commercial travelers, including the home organization, participated in the day's demonstration. Large delegations arrived during the morning from Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Zanesville, Lafayette, Fort Wayne and Richmond, Ind. Several clubs were present from other cities, but small parties of a dozen or two were in attendance from New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Cleveland, Louisville and other cities.

THE LEAD PANIC OVER. No further failures, and the market seems to have struck bottom, and the scare of yesterday is over, at least for the present. Saturday is practically a holiday on the metal exchange, but today rather than yesterday was a day of comparative ease.

PORTLAND NEWS. A Chinaman Robbed of $2000—Personal. PORTLAND, Oct. 20.—A few days since Lee Dow placed $2000 with the safekeeping of the Portland Safe Co. representing himself to be the agent of the Dow Yuen Co. of Canton, which was handed over to him. Later in the day Lee Dow called for the money. Being told that the money had been taken, he became frantic, and said he never authorized anyone to draw the money. A warrant was issued for his arrest. He has not yet been found.

THE END OF A DRUNKEN NIGHT. Horrible Outing at Oregon City. PORTLAND, Oct. 20.—A report reached here to-day from Oregon City that at 3 o'clock this morning Shelly Murray and Leo Hamilton, who had been drinking heavily, were in a quarrel in a saloon, during which Hamilton whipped out a large knife, cutting his antagonist severely. The latter was taken to the hospital, and Hamilton was arrested.

NON-UNION CARS ATTACKED. Advantage Taken of the Crowds at the Blaine Procession. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The Blaine procession to-night delayed a great number of street cars, and among others some handled by men who were impatient with the delay. Ap- proprious epithets in plenty and a few substantial missiles were hurled at the cars.

A Crazy Girl who is Determined to be a Doctor. STOCKTON, Oct. 20.—Mary Abbott, a 16-year old girl residing with her parents near Woodbridge, was to-day sent to a private asylum for mental derangement. She is a native of England and says she wants to be a cow-boy. She has twice escaped from her home and equipped for life in the woods, and has been returned by officers each time. On the last occasion, yesterday, a party with guns and traps followed her into the woods and she became entangled in brush and was caught.

THE ENGINEERS' CONVENTION. RICHMOND, Oct. 20.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to-day held their annual convention at Denver, October 7, 1888. The following officers were elected: Third grand engineer, J. R. Sprague, of Toronto, Canada; first grand assistant engineer, H. C. Hayes of Cleveland, Ohio; and second grand assistant engineer, A. M. Carver of San Francisco; executive committee, Edward Ward of Jersey City, E. W. Clark, Denver, Edward Tinsley, Hamilton, Ont., Wm. Johnson, Rock Island, Ill., and J. F. Regard, Atlanta, Ga. Chairman Hope of the engineers' grievance committee, who managed the convention, presented his report, giving an account of the strike from the engineers' standpoint.

A Spanish Conservative Mobbed. MADRID, Oct. 20.—Republican rioters mobbed Senator Canovas de Castillo at Saragossa last night and stoned his house. The rioting continued for hours. The government was powerless to quell the disturbances.

THE LAST SCENES. The Long Session of Congress Ended. A HANDFUL OF MEMBERS. Only a Sprinkling of Spectators—The Custodian Red Tape—The Senate Minority Report on the Civil Service Sham—Cleveland Erred Against His Party.

INDIANA, and the points made in the majority report are discussed at length. The report concludes: "If this report is taken into consideration and accepted as evidence of the present condition of the public service throughout the country, intelligent men will realize, and honest men will admit, that the federal treasury where one Democratic rule there, 10 Republicans are needed office and drawing pay from the federal treasury where one was one Democrat in the service on the 4th of March, 1885."

REJECTED BY THE SIOUX. The Chiefs Want to Continue the Tribal Relations. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary Vilas said to-day that the Sioux chiefs had formally notified him that they had rejected by a large majority the proposition made by the president through the secretary last Wednesday. They submitted a counter proposition to the effect that the government should purchase 100,000 acres of land in the Sioux country, and that the government should agree to accept the proposition.

THE AMERICAN DESERT. It May Be Made to Blossom as the Rose. Plans of the Geological Survey—A Region as Large as Europe—Reservoir System. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—About the best place in the city, says the geological survey headquarters, Major J. W. Powell and a staff of scientific men are engaged day and night in the solution of the problem presented by Congress in the new act for the survey of the arid lands with a view to a new system of irrigation.

THE WEATHER PROPHECY. The Signal Service Predicts Colder than 75 Times in 100. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Gen. Greeley, chief signal officer, in his annual report invites attention to the frequency of present methods to insure proper instruction in military signaling at army posts. The percentages of successful weather predictions for the year were for weather, 78.4; wind, 75.5; temperature, 74.2; an average of 76.7.

THE WORLD'S COPPER TRUST. Paris, Oct. 20.—Preliminary agreement between the French syndicate controlling the copper market and the Rio Tinto Copper Company has been concluded by which the contracts at present existing between the syndicate and American companies will be renewed for a term of 12 years.

BLAINE IN CHICAGO. An Extraordinary Republican Demonstration. TWO MONSTER MEETINGS. Every Eye Eager to Behold the Man From Maine—Vigorous Arrangement of the Democratic Party and the Veto Despot—Shameful Management of National Finances. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—One of the most notable Republican demonstrations in the campaign occurred in Chicago to-night. Blaine was the central figure. The occasion was his first public appearance in the city since the national convention where that body had named him the candidate of the party. A parade was reviewed by the famous leader less than two squares from the Auditorium, the place where his successor had been chosen. Prior to the reviewing two monster meetings, either one in the evening and the other in the Auditorium on Michigan avenue, were addressed by Blaine. The meetings took place in buildings side by side, an arrangement necessary owing to the lack of any single hall large enough to hold the crowds desiring to be present.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The first public appearance of Blaine in the city since the national convention was his first public appearance in the city since the national convention where that body had named him the candidate of the party. A parade was reviewed by the famous leader less than two squares from the Auditorium, the place where his successor had been chosen. Prior to the reviewing two monster meetings, either one in the evening and the other in the Auditorium on Michigan avenue, were addressed by Blaine. The meetings took place in buildings side by side, an arrangement necessary owing to the lack of any single hall large enough to hold the crowds desiring to be present.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The first public appearance of Blaine in the city since the national convention was his first public appearance in the city since the national convention where that body had named him the candidate of the party. A parade was reviewed by the famous leader less than two squares from the Auditorium, the place where his successor had been chosen. Prior to the reviewing two monster meetings, either one in the evening and the other in the Auditorium on Michigan avenue, were addressed by Blaine. The meetings took place in buildings side by side, an arrangement necessary owing to the lack of any single hall large enough to hold the crowds desiring to be present.