A GRAND PAGEANT.

March of the New York Business Men.

FIFTY THOUSAND IN LINE.

A Host so Great that Watchers Tired.

Here the Last Rank Came in View—The Party Efforts of the Democratic Importers a Week Ago Made Ridiculous.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Lower Broadway was thronged with people this afternoon to witness the start of the Republican parade of business men.

The weather was much the same as that of last Saturday, when the Democratic business men paraded.

The rain came pouring down steadily from out of a leaden sky, but that did not seem in any way to dampen the ardor of the marchers.

Prominently in the front of the parade the procession moved, with O'Connell marching at the head.

The American flag was omnipresent in the ranks of the paraders and on buildings and windows along the route of the procession.

Multitudes of people lined the route, and crowds of eight-seers stood on roofs, in windows and doorways, and cheered the different organizations as they passed, and the paraders frequently joined in.

Immediately behind the marshal came a string of 12 horses in double line, drawing a truck bearing a model of steamship.

The parade was headed by the Dolphin, which was at first declared to be unacceptable to the government, but is now considered to be the best vessel in the navy for coast defense.

Alongside the model were 76 men in seaman's uniforms. They came from the Dolphin and the Ward's line of Havana steamships.

They carried a banner inscribed, "The Democrats killed John Roach, but his spirit goes marching on."

One of the most striking and unique features of the entertainment was the appearance presented by the American Club of Philadelphia.

The club of Philadelphia consisted of 275 men in line. The men wore tweed suits and white hats, and each carried an umbrella.

They were dressed in the most stylish and expensive manner, and their place in the parade behind the Philadelphia Club, they were preceded by a standard inscribed "Pennsylvania."

When the Wall Street business men swung into Broadway from that street, headed by the Seventh regiment band, they were met by a crowd from the crowd that lined either side of the street.

First came the coffee machine, followed by the tobacco men. Every man of the latter had a leaf of tobacco plant suspended to the lapel of his coat, or a mammoth leaf of tobacco in his hand.

The brokers' club was one of the features of the parade. Each man carried a cane, to which was attached a small American flag.

The Democratic demonstration was equally as creditable as the Republicans, but lacked novelties such as the locomotive and the big ball.

Chairman Jewett and a number of other distinguished Democrats reviewed the procession from the balcony of the Victoria Hotel.

The managers of both demonstrations were very satisfied, and the Indiana committee closed at midnight in a blaze of glory.

CHICAGO PROCESSIONS.

Democrats Far Outdone by the Republicans.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—This has been a day of parades for Chicago. Both parties and each in its own way was desirous of excelling the other.

The result was very creditable to both. The Republicans massed their forces in the city.

The Democrats followed. The parade was headed by the Illinois Central.

BLAINE KEPT BUSY

Three Meetings Held in Brooklyn.

SOME QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Additional Light Thrown on the Methods of Depositing the Surplus in Banks—The Dirty Bandana a Remarkable Political Emblem.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Republican campaign in Brooklyn closed to-night at the Clermont avenue rink with a speech by the Hon. James G. Blaine.

Under the auspices of an organization of Irish Protectionists, the structure has a capacity to accommodate 5000 persons, and they were there to-night, and more too.

Hundreds were unable to gain admission. Judge Rooney presided and essayed a speech, which was cut short by shouts for Mr. Blaine, who advanced and spoke substantially as follows:

"I did not come here to-night to make a lengthy speech, but briefly to sum up the case for the Union."

"Are you in favor of a protective tariff? [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison."

"Are you in favor of paying pensions to deserving soldiers? [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison."

"Are you in favor of a thorough and honest administration of the government? [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison."

"Are you in favor of using the surplus of the treasury for the benefit of the people? [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison."

"Yes, we want taking $20,000,000 out of the public treasury and loaning it to favorites without interest. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison. [Cries of "Yes."] Then vote for Harrison."

"I have learned something since I last spoke to you. Not only have I taken $20,000,000 out of the public treasury, but I have also taken $20,000,000 out of the pockets of the people."

"I have also taken $20,000,000 out of the pockets of the people. I have also taken $20,000,000 out of the pockets of the people."

HIS LAST SPEECH.

Judge Thurman in the Hocking Valley.

TALK ON CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Trades-Unions the Best Protection to the Toller—The Tariff as an Absurd Workingmen's Friend and an Absurd Old Roman's Vitality.

NELONSVILLE, O., Nov. 3.—Judge Thurman and party arrived from Columbus this afternoon, and were greeted by a large concourse of Democrats from all this region.

This mining city, with 6000 inhabitants, gave Judge Thurman an enthusiastic welcome, and to its population was added a great number of people from other places.

When Judge Thurman mounted the stand at 2 o'clock, probably 9000 people were massed in the vicinity, and he was greeted with great applause.

He spoke briefly upon the subject of the tariff and then turned to the subject of capital and labor. He said in part: "First, I want to say that I am not here to set the employer against the laboring man, or the laboring man against the employer."

"I am here simply to preach justice on all hands, and that every man shall have an honest and fair reward for his labor. There is an annual accumulation of wealth in the world, and that accumulation is wholly—repeat it and emphasize the word—is wholly the result of human labor. It is wholly the result of human labor. It is wholly the result of human labor."

"The distribution of wealth. The difficulty about the production of wealth is easily solved, but there is another question that is more difficult to solve, and that is the question of the distribution of wealth. It is the great problem of the age. It is the great problem of the age. It is the great problem of the age."

THURMAN'S CAMPAIGN.

Wonderful Work for One So Very Aged.

NELONSVILLE, O., Nov. 3.—Judge Thurman closed his campaign at Nelsonville to-day, and a review of his work makes an interesting showing. It is 11 weeks since he started out, and during that time he has traveled 54,000 miles. He has made 89 speeches of all kinds, 65 of them being in the crowd called out for him to say something about Minister Sackville's letter, to which the judge replied: "All that can be said is that if I had a boy and he was such a fool as to be entrapped as Sackville was, I would divorce him. [Applause.] Whether Sackville is a knave or a fool I don't know, but he is one or the other too much to represent the British government in the streets of Washington, and Grover Cleveland has told him so and given him his walking papers."

One of the most interesting features of the judge's 70th birthday, this is a remarkable record, especially so since he is really in better condition than when he started out on the campaign. In all his travels the judge has been accompanied by his son, Allen W. Thurman, and an Associated Press representative.
