

SIX-ROUND CONTEST.

Ryan and George Dawson in a Bout at Chicago.

DECISION RENDERED.

Flimmer-McBride Fight Is Declared Off in Jersey City—Baseball and Races in California.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Tommy Ryan, of Chicago, and George Dawson, of Australia, met here tonight for six rounds, Marquis of Queensberry rules. The fight was for blood from start to finish. No decision was given, it having been announced beforehand that such would be the case in this contest.

First round—Dawson opened the fight by a hot left in the eye, which Ryan returned, speared the blow and received in return one on the neck which sent him down.

Second round—Ryan opened with a right on the head and a lead for the stomach, but missed. Dawson landed twice on the nose. Third round—Dawson landed his left on Ryan's mouth, which Ryan returned and followed up with his left.

Fourth round—Both men sparred for wind and then Dawson landed heavily on the head, and Ryan clinched.

Fifth round—Ryan rushed, but Dawson got away, though later he received a right and left in the neck. A hot exchange followed. Sixth round—Dawson opened with a rush, hitting two rights which he followed with a heavy right and left on the stomach. There was no fighting as the round closed. It was anybody's fight at the finish and both men seemed good for a long contest.

WALLACE CALLED TO THE CAPITOL. A Good Omen for the State Democratic Committee's Fate.

TACOMA, April 8.—[Special.]—Chief Tillamuck Hugh C. Wallace has been suddenly summoned to Washington City and will look after Tacoma tillamucks and the state Democratic central committee. This sudden departure of Wallace three weeks before he is intended to leave is considered a good omen for the state committee and a bad one for the Griggs faction. It is past the time for a postmaster for Tacoma to be announced by President Cleveland, and in summoning National Committeeman Wallace to the Federal Capitol, it is expected by the state organization workers that matters will be facilitated.

There are still doubts if Sanders will go to Washington City. Time, 1:30. His best friends at this end of the Sound claim it will do him no good to go, and might prejudice his case if it appeared that he was at all anxious. Efforts are being put forward, and it is presumed they will be considered when Wallace reaches Washington City, to unite the warring factions by dividing honors. Neither side at this time will accept half a loaf, and one side or the other must rule the roost.

Shooting at West Seattle. The Seattle Rod and Gun Club will hold a practice shoot at West Seattle today. Most of the shooters will go over by the ferry at 10:30 this morning.

Flimmer-McBride Contest Off. NEW YORK, April 8.—The New Jersey Amusement Company has declared the Flimmer-McBride contest off. The fight was to have occurred on Monday night next before the Caledonia Club at Jersey City for the bantam championship of the world and a $2,500 purse and a side bet of $1,000 each. The men were to fight at 110 pounds.

SAVANNAH, April 8.—Bicyclist Summers in a half mile handicap today made the best time ever ridden in competition, 1:37 1/4.

DUBLINETS KILL STYANDERS. Two Rival Locals of Tennis Shot All but Themselves.

A GREEN GOODS MAN.

He Was Working Skagit County and Got Nabbed.

SPOKANE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Tom Eldredge, a Desperado, Takes Three Shots at Tom Cleary and Misses—Thieves in Tacoma.

MOUNT VERNON, April 8.—[Special.]—A constable from Stanwood arrived in town today in search of a pair of "green goods" man now under arrest at Stanwood. The constable reported that the prisoner at Stanwood had correspondence on his person at the time of his arrest which implicated several Mount Vernon people.

The pal, who was to have been here today, could not be found by the constable. The constable refused to give any names, but said that one or more startling arrests will be made.

FOR CLEARY'S CLOSE CALL.

He Is Shot at Three Times by Tom Eldredge, a Spokane Desperado.

SPOKANE, April 8.—[Special.]—Tom Eldredge, well known as a desperado character, shot three times at Tom Cleary, eight-weight champion pugilist of the Pacific coast, this evening at 5:30. None of the shots found their target. The shooting occurred at the corner of Main avenue and Howard streets. Bad blood, caused by a quarrel in a saloon last night, was the cause of the trouble. On that occasion Eldredge and Cleary met and exchanged animosity. Cleary struck Eldredge, who left vowing vengeance.

When the men met Cleary, who was accompanied by a railroad man, named Don McDonald, spoke in a conciliatory tone to Eldredge. The latter drew a revolver and began firing. Cleary ran at the edge of sidewalk and fell. A bullet passing over him was buried in the doorway of the saloon. A large crowd assembled and the word went out that a man had been killed. Meanwhile, Eldredge made no effort to escape, and was arrested. He was sent to the county jail. Cleary was held under $200 cash bonds to appear against him.

