HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—The Republican state convention was called to order at 10:40 this morning. A portion of the speech of Temporary Chairman Hall, referring to James G. Blaine, that Republican of Republicans, that leader of leaders, was vociferously cheered. John R. Elkins, of Indiana county, was made permanent chairman. He made a short address.

His reference to Blaine was greeted with cheers. The one thing necessary for Republican success in Pennsylvania this fall, he declared, is harmony. The committee on resolutions reported the platform. The platform heartily indorses the administration of President Harrison and Postmaster General Wanamaker, and approves of the course of the Republicans in the last congress, especially in the passage of the McKinley bill. Regarding Blaine, the resolutions declare: It has been with especial gratification that the Republicans of this commonwealth have observed the brilliant administration of that statesman by one of Pennsylvania's native sons, whose superior diplomatic skill has benefited the hearts of all Americans, exerted from foreign peoples a degree of respect and admiration for the United States flag hitherto unequalled, and opened wide to us in other respects, the doors of commerce and industry. These magnificent achievements justify our confidence, and furnish new occasion for us to reaffirm the loyal and devoted attachment of Pennsylvania to her most distinguished son, Hon. James G. Blaine.

The resolutions continue: We favor heartily the indorse the action of the Fifty-first congress in providing for the purchase and coinage of all silver produced from American mines, and recommend such legislation as will provide for the redemption of the currency from the debasement which will surely follow if this nation is made the dumping ground for the surplus of silver. The platform further re-affirms devotion to the welfare of veteran soldiers in spite of malicious and unrelenting Democratic opposition; pledges itself to various state reforms, including a pure and restricted ballot, tax equalization, etc., and denounces the unscrupulous partisanship of Governor Pattison in vetoing all the appropriation bills passed in compliance with the constitutional direction by the late Republican legislature, and the abolition of other legislation, particularly the compulsory education bill, having in view the material and moral interests of the people of Pennsylvania.

The resolutions further re-affirm the devotion of the Republican party to the welfare of the public, and the abolition of other legislation, particularly the compulsory education bill, having in view the material and moral interests of the people of Pennsylvania. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Carl Shoff, a mining prospector from Australia, was drowned while bathing in the ocean near the Cliff House, one evening some weeks ago in sight of his wife, to whom he had been married only a week. It was thought that Shoff left considerable property, and his wife has been trying to find it. Today a woman who says she was Shoff's wife arrived here from Honolulu, and she says she was married to Shoff ten years ago, and she accumulated a little property in Butte. Her husband went to Australia, and last May wrote her to join him there, instead of waiting for her to look passage for San Francisco. With him came a Miss Taylor, whom he married on reaching here. He expected that by the time he reached San Francisco his first wife would be on the way to Australia. Instead, she showed the steamer, and it is thought that Shoff, leaving prosecution for bigamy, committed suicide. The second wife says all her money is short, and is now left penniless.
