

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

NEWS OF THE BOINGS IN SEATTLE FOR THE PAST WEEK.

A Number of Church and Private Receptions—Two Weddings—Birth Parties—Notes From Tacoma, Olympia and Port Townsend.

The events of the week just ended, while fairly numerous, cannot strictly be termed social according to the significance of the word in society topics, being of a semi-religious character with ulterior object and purpose.

The murky, rainy weather which has prevailed throughout the week was by no means conducive to either boynancy of spirit or to the success of society events. What took place is detailed below.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL.

A reception was given the congregation of the Presbyterian church by the Rev. and Mrs. Elliott W. Brown at the manse, corner of Fourth and Madison streets, Tuesday evening. The event proved a great success, and the numerous guests departed well pleased with the evening's enjoyments.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Espey, Dr. and Mrs. Coe, Dr. and Mrs. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Coryell, Mr. and Mrs. Lorimer, Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Travers, Mr. and Mrs. Willcott, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Welton, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Austin, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. Dikman, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Thomas, the Misses May and Edith Randolph, Miss Emma Jones, Miss Cassie Gillis, Miss Mary Ann, Miss England, the Misses Fiskin, Miss Young, Misses Janet and Elizabeth Epplin, Miss Belle Dikman, Miss Belle McDiarmid, Miss Georgia Carter, Miss Edith Bruntrager, Miss Mahj Chisholm, Miss Dunson, Miss Sophia Sutherland, Miss Bella Cass, Miss Annie Davidson, Rev. POSTER-HENRY WEDDING.

The greatest social event which has occurred in this city for months has been the marriage of Mr. George H. Foster and Miss Mamie G. Henry, at the residence of the bride's parents in East Olympia on Wednesday last, at noon, Rev. W. B. Lee officiating. The bride is the eldest daughter of Judge Francis Henry, and has resided in this city since her childhood. She has always been considered one of Olympia's most charming belles, a young lady of rare accomplishments, and a general favorite among a very large circle of friends. Her father, Judge Henry, for many years, has been a prominent business man of this city, having formerly engaged very extensively in the logging business near this city, and is well-known and highly respected throughout the entire territory. After the ceremony the wedding party left ample justice to the guests, and after which the happy couple took the afternoon train for Tacoma, from whence they will proceed via the Canadian Pacific railroad to Boston and other points in the East, it being their intention to devote about two months to their wedding trip, after which they will return to reside permanently in this city. Prior to their departure they were the recipients of many beautiful presents, and a splendid gift denoting the high esteem in which they are held in this city. Those present at the wedding were: Judge and Mrs. Henry, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Labaree of Ellensburg, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Labaree, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Bolinger, Mrs. Smith, Miss Foster of Seattle, Miss Lizzie McFadden, Miss Nellie Frost, Miss Portland of Portland, Miss O'Neill, Mrs. Ella Irving, Miss Georgia Foster and Mr. Brainerd Smith.