Eldredge is the man who killed Dago Frank over three years ago. At the same time he shot a bystander in the arm, and that limb had to be amputated. He has given the police a great deal of trouble on account of his gun plays.

INSPECTOR NOYES' DISCOVERY.

Sent Out to Investigate Smuggling and Found What He Came After.

PORTLAND, April 8.—Inspector Noyes, who was sent here by the treasury department to investigate the alleged illegal traffic in opium and Chinese certificates, has made his report to the department, and it may be made public in a few days. In an interview he said: The government intends to stop the illegal importation of Chinese and opium at Portland and on the Sound. I was sent here to investigate, and I have done what I came after. Noyes left for San Francisco tonight.

Everett Municipal Nominations.

EVERETT, April 8.—[Special.]—The candidates for the various city offices have all been selected by the various parties. The Republicans and Democrats fused on mayor, health officer, treasurer, city clerk and six councilmen, leaving the candidates for councilman-at-large, city attorney and city marshal to be voted for by both these parties, each having a nominee. The fusion ticket will be as follows: Democratic fusion ticket—Mayor, Thomas Dwyer; health officer, Dr. O. W. Barrie; treasurer, James Hamby; city clerk, C. P. Clark; Councilmen—J. J. Maney, Rep.; Sam H. Nichols, Rep.; O. S. Murdoch, Rep.; E. S. Thayer, Dem.; W. S. Gillespie, Dem.; C. A. Swinford, Dem.

Candidates for councilman-at-large—Republican ticket, W. G. Swallow; Democratic ticket, Henry Hirtz. City attorney—Republican, H. D. Cooley; Democrat, E. F. Bogart. City marshal—Republican, G. F. Fritz; Democrat, George Shea.

The Populists have completed their full ticket, and it now stands as follows: Mayor, J. C. Mitchell; treasurer, C. L. Hagard; attorney, W. W. Black; marshal, Dennis Crows; clerk, John Hetsel; health officer, J. S. Melhany; assessor, R. H. Sauts; councilmen, A. C. Anderson, J. A. Leonard, R. C. Major, James Lafrankier, T. J. Cull, T. W. Napier and W. J. Waidron.

Brief Everett News.

EVERETT, April 8.—[Special.]—A Republican club has been reorganized, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. Mills, Weed, Frank Clark, Sweeney, Murdoch, Mahan and Ensel, were appointed to prepare constitution and by-laws. Work has been commenced on the new Baptist tabernacle. It will cost $1,200, and will seat 300 people. Capt. McDonald of the American Steel Barge Works, left West Superior on Thursday for Everett.

Increased equipment for the Everett street railway, including two cars, have been ordered.

Brief Tacoma News.

TACOMA, April 8.—[Special.]—The Farmers' Terminal Elevator Company incorporated here today. The trustees are Senator McCroskey, L. F. Smith, F. A. English, John W. Bricknell and Neil Stewart. The capital is $150,000. The company will maintain and operate the wheat warehouse already arranged for. The trial of Seale, charged with murdering Police Officer Minor Cuddehe, closed this evening. The verdict will be submitted Monday. It is generally believed from the evidence that Seale will be found guilty of manslaughter.

The Provisional Secessionists.

VANOUVER, B. C., April 8.—[Special.]—Copies of the Post-Intelligencer with the secession expose have been in demand ever since. The World denounces the secession talkers as "malicious marplots," and as schemers against the credit of the province, but denies the proposed formation of the provisional government, which was planned at a meeting of the cabal at Twigg's house.

Wm. Judge Killed in Whatcom.

WHATCOM, April 8.—[Special.]—William Judge, one of the night force employed at the Bellingham Bay Improvement Company's mill, was instantly killed Monday night by a piece of slab which was thrown with great force from the slab saw, knocking him down and breaking his neck. He was a single man and came here a few weeks ago from Canada with a twin brother.

Thieves Working Tacoma.

TACOMA, April 8.—[Special.]—Several North End residences were robbed during absence of the owners for a few hours in the afternoon yesterday and today. F. P. Haskell, J. K. Bidwell and J. K. Gillespie are among those robbed of jewelry, coins and trinkets to the value of several hundred dollars.

A Schooner's Rough Trip.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—A dispatch received here from San Domingo, Lower California, states that the schooner Free Trade, supposed to be lost, had reached that port safely, but the crew were in almost a starving condition. The Free Trade left Oregon coast last February with a lumber

TROUBLES OF LABOR.

