

W. P. BOYD & CO.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

BLANKET AND COMFORTER

SALE.

Gray Blankets, $2.50. Gray Blankets, $3.00. Gray Blankets, $4.50. Gray Blankets, $5.00. White Blankets, $3.00. White Blankets, $4.50. White Blankets, $5.00. White Blankets, $6.00. White Blankets up to $12.50. Comforters, $1.00 to $5.00. Down Comforters, $10 to $25.

W. P. BOYD & CO.

FRONT ST., FOOT OF CHERRY.

FOSTER & ROBERTSON Wholesale Hardware! TINNERS' TOOLS! PORTLAND, OR. DEITZ O. K. TUBULAR LAMP GLASS LANTERNS!

REICHENEKER & CO., MANUFACTURING JEWELERS.

Fine Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry. DEALERS IN. French and American clocks...

Quantity Business College.

ATTEND THE SEATTLE AND PUGET SOUND Business College.

Fine Gold Watches, BOTH LADIES' AND GENTS'. LOWEST PRICES IN THE CITY. W. W. HOUTON, 806 Second St., Colonial Block.

They Are Going Rapidly.

People who know a good thing when they see it are buying every day. Home-seekers have invested heavily, knowing they are getting the value of their money.

Byron Addition.

Situated near Lake Washington, on line of Rainier Avenue Electric Road. Rainier Avenue, 80 feet wide, leads directly to this property.

W. K. McCLINTOCK & CO., ROOM B, HALLER BLOCK.

HOSTILES ON THE MOVE

The Whole Red Army is Coming in to Surrender.

THEY WILL NOT BE DISARMED.

Gen. Miles Sets His Camp in Order Lest Treachery Be Intended.

The Idaho Warriors Never Thought of Fighting—Horrible Suffering of Indians Shot During the Wounded Knee Massacre—Christians Were Friendly.

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Brigadier-General Gibbon, commanding the division of the Pacific, today countermanded the order...

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—A Tribune special from Grand Forks, N. D., at 4 o'clock this morning says: Lieutenant Gray, of Troop B, stationed at Battineau, has wired Adjutant-General Devoy for arms and ammunition to arm the citizens of Turtle Mountain district...

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—A big pow-wow was held today at Ross Fork agency, on the Fort Hall reservation...

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 10.—Flower, of New York, today introduced in the House a resolution and resolution with reference to the Cheyenne Indians...

PIKE RIDGE, Jan. 10.—A courier from the hostiles' camp at Watson's Mills, 10-30 tonight announced that they had reached the Mission, about five miles distant...

It is learned late tonight that General Miles does not contemplate disarming the Indians at present...

This afternoon another squaw who was wounded at Wounded Knee died, and while she was being buried two more were brought to the agency in a terrible condition...

Fewer Indians came in today than any day during the present week in the stragglers have been squaws. General Miles has decided to separate the Ogallalas from the Brules when they come in...

General Miles has ordered displacement of the Indian police who have been on guard duty both at the stations and posts around the agency...

No reports have been received as to whose houses were destroyed Friday at Long Wounded Knee...

Your telegram asking how many students and parents of children are among the hostiles is received. It is impossible to ascertain at present just who the hostiles are...

General Miles has received a letter from the Indian bureau today received the following letter from Elvina Goodale, supervisor of education at Pine Ridge:

Three members from this place were elected as Calkins men, but they are unpledged, and it is expected public sentiment will cause them to abandon King county's candidate.

IS BARLOW A LEGISLATOR? Pierce County Representative Holds Remunerative Municipal Office.

TACOMA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—In view of the fact that Byron Barlow is a member of the board of public works of this city, it is held by several local lawyers that he is not entitled to hold his seat as a representative from Pierce county.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

morning. The trouble was caused by a man at Postole, Idaho, who assumed the responsibility of telegraphing to the war department about the alleged uprising of the hostiles...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Johnson Sides, the Piute premier and the most intelligent and trusted man among the Nevada Indians, and Captain Sam, whose jurisdiction extends over the Piute tribe in Western Nevada, deny the truth of the report that there is any danger of an uprising of Indians in this state...

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Brigadier-General Gibbon, commanding the division of the Pacific, today countermanded the order...

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—A Tribune special from Grand Forks, N. D., at 4 o'clock this morning says: Lieutenant Gray, of Troop B, stationed at Battineau, has wired Adjutant-General Devoy for arms and ammunition...

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—A big pow-wow was held today at Ross Fork agency, on the Fort Hall reservation...

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 10.—Flower, of New York, today introduced in the House a resolution and resolution with reference to the Cheyenne Indians...

PIKE RIDGE, Jan. 10.—A courier from the hostiles' camp at Watson's Mills, 10-30 tonight announced that they had reached the Mission, about five miles distant...

It is learned late tonight that General Miles does not contemplate disarming the Indians at present...

This afternoon another squaw who was wounded at Wounded Knee died, and while she was being buried two more were brought to the agency in a terrible condition...

