

ADLAI'S STOCK FALLS.

Fort Townsend Democrats Mad at the Vice President.

ANA. P. A. REVERSE AT SPOKANE

Republicans Not Only Refuse to Indorse the Ticket, but Denounce the Order - Tacoma's School Row.

Port Townsend, April 12.-Special.-It is definitely known now that the Interstate Building and Loan Association, of Bloomington, Ill., victimized ten persons in Port Townsend, and that the vice president of the association, Adlai E. Stevenson, is a man of small means, but on account of the unpleasant publicity of the matter they decline to make their names public. In the latter part of last October Grover Cleveland was also a victim of misplaced confidence, though his friends deny the imputation and aver that he is too shrewd an adherent of Grover Cleveland to permit any institution presented over by Vice President of the United States Adlai E. Stevenson as its executive officer to film-fam him out of $50 or $20. There seems to be a sort of distinction as between Cleveland and Stevenson's adherence to the cause. The loss sustained by Postmaster McNamara is all the more embarrassing for the reason that when Stevenson was elected vice president he named around the telegraph office and expended quite a sum in writing his congratulations. The distinguished statesman remembered the little incident, and when he came out here he inquired for Mr. McNamara. Judge Kuhn's admiration dated from the time Mr. Stevenson was Postmaster General. He was a distinguished and distinguished himself in beholding Republican postmasters and earned the title of "Cleveland's headman." The anti-stilk stocking Democrats had come to look upon Stevenson as the only real, sinner pure Democrat in Washington City. Under these circumstances the time was ripe for Mr. Stevenson's cousin, W. D. Stafford, to drop around and solicit loans on realty. The young man was lionized, and had no trouble in arranging to place money loans. He told the people not to be backward, but to come for all the money they wanted, as Mr. Stevenson had the utmost confidence in Port Townsend. One gentleman timidly said he would like to borrow $5,000. Stafford insisted upon making it $7,000. Very adroitly he impressed upon the applicants the necessity of paying in small amounts generally about all that they could afford to stand to accompany the applications for loans. When it came Judge Kuhn's turn he paid in $10, and was given this receipt:

Interstate Building and Loan Association, of Bloomington, Ill. Received of J. W. Kuhn, of Port Townsend, ten ($10) dollars for the share of stock in the Interstate Building and Loan Association, of Bloomington, Ill., which amount shall be returned to subscriber at the discretion of the association.

W. D. STAFFORD, Agent.

Dated November 16, 1894.

The applicants also were required to make out abstracts, and that cost some of them as high as $50. The abstracts were sent to Mr. Ewing, a law partner of the vice president, who was also the attorney for the association, for his examination. As yet the attorney has not even returned the abstracts, although the secretary, T. J. Burn, in reply to an inquiry telegraphed that the company had no money to loan, and that no one was authorized to solicit loans. He was then asked to refund the money collected by Stafford, but he had not even deigned to notice the request.

Then it was that the local dupes became quite angry, and prevailed upon Judge Kuhn to take the matter into his hands to go after the association for redress. They were rewarded by each receiving ten shares of stock, the par value being $10 a share, signed by Mr. Stevenson as president. No request or demand was or has been made for further payment for the stock. Judge Kuhn's share is numbered 122, 123, 124, 125, and 126. He is essentially in one corner of the certificate appears the words "free stock," though the body of the instruments plainly says that shares are worth $10 each. It is stated here that Stafford visited other small cities of the Sound and succeeded in swindling many people of various sums of money. It is hard to estimate how much money was taken out of Port Townsend by this scheme, but it is said to reach well up toward $100,000.

ROW IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Principal Roberts, of Tacoma, Being Tried on Several Charges.