A Big Strike on the Santa Fe System Inaugurated.

ON A QUESTION OF WAGES.

From Iowa to New Mexico the Men in the Shops Quit Work—Garment Cutters in Court.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 8.—Eleven hundred machinists, boiler-makers, blacksmiths and helpers in the shops of the Santa Fe road struck this afternoon for an advance in wages and other demands. The strike has been brewing for several weeks, and the demands were the subject of numerous meetings of the grievance committees and much correspondence with the management. Finally on Thursday the ultimatum of the men was placed in writing and copies sent to General Superintendent Nickerson and Superintendent of Machinery J. Player, and the management signed the proposed schedule of wages at noon today the men went quit. No attention was paid to the notice, but the men had been led to believe until the hour they quit that the management would sign the schedule, and when they were ordered by the committee chairman not to resume work at 1 o'clock the order was unexpected, but they made no protest.

They demand an increase of 25 cents a day in wages; that inexperienced men shall not be expected to do the work of skilled mechanics, and that when expenses are to be reduced men are not to be discharged, but the hours reduced. The employees in the same lines of work have struck along the entire system, but trains were running as usual this afternoon, as the mechanics in the Santa Fe shops here today. The men employed at this point finished their day's work as usual, and if they intend to participate in a strike they are unwilling to acknowledge it until the time for quitting arrives.

Four Madison, Ia., April 8.—One hundred and twenty employees of the Santa Fe boiler, machine and electrical shops here left work at 1 o'clock today in response to a general order along the line to strike for a 10 per cent advance in the schedule of wages. The three unions are holding a meeting tonight. No excitement or trouble is anticipated at this point.

Morgan Criticizes Ricks' Decision.

NEW YORK, April 8.—A Paris cable to the World says Senator Morgan talked unreservedly to the World correspondent about the decision of Judge Ricks at Toledo, that no employe of a railroad company has a right to strike because it interferes with public business. He said: It is a singular fact that I happen to have paid special attention to this very question. When the interstate commerce bill was up in the senate I tried to have exactly such an amendment in, making it unlawful for employes to strike, but this was overruled, and now Judge Ricks attempts to make a law of his own. I do not believe his decision will stand. A special act of congress will be required to make so sweeping a decision valid.

Garment Cutters Bring Suit.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Legal papers in civil suits brought by individual garment cutters against firms connected with the Clothing Manufacturers' Association to recover $20,000 each for damages through the lockout, were served this afternoon.

Whisky Receipt Forgers Held.

LOUISVILLE, April 8.—E. A. Sutton, the warehouse receipt forger, and his bookkeeper, Beecher, were bound over this morning, the former in the sum of $30,000 and Beecher in the sum of $5,000, to answer before the grand jury.

Where She Drew the Line.

DETROIT TRIBUNE. She had just burned her arm on the oven door and her desultory remarks were yet echoing through the humble, yet comfortable cottage, when the man with the grizzled whiskers and an air of self-representation knocked at the door. When she appeared at the door he fell upon her neck. "After all these years, after all these years," he sobbed. The line in her forehead deepened, but she was silent. "Can you?" Seizing her yielding hand he directed a burning glance at the ceiling. "—forgive me for leaving you, Mary?" A sigh agitated her bosom. "Yes," she answered, "I had forgiven you for that."

A Man Who Will Succeed.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE. "Now, if you will show me where the burglars got into your store," said the detective, "I will see if I can find some clue." "In a moment," said the proprietor. "I am working at something a little more important than hunting for a clue just now. Take a seat." And while the detective waited the merchant wrote as follows at his desk: The man who broke into Katzenbender's store on the night of the 15th and carried away a silk hat, a pair of French calfskin shoes, a broadcloth overcoat, a black broadcloth suit and two suits of silk underwear was a black-hearted villain and a scoundrel, but a man whose judgment cannot be called in question. He knew where to go when he wanted the finest clothing the market affords. "Jacobs," he said to the bookkeeper, "send a copy of this to all the papers in town, and tell 'em I want it printed in big black type tomorrow morning. Now, Mr. Hawkshaw, I am at your service."

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The government of Argentina has accepted the modification in the boundary treaty proposed by Chile. Letters and telegrams from prominent men all over the country indicate a large attendance at the trans-Mississippi congress, on April 24. Montana has arranged to send a full delegation. The march arrived at Santa Barbara on April 8 after an uneventful cruise in search of the burned ship King James. It is believed the hull filled with water and sunk. The 20th anniversary of the introduction of the process into the only city of New York was celebrated with appropriate exercises at the building of the New York Cotton Exchange on April 8.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Farm Work and Growth of Vegetation Retarded by Cold.