Fewer Indians came in today than any day during the present week in the stragglers have been squaws. General Miles has decided to separate the Ogallalas from the Brules when they come in...

General Miles has ordered displacement of the Indian police who have been on guard duty both at the stations and posts around the agency...

No reports have been received as to whose houses were destroyed Friday at Long Wounded Knee...

Your telegram asking how many students and parents of children are among the hostiles is received. It is impossible to ascertain at present just who the hostiles are...

General Miles has received a letter from the Indian bureau today received the following letter from Elvina Goodale, supervisor of education at Pine Ridge:

Three members from this place were elected as Calkins men, but they are unpledged, and it is expected public sentiment will cause them to abandon King county's candidate.

IS BARLOW A LEGISLATOR? Pierce County Representative Holds Remunerative Municipal Office.

TACOMA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—In view of the fact that Byron Barlow is a member of the board of public works of this city, it is held by several local lawyers that he is not entitled to hold his seat as a representative from Pierce county.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

IT CAN'T BE CALKINS.

Either Squire or a Dark Horse Will Win the Race.

POSSIBLE VOTE COMBINATIONS.

The Situation is a Good Deal Like That in November, 1889.

Byron Barlow, One of the Calkins Representatives, Is Ineligible—Ocosta Claimant Cannot Secure Solid Democratic Support.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Senator Squire has been in very good humor today. He expresses himself perfectly satisfied with the prospect, and does not believe that he can be any possibly be defeated.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It is well at this time to look at the senatorial situation squarely in the face and inquire candidly into the probability of the election of United States Senator Squire or of W. H. Calkins.

meets Democratic support, or has, indeed, made overtures to secure, or at any rate to try. Doubtless the judge would not object to Democratic assistance at the proper time, but he knows, or if he does not he ought to, that Senator Squire has friends among the Democrats, and that in case the Democracy sees fit to take part in the Republican fight, the chances are that Squire would get more of the Democratic votes than he.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Johnson Sides, the Piute premier and the most intelligent and trusted man among the Nevada Indians, and Captain Sam, whose jurisdiction extends over the Piute tribe in Western Nevada, deny the truth of the report that there is any danger of an uprising of Indians in this state...

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Brigadier-General Gibbon, commanding the division of the Pacific, today countermanded the order...

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—A Tribune special from Grand Forks, N. D., at 4 o'clock this morning says: Lieutenant Gray, of Troop B, stationed at Battineau, has wired Adjutant-General Devoy for arms and ammunition...

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—A big pow-wow was held today at Ross Fork agency, on the Fort Hall reservation...

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 10.—Flower, of New York, today introduced in the House a resolution and resolution with reference to the Cheyenne Indians...

PIKE RIDGE, Jan. 10.—A courier from the hostiles' camp at Watson's Mills, 10-30 tonight announced that they had reached the Mission, about five miles distant...

It is learned late tonight that General Miles does not contemplate disarming the Indians at present...

This afternoon another squaw who was wounded at Wounded Knee died, and while she was being buried two more were brought to the agency in a terrible condition...

Fewer Indians came in today than any day during the present week in the stragglers have been squaws. General Miles has decided to separate the Ogallalas from the Brules when they come in...

General Miles has ordered displacement of the Indian police who have been on guard duty both at the stations and posts around the agency...

No reports have been received as to whose houses were destroyed Friday at Long Wounded Knee...

Your telegram asking how many students and parents of children are among the hostiles is received. It is impossible to ascertain at present just who the hostiles are...

General Miles has received a letter from the Indian bureau today received the following letter from Elvina Goodale, supervisor of education at Pine Ridge:

Three members from this place were elected as Calkins men, but they are unpledged, and it is expected public sentiment will cause them to abandon King county's candidate.

IS BARLOW A LEGISLATOR? Pierce County Representative Holds Remunerative Municipal Office.

TACOMA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—In view of the fact that Byron Barlow is a member of the board of public works of this city, it is held by several local lawyers that he is not entitled to hold his seat as a representative from Pierce county.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

Accident at Hadlock. PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Charles King, a carpenter, while working on an outbuilding at Hadlock belonging to the dry dock company this afternoon, fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground.

A MURDERER LYNCHED

Okanogan Mob Takes Him From Jail and Hangs Him.

MINERS AFRAID OF INDIANS.

Messenger Sent in Haste to Ask Gov. Loughton for Assistance.

One of the Spokane Cattle-Thieves Dead—A Drunken Indian Chief and Two Companions Drowned From a Canoe Near Vancouver.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today:

CONCUNNELLY, Wash., via Coulee City, Jan. 10.—To His Excellency, Charles D. McLaughlin, Governor: An Indian, who was implicated in the murder of Cole in October, was last night taken from jail and hanged. Owing to the fact that he had given himself up to the police, the bitter feeling existing between citizens and Indians at this time, serious trouble is feared.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—[Special.]—The following dispatch was received in Olympia today: