Text of the Measure Pending in the British Parliament. LONDON, May 30.—The text of the Bering sea bill introduced in the commons yesterday is in substance as follows: The queen may by an order in council prohibit or abate such catching as shall be deemed to be a nuisance within the meaning of the merchant shipping act, and the ship, officer and crew, and everything on board shall be forfeited to her majesty. Any commissioned officer on the naval lists shall have power during the period limited to stop and examine any British ship in Bering sea, and detain her or any portion of her equipment or crew, if in his judgment it is being prepared to be used or employed in contravention of this act. Discussion of the grain tariff questions would open the whole question of the pending negotiation of a treaty of commerce with Austria, and would force the government to acknowledge disclosures which might assist Bismarck in forming the opposition coalition which he is not actively at work constructing. The proposition press announce that Bismarck will appear in the reichstag and oppose reduction of the grain tariffs, and predicts that the prince will certainly meet with humiliating defeat, as hardly a score of members will support him. The conservatives admit that a temporary reduction of tariffs may be advisable. The Germania, Centrist or make an energetic protest against the permanent diminution of the duties. The orators of the agrarian party generally deny that there is any necessity for dealing with the tariff, but admit reluctantly that there is a possibility that the government will be compelled to do so. The position may be summed up as follows: If the ministers declare a semi-famine is impending no party will dare to oppose measures of relief.

Catholics Don't Need Any Dictation From Europe. ARCHBISHOP IRELAND ANGRY. Church in This Country Is Not Controlled by Any Nationality.

THE NEXT PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY TO BE HELD IN PORTLAND, OREGON—DELEGATES AT DETROIT CELEBRATE MEMORIAL DAY BY A STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.

ST. PAUL, May 30.—The recent memorial of the Catholic emigration societies to the pope, requesting the following of national lines in the work among emigrants in America has attracted great attention. A Pioneer Press reporter today called upon Archbishop Ireland and asked for a statement regarding the matter. After indorsing the truth of the Associated Press dispatches from Rome, the archbishop said: So far as Mr. Catenary, the bearer of the laudable petitions and decrees of the Vatican, and his friends and co-laborers are concerned, they have well defined the object in view. They mean to work for it, and they mean to do it. It is to harness the church in America into the service of recently arrived emigrants from Germany, and to see that the interests in the country being apparently overlooked by the Vatican, are not demanded based on the supposition that the bishops and priests of America are Irish, and neglect the interests of other nationalities. It is simply unadvisable, and an American Catholic will treasure up the affront for future action. We acknowledge the pope of Rome as the spiritual father of all Christians, and we are glad to receive directions from him, but we mind our own business and are still as to ours. Nor is this the most irritating matter. The real inspiration of the work in Europe comes, the dispatches tell us, from a clique in America. Even if the dispatch had been silent on this matter, we would have known the truth. For the last five or six years there has been a determined effort on the part of certain foreign-born Catholics in America, priests and laymen, to obtain control of Catholic matters in America. The Poles in the West, the French Canadians in the East, and the Germans in the West have each been at work in this direction. The Germans sent in 1886 a representative to Rome to obtain German legislation, and are most heartily in sympathy with everything that is American.

Starvation in Nova Scotia. HALIFAX, N. S., May 30.—Telegraphic dispatches from St. Paul's Island, a settlement half way between Cape Breton and Newfoundland, say every man, woman and child on that island, with the exception of two men, are prostrated with a disease resembling the grippe, and sorely in need of assistance. The government has dispatched a tug with physicians and supplies.

Argentine Finances. BUENOS AIRES, May 30.—There has been a further marked advance in the price of gold. Gold closed yesterday at 221 per cent. premium. The course at the closing hour was the scene of great excitement, and the financial situation is such that it is expected to lead to a number of failures.

Revolution in Haiti. PARIS, May 30.—A cable dispatch has been received at the Haitian legation here, announcing that a revolution has broken out at Port au Prince, Haiti. The dispatch adds that a state of siege has been proclaimed there. A French ironclad has been sent to the scene.

LOUIS, May 30.—What purported to be an interview with General Grosvener, chairman of the committee appointed to go abroad and study the emigration question, was widely circulated yesterday. Changes in Tacoma Postoffice. TACOMA, May 30.—[Special.]—Tonight Deputy Postmaster A. J. Graham resigned. He will become money order clerk, and be succeeded by F. L. It was recommended that the opportunity to drop from the national roll a separate list of ministers who do not report annually to their presbyteries, but it was adopted. Another proposition was to forbid the retirement of secretaries of boards on salary when they go to sea or travel. This was opposed as making an unfair distinction between them and other disabled ministers, who have only 30% from the board of ministerial relief. It was recommended to the committee. A telegram was read reciprocating the greeting of the assembly to that of the United Presbyterian assembly.