PORTLAND, April 5.—The month of March in Washington and Oregon was cold and generally disagreeable. The temperature was deficient from 2 to 6 degrees, and the rainfall was about normal, except at Portland, where there was a deficiency of 28 per cent.

The month opened with snow on the ground in Northeastern Washington and in Eastern Oregon south and east of the Blue mountains; snow fell in these sections during the month, but at the close of the month there was no snow on the ground except about Baker City, where there was one inch; on the higher elevations and mountains quite deep snow covered the ground.

The month had seven low pressures, or storm areas, six of them passed eastward over British Columbia, the seventh passed eastward over Northern California to Denver and Omaha. The low pressures, or storm centers, were on the 1st, 7th, 10th, 23d, 27th, 29th and 31st. The one of the 10th moved south, then north along the coast, giving general rain and stormy weather to the 20th, when it moved eastward.

The mean temperature for the month was from 2 to 6 degrees below the March normal, the greatest deficiency being at Walla Walla and the least at Roseburg. The month was devoid of any low temperatures of any note, but had, however, a succession of days when the temperature would be greatly below the normal. This closes the fourth consecutive month during which the temperature has been below the normal.

The precipitation has been about the normal, except in the interior valleys of Western Oregon, where it is below the normal and where it is deficient from one to two inches. The precipitation was generally well distributed, it raining on a general number of days than usual. There was an excess of cloudy weather and a marked deficiency in sunshine. The cool, cloudy weather and frequent rains have retarded the growth of vegetation. Spring plowing and seeding have been delayed, the ground is too wet for garden making. The fruit buds are swelling, some varieties are showing colored ends of buds, but usually by the close of March the peach, apricot, almond and cherry trees are in full bloom.

Winter wheat has rooted and stooped well, there has been little winter froze; present prospects point to a most successful and prosperous year. Lambing has commenced in some localities; the stock wintered well and spring opens to the stockman most favorably, for his winter loss has been small, his stock in good condition and fair prices rule the market.

FORECAST OFFICIAL.

Mackay's Assault Arraigned.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—W. C. Rippey, who shot John W. Mackay, was arraigned for trial before Judge Seawell today. As he had no lawyer, the court appointed Attorney Lemon to act for him.

The Drift Toward Late Marriages.

A table recently prepared by an English student of statistics, showing the probability of the termination of bachelorhood between the ages of 20 and 80, exhibits very clearly the drift toward late marriages:

Table with columns: Age, Marriages per 1,000. 20 to 25: 21, 25 to 30: 34, 30 to 35: 138, 35 to 40: 147, 40 to 45: 73, 45 to 50: 42, 50 to 55: 19, 55 to 60: 5, 60 to 65: 2, 65 to 70: 1, 70 to 75: 1, 75 to 80: 1.

From these figures it is seen that only twenty-one bachelors in 1,000 marry between 20 and 25, and that most men wait until the English average, but it is still considerably greater than it was fifty years ago, and the tendency is in the English direction.

NEW TREATMENT FOR PULMONARY DISEASES. Dr. E. G. Johnson is prepared to treat Consumption with the "Improved Pneumatic Cabinet." With this mechanical device appropriate remedial agents can be carried to every portion of the lungs, making direct application to parts hitherto inaccessible. Its use also expands the lungs, increases the breathing capacity, thoroughly aerates the blood and improves nutrition. It stops the cough, allays fever, relieves pain, lessens the frequency of the pulse and respirations, and patients gain from one to three pounds in weight per fortnight. It is a strictly scientific apparatus; about whose workings there is neither guesswork nor accident. It insures to the patient greater benefits than can otherwise be obtained, and enables the physician to successfully treat patients to whom formerly he could not conscientiously promise satisfactory or permanent aid. SPRING SACKS OF VARIOUS SORTS

The coming spring and summer season in fashions for gentlemen will be known as the "Blue-Gray Season," because these colors will predominate. There will be greater variety in the style of men's dress than for many years, and the styles will be more artistic and different from those of last season.

Fancy vestings are all the go, and the double-breasted frock is now considered the dressiest of coats. The three-button cutaway is still in style, and is popular among the good dressers. We have a complete line of new goods made on "correct" principles and strictly up to New York fashions.