Tacoma, April 13.-Special.-The board of education today began its "black and blue" investigation of the charges against Principal Roberts, of the high school, recently preferred by Prof. Carruthers. The board met in committee of the whole and excluded reporters, witnesses and both the professors. Director Clifford presided, and Alfred Lester acted as secretary. Mr. Clifford conducted the examination of the twenty witnesses summoned, and Director Gallagher acted as attorney for Prof. Roberts in conducting a right cross-examination. Mr. Clifford is indebted largely to Mr. Roberts for his election last fall. It is asserted by members of the board that he insisted that the investigation be secret. The board did not finish its work, but adjourned till next week.

Miss Brown, one of the teachers in the high school, who was examined at length regarding an unpleasantness that had sprung up between herself and Principal Roberts. Her testimony, it was said, was to the effect that Mr. Roberts had in a fit of anger threatened her with a gun in some matter. It is said the lady was quite prostrated at the time, and an effort was made to show that Prof. Roberts did not treat Miss Brown with the coming courtesy. Other teachers testified as to the degree of acerbity of the principal's remarks to the teacher.

Another teacher testified that she and Prof. Roberts did not get along very well together, and that she had not received the support from him as principal of the high school that she was entitled to. In her work she also said that Prof. Roberts had once told her that if any teacher did not act in harmony with the present administration (meaning the administration of the school) that she would be hard with her. She said she promptly told Prof. Roberts that she would go on and do her duty as a teacher regardless of the impudences.

THE A. P. A. MEETS A REBUFF

Spokane Republicans Denounce the Order as Bigoted and Intolerant.

Spokane, April 12.-The city Republican convention today nominated Charles R. Hopkins, manager of the Inland Telephone Company, for mayor. George Liebke for comptroller, A. G. Ansel for treasurer. Councilmen-First ward, Geo. Voncken, Second, J. H. Clay; Third, J. A. Schiller; Fourth, W. H. Amst; Fifth, C. R. Dunning.

The only nominee of yesterday's non-partisan convention to receive an endorsement today was the candidate for the council in the First ward. The platform calls for a rigid economy in the city government. The following resolution was offered by Col. W. D. Turner, and adopted without opposition:

Resolved, That we denounce any attempt to prejudice one citizen against another on account of race, nationality or religious belief as un-American and un-Republican. We denounce it as a spirit of bigotry and intolerance unworthy of a place in the mind of any true Republican.

A Fishing Schooner Missing.

Astoria, April 12.-There is considerable uneasiness here at the continued absence of the little fishing schooner Francis, commanded by her owner, Capt. N. P. Olson, of this harbor, with a crew of three men. She left out on the 8th of last month for a cruise to the Cape Flattery halibut banks, and expected to put into Puget Sound within ten days. The wife of Capt. Olson telegraphed to several places on the Sound today and found that the schooner had not entered the straits. The Francis was a twenty-ton schooner and stood very high out of the water. Three years ago she was picked up by the steamer Augusta, and towed into port. Painted on her stern were the words, "Lotta, Port Townsend." Her name was changed to Francis during the voyage. Upon inquiry she was found to be a stranger in Port Townsend, and from some Chinese papers found in the schooner it was concluded that she was in the opium and Chinese smuggling business when captured.

EVILS OF CARDS AND DANCING.

Presbyterian Pastors to Warn the Young Against Snare.

Olympia, April 12.-Special.-The Presbytery of Olympia, adjourned Thursday night to meet next time in Tacoma. The meetings during the week have been full of interest and profit to all in attendance. The session just closed saw the introduction of several new members from the Presbyteries. Mr. P. J. Purst, of Hoquiam, and Mr. Scamner, of Ocoosa, were licensed as local evangelists to serve under the care of their own pastors until the fall meeting of the Presbytery. A resolution was passed concerning Rev. Dr. J. R. Thompson, pastor-at-large in the Presbytery. It was to attend as the faithful manner in which he has performed his labors and the good he has done during a period of over a score of years devoted to the Master's service. The following resolution was also passed:

"Resolved, That each pastor and elder be urged to seriously consider the duty of warning the young people under their care of the spiritual harm resulting from this kind of amusement, and as far as possible to aid them in refusing to have anything to do with such pastimes."

Snobomish's Need of a Cannery.

Snobomish, April 12.-Special.-The ranchers about Snobomish believe that a cannery factory would bring them large returns and the secretary of the horticultural society has sent out invitations to the ranchers interested for a meeting tomorrow to discuss the proposition and learn if a vegetable cannery can be successfully operated. The merchants of the city will aid the enterprise, and provide a location and buildings. The proposition is to secure promises from the ranchers for a certain acreage of vegetables and a certain amount of fruit. The rich hill chuk, Skoquale, Skymish and Snobomish valleys can raise enough to supply the whole Sound country with canned goods. The fruit in these valleys, back of the Sound, has a peculiar delicacy of flavor and a high degree of sweetness, owing to the sheltered and warm climate in which it grows.

Institutes For Indian Employees.

Tacoma, April 12.-During the coming summer three institutes will be held, by order of the Indian bureau at Washington, D. C., for the purpose of advancing the efficiency of the United States Indian service by bringing together the employees of the Indian agencies and commissionaries at schools. One will be held in Sioux City, Ia., one at some point in the Indian Territory, and a third at the high school in this city. The institutes will be held from July 21 to 27 inclusive, and will be especially for employees in the Indian service west of the Rocky mountains. Among those who are expected to attend are Chief, M. M. Browning, commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington City; Dr. Hallman, government superintendent of Indian schools, and the three supervisors of Indian schools.

Blank's Pistol Paying a Church Debt.

Port Townsend, April 12.-Special.-Tom Blank's wooden pistol is proving a financial success. The proceeds will be devoted toward paying off a church debt. There has been a steady stream of visitors to see the curiosity and the admission fee of 5 cents has netted a good sum.

THE NEW YORK DOCK SCANDAL.

The Reform Commissioners Undoing Tammany's Evil Work.

New York, April 12.-The dock commissioners held an open meeting today at which resolutions were adopted regarding the permission given the New Jersey Steamboat Company to use and occupy Old Pier No. 46, North River. The department proposed to displace within a short time a majority of the 22 dock laborers and 40 laborers now in its employ. The president of the dock laborers' union, which was accepted of a yearly rental of $3,000 for the dock privileges, for which $2,000 per annum has been paid to the New Jersey Steamboat Company by the City Chamberlain O'Donohue was asked today for his version of the leasing of docks, which transaction President O'Brien of the dock board said had resulted in a loss of $60,000 to the city. Mr. O'Donohue said he desired to begin by remarking that since he has been chamberlain of the city he has discovered that the city had come nearer to getting 100 cents on the dollar for its property than he had ever been able to do in business. He declared that Commissioner O'Brien was greatly mistaken in his charges, and that he had made them without a full knowledge of the facts, which were exceedingly simple. Mr. O'Donohue thought that Mr. O'Brien should have made a closer investigation of the circumstances surrounding the lease of the pier to the New Jersey Steamboat Company before he published the charges. The New Jersey Steamboat Company, of which he (O'Donohue) was a director, had leased from the city the pier at a rental of $20,000 and besides that he had leased from the Kingsland estate the adjoining bulkhead at an annual rental of $18,000. For these pieces of property the New Jersey Steamboat Company has paid his company an annual rental of $38,000. The company therefore did not receive any more for pier 46 than it paid to the city.

Fire in the Illinois Capitol.

Springfield, Ill., April 12.-Fire did $100,000 damage to the capitol building of Illinois today. The fire is believed to have been started from the stores of tinners, who were working on the roof of the building. The capitol cost $5,000,000, and was a magnificent structure for its time, and as it was thought the entire senate wing would be destroyed. The firemen soon had the fire under control, however, and most of the damage was caused by water. There was no loss of life. The fire broke out in the senate wing of the capitol and spread very rapidly. Soon the whole immense building was filled with smoke, and it was with great difficulty that the firemen found their way through the labyrinth of hallways and rooms. There was wild confusion among the women who were in the building, and many have their heads and soon had all the valuable papers in fire proof vaults. The firemen worked at a disadvantage because of a lack of water hydrants. It was thought for a time that the roof with its great dome, 365 feet high, would collapse, but the fire was extinguished and the building saved.

An Re-Convict Murdered.

San Francisco, April 12.-C. Calmon, proprietor of the White house, 520 Jackson street, shot and instantly killed Rene Lafere, a shoemaker and ex-convict, living at the Contra Costa house, 11 Jackson street, on the stairway of the lodging house at 520 Jackson street shortly before 10 o'clock last night. Calmon was arrested and admitted the crime, but he pleaded self-defense. According to Calmon's statement, Lafere had been too intimate with Mrs. Calmon. The dead man had been living at the house conducted by Calmon until two weeks ago.

He Was Completely Blind

Owing to Humor and Sores on His Face and Eyes

Hospital Treatment Failed-But Hood's Sarsaparilla Made Pure Blood and a Perfect Cure.

Alfie Mason

The case related here is by no means a rare or unusual one for Hood's Sarsaparilla to cure. Thousands of children have suffered from foul humors in the blood, and many who have been blind from this cause, have been restored to perfect health and sight by this great medicine. Such evidence as this must convince anyone that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great blood purifier. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and every other form of blood disease.

"Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 21, 1894. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. "Dear Sirs: I am thankful for the good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done our boy. At the age of two years he caught a severe cold and it settled in his eyes and his face became covered with scabs, which the doctor said was

An Attack of Eczema. We tried different physicians in Jersey City and New York City, but he got little relief. I finally took him to a hospital and his face was termed the worst case the surgeons had ever treated. He was under their care for six months and the eczema on his face was better, but it had become worse in his eyes, and

He Was Now Blind and could not see his hand before him. Every attention had to be given him as he could do nothing for himself. I had read and heard much about Hood's Sarsaparilla and made up my mind to try it in his case. After taking the first two bottles we could see a change in his eyes, the ulcers which caused the blindness being less virulent. I was advised to take him to a hospital, but I said I would continue with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and his sight was to it, he soon regained his sight and is now, at six years of age, a Fat, Strong and Healthy lad. I hope every mother will take my advice, which is to use Hood's Sarsaparilla for every form of sickness. It will save lots of money, trouble and worry. I speak from experience and I assure you I shall never cease praising Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. A. W. Mason, 150 Phillips St.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier

PAUL SCHULZE'S END.

He Thought a Man Had a Right to Kill Himself.

HE LEFT NO FAREWELL MESSAGE Unless It Was a Letter He Mailed to Marie Walwright-New Land Policy of Northern Pacific.

Tacoma, April 12.-The funeral of Paul Schulze will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, Rev. A. W. Martin, pastor of the Free church, will officiate. The pallbearers will be seven business associates, including General Manager Kendrick and Carl Spahn, of Portland. Mrs. Schulze, his divorced wife, arrived today from Portland, where she has resided since her return from Germany a year ago. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Ripley, and will attend the funeral. On Thursday night Schulze mailed a letter to Marie Walwright, the actress.

The most thorough search has failed to reveal a single note or parting message to friend or explanation of the condition of his affairs. It is evident that he contemplated suicide all day Thursday. He took his revolver, made the complete circuit of his hand all day. At night he burned these and all private papers at his home. He declared that Commissioner O'Brien was greatly mistaken in his charges, and that he had made them without a full knowledge of the facts, which were exceedingly simple. Mr. O'Donohue thought that Mr. O'Brien should have made a closer investigation of the circumstances surrounding the lease of the pier to the New Jersey Steamboat Company before he published the charges. The New Jersey Steamboat Company, of which he (O'Donohue) was a director, had leased from the city the pier at a rental of $20,000 and besides that he had leased from the Kingsland estate the adjoining bulkhead at an annual rental of $18,000. For these pieces of property the New Jersey Steamboat Company has paid his company an annual rental of $38,000. The company therefore did not receive any more for pier 46 than it paid to the city.
